

EVERYBODY!

Has tried our Taffy. It tastes as good as it looks.

SOWLES

LOCAL LORE.

Eat Sowles' candy.
Now is the time to subscribe.
Ed May and wife were down from Salem Friday.
Fred Sebold made a business trip to Stella Monday.
C. F. Reavis went to Omaha Saturday on a short business trip.
Helen Davies is in Lincoln spending Thanksgiving with her brother.
Wesley Crook was a business visitor to Red Oak, Iowa, last Saturday.
L. Beasley is among the many who renewed his subscription since our last issue.
Miss Hart, a teacher in the High school, is spending Thanksgiving in Kansas City.
Mrs. Dr. Miner and children went to Lincoln, Monday, to remain over Thanksgiving.
Ruth Heacock who is attending the state university, came home to spend Thanksgiving.
All persons knowing themselves indebted to W. H. Crook & Co. will please call and settle.
Miss Field one of our popular school teachers, is visiting friends in Lincoln for a few days.
George Fisher is at home after several months spent in the employ of Simon Davies at Chester, Neb.
Katherine Meliza one of our High school students, went to Verdon Wednesday, to eat turkey with home folks.
Mildred Holland, a State university student, came down Wednesday to visit with home folks for a few days.
Mr. and Mrs. Quiet and Mr. and Mrs. George Wahl went to Kansas City, Tuesday, to spend a few days with relatives.
R. D. Waggoner and C. J. Thomas of Rulo helped us return thanks this week by remembering us in a substantial way on subscription.
Mrs. Irvin Shirley of Humboldt came down the first of the week and remained over Thanksgiving the guest of Dr. and Mrs. M. L. Wilson.
John Ward and wife of Tecumseh, came down the last of the week to visit a short time with Mrs. Ward's parents, F. W. Miller and wife.
W. H. Nedrow and wife of Verdon, were in the city Saturday for a short visit with the old folks. They made the Tribune a pleasant call while in the city.
W. E. Allison, representative of the St. Joseph Gazette, was in the city Monday working in the interest of Miss Vern Story who is one of the contestants in the Gazette contest now going on.
Rev. Neide is preparing a series of special sermons to be delivered Sunday evenings at the Episcopal church during the four Sundays of Advent, beginning on next Sunday evening. All are invited and we feel sure these sermons will be a treat to those who attend. See his announcement in other column.
Mr. H. Koehler returned Sunday from a four weeks stay in Alabama, where he has extensive land interests. Mr. Koehler has made up his mind to locate in the south and is preparing to remove his family there in the near future. This family have lived in this vicinity for a number of years and have many friends who hate to see them leave but wish them success in their new home.

How does this strike you for Thanksgiving weather.
Bargain day, Saturday, Nov. 30, at the Candy Kitchen. Call and see what you can get for 15c.
Chas. Leister, who has been suffering for some time with rheumatism, is again able to be about.
Dorothy White came down from Lincoln on Wednesday to remain over Thanksgiving with her parents.
Dora Glines, who has been employed as trimmer during the past season has arrived home for the winter.
Saturday, Nov. 30, you can get chocolate creams or butter scotch for 15 cents per pound at the Candy Kitchen.
Mrs. Margaret Maddox left Friday for Hastings to spend a couple of weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Dietsch.
Mike Sweeney of Sioux City, arrived in the city Saturday, and will visit for a few days at the home of W. H. Keeling.
Simon Davies arrived home Saturday from Chester, having completed the school house he was building at that place.
Henry Stein, a former employe of the Tribune, but now of Nebraska City, was looking after his attractions in this city Sunday.
Miss Patnaude, one of our popular milliners, left Sunday for Chicago, where she will spend the winter in a wholesale house.
Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Ranger and son Frank of Salem ate Thanksgiving dinner with Everett Scott and wife in this city.
Miss Elizabeth Sanford is again at home after a season spent in trimming. She will remain with us during the coming winter.
Save your money. Go to the Candy Kitchen Saturday, Nov. 30, and get a pound of chocolate creams or a pound of butter scotch for 15 cents.
Walter Ransom, who has been in Kansas City for the past few months, arrived in the city the last of the week and will remain at home during the winter.
R. E. Grinstead of Salem came in Monday morning and gave us enough cash on subscription to enable us to buy the trimmings for our Thanksgiving dinner.
Mrs. Ernest Vincent returned to her home in Council Bluffs, Saturday, after a very pleasant two weeks visit in this city with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sears.
E. F. Houtz and daughter of Verdon were in the city Monday. They left over the Burlington for Maniton, Colo., where they go for the benefit of the daughter's health.
On Sunday evening, December 1st, Mrs. Rose Bush Wilkinson, will occupy the pulpit at the Christian Church at the regular preaching hour in the interest of the C. W. B. M. Hear her.
P. S. Heacock last week installed a new 20-horse power Fairbanks & Morse gasoline engine in his elevator at Shubert. This makes the elevator at that place one of the most complete of the many concerns of that nature owned by this gentleman.
Joe Steele, who has been seriously ill for some time is now much improved, which will be welcome news to his many friends Joe has had a hard tussle, and for a time but little hope was entertained for his recovery, but at present it is thought he will soon be able to sit up.
Miss Vern Story of this city has been nominated by her friends as one of the St. Joe Gazette contestants, and is now working hard to win the capital prize of $500. Miss Story is a deserving young lady and her many friends in this vicinity sincerely hope she will prove the lucky one.

