

LOCAL LORE.

Eat Sowles' candy.
Stewart Stone spent Sunday in St. Joseph.
Mr. Hansen of Stella spent Sunday in our city.

Dr. Burchard made a professional trip to Stella Monday.

Wilma Meyers paid a short visit to friends in Hiawatha the first of the week.

Ralph VanCleve of Crete, Nebr., was the guest of friends in this city Sunday.

Don't go where the signs lead you this morning. You are liable to get into trouble.

The young people enjoyed a very pleasant social dance at Wahl's hall Wednesday evening.

Remember the Tribune will cost you $1.50 a year after January 1st. Now is the time to subscribe.

The dinners served at the National on Sunday from 12:30 till 2:15 are unsurpassed in quality and service.

Mrs. Will Green left Wednesday for her home in Dodge City, Kans., after a visit in this city with Miss Nell Snyder.

Mr. Neydler of Sioux City, Iowa, spent a few days of the past week in this city the guest of his sister, Mrs. Dr. Kerr.

Miss Ethelyn Glasser, who had been the guest of Mrs. John Gilligan for the past week, returned Saturday to her home in Humboldt.

Mrs. Parker of Omaha, sister of Mrs. Dr. Moran was in the city this week. She came to attend the funeral of W. J. Moran on Tuesday.

Mrs. Sue Julian left Tuesday for her home in Long Beach, Cali., after an extended visit with her parents and many friends in this city.

J. L. Starks was the guest of J. R. Wilhite and family yesterday. He was on his way to his home in Kansas City, after a western business trip.

A most timely and beneficial rain fell here Tuesday, putting the pasture in excellent condition. Things were getting pretty dry but we never get discouraged here in God's country.

Mrs. Ben Morgan was called to Lincoln, Sunday, by the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Robert Wills, who is in a critical condition at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Shugart.

Let every republican do his duty next Tuesday and get out and vote. Don't be fooled with the idea that "one vote doesn't amount to much." Perhaps that one vote will elect your man.

Geo. A. Abbott went to Omaha last Thursday returning Monday with his wife who has been visiting her children there for the past two months. Mrs. Abbott has been quite ill for some time, but is now much better.

The Omaha packing houses have reduced the prices of all kinds of meats 10 per cent, and expect a still further reduction. Hope it will soon have effect on prices here, so we can afford just one more real juicy steak.

Mrs. A. F. Hollebaugh and daughter, Mary, passed through this city Tuesday enroute from Monnd City, Mo., to their home in Alcova, Wyo. Mrs. Hollebaugh has been quite sick for some time, having undergone a serious operation in Sioux City, Ia., hospital, but her many friends here will be pleased to know that she is now improving.

Next Tuesday evening there will be a regular meeting of the Royal Highlanders, and it is earnestly requested that there be a large attendance as much business is to come before the meeting. Don't let the election keep you away as the returns will be received at the lodge room. The usual social time will be had after the lodge work. Every body be there.

Don't Worry
SMILE
and eat our candy
and you will be happy.
SOWLES

Now is the time to subscribe.

Mrs. A. Nettlebeck went to Shubert Saturday to visit for a short time with her son Will.

Mrs. Jas. Moss left Saturday to visit for a short time with relatives in Forest City, Mo.

Mr. Mosiman, the genial clerk for Chas. M. Wilson, is taking a much needed rest from his store duties.

Mrs. A. E. Hill returned last Thursday from a visit with old friends in Nemaha City and Brownville.

Ralph Jenne came down from Lincoln, Friday and remained over Sunday to attend the funeral of Mr. Bull.

Mrs. Frank Norris came down from Wymore last Friday and spent a few days in this city with friends and relatives.

Charley Lamb, who has been visiting in Johnstown, South Carolina, for the past few weeks will return soon, and rumor has it that he will bring a little Lamb with him.

It's not always to a man's credit when he says he never worries. Ten to one if he worries a little more, there are others who perhaps would not have to worry quite so much as they do.

