

LOCAL LORE

Eat Sowles' candy.
Now is the time to subscribe.
Poultry wanted at Hecks feed store.
Fresh buttered pop corn at the Candy Kitchen.
J. H. Miles arrived in the city Tuesday from Los Angeles.
Bring your Poultry to Swift & Co., at Hecks feed store.
Francis Martin returned Saturday from a business trip to Lincoln.
When you sell your poultry bring it to Swift & Co., Hecks feed store.
The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. Bohrer Wednesday January 15th.
O. J. McNall came in from Hamburg, Iowa, this week for a short visit with friends.
F. A. Bascom of Billings, Mont., spent Tuesday in this city the guest of his brother.
Miss Avis Wadhams of Lincoln was the guest of Miss Sallie Schoenheit in this city this week.
Mrs. Simon Beachy returned Saturday from quite an extended visit with relatives at Grinnell, Kas.
Chas. McCreery left last evening for San Francisco in charge of a car of poultry for Hermes Bros.
Miss Lois Keeling left Wednesday for Aurora, Ill., where she will spend some time with an uncle.
H. B. Burris & Co., are new advertisers this week. Look up their ad in this paper and profit thereby.
Mrs. V. E. Emmerson and daughter of Dawson were guests at the home of Wm. Cade in this city this week.
Mrs. E. K. Kentner came down from Humboldt Saturday and remained over Sunday the guests of friends in this city.
Aaron Loucks was in St. Joe, Sunday, acting as one of the pall bearers at the funeral of his friend, H. P. Karnes.
Mrs. Dr. Wilson made a hurried trip to Essex, Iowa, this week accompanying her mother to her home at that place.
Mrs. Henry Meyers who has been visiting relatives for the past three weeks at Grinnell, Kas., returned to this city Wednesday.
Among the out of town guests in attendance at the Leap Year dance Wednesday evening was George Hansen of Stella and Joe Windle of Salem.
Phil Hermes returned Friday from his California trip, where he had been in the interest of his business, disposing of a car of poultry while there.
Matthews, the Price Killer, has some interesting news for our readers on the back page of this issue. He is offering bargains in every department.
The members of St. Agnes Guild will conduct an exchange at the Morsman drug store Saturday afternoon, where you can buy your Sunday dinner ready prepared.
Prof. Harnack shipped his household goods to Hiawatha the first of the week, and now the professor and his estimable family have become residents of our sister city.
Basil E. Boyle of the firm of Frolicht, Duncker and Renard, St. Louis, Mo., visited his mother, Mrs. Yutzky, over Sunday. Basil is on his regular trip through the state selling goods.
Errett Oliver left Sunday for Jefferson barracks, St. Louis, where he was ordered to report pending his removal to West Point, having passed his examination for that place some time ago, and has already received his appointment as alternate.

The candies at the Candy Kitchen are always fresh.
You can buy the finest fresh fruits at the Candy Kitchen.
P. G. McGilleroy of Hiawatha, Kas., was in Falls City Saturday on business.
Mrs. Hannah Martin of Tecumseh, Neb., was in town between trains Saturday.
Mrs. Rachel Nicholson of Reserve, Kas., was a Falls City business visitor Saturday.
Alex Leo returned the latter part of the week from his holiday visit with relatives in St. Louis.
Mrs. Dennis McCarthy went to Omaha the latter part of the week to spend a few days with relatives.
Bob Wright returned to his home in Kansas City Sunday after a week spent with relatives in this city.
Mrs. A. E. Gantt and son Dr. Ed Hays of Dawson, made a business trip to Omaha, the latter part of the week.
Miss Agnes Moran, who spent the holidays in this city left Sunday to again take up her school work in Sheldon, Neb.
Charles Humphrey and wife of the Verdon Vedette, spent Sunday in this city with Mr. and Mrs. George A. Abbott.
A. E. Ovenden, editor of the Pawnee City Chief, was in the city a short time Sunday on his way home from Auburn.
Charles and Morilla O'Harra returned Sunday from Axtell, Kas., after having spent the holidays with friends there.
Misses Nola and Helen McCool who have spent the past week visiting friends in this city returned to their home in Salem Sunday.
Miss Mabel Greenwald returned to LaMars, Iowa, last Friday to resume her work as teacher in the public schools at that place.
Mrs. Benj Nicholson returned Saturday from Craig, Mo., where she visited two weeks with her parents Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Stumbo.
W. D. Easley and wife went to Stella Saturday for a few days visit with W. H. Wheeler and family before returning to Kansas City.
Vern Ripley and wife who have been identified with the Joarnal for some time will leave soon for Shenandoah, Iowa, where they expect to reside in the future.
Mrs. John Gehling returns this week from her old home in Goshin, Wis., where she was called about three ago by the serious illness of her father, whose death occurred on Christmas day.
The Tribune this week received a very neat and convenient calendar from W. R. Crook, vice president of the 1st National Bank of Paonia, Colo. Mr. Crook is a brother of our postmaster G. J. Crook.
John Kone, years ago a resident of this city, but now in the restaurant business in Summerfield, Kas., was in the city a short time Saturday renewing old acquaintances. John is looking fine, old Father Time having dealt very leniently with him, and he says he feels "just as young as he used to be." He left Sunday for a few days visit in St. Joe before returning to his home.
Mrs. Effie M. Lambert of Seneca Castle, N. Y., will lecture at the Christian church of this city Tuesday evening January 14, 1908. Mrs. Lambert was formerly Miss Effie Stumbo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Stumbo who for so many years were residents of Falls City and vicinity. She is National Organizer of the W. C. T. U. and N. Y. State Secretary of the Young Womans Christian Temperance Union. Her lecture Tuesday evening will be under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. of this city. Everybody invited. Admission free. An offering will be taken at the close of the meeting.