And now comes Christmas.
Tom Whitaker returned the first of the week from his southern trip.
Dr. Reneker called Saturday and gave us the price of a good turkey. Thanks.
Norman Burnworth writes from Abeline, Kas., to have his subscription renewed.
Carrie E. Boyd of Rulo is among our faithful ones to remember us this week.
Did you make anyone happy today? If not your Thanksgiving was not complete.
Mr. D. W. Reid came in from Iowa, Wednesday, to spend Thanksgiving at home.
Mrs. Ted Colhapp came down from Humboldt and spent Saturday with Mrs. Dr. Wilson.
Mrs. Dr. Moran left Tuesday for a few days visit with Miss Molle Moran in Kansas City.
All accounts now due W. H. Crook & Co. must be settled at once either by cash or bankable notes.
Mrs. Paton and daughters of University Place, are guests at the home of Dr. McMillan this week.
Ed Barris, who is now located in Peru, was visiting his many friends in this city a portion of the week.
Reba Eversole, a student at the Peru Normal, is the guest of Miss Anna Mason in this city this week.
John Hossack and wife and Grandma Sinclair spent Thanksgiving at Verdon with Mr. and Mrs. Will Sloan.
Misses May and Kate Maddox came down from University Place the last of the week to eat turkey with home folks.
Dorothy Morehead, who is attending school at University Place, came home last Friday to spend her Thanksgiving vacation.
The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. Dr. Allison, at Evergreen Heights Wednesday, Oct. 4th. All members are urged to be present.
Our merchants are beginning to display their Christmas goods and now they will tell you all about their stocks through the columns of the Tribune.
Thos. G. Bowker of Rulo, sent us a five dollar bill this week, to be applied on his subscription. This shows how he appreciates a good paper.
Charlie Heineiman is making some substantial improvements on the Keim property on north Stone street, and when completed will add greatly to its appearance.
Mrs. James Pickett went to Tecumseh the first of the week to visit for a few days with her sister. She will also visit her parents in Sterling before her return.
Robt. N. Huston of Salem was a business visitor in the city Tuesday. While here he made us a very pleasant visit and contributed materially to our exchequer.
Bargains in good smooth wheat lands in Western Kansas, where there is an inexhaustible supply of water. Do not fail to write D. F. Carter, Leoti, Kansas, for particulars. 00-2t
Miss Katherine Seibel, teacher in district No. 74, better known as the Pleasant View school, will give a box social in that school house on Friday evening, December 6th. A fine program is being prepared and it is hoped a good crowd will be in attendance.
Mrs. James Sinclair of Streatorville, Kas., is in the city visiting her daughter, Mrs. John Hossack. Mrs. Sinclair, although past 80 years of age, made this trip alone, in fact one can hardly realize she has reached this advanced age as she is as spry as the average person at 50.

