Vol. IV

FALLS CITY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 6, 1907.

Whole No 202

"Lest We Forget."

This "editorial suggestion" from the east is worthy of reproduction:

It will help toward a restoration of confidence if the people will remember that wealth is not a production of engravers and printers, and that it is not produced in Wall street. While counting up the losses in the market values of securities, it is well to remember that the value of farm products in the last seven years has increased some five billions of dollars, or enough to counterbalance the paper losses of a good many miniature panics.

We were going ahead so fast that we had used up, for the time being, nearly all of the available capital. And then we were frightened, and forgot the enormous powers of growth possessed by a country of ninety million people with fabulous natural resources at their command—a country with seven times as much coal as all Europe; a country that raises seven billion dollars' worth of farm products each year; a country whose annual factory output is eighteen billions a year.

We Lose Plug Trains.

We learn from reliable source that Falls City is to lose the plug trains, the same to be taken from this place next Sunday. The hostler received notice yesterday that all crews are to leave this city on the 8th. These trains have been a great convenience to our traveling public and their removal is to be regretted.

Dutch Market a Success.

The Dutch market and bazaar conducted by the ladies of the Episcopal church Wednesday afternoon and evening in the Maddox building was a grand success both from a social and financial standpoint, the ladies realizing about $60 from the evening's entertainment.

A Hard Bump.

Wednesday morning a stranger who had been indulging a little too freely in liquid refreshments, received a bump which he is apt to remember for some time. Just in front of Shield's cafe he fell, striking his head with such force as to render him unconscious for some time. After recovering sufficiently he was put on the train and sent to his home in Kansas City.

Our Advertisers.

The advertising spirit of our merchants is very much in evidence this week, as you will see by a glance at the Tribune. They realize that our people are waiting for an invitation for their patronage and that the columns of the newspaper is the medium through which it is given. Read all the ads in the Tribune this week and you will get a good idea of the many bargains awaiting you at our different business houses. There is no need of going to the cities for your Christmas shopping with such an array of good things offered you at home. Following is a list of the merchants who extend an invitation for your patronage:

- The Price Killers.
- V. G. Lyford.
- Samuel Wahl.
- Geo. S. Cleveland.
- Hargrave & Hargrave.
- Davies & Owens.
- A. E. Jaquet.
- Chas. M. Wilson.
- Wahl & Parthen.
- Herman Koehler.
- Hermes Bros.
- Great Western Sale Co.
- Standard Duplex Optical Co.

Society News.

Miss Hazel White entertained a number of friends at cards on Friday evening, complimentary to her friend, Miss Crete Stewart of Hiawatha. Refreshments were served and a pleasant time is reported by all.

Miss Lela Powell was hostess a few of her girl friends at a six o'clock dinner Saturday afternoon, given in honor of Miss Crete Stewart of Hiawatha. A very pleasant time was had.

Miss Helen Burchard very pleasantly entertained a large crowd of friends at Wahl's hall Friday evening. Cards and dancing were the order and a most pleasant time is reported. On Saturday afternoon Miss Helen was again hostess, this time at her home. The affair was in the form of a Kensington and a number of young ladies were present. Both events were given in honor of Miss Agnes Winkler of Atchison, who is the guest of Miss Helen.

Sorosis met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Dr. Fast as hostess. Sidney Lanier—The Marshes was read by Mrs. Chas. Banks. During the social half hour refreshments were served, and the club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Geo. Schock on December 18th.

The C. W. B.M. program given at the Christian church Sunday was excellent and well attended. The violin duet by Miss Cleaver and Miss Sage was exceptionally fine. The speaker for the evening was Mrs. Rose Wilkinson of Bethany, Neb., a former missionary to Porto Rico. Her talk regarding Porto Rico and its people proved very interesting. She had with her a number of curios from that place, among them a Porto Rican dinner set consisting of bowls both large and small, spoons, etc., made from a sort of gourd that grows on trees resembling an apple tree. Her talk made Porto Rico seem like a real place and its people real people.

The Friends in Council will be the guest of Miss Dora Richards this evening.

The Friends in Council were the guests of Miss Lois Spencer on Friday evening and enjoyed a very pleasing program. Roll call was responded to by brief reviews of a late book, then Miss Craig portrayed Macauley as the man, the politician and the author in a very interesting manner. Macauley's Essay on Milton was given by Miss Florence Cleaver, and Mrs. Fenton gave a short review on Historical Works. During the evening Miss Alice Cleaver favored the guests with a violin selection and Miss Spencer gave several readings from Riley's works. After the program nice refreshments were served.

Library Notes.

Library board met Tuesday evening with a full attendance. The president, J. E. Leyda, appointed book and building, and grounds committee. The librarians report for the month was accepted, which is as follows. Books borrowed 2095, visitors 2605 and 111 cards issued.