Dr. Wilson made a professional visit to Humboldt Friday.
Judge Isham Reavis was an Omaha visitor the last of the week.
A. E. Jaquet made a short business visit to St. Joe the last of the week.
Dorothy White left Sunday to resume her school work at the State University.
"Buster Brown" will appear at the Gehling next Monday evening, January 13th.
Judge Gillespie made a professional trip to Omaha the latter part of the week.
Dr. Morris of Humboldt attended the Elk lodge in this city Friday evening.
Frank McDermott of Kansas City was a business visitor in the city the first of the week.
Geo. Wertz came in from his home at Alma Saturday and spent a short time with friends here.
After all, we have much to be thankful for. The clock on Lyford's corner is again in running order.
Byron Dunn of near Barada, left Monday for Lincoln where he will take up school work at the Cotner University.
Dr. Wilson wishes to announce his office and residence will be over McMillian's drug store on or before February 1, 1908.
Mrs. Munson of Oneida, Kas., who has been the guest of her daughter Mrs. Elliott for some time returned home Monday.
Mrs. Caffrey and mother Mrs. Watson of Mound City, Mo., returned to their home Monday, after a short visit in this city with their sister and daughter Mrs. John Wilson.
One of the coming attractions at the Gehling, Monday January 13th, is Buster Brown, his dog "Tige" and his friend "Mary Jane" together with a company of forty, mostly girls.
Charley Bliss, one of our old Falls City boys, is visiting in this city. Charley is now interested in a sheep ranch in western Iowa and is making good, which will be welcome news to his many friends here.
Editor Stowell was in the city a short time Monday. Mr. Stowell has been in South Dakota for the past few years, and after a few weeks visit with friends in this vicinity, will go to New York for a few months stay with his parents.
The committee having the affair in charge desire us to state that the premium list for the Farmers' institute to be held February 5, 6, 7 and 8, will be ready for distribution next week. About $300 will be offered in prizes, and the session promises to be an interesting one.
Rev. C. N. Allison who held meetings at the Christian church of this place in June, passed through the city Saturday on his way to Table Rock where he will conduct evangelistic services through this month, having resigned his pastorate at Mound City, Mo., owing to the ill health of his family.
Prof. Harnack opened his Billiard Parlors to the public this week. It is one of the handsomest parlors to be found in the state and will be conducted strictly in accordance with law. Through the columns of The Democrat he invites the people to call and see him.—Hiawatha Democrat.
"Laugh and the world laughs with you," is an old and true saying. Go and see "Buster Brown," and "Tige" and their forty fun dispensing pals when they come to the Gehling on January 13th, and they will leave you laughing when they say good-bye," is not near as old a saying but never the less it is just as true. There's a laugh going round all the time with a few screams wedged in between.

The teddy bear craze is dying out, for which all are duly thankful.
Frank Blakeney of Nims City, spent a portion of the week in this city.
Wm. Harnack came over from Hiawatha and spent Sunday with his family.
J. L. Slocum and Warren Hutchins were business visitors in Stella Monday.
FOR SALE—Barred Plymouth Rock young Roosters.—John Rieschick. 7-tf
Mrs. Chinnock and daughter of Wymore, are guests at the home of C. P. Marion this week.
Al Hoffer of Kansas City came up Saturday and spent a few days with relatives in this city.
Rev. G. L. Neide went to Humboldt yesterday to look after church interests at that place.
Martin Kanaly and wife returned Sunday from their holiday visit with home folks at Rulo.
The Misses Thompson left Tuesday morning to again take up their school duties at the Peru Normal.
Fred Walter of Burlington, Ia., arrived in the city Monday for a few days visit with George Kapp and family.
Mrs. M. E. Hickman, who has been visiting her sister Mrs. E. O. Reed left Saturday for her home in Bassett, Neb.
Al Stumbo and family spent Sunday over in Hamlin guests at the homes of Jeff Prater and Chas. McGuire.
Dave Wilson of Mound City, Mo., spent this week in the city looking after his big brother John, the tailor.
Mrs. Will Nettlebeck and family returned Thursday to their home in Shubert after a week's visit with relatives in this city.
M. Seff and family and Mr. Jacobs and wife went to Kansas City Sunday to attend services in the Jewish synagogue at that place.
Miss Elizabeth Jones, an employe in the suit department at V. G. Lyford's, has resumed her duties after a week's visit with home folks at Reserve.
Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Boor of Conotton, Ohio, left Tuesday for their home after a pleasant visit in this city with their cousin Clem Firebaugh and wife.
Charley Cornell and wife of Pawnee City arrived in the city Saturday. Charley has accepted a position in Leyda's cigar store and he and his wife have decided to locate here.
Miss Melva Kerns left last week for St. Joe. She was accompanied by her mother whose eyesight is failing and they make the trip to consult an eminent optician.
George Boone of St. Joe spent from Thursday to Sunday in this city with relatives. Mr. Boone expects to spend the winter either in California or Florida and came up to bid the folks good bye.
The season of sale bills is at hand and the Tribune wishes to state that we are prepared to print sale bills while you wait, and do as good work and at as low figures as you can get any place. 7-tf
The only thing that pulled the Tribune through this strenuous week was the fact that Wm. Cade gave the force a bottle of 13-year old wine the first of the week. The only fault we found was that the bottle wasn't big enough.
Word was received this week by friends in this city of the death of Al Carstetter, which occurred at his home in St. Joe last week. Mr. Carstetter a number of years ago was employed at the B. & M. depot in this city and has a number of friends here who will be sorry to hear of his death.