The Club Ladies of Falls City wish to thank the public for the interest shown in the Eames recital. The proceeds over and above expenses were twenty five dollars which will be applied on a future entertainment fund or some benevolent purpose.

Emmet Satterwhite and wife returned last week from a two weeks stay in Oklahoma where they had been visiting a brother of the former who is seriously ill with asthma and consumption, and whom Mr. Satterwhite had not seen for twenty one years.

News arrived in this city the last of the week of a baby girl which was born to Mr. and Mrs. Guy Spencer, of Omaha, on last Thursday. Mother and baby are doing nicely, but we are afraid Guy will be unable to come up to his usual standard as cartoonist on the World Herald for some time.

M. L. Durfee and wife, former residents of this county, left Monday night for their home in Herrick, S. D., after a few weeks pleasant visit with their many friends in this vicinity. Mr. Durfee called before leaving town and arranged for a weekly visit of the Tribune to their home for the next two years.

We are pleased to note the promptness with which the editor of the Hiawatha World complied with the Tribune's request for that valuable paper in our city library. It, together with Herbert's Magazine, were sent to our librarian last week and hereafter will be found on the tables of the library regularly, where all can keep themselves posted on the weekly doings of our sister city. Thanks.

Miss Mabel Whitaker, who has been teaching in the government school at Kickapoo, Kas., came up Thursday and remained over Sunday with her father in this city. She left Monday for White Cloud, Kas., where she will visit with a sister a few days. Miss Mable has been transferred from Kickapoo to a like position in New Mexico, and will leave the last of the week for her new field. The change is made for the benefit of her health, and she will also receive a material increase in salary.

J. R. Wilhite was a business visitor to Stella, Monday.

Fritz Himberg of Denver, visited with friends in this city this week.

Grace Hoppe and Verna Story were in Stella a portion of last of last week.

George Slocum of Stella was in town Monday, looking after his brother Jim.

Mrs. Allen May and little son, of Auburn, visited relatives in this city this week.

Guy Crook, a student at the State University, spent Sunday with home folks in this city.

Mrs. Ed Nesley of Kansas City is in the city visiting at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Reed.

Josephine Gehling left yesterday for Leeds, S. D., to resume her duties as teacher in the public schools.

Will Hoppe of Stella advised his folks in this city that a little girl arrived at his home on Monday morning.

Ray Stewart of Independence, Kan., spent a few days of the past week in this city the guest of Miss Grace Hoppe.

The many anxious friends of Miss Leah Poteet will be pleased to learn that she is rapidly recovering from her serious illness.

Mrs. Dr. Tucker, a former resident of this city, but now of Sedalia, Mo., was the guest of J. L. Slocum and family this week.

Everything that you forgot to nail last night was carried away this morning. Of course this isn't stealing when it happens on Hallowe'en.

If the Tribune isn't up to its usual standard this week just blame it to Wilson Shock who insists upon filling our manager up on buttermilk.

It is an awful shame to have so many miles of nice concrete walks in our city, when the boys could have so much fun with the old board ones on Hallowe'en.

J. R. Jones, who now lives on the Uhlig farm, has rented the fine home of Henry Meyers one mile north of town, and will take possession the first of the year.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Christian church were entertained at the home of Mrs. Ben Nicholson last evening, the affair being a very enjoyable Hallowe'en party.

Gertrude Hays and Olive Harris of Stella, were among the out of town people who attended the Eames recital Friday evening. They were the guests of Miss Sallie Schoenheit.

Misses Martha Stockman, Beulah Greenwald, Edna Spencer, Lillian Oswald and Elta Boose, spent a very pleasant day Monday in the woods, taking kodak pictures of the beautiful scenes now to be found there.

Mrs. W. H. Hay and daughter, Miss Minnie, of Auburn, came down to attend the Eames recital Friday evening. They remained here a few days the guest of the Keim family, north of town.