Council Meeting.

The city council met in regular session at their chambers on Monday evening of this week with all members present.

After the general routine of business the chautauqua question was discussed, which will receive the hearty support of our councilmen. Bills to the amount of $2582.53 were allowed.

Death of Mrs. M. L. Hayward

We are very sorry to learn of the death of Mrs. M. L. Hayward, which occurred at her home in Nebraska City Monday morning. Mrs. Hayward is the mother of Will Hayward, who delivered the address at the Elks' memorial service last Sunday and who made many warm friends while in this city, all of whom truly sympathize with him in his great sorrow.

Obituary.

At her home north of this city Tuesday, December 3, 1907, at 10 o'clock p. m., Mary Schaible, wife of M. J. Schaible, aged 44 year, 2 months and 10 days.

Mary Rieger was born in Cook county, Ill., in 1863, and came to Falls City when one year of age. She was married to M. J. Schaible in 1884, three sons being born to them of this union. Warren, the oldest, preceded his mother to the grave nearly two years, while Raymond and John are left to mourn with their father for the loss of a loving mother, and faithful wife. There are three sisters and four brothers, all of whom are living and were present at the last.

Deceased had been in poor health for some time, and on Monday last an Omaha doctor was called to consult with our local physicians, but in spite of all that medical science could do death claimed her as its victim.

Mrs. Schaible was an ideal wife and mother and was greatly beloved by her large circle of relatives and larger circle of admiring friends. She had a beautiful home, where she presided with devotion and fond affection. She attended divine service at the First Methodist church Sunday November 24, being a life long member of that communion. The funeral services will be conducted from the Methodist church this afternoon, Friday, at 1 o'clock, conducted by Rev. W. T. Cline if it is possible for him to be present.

Mrs. Bradley Acquitted.

After being out eighteen hours the jury in the Bradley case returned a verdict of not guilty on Tuesday morning. But two ballots were taken, the first being eleven to one for acquittal, while the second was unanimous for acquittal.

Harry Burger of Reserve was in our city, Tuesday.

John Hutchings left Tuesday for a few days trip through Oklahoma.

Kate Maddox, Dorothy Morehead and Ray Mastin returned to Lincoln Monday.

W. D. Easley of Kansas City, was visiting friends in the city a few days this week.

March 13 is the day set for the hanging of R. Meade Shumway, the murderer of Mrs. Martin.

Miss Mary Ballinger of St. Joseph, Mich., is in the city the guest of M. Giannini and wife.

The Christian church ladies will hold their annual bazaar at the old Schmucker building on next Thursday and Friday, December 12th and 13th.

The Tribune is pleased to state that next week it will be able to give our readers the address given by Mr. Hayward at the Elks Memorial in this city last Sunday, and also the one given by C. F. Reavis at the Elks' Memorial in Omaha. Both were very able efforts and that they are to be published in these columns will be welcome news to our many readers.

Elect Officers.

Election of officers was the order of business at the Highlander lodge Tuesday evening and the following was the result:

- Geo. Marsh, P. I. P.
- C. N. Allison, I. P.
- J. R. Pickett, C. C.
- Laura A. Southard, W. E.
- Ward Knight, Secretary.
- Nellie Downs, Treasurer.
- Mrs. Letha Scott, Warder.
- Stanley S. Stump, Sentry.
- Geo. Fallstead, manager for eighteen months.

Elks' Memorial.

The services at the Gehling Sunday afternoon under the auspices of Falls City Lodge No. 963, B. P. O. E. in honor of their departed brethren, drew one of the largest crowds ever assembled in the Gehling.

The program was of the best throughout and commanded the deepest reverence from all, as the memorial services of the Elks are of the most beautiful and impressive one can imagine.

After a selection by the quartet composed of Messrs D. D. Reavis, and Dr. R. R. Roberts. Mrs. J. R. Cain, jr., and Miss Nellie Gilman, the opening ceremonies were conducted by the Exalted Ruler and Secretary.

"Calvary," a vocal solo by Mrs. George Wahl, was beautifully rendered and was well received. Mrs. Wahl has a sweet voice and seems to have been at her best in her rendition of "Calvary." The opening ode and ceremonies by members of the lodge was most impressive, after which came the invocation by Rev. Dr. Bailey. Mrs. Ed May then favored the audience with a very pretty vocal solo. The first part of the program was closed with a few remarks by Rev. Mastin, wherein he eulogized the dead brothers, Wm. Nye Jenne and Charles D. Campbell, the only links missing in this fraternal chain.

Part two was opened by a selection by the quartet, followed by the principal number on the program, the address by Bro. Will Hayward of Nebraska City lodge No. 1049. Mr. Hayward has a wide reputation as an orator and his effort on this occasion proved his ability. He gave a history of the Elk lodge, what it stands for and teaches, and his remarks made many warm friends for Elk lodge No. 963 of this city.