Have you tried the brick Ice Cream at the Candy Kitchen.
This is the season when Tom and Jerry have their "innings."
Mr. Bahr of Lincoln, spent Sunday with his parents west of this city.
Hear "Burning of the Books" at the First Methodist church Sunday evening.
Rev. A. W. Shamel spent Saturday in this city the guest of Rev. C. A. Mastin.
Ed Hays came down from Dawson Tuesday evening for a short visit with friends.
Mrs. R. A. Munson of Oneida, Kas., is visiting in this city with her daughter, Mrs. Elliott.
J. F. Brown of Stella, Neb., a prominent farmer was at the today with a carload of hogs.
Miss Nellie Downs has been confined to her home several days this week a victim of the grip.
School was dismissed Wednesday afternoon and the pupils given a vacation the balance of the week.
Quite a number of our foot ball enthusiasts went to St. Joe to witness the annual Kansas-Missouri game.
Mrs. George F. Marburger of Humboldt is spending the week in this city with her sister Mrs. George Schmelzel.
Mrs. D. L. McCoy and little son of Hiawatha, came over to eat Thanksgiving dinner with J. R. Cain and family.
The street commissioner with his force of men and drags has been doing some good work on our streets this week.
Mrs. Elliott, who has been in Rulo nursing Mrs. Dennis for some time, returned to her home in this city Tuesday.
Ray R. Mastin, a student of Wesleyan University, Lincoln, came down Wednesday to visit with his parents, Rev. Mastin and wife.
Everybody turn out this afternoon [Thursday] and see the basket ball game. Encourage our High school students by your presence.
Miss Nelle Cain returned home Tuesday after several months spent in various portions of California. She reports a very pleasant trip but was glad to get back in time to eat turkey with home folks.
The Tribune is published a little early this week in order that the force might have plenty of time to eat turkey, so if the paper is not up to the usual standard you will know the cause, and we promise to do better next week.
During the past month Supt. E. L. Tobie spent three days visiting schools at Omaha and Council Bluffs, and two days at Lincoln attending the Superintendents' and Principals' association.—The Orange and the Black.
Max Werner left Monday for King City, Mo., where he will join the "Old Kentucky Home" Co., playing clarinet in band and traps in the orchestra. Max is a musician of more than ordinary ability and is sure to make good wherever he goes. We wish him success in his new field.
Mr. I. O'Gorman of Grand Island, called at our office this week and informed us that he was here to take charge and open up the former F. E. Schmidt store in this city. We find Mr. O'Gorman a genial, wide awake business man, who, we are confident will make friends, not only with the trade of this vicinity, but with the business men of the city. He and L. P. Mathews of Giltner, are the new proprietors and they are known in the center west as the Price Killers. They assure us that they have come to stay and that inside of 30 days the people of Falls City and vicinity will say that they well deserve the name.

We were looking for Tom Turkey this week, but he never lit in our neighborhood.
Blanche and Etta Kapp went to Lincoln, Sunday for a short visit with relatives.
The ladies of the Presbyterian church realized $37.45 at their apron and food sale Wednesday afternoon.
Stanley Wicks the genial clerk at the Windsor hotel in Lincoln was visiting old friends in this city this week.
Bert Baker and Miss Carrie Slocum were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray De Putrin in Lincoln, Thanksgiving.
Mrs. Harry Custer spent this week with relatives in Tecumseh. Harry managed to be there in time to eat Thanksgiving dinner.
Ed Hammond, wife and little son of near Stella, were guests at the home of Albert Norris and wife in this city a few days this week.
Steve Miles and wife went to St. Joe to witness the Thanksgiving foot ball game. From there they go to Kansas City for a few days.
For bargains in farms or city property call on J. D. Spragins & Co. We have a good list to select from. City property to rent. 01
Smooth unimproved wheat lands in Wichita and Greeley Counties, Kansas. Prices ranging from $5 to $12.50 per acre. Address D. F. Carter, Leoti, Kas. 0-2t
Special programs in keeping with the Thanksgiving season were rendered by the pupils of the different grades of our public schools on Wednesday afternoon.
A tickling cough, from any cause, is quickly stopped by Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless and safe, that Dr. Shoop tells mothers everywhere to give it without hesitation even to very young babes. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung-healing mountainous shrub, furnish the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It cures the cough, and heals the sore and sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Simply a resinous plant extract, that helps to heal aching lungs. The Spaniards call this shrub which the Doctor uses, "The Sacred Herb." Demand Dr. Shoop's. Take no other. Sold by all dealers.
Legal Notice
IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF RICHARDSON COUNTY, STATE OF NEBRASKA.
Joseph W. Ozias, Plaintiff,
vs.
Julia C. Ozias, Defendant.
The defendant, Julia C. Ozias, will take notice that the plaintiff, Joseph W. Ozias, did, on the 27th day of November, 1907, file his petition in said court against you, the object and prayer of which is to obtain a decree of divorce from the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between you and said plaintiff, on the grounds of desertion and cruel treatment, and of general and constant neglect of your matrimonial duties towards said plaintiff.
And you are further notified that unless you plead, answer or demur to said petition on or before January 13, 1908, the same will be taken as true and a decree rendered in accordance with the prayer thereof.
01-2t REAVIS & REAVIS, Attorneys for Plaintiff.