Miss Agnes Moran, who is teaching school at Sheldon, Neb., and Miss Mollie Moran of Kansas City, were called to the city the first of the week by the death of their brother W. J. Moran.

Bruno Hansen and wife came up from Kansas City last Friday. Mr. Hansen remained in the city until Monday, when he resumed his duties on the road, while his wife will remain in the city for some time at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Kerr.

Ray and Wilma Meyers left yesterday for their new home in Los Angeles. Mrs. Meyers will follow in a couple of weeks. Mrs. M. informs us that she does not say she is going to stay, but will try it for a year, then if she is not satisfied will return to old Falls City.

SPECIAL SALE
SATURDAY ONLY
Toasted
Marshmallows
15c per lb.
Hot Drinks 5c each
Tomato Bouillon
Caml Bouillon
Hot Coffee
Hot Chocolate
Beef Tea
P. G. Bacakos.

Mrs. Ed May of Salem was in the city Wednesday.

As master of ceremonies Peter Kaiser is hard to beat.

W. D. Easley of Kansas City, was in the city Wednesday.

Special sale of trimmed hats. Mrs. H. C. Raker's Millinery Store.

Otto Poor and Chas. Huffman of Humboldt were in the city Wednesday.

C. D. Nixon came down from Auburn, Tuesday and remained in the city a few days.

Mrs. H. C. Raker has some good things to offer in trimmed hats. See her ad in this issue.

Subscribe now while you can get this family paper for $1 a year. It will cost you $1.50 after January 1st, 1908.

Don't fail to take advantage of the bargains offered at the Corner Millinery Store, beginning November 2nd.—Patzman Sisters.

Mrs. B. E. Dilts returned Thursday from a six weeks visit with relatives at Canton, Ill. She reports a fine time but glad to get home.

John Germaine and wife and Curtis and Perry Germaine of Humboldt, were in the city Wednesday transacting business at the court house.

The city was in holiday attire Wednesday in honor of the German day celebration. The business men did themselves proud the way of decorations.

Considering the weather there was a big crowd in town Wednesday for German Day. If Peter Kaiser had only fixed things with the weather clerk what a time they would have had.

The chautauqua association at Tecumseh has been reorganized, and talent will be secured at once for their next year's program. Rev. Lincoln McConnell will be the platform manager.

Miss Mamie Eustis of Auburn, returned to her home Monday after a few days visit in this city the guest of Miss Helen Martin. Miss Eustis was one of the out of town guests at the Eames recital.

Rev. Neide of the Episcopal church will leave the first of the week for Columbus where he has been asked to deliver an address at the annual convocation of the diocese of Nebraska, on Wednesday evening.

H. C. Smith, this week closed the sale of the Rodewald property of about eight acres, directly west of town to Mr. and Mrs. Cornford of Sherman Co., who with their family will move here in the near future and take possession of their new home. We welcome this estimable family to our midst.

Miss Snidow had a Japanese Day, Friday, Oct. 25, in her room at the Central School. The children had carefully decorated the room with Japanese lanterns of their own make. After recess they discussed Japan in its manners and customs and peoples. When school had been dismissed, five little girls served a two course luncheon, including hot tea, to all the teachers at Central.

Chas. Slagle of Shubert, was a pleasant visitor Saturday.

Mrs. T. L. Hummelreich went to Lincoln Saturday to visit a few days with her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cain, jr., of Stella spent Sunday in this city at the home of their parents.

Harry Williams of Corning, Mo., was a business visitor to our city the latter part of last week.

J. L. Dalby came down from Shubert Saturday, just to see what a real live town looks like.

Our list is growing every day. Now is the time to subscribe if you wish to take advantage of the dollar rate.

Louis Trefzer came in from Route 3, Saturday, and put himself several years to the good on our subscription list.

"Jack, the Hugger" has again put in an appearance in St. Joe, and now the male portion of that city are all up in arms.

