

THE FALLS CITY TRIBUNE.

Vol. IV

FALLS CITY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY, JANUARY 17, 1908.

Whole No 208

Bank Cases Settled

The First National bank of Humboldt has gotten rid of all its litigation which was imposed upon it by the Samuelson failure by compromising all the cases against it. The settlement comprehended all cases which have not been tried as well as all cases in which judgement has been rendered. When court meets on the 27th of this month the docket will be cleared of all bank cases. The Tribune feels like congratulating all parties interested.

Home Teams Win

The basket ball games played at the Jenne opera house Friday evening between the Pawnee City and Falls City high school teams, proved very interesting to the large crowd present, both games being won by our home teams, the girls score being 30 to 3 and the boys 30 to 21.

A number of friends accompanied the visitors to this city, and although they suffered defeat, were loud in their praise of the hospitality shown them by our young people and the splendid entertainment given them.

Basket ball continues to grow in favor and each game proves more interesting than the former, and we are glad to note that our citizens are encouraging the young people more and more by their support.

While all are sorry to hear of Jim's poor health, we are glad to have them here again and know it will not be long ere he is restored to his old time self.

J. S. Everts Dies Suddenly.

The sad news reached this city Wednesday, through John W. Towle, of the sudden death of his father-in-law, J. S. Everts, which occurred in Omaha that afternoon from apoplexy.

J. S. Everts is well known by most of our people, having been identified among our foremost business men at different times. Coming here from the east he located on what is now known as the Fisher farm, building "Louie-land," then the most beautiful farm home in this part of the state.

His wife died some time ago, and for the past few years he had made his home with his daughter in Omaha.

Up to the time of going to press we were unable to get any of the real facts concerning his death or the arrangements for the funeral.

A New Firm.

A new firm has been launched in this city, whose business card reads Falloon & Cain, Collectors. The firm is composed of E. V. Falloon and J. B. Cain, two young men of our city, who are still in school but will conduct their business out of school hours. Their office is up stairs the second stairway north of the post office, where they will be pleased to receive anyone having collections to make. Both are energetic young men and have started out in a way that is sure to redound to their credit. It is a good business and we wish them every success.

The library at Humboldt is being reorganized, and this visit by these ladies was made for the purpose of visiting our library and in company with our librarian, Miss Spencer, spent several hours studying the methods used here and which have given this institution the reputation of being one of the best conducted in the state. For a number of years Mr. Carroll played leads and characters in Mr. Whiteside's productions, making such favorable impressions with the public that last season, Mr. Cross decided to present him in this successful comedy, a play that gives him ample scope for his unlimited talents. Mr. Carroll will be supported by an exceptionally clever company.

We are not prepared to give any particulars of the important event and can only say that the bride was raised in Falls City and was one of our brightest and most popular young ladies, and her many friends here wish her a long life of unalloyed happiness. As to the groom, he is the leading dentist of Bozeman, and must be a gentleman in every sense of the word, otherwise he would not have won this prize. The happy couple are now on a tour through the west and will be at home to their friends at Bozeman after February 6th.

Tired of Life

Thomas Malone a man about 40 years of age committed suicide in this city Sunday afternoon, January 12th at about 3:30 o'clock by shooting himself in the head with a revolver. Deceased was not a resident of this city but had formerly made his home on a farm near Dawson, where he was employed as a farm hand. He made frequent visits here however, and at this time had been around town for about two weeks. Lately he had been staying nights with George Minnick, and it was in the yard at the latter's home that he committed the deed. He was alone at the time but the shooting was witnessed by several persons on the street.

The man was taken to the National hotel and given all the attention possible, but he died at 7 o'clock without ever regaining consciousness. The cause of the rash act is not known but it is presumably due to despondency, as he had been drinking heavily for some time. A deposit slip for $100 on the Rulo bank was found on his person.

A coroner's inquest was held Monday forenoon, the jurors agreeing that deceased had come to his death by a pistol shot inflicted by his own hand with suicidal intent.

The body was retained at the Reavis & Abbey undertaking rooms until word could be received from relatives. A brother was located at Beatty, Kan., and immediately upon hearing of his brother's sad ending, ordered the body sent to him for burial which was done Monday afternoon.

Died.

GODFERNON

Mrs. Rosalie Godfiron died at her home in this city Saturday, January 11, 1908, aged 72 years, 4 months and 4 days.

Deceased was born July 7, 1838, in Ghent, Belgium, where she lived until about 13 years of age, when she came with her parents to America. After a few years her parents died, and being left on her own resources, acted as interpreter for persons crossing the ocean, making the trip seven times. She enjoyed the distinction of having at one time been maid of honor to the Princess Murat and went with her to the courts of France, England, Belgium and Italy.

She was married in Brussels, Belgium, October 24, 1873. To this union two children were born, Mrs. Fernande Keim and Louis Godfiron, both living in this city. Her husband preceded her to the grave only a few years ago. In 1876, she with her husband and daughter came to Falls City and had resided here continuously until her death.

Her's was an eventful life, made up as it was of more than the usual experiences of the ordinary person, it was always a great pleasure for her friends to listen to her pleasant reminiscences of the trips across the water, and this, together with her friendly manner, made her a welcome guest in any home among her wide circle of friends.

She had been in poor health for about three years, and a great sufferer, but through it all bore her burdens with a true Christian spirit.

The funeral was conducted from the Episcopal church Monday afternoon, Rev. G. L. Neide officiating, using the beautiful burial service of that church, in which faith she died. Interment was in the Steele cemetery.

All unite in extending sympathy to the bereaved son and daughter, who have nothing now but the memory of a loving mother, and the hope of that reunion which is promised to the faithful in the great beyond.

Mock Political Convention.

A mock political convention was held by the Parliamentary class of the Falls City High School last Friday evening.

Blaine Yoder called the meeting to order and at his suggestion Vergil Falloon was chosen permanent chairman, and Ruth McMillan secretary.

The convention at once got down to business, Blaine Yoder representing the reform wing of the party, in an eloquent speech nominated the Hon. Edgar Schock, a graduate of Yale College, a distinguished jurist, an able statesman and friend of the common people, for first place on the ticket. Mr. Schock's eligibility under the constitution was called in question, the opposing faction claiming that he was foreign born. A fly leaf of an old Bible was produced in evidence to show that Mr. Schock was born in Germany.

This was proved a forgery, and acted as a boomerang on the opposition.

Mr. Schock had a plurality on the first ballot, and the second ballot gave him a decided majority.

Miss Mable Poteet was unanimously chosen for his running mate, and the ticket reads:

For President, Mr. Edgar Schock, L. L. D.; for Vice President, Miss Mable Poteet.
