When the Stomach, Heart, or Kidney nerves get weak, then these organs always fail. Don't drug the Stomach, nor stimulate the Heart or Kidneys. This is simply a makeshift. Get a prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The Restorative is prepared expressly for these weak inside nerves. Strengthen these nerves, build them up with Dr. Shoop's Restorative—tablets or liquid—and see how quickly help will come. Free sample test sent on request by Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Your health is surely worth this simple test. Sold by all dealers.

Seeks New Manager

Fred Hassler, formerly of the Pawnee Press, was here last week looking over the local newspaper situation. For some weeks past an advertisement has been running in the printer's trade journals of the country for a manager of a Southeastern Nebraska newspaper and the wording is such that it is apparent that the Herald is meant. It is more than probable that Jim Hill, the great railroad magnate, is in need of assistance to run his railroads and that some railroad talent is being wasted in the local newspaper field hence the advertisement.

Mr. Hassler was here long enough to size up the situation but it is doubtful if he will take the position of manager that has been advertised for.

However, if he should feel disposed to come here, there is no other place that offers such a field for the acquisition of experience and the enjoyment of the strenuous life as this.—Auburn Republican.

Trial Catarrh treatments are being mailed out free, on request, by Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. These tests are proving to the people—without a penny's cost—the great value of this scientific prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Remedy. Sold by all dealers.

Will Put Trains on Again.

It is rumored among railroad men that the local trains that have been annulled on the Missouri Pacific road, will be put back on as soon as the improvements now under way will have been completed. This will probably be on May 1st.

Market Letter.

Kansas City Stock Yards, Dec. 23, 1907. Cattle receipts last week were smaller than the previous week, and also less than same week last year. The unsatisfactory state of the demand for the last two weeks discourages liberal marketing, although prices last week held about steady on steers. Cows and heifers met a big decline, 25 to 40 cents for the week. Buyers assert that small numbers of she stuff are wanted around the holidays, and that this season than usual. Stockers and feeders sold uneven during the week, and finally closed a shade lower for the week. Run is small today, 2500 head, market 15 to 25c higher on steers, as nobody expected such a slump in receipts. All the markets are lightly supplied today, and of course small runs will rule all of the week account of the holiday Christmas day. Top steers last week ranged from $5.25 to $5.50 on different days, top today $5.40, fair to good steers $4.35 to $5.19. Very few well finished cattle are coming now, nearly everything short fed. Very good droves of cows are now put up by buyers at $2.75 to $3.25, and not many cows get above $3.50, a few heifers up to $4.50, best veals $6.50, heavy calves 50c lower than last week, at $3 to $4, bulls also lower. $2.35 to $3.50, feeders $3.50 to $4.20, stockers $2 to $4.05. A few shipments of Colorado and New Mexico stockers sold last week at $3.50 to $3.90, and some feeders at $4.05.

After the usual ups and down last week, the hog market closed with a net gain of 14c per cwt. Supply was 66,000 for the week, a decrease of 14,000 from previous week. Today the run is only 5000 here, and light elsewhere, market 10 to 15 higher, top $4.65, bulk of sales $4.50 to $4.60. Packers are willing buyers, as all the hogs are needed, but they still consider the price too high, and will neglect no change to put down prices. There is no prospect of any more settled conditions in the near future than have prevailed for three weeks past, and country buying will remain unsafe in the meantime.

Sheep and lambs closed last week at the low point of the winter season, and 20 to 30c lower than close of previous week. Bad markets for the meat, lower prices at Eastern points, and high prices here as compared with other markets was a combination too much for salesmen. Run is 4500 today, market strong to 10 higher, top lambs $5.90, some light yearlings at $4.90, best wethers $4.25, ewes $3.80.

S. L. Redwood this week orders the address of his paper changed to Falls City, at which place he and his family have located. Mr. Redwood has retired from active farm life and will take things easy during his declining years. We know of none more deserving of all good things that are the result of honest toil than Mr. Redwood and the only regret of our people is that he could not see fit to settle in Dawson after the close of his useful career as an agriculturist. It may be truly said in this case that Dawson's loss is Falls City's gain.—Dawson News Boy.

Notice

To William McDaniels, non-resident defendant: You are hereby notified that on the 13th day of December, 1907, Anna McDaniels filed a petition against you in the District Court of Richardson County, Nebraska, the object and prayer of which are to obtain a divorce from you on the ground that you have willfully abandoned the plaintiff, without good cause, for the term of two years last past. You are required to answer or demur to said petition on or before Monday, the 30th day of January, 1908.

ANNA McDANIELS, Plaintiff. By R. C. JAMES, her attorney. 04-41

HAD ALL THE REQUISITES

Candidate's Qualifications for Admission to Bar Satisfactory to Florida Judge.

"Examinations for admission to the bar," once observed a prominent attorney of New Orleans, "are, of course, easy or severe, according to the humor of the examiner. I heard once of a judge in a certain district of Florida, famous for its bad roads and numerous creeks and rivers, who, when a young man presented himself for examination, looked the applicant over and then inquired, with great gravity: "Can you ride?" "Yes, sir." "Do you own a horse?" "Yes, sir." "Can he swim?" "Yes, sir." "Then, my dear sir, I am happy to welcome you to the practice of law in my district."—Harper's Weekly.

PLEASURE IN STORE.

Tommy—Mr. Johnson, are you blind? Mr. J.—No, my boy; why do you ask? Tommy—Why, nothin'; only pa said you'd get your eyes opened if you married Flo.

ALMOST LOST.