Blanche Bourquin of Horton, Kas., spent a few days the past week in this city the guest of her cousin Miss Alice Jaquet.

The Patzman Sisters announce a 20 per cent discount on all trimmed hats for the next two weeks beginning Saturday, November 2nd.

About twenty members of the local order of I. O. O. F. visited the lodge in Shubert Thursday night. They were entertained royally by their brothers and report a good time.

J. R. Wilhite spent a day or two of this week in Stella with his old time friend, Jesse Hays, who has been quite ill but is now improving under the care of Dr. Burchard of this city.

H. Sandrock of Salem was in town Saturday. He called and renewed his subscription to this family necessity. He also orders the Tribune sent to his son at Enterprise, Kas.

Charley Scott and wife and Jess Scott of Mound City, Mo., spent Sunday in this city with their brother, Everett Scott. They came via the auto route, making the trip in little more than an hour.

Bob Rule came home Friday, after a months recreation in the vicinity of Gordon, Neb. He was the guest of Jim Powell, so of course he had a fine time. Bob is much benefitted by the trip, and really gained a little avordupois.

The finest Coffee Substitute ever made, has recently been produced by Dr. Shoop of Racine, Wis. You don't have to boil it twenty or thirty minutes. "Made in a minute" says the doctor. "Health Coffee" is really the closest coffee imitation ever yet produced. Not a grain of real coffee in it either. Health Coffee Imitation is made from pure toasted cereals or grains, with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert—were he to unknowingly drink it for coffee. Fred E. Schmitt.

Florence Beauchamp was on the sick list a few days this week.

"How the Lord Opened a Heart, or the First Convert in all Europe," at the Christian church next Sunday evening at 7:30. Come Good Oak barrels, while they last, 50 to 75 cents each.

PERLESS STOCK P.D.R. FACTORY. Near B. & M. Depot, Falls City. 196 2-t.

WANTED—Local representative for city and vicinity to look after renewals and increase subscription list of a prominent monthly magazine, on a salary and commission basis. Experience desirable, but not necessary. Good opportunity for right person. Address Publisher, Box 59, Station O, New York. 198-2-t.

All Saints Day. All Saint's Day will be observed in the Episcopal church in this city this morning at 11:45. There will be morning service with a sermon and the Holy Communion will be administered. All are invited.

Card of Thanks. We wish to tender our thanks to friends and neighbors who were so kind during the illness and at the death of our dear old friend Wm. Bull. W. W. JENNE AND FAMILY.

Lots & Acres. "In a few days a choice tract of land, most desirably located, will be offered for sale in lots, blocks, and acres. Anyone wishing to purchase a choice location please call. Only a few blocks from business. HENRY C. SMITH, Falls City, Nebraska. 196 2-t.

When the Stomach, Heart, or Kidney nerves get weak, then these organs always fail. Don't drug the Stomach, nor stimulate the Heart or Kidneys. This is simply a makeshift. Get a prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The Restorative is prepared expressly for these weak inside nerves. Strengthen these nerves, build them up with Dr. Shoop's Restorative—tablets or liquid—and see how quickly help will come. Free sample test sent on request by Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Your health is surely worth this simple test. Sold by all dealers.

MILLINERY

The first opportunity of the season to buy hats cheap. Elegant trimmed hats at the following prices:

$4.50 $5, and $6 hats at $3 $4, $3.50 and $3 hats at $2 $2.75, $2.50, $2 hats at $1

Our stock is complete and early buyers will get a choice selection.

MRS. H. C. RAKER

Now is your Chance

TO GET AN
Edison Phonograph

Like this cut.

We have just received our Christmas stock of Machines. It is impossible to get these on time unless you are early. When our stock is gone we cannot count for sure on getting more.

We sell them on easy payments. $1.00 down will get one and yet our price is the same as everywhere.

EVERY RECORD IN STOCK

We ask you to call early and secure this greatest of instructors and entertainers.

REAVIS & ABBEY