Thanksgiving at the Union.

We feel that the dinner furnished at the Union House on Thanksgiving day is worthy of special mention. The menu was composed of all the good things possible to obtain and could not be surpassed in any of our city hotels, while their service was of the best. The proprietors, Vogel & McPherson are gratified at the liberal patronage they are receiving and feel sure the Union is destined to continue one of the leading hotels of the state.

Following is the Thanksgiving menu which is only a fair sample of what is served at this hotel every day. After looking over the register we found that one hundred guests, besides the regular boarders, took their Thanksgiving dinner at the Union.

TO THE BOARDERS.

Say, you
 With a dollar or two,
 Or three or four,
 Or a whole lot more,
 Struck away, don't knock;
 Take that money out of your pocket
 And put it in circulation,
 It's as safe as the nation,
 And by heck!
 You don't say that is going to wreck;
 Circulate it, let it get out and move ab,
 And you'll mighty soon see
 Restored commercial activity,
 Say, boarders, what's wrong with you anyhow,
 You ought to know that what
 You're doing now to move yourselves
 Will send us all to hell,
 You're letting Panic chase away
 Your business confidence,
 And paralyze your energies
 And deprive your common sense,
 Loosen up, loosen up,
 Put your money where
 It's bound to give the thing a start
 And make it go for fair,
 With every business confidence,
 With stock and crops in burn,
 If you will put your money in
 You're bound to call the turn,
 Say,
 You've seen a cloudy day
 When you know the sun was up in the sky
 But it couldn't shine till the clouds rolled
 Could it? Of course not.
 And that's what
 Is the trouble with you,
 Let your money get through
 From where it is hid,
 Get down the iron and take off the lid,
 Push the clouds aside,
 Let your money shine,
 Let it be heard,
 AND
 Kick the stuffing out of Panic,
 Down the whole line,
 See?
 That's business!