"No," declared the duke, "I cannot marry you. Your annual income is too small." "But wait a moment, your grace," pleaded the beautiful heiress, "wait! Do not leave me before you have heard all. I shall inherit $4,000,000 from my grandmother when she dies, and we have just received a telegram saying that she is very ill." "Ah, my sweet one, forgive me for doubting your love. Let us arrange it so that we may have bulletins from the bedside every twenty minutes."

MARKED FOR SUCCESS.

"I saw a man to-day who has a great success before him," remarked Col. Sizzleby, of Kentucky, as he released the straws and placed the glass on the table. "He came into my office, sub, and tried to sell me some stuff to remove the red on my nose. After I had kicked him down the steps, sub, the impudent scoundrel sold a bottle of the vile concoction to the ambulance driver on the way to the hospital, sub!"—Exchange.

FINANCIAL SUPERSTITION.

"See here," said the lady, "you told me that work would only cost me $13, and here you've sent in a bill for $14." "Yes'm," replied the carpenter, "you see, when I came to think the thing over afterward I was afraid maybe you'd be superstitious about the 13."

TRAINING.

Miss Terry—Mother, I notice that lately whenever I ask you for money you grumble and growl and act nasty. What's come over you? You didn't use to be that way.

Mrs. Terry—My dear, you are going to be married soon, and I am getting you used to it.

BETTER THAN NATURE.

Crittick—I just saw Kammerer's picture of your wife. You don't like it, do you?

Henpeck—Yes, indeed. Crittick—Why, it doesn't look like her.

Henpeck—Perhaps not, but it doesn't talk like her either.

WHAT THEY ARE FOR.

North—Language was invented to conceal thought, someone has said. Sider—Yes, and health boards to conceal epidemic diseases, when it suits them.

WERE HUMBLING THE HORSE

That Was Why Noble Quadruped Was Hitched to Truck With Two Mules.

The other day a big furniture van moved slowly along a boulevard. On one side was painted the latest battle ship; on the other was a lightning express train, gorgeously colored. The team consisted of two mules and one fine fat horse with a sweeping tail. They were harnessed abreast, the horse in the middle. The sight was too much for a Southern "gemmen." Rushing out into the street he called a halt, and asked the two husky negroes in command: "What do you mean by harnessing that horse between two ordinary mules?" The driver replied, grinning: "Cause 'e ain' been havin' eself; we's humiliatin' him." "What? Oh, humiliatin' him." "Yas, sah; dat's it; 'e got ter be humbled."

LADY IN THE MOON.

An amateur astronomer writes of the "lady in the moon": "It is a very beautiful face seen in profile and uplifted, as though in proud disdain of things terrestrial. The curve of the throat is exquisite and, indeed, the entire outline is marvelously lifelike. The moon lady may best be observed, say, through a small opera glass when our satellite is at half. At that time the tip of the chin about touches the terminator, that is, the dividing line between the light and dark portions of the lunar surface. Most people can recognize the man in the moon; well, the hair of the 'lady'—in which I can always fancy I see a spray of orange blossom—forms the man's left eye, the nose and mouth his nose, and the chin and throat the 'man's' mouth."

QUITE SO.

Woolley—Why, Wigless, you are going quite bald. Wigless—Going? Why, I was born so.

HAD CANCELED DEBT.

A Richmond lawyer was consulted not long since by a colored man who complained that another negro owed him three dollars, a debt which he absolutely refused to discharge. The creditor had dunned and dunned him, but all to no purpose. He had finally come to the lawyer in the hope that he could give him some good advice. "What reason does he give for refusing to pay you?" asked the legal man. "Why, boss," said the darkey, "he said he done owed me dat money for so long dat de interest had et it all up, an' he didn't owe me a cent."

ORCHID HUNTERS' PERILS.

Orchid hunters in New Guinea often face death searching for these rare plants. One agent found a magnificent collection of orchids growing in a native burying ground among exposed bones and skulls. When the plants were removed some of the skulls were removed with them. Yet another collector was known to wade up to his waist in mud among mosquitoes for two weeks, seeking a single rare specimen.

JUDGE'S ADVICE.

"Is this your first law case?" asked Mr. Justice Bigham of a defendant in a civil action at the Guildford Assizes recently. "It is, my lord," replied the litigant. "Then let it be your last," drily observed his lordship. Mr. Justice Bigham has been a judge since 1897, and before that had a large practice as a leader of the Northern circuit.—Pearson's Weekly.

WORE YET.

"People never give me credit for my serious thoughts," complained Lowe Comedy. "I can't imagine anything worse than to have folks laugh at you when you really mean to be serious." "You don't say?" replied Hi Tragedy. "I should think you'd find it worse to have folks laugh at you when you mean to be funny."

The finest Coffee Substitute ever made, has recently been produced by Dr. Shoop of Racine, Wis. You don't have to boil it twenty or thirty minutes. "Made in a minute" says the doctor. "Health Coffee" is really the closest coffee imitation ever yet produced. Not a grain of real coffee in it either. Health Coffee Imitation is made from pure toasted cereals or grains, with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert—were he to unknowingly drink it for coffee. Fred E. Schmitt.

The time is nearly here when the subscription price of this paper goes to $1.50 per year. If you want in at the old rate you will have to hurry.

"I trust this may be read by many sufferers from kidney and bladder trouble," writes Mrs. Joe King of Woodland, Texas. "I suffered four years and could find nothing to give even temporary relief. Our druggist at last induced me to try your 30 days' treatment of Pineules for $1. This one bottle has cured me and money could not buy the value it has been to me. Guaranteed. Sold by A. G. Wanner, druggist.

The Tribune will cost you $1.50 a year after January 1st, 1908.