Legal Notice
IN THE DISTRICT COURT FOR RICHARDSON COUNTY, NEBRASKA:
Barton I. Rowley, Grace G. Rowley, and Myrtle A. Rowley, Plaintiffs,
vs.
The Unknown Heirs of Anna Heard, Deceased, The Farmers State Bank, Shubert, Nebraska, John Evans and Wilson, Defendants.
To the Unknown Heirs of Anna Heard, Deceased: You will take notice that on the 27th day of November, 1907, the above named plaintiffs filed a petition in the District Court against you, The Farmers State Bank of Shubert, Nebraska, John Evans and Wilson, the object and prayer of which is to cause payment of a note of $110 by Wilson, Elsie to them instead of to the payee named in said note, to-wit, Anna Heard, said note having been given as part payment for the root of a certain tract of land, to-wit: The north half of the Northeast quarter of Section 17, Township 3, Range 16, in Richardson County, Nebraska, upon which the said Anna Heard held a life estate, which life estate ceased with her death on the 31 day of August, 1907. The rent for which said note was given by the said Elsie was for the current year, to-wit, 1907.
You are further notified that a restraining order was allowed by the judge of the district court, restraining said Farmers State Bank of Shubert and said John Evans from disposing of said note or parting with the possession thereof except to deliver it to the clerk of the district court until further orders, and also restraining the said Wilson, Elsie from paying said note to the said defendant bank or to the said John Evans or to anybody else, and asking for a money judgment against the said Elsie for the amount of said note in default of his paying the amount into court as prayed in plaintiff's petition.
And you are further notified that unless you plead, answer or demur to said petition on or before the 13th day of January, 1908, said petition will be taken as true and a decree entered in accordance with the prayer thereof.
01. REAVIS & REAVIS, Attorneys for Plaintiffs.

TABLEWARE

FOR THE

Holidays

The Holidays are close at hand and there are always a few things needed to complete the table.

We have a large line of flat ware and hollow ware of the highest grade. Below are a few quotations:

- Cream Ladles $1 up.
- Gravy Ladles $1.25 up
- Meat Forks $1 up.
- Soup Ladles $3 up.
- Butter Knife and Sugar Shell $1 up.
- Vegetable Drainer $1 up.
- Jelly Spoons $1 up.
- Bread Plates $2 up.
- Ferneries $4 up.
- Knives and Forks $4.50 up.
- Fruit Knives $2.50 up.
- Nut Cracker and Pick 40c.

Come and see our line of goods, their beauty of design and superior quality, speak for themselves.

A. E. Jaquet

The Old, Reliable

JEWELER

Pay Up.
W. H. Crook & Co. desire all persons owing them to call at once and settle their accounts, either by cash or bankable notes.

For Sale
All of block 98 and 5 lots adjoining in block 95, Falls City, located one block east of Central school building. First class improvements, also plenty of fruit. Will sell at a sacrifice or will trade for western land. Address WM. CADE, 01-1 Falls City, Neb.

Mrs. Stephen Pryor went to Nebraska City, Sunday to spend a few days with relatives.

Legal Notice.
IN THE DISTRICT COURT FOR RICHARDSON COUNTY, STATE OF NEBRASKA.
It is the matter of the estate of Cornelius Rogan, deceased.
ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY LICENSE TO SELL REAL ESTATE SHALL NOT BE GRANTED.
To all persons interested in the estate of Cornelius Rogan, deceased:
It having been made to appear to me by petition of the executor of the estate of Cornelius Rogan, deceased, that there is not sufficient personal estate in his hands to pay the debts outstanding against the deceased and the expenses of administration and that it is necessary to sell the whole or some portion of the real estate belonging to said estate for the payment of such debts:
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN to all persons interested in said estate to appear before me at my chambers in Pawnee City, in Pawnee County, Nebraska, the same being within the First Judicial District of the said state, on January 11, 1908, at 1:00 p. m. of said day, and show cause, if any you have, why a license shall not be granted to said executor to sell the following described property, or so much thereof as in the judgment of the court is necessary to be sold for the purposes aforesaid, to-wit:
Lots 7, 8, and 9 and 10 feet extra of block 227, in Falls City, Neb. All that part of the west half of the east half of southeast quarter, of section fifteen (15) town one (1), range sixteen (16), 5th P. M. that lies north of A. & N. R. E. or B. & M. R. E. depot grounds at or near Falls City, Nebraska, bounded as follows, to-wit: On the south by the said A. & N. R. E. depot grounds and bounded on the north by Falls City, Nebraska, and bounded on the east by the public road, that extends from the south end of Wilson street in said Falls City, to said depot grounds and on the west by a public road, that runs in front of the cannery factory and extends from the south end of Morton street in said Falls City, Neb., to said depot grounds and containing 2.78 acres more or less, less 100 feet x 120 feet, sold to A. B. Goolsby, and 50x120 feet to Ed McChiever out of S. E. corner of described tract.
Of this you will take due notice and govern yourselves accordingly. It is further ordered that this notice be published in the Falls City Tribune, a newspaper published in Richardson County and of general circulation therein, for the period of six weeks, commencing on the 29th day of November, 1907.
JOHN B. HAYER, Judge.
REAVIS & REAVIS, Attorneys for Executor. 01-7t