Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular stomach remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.
For stomach distress, bloating, flatulency, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend

Dr. Shoop of Racine, Wis. You don't have to boil it twenty or thirty min-doctor. "Health Coffee" is really the closest coffee imitation ever yet produced. Not a grain of real coffee in it either. Health Coffee Imitation is made from pure toasted cereals or grains, with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert—were he to un-

Whipped Daughter and Landed in Jail

Under a plain charge of assault and battery, filed against John Whittaker in the county court, Tuesday, lies a story which has brought some of the residents of the north part of the city up in arms.

According to Chief of Police Jones indignant neighbors of the Whittaker family state that the latter has been particularly cruel toward his daughter Bessie, a comely young lady of 17 years.

His maltreatment became so severe the first of this week that she sought sanctuary at the home of a neighbor. Here she was found by her father on Tuesday, and he began to maltreat her by beating her with his fists.

The affair attracted the attention of the neighborhood and the police were summoned. Even after the arrival of Chief Jones and Officer Dougherty, both the father and mother again attacked the girl, and were pulled away from her by the officers. The girl was sent to neighbors for safety and protection and Whittaker placed in the city jail.

Accused was arraigned in court Wednesday and later a continuance was asked in this case, bond being offered.

"Of course," said Judge Mc-Carty, "while this charge is nothing more serious than assault and battery, which is only a misdemeanor, still if what the complaining witness states is true, I wish I could make the bond $10,000." The case was continued until December 27, and bond fixed at $200.—Auburn Herald.

"I trust this may be read by many sufferers from kidney and bladder trouble," writes Mrs. Joe King of Woodland, Texas. "I suffered four years and could find nothing to give even temporary relief. Our druggist at last induced me to try your 30 days' treatment of Pileoles for $1. This one bottle has cured me and money could not buy the value it has been to me.
Guaranteed. Sold by A. G. Wanner, druggist.

Life is a Funny Proposition Man comes into this world without his consent and leaves it against his will. During his stay on earth his time is spent in one continuous round of contraries and misunderstandings by the balance of the species.

In his infancy he is an angel, in his boyhood he is a devil, in his young manhood he is everything from a fool to a lizzard, in his dotage he is a fool. If he raises a big family he is a chump, if he raises a small family he is a thief and then the law raises the devil with him.

If he is a poor man he is a bad manager, if he is rich he's dishonest; if he is in politics he is a grafter, if he is out of politics you can't place him and he is an undesirable citizen; if he is in church he is a hypocrite, if he is out of church he is a sinner and is damned; if he donates to foreign mission he does it for show, if he doesn't then he is stingy. When he first comes into the world everybody wants to kiss him, but before he goes out they all want to kick him. If he dies young there was a great future before him, if he lives to be a ripe old age he is simply trying to save funeral expenses.

Life is a funny road but we all like to travel it just the same.—

Big Bargain Week

During the week of December 21 to 28 inclusive, The Nebraska State Journal will accept $3 from mail subscribers for the whole year of 1908, without Sunday, or $4 with Sunday. The regular price is $4 and $5. This cut price is only good during Bargain Week and all you have to do is to mail your remittance to the State Journal, Lincoln, Neb., during that week and you will receive the paper the whole year of 1908 up to Jan. 1, 1909. The same cut price was made during the same week a year ago, and thousands of new names were added to the list.
Such a cut price is possible on account of savings made by taking solicitors off the road. Instead of paying salaries, hotel bills and railroad fare, these savings are given direct to you. There is too much "middle-man" in all kinds of business. Here he is cut out and the saving goes direct to you.
The coming year will be a most important one. "Presidential year" always is, but now-a-days the individual voter is the fellow.
Things are being done without bosses and they are being done in the interest of the common people.
Are you keeping track of state affairs and taking the real part that you should? Remember this is your business, not someone's else. Read a paper with no self interest. One that is not conducted by office-holders or office-seekers. The new deal and the square deal is in full swing in Nebraska now and when you can keep in touch with all these things and have the world's news and pages of splendid reading for your family, all for $3 for the whole of 1908, shouldn't you get in the band wagon while it is waiting? Remember it is only for the week of December 21 to 28 that you get such prices. The rate goes right back to $4 and $5 after these days. Why not come in with us?
