F. P. CORRICK, WM. HAYWARD, Secretary, Chairman, January 8, 1908, Lincoln, Neb.

A woman living in Council Bluffs, Iowa, has been married fourteen times and divorced twelve times. She has nine husbands living. Her last victim is a prosperous farmer of Nebraska. This is an extreme case, but it only illustrates the evils of our divorce laws. Divorces are too easily obtained. It is only in rare cases where they are justifiable at all. Of the many public evils, this divorce evil should be given more consideration by our courts and law makers. If divorces were not so easily gotten there would be fewer quarrels in the household. The writer knows of instances where the persons seeking divorce had already promised themselves in marriage to another. The record of our court for the last year shows several divorces granted than for several years. Let the number be still fewer the ensuing year.

CAUSE ALARM IN INDIA

Mosquitoes Threaten Ruin of Tea Planters and No Remedy Seems To Be In Sight.

A report from Consul-General W. I. Michael of Calcutta, says that the blight of the tea plant, caused by the bite of the mosquito, is causing a good deal of alarm among the tea planters of India. The situation has become much worse, and, in response to an urgent appeal from the planters, the scientific and entomological officers of the tea association will do whatever is possible to find relief from the pest and the effect of the blight caused by it. It has long been known that the mosquito bite was productive of tea blight, but it was not regarded seriously. The condition, however, has become so widespread and bad that something must be done. Spraying the bushes with any liquid or oil is not practicable, because of the effect on the flavor of the tea leaves, and to cut away the affected parts of the bush gives only a temporary relief, as the persistent attacks of the mosquito serve to perpetuate the blight. The only permanent relief seems to lie in the destruction of the mosquito. How this can be done is the question.

FLATS FOR PIANO FIENDS.

An apartment house advertisement that has proved popular runs like this:

"No restrictions on piano playing."

"A notice of that kind is bait for a great number of people," said an agent. "There are some mighty nice folk that like to play the piano late at night. In many neighborhoods a graveyard stillness is insisted upon after 11 o'clock. I have on my list however, a lot of houses in good blocks where the neighbors won't kick if the music continues till 'way past midnight. That is the kind of place many tenants are looking for, and it pays to call their attention to it."

TURKEYS NOW GAME BIRDS.

One of the saddening effects of the present general advance in the price of almost everything we eat is the fact that in some of the butcher shops in the neighborhood of Forty-second street and Fifth avenue, turkeys, the plain domestic turkey, is now put in the same class as game birds and is sold at so much apiece, says the New York Press. This was brought home to the housekeeper on a marketing expedition the other day, when she saw a row of the fowls, each one of which weighed about six pounds, labeled, "These turkeys $2.50 each."

GROUNDS FOR SUSPICION.

The artist came in and seated himself with a foreign and unaccustomed air, a slight something of hauteur the woman thought.

"My landlord," he began, "came to me this morning and told me to have anything I wanted done in the way of improvements in my apartments. He told me to spare no expense."

The woman looked at him hard. "I begin to suspect you," she said, "of having paid your rent."

AS TO OLD HUNKS.

"You may say what you like about old Hunks, but I know him to be a man that studies to please."

"Shucks! He's the most cross-grained, ill conditioned old—"

"Be kind enough not to interrupt me. I was going to say I know him to be a man who studies to please himself, and nobody else on earth."

Market Letter.

Kansas City Stock Yards.

Jan. 27 1908. Following the liberal cattle supply of 54,000 head last week, including 4,000 calves, the run of 12,000 today is fully as many as needed, and the market is barely steady with the close of last week. Prices were uneven last week, but closed with only a net loss of 10 to 15 cents on killing grades, while stockers and feeders declined 15 to 25 cents during the week. One feature today that is favorable to sellers is that an extra large percentage of the supply is stock and feeding grades, which are being disposed of at steady prices, thanks to the usual good Monday market on that class. Packers are buying killing grades freely, both because of a good present demand for fresh meats, and with a desire to fill up coolers in anticipation of smaller receipts soon, and stronger prices. Should the run continue liberal, the market is likely to decline this week, but the general opinion still holds to small supplies in the near future. Best steers bring from $5.50 to $5.75, and bulk of fed steers $4.65 to $5.40, cows $3 to $4.25, heifers $3.50 to $4.75, bulls $2.90 to $4.10, calves $3.75 to $6.75, stockers and feeders $3.75 to $4.65. Demand from the country is good, but the price early last week reached a height that many considered prohibitive, and sellers were forced to reduce the range of prices to effect any trading.

Hog receipts last week were 10,000 head, an increase of 100 per cent over the same week last year, and the market on heavy hogs gained about 5 cents during the week, but light weights lost a little ground. More inferior hogs were included than usual, and buyers slashed the price on these, so that there was perceptible widening of the range of bulk of sales during the week. Supply today is 13,000 head, several thousand smaller than on recent Monday's, and the market is 5 to 10 higher. Top here today is $4.55, which is 2 1/2 cents higher than top in Chicago today, bulk of sales here $4.25 to $4.50, with the closing market the best of the day. Two trains of 300 hogs were purchased here for Old Mexico last week, and this demand is helping prices on heavy weights.

Sheep and lambs arrived freely last week, and closing prices of the week showed a loss of 10 to 15 cents as compared with best time of the week. Run today is 10,000 head, market weak to 10 lower, top lambs $6.80, fair to good lambs $6.25 to $6.60, yearlings $5.50 to $6.10, wethers $4.75 to $5.50, ewes $4.25 to $4.80. There is a good outlet for the mutton, and future prices depend on volume of receipts.