It is hard to mention the solo "Golotha," by Mrs. J. R. Cain, jr., of Stella, as we cannot do her justice. Always a sweet singer, this particular piece seems to have been written especially for her voice, and when she finished there were few dry eyes in that vast audience. What better evidence of appreciation is there?

The closing ceremonies by the Exalted Ruler and presiding officers, followed by the Doxology and benediction, closed the second annual memorial service of B. P. O. E. No. 963, and all departed for their homes feeling better for having been present.

Married

MCWAIN-BURK.
Charles McWain of Rulo and Miss Ida Burk, of Ohio township were united in marriage on Thanksgiving day at the Brethren parsonage. Rev. R. R. Tetter officiating.

The Tribune joins with a host of friends of this vicinity in extending congratulations.

Notice.

All parties knowing themselves in debt to us will please call at once and settle by cash or note. Yours Truly,

WERNER, MOSHMAN & Co.

Died.

HEASTON

Mrs. Frances Heaston died at Jewell County, Kansas, Tuesday, Nov. 26, 1907, aged 76 years, 9 months and 12 days. Frances Firebaugh was born near Compton, Ohio, Feb. 14, 1831. Was married to John Heaston Oct. 16, 1850. To this union ten children were born, four daughters and six sons, five children and the husband preceding her to the great beyond. The remaining children are Mrs. Sarah A. Overholt, Mrs. Ella J. Riley and Joseph J., Benjamin H., and John W. Heaston.

Deceased was one of Richardson county's early settlers, having lived here since 1856. She was known by all as a good, kind woman, full of those traits which drew many friends to her. She was converted in her youth and united with the United Brethren church, living a faithful, consistent, Christian life until the end, and when the summons came was glad to go to meet the reward of such a life.

The funeral was held at the Christian church in this city, Saturday, Nov. 30, at 10 a. m. conducted by Rev. Dunkleberger, and was largely attended by those who could thus show their respect for the dead and give their small comfort to the sorrowing ones left to mourn the death of a kind and loving mother.

The remains were laid to rest beside those of her husband in the cemetery 3 miles southeast of town.

Thanksgiving Basket Ball.

The basket ball game for Thanksgiving between the two Humboldt High school teams and the Falls City High School teams proved a drawing card and a large crowd was present.

The Humboldt teams, arrived on the early morning train, bringing with them a big crowd of rooters. At 2:30 p. m. the different teams lined up for battle on the High school campus, before a large crowd of spectators. After a hard battle the score finally read 50 to 11 in favor of the Humboldt boys, but the girls had a closer battle, the Humboldt team winning by the close margin of 16 to 12.

The game was greatly enjoyed by the crowd, but it was soon discovered that our boys were out classed, and while they went down in defeat, they also made many good plays, and came out of the affray more determined than ever to get the scalps of the Humboldt team at some future time.

Basket ball is great sport and we are glad that our people turned out in such goodly numbers to encourage our different teams.

Not A Sign.

An old woman once said to her grand daughter: "Say, dear, don't think because a lover rides ten miles in all kinds of weather to see you that is a sign he would make a good husband. The chances are after you are married he would be cross if he had to step on the back porch for a bucket of coal." There is food for thought in just that homely little remark, for it is truth.

Bees Laxative Cough Syrup for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough grows in favor daily with young and old. Mothers should keep it on hand for children. It is prompt relief to croup. It is gently laxative, driving the poison and phlegm from the system. It is a simple remedy that gives immediate relief, guaranteed. Sold by A. G. Wanner, druggist.

Our list is growing every day. Now is the time to subscribe if you wish to take advantage of the dollar rate.

J. L. Cleaver is among our many appreciative readers who called the first of the week and contributed to our subscription fund.

Ben Kopf of Rulo was a welcome visitor at this office Tuesday. He did not forget to put himself ahead on our list while here.

A moving picture show held forth in the Jenne opera house Tuesday evening. We understand this is to be a weekly attraction in our city hereafter.

The installation service of Rev. Bailey as pastor of the Presbyterian church will take place on Wednesday, December 18th. Full particulars will be given next week.

Rev. L. A. Hazlett, pastor of the Brethren churches at Hamlin and Morrill, Kas., was a guest of Rev. R. R. Teeter on Monday and Tuesday. Rev. Hazlett was a college classmate of Mr. Teeter's in Ohio.

At the Christian church next Sunday evening, "The Personal life of the Holy Spirit," you are invited to hear it. A series of gospel meetings will be held in the Christian church during the month of January, 1908.

The revival services at the Brethren church are still in progress. Next Sunday morning Rev. Teeter will speak upon the subject: "Pleasures of Sin." His evening subject will be: "Escape Impossible."