Electric Theater

Entire change of program every Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Open Every Night at 7 p. m.

ADMISSION

| | | | | |
|-------------------|---|---|---|-----|
| Adults | - | - | - | 10c |
| Children under 12 | - | - | - | 5c |

We solicit the patronage of the people of Falls City and vicinity, especially Ladies and Children.

No picture exhibited in this show that can offend the most refined.

BOWER & WALLER, Props.

Announcement

Having purchased the News Stand of John Bruhn, we wish to announce to the people of this city and vicinity that we will be pleased to welcome you to our place of business at any time, and that we will keep constantly on hand a full stock of

Periodicals
Stationery
Smokers' Supplies
Woodward's Candies
Late Fiction

We cater especially to the ladies' trade. We will take special orders for any book on the market not found in our stock.

We solicit a share of your trade.

W. B. BURRIS & CO.
John Bruhn's Old Stand.

Contractors.

Sealed bids on the Contract for the Basement and Foundation of a new Catholic church in this town will be received at my residence from date till the 20th, of January 1908, 7:30 p. m.
07-2 t FATHER BEX.

Stockholders Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Stockholders of the Southeast Nebraska Telephone Company, will be held at the First National Bank on Saturday evening, January 11th, 1908. All stockholders are invited to be present.
E. H. TOWLE, Secretary.

Ed McKeiver and family who went to Canada several months ago intending to remain there, are expected back this week. They have enough of Canada and have decided to spend the balance of their days in this, the garden spot of the universe.

Taft's supporters controlled the Ohio state republican committee in the proportion of two to one and fixed the date of the state convention and the primary method of choosing delegates with perfect ease. The Taft opposition in Ohio will disappear like shadows.—Fremont Tribune.

Gospel meetings will begin next Sunday in the Christian church and continue indefinitely. Vital subjects will be presented each evening. You are invited to attend these services. Come and bring your friends. You will be treated kindly and made welcome. Services will begin at 7:30 each evening. "Come let us reason together."

Bert McKeiver was a Kansas City visitor Sunday.

Mrs. John Ogle of Dawson is visiting her brother Charley Bruhn in this city.

Mrs. Chas. Banks who has been quite sick for the past week, is again able to be about.

Mrs. Albert Norris returned Saturday from a week's visit with her daughter at Lincoln.

Sidney Lapp returned Saturday from Hiawatha where he has been working with the telephone gang.

Mrs. Elliott and mother Mrs. Munson returned Friday from a two weeks visit with relatives at Herndon, Iowa.

Josephine Graves left Saturday to again take up her school work at Wayne, Neb., after a pleasant holiday vacation with friends in this city.

The big Pre-Inventory sale is still on at V. G. Lyford's and no one can afford to miss the bargains offered on goods in all departments. See his ad in this issue.

Misses Mable and Minnie Macomber returned the latter part of last week from Coweta, Okla., after having spent their vacation with their parents of that place.

Ed Davis and family have moved here from Salem and are now occupying the Mrs. Frank Smith property in the south part of town. Mr. Davis has accepted a position as lineman with the local telephone company.

Miss Frankie Moran, who has been such a faithful employe at the Central office for so long, handed in her resignation Saturday morning, the same to take effect immediately. Miss Moran and her mother leave this evening for Shelton, Neb., where they go for the benefit of the former's health. While Frankie will be greatly missed by her associates, all sincerely hope the change will prove beneficial.

Prof. Searson is Exonerated by Official Body.

Treasurer Brien of the State Board of Education at a recent meeting of that body in Lincoln read a report of the sub-committee appointed to investigate the charge against Professor Searson. The report reviewed the testimony in the trial in court and before the board and closed with the statement that Professor Searson had been unjustly accused and recommending that he be exonerated. The report was adopted.

Don't be pessimistic. Get all the pleasure possible out of the fine weather we are now having, and don't think about the storms you seem so positive are coming.