Only $2.00 A Year.

During the one week of March 23 to 28, inclusive, the Lincoln Daily News will accept $2 from mail subscribers for a whole year to April 1, 1909, the regular price being $3.

This cut in price is made possible by taking traveling solicitors from the road and doing business with the readers direct, giving them the savings in salaries, railroad fares, hotel bills, etc. The News is a regular $3 paper, but by this method you can save $1.

This will be a great year in Nebraska and you will want a daily paper. One that's not afraid to say right out what it thinks. No office holders or office seekers are interested in this paper. It's run on the square deal plan, under no obligation to political bosses. Aren't you interested in the fight that is being made in Nebraska for everybody's good? If you are, send in your $2 and get this live paper all through the campaign and through the next legislature. Keep tab on what is being done. The people will never get what's their rightful due until they go after it. The News will always be found helping you to get what's fair.

Remember the bargain week—March 23 to 28. The price will be $3 after that week and it's a good bargain at even that higher price.

Bishop Left Thousands for Nebraska.

Public bequests of more than $30,000 are contained in the will of the late Rt. Rev. George Worthington, Episcopal bishop of Nebraska, who died in France and whose will has been presented for probate at Pittsfield, Mass. The estate is estimated to be worth $150,000 and is to go to the widow of the testator for use during her lifetime.

Upon the death of Mrs. Worthington numerous bequests are to be distributed. They include the following:

Five hundred dollars each to the Clark memorial hospital, Omaha; Brownell hall, Omaha; the diocesan fund for the disabled clergy, and the widows and orphans of clergymen in the diocese of Nebraska; Hobart college, Geneva, N. Y., the general theological seminary, New York and $15,000 to the domestic and foreign missionary society of the Protestant Episcopal church of the United States.

Ten thousand dollars is to be set aside as the Bishop Worthington fund, to be administered by the trustees of the cathedral chapter of the board of associations of the diocese of Nebraska, the income to be used for diocesan missions.

The diocese of Nebraska is given $4,500 for the purpose of increasing the Episcopal fund.

As residuary legatee the will names the fund for disabled clergy, widows and orphans of clergymen in the diocese of Nebraska and the scholarship fund of Brownell hall, Omaha.—Ex.

The Nation's Supreme Asset.

A nation's supreme asset is in the children. The child is not only the father of the man but also the father of the nation that is to be. The people who have the largest care for the child, make the most generous provision for its welfare, for its development, both as to body mind and heart, are necessarily making for themselves the largest provision for their own effective and successful future, and are laying the firmest foundations on which to build with the "gold, silver and precious stones" that shall give splendor and glory to the structure that is to be.

England today is an example of what industrialism will always do to its own civilization when unchecked and unbridled by the restraint of wholesome legislation for the child. The physical decadence of modern England, which is no mere fear of an excessively critical and fearful modernism, but a painful fact, a fact that discounts all that modern England aims to do for herself or for the world; it is all the fruit, and the nemesis too, of the cruel greed and shortsightedness of industrial England. She was before us in the industrial world two generations or more, and the English cotton weaver, woolen weaver, silk weaver, carpet weaver, the English iron and steel worker, the potter and the miner, worked for the world. And what did England do, what has she done until very recent days? She has flung her child into her own cruel, grinding industrial world for three generations without education, without physical fitness, underfed, unwholesomely housed, pinched, dwarfed, stunted, anaemic, and this child has produced after his kind.

And we today are facing just this danger of robbing the child by the pushing, crowding greed of our growing industrialism. Industrialism holds the child cheap and always will. There is no soul in it. It has the spirit of the Egyptian taskmasters and would make the modern child make brick without straw.

A Narrow Escape

Many people have a narrow escape from pneumonia and consumption as a result of a cold that hangs on. Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs and colds no matter how deep seated and prevents pneumonia and consumption. Refuse substitutes. Kerr's Pharmacy.

A child sent to the real business of life denied these will fail to accomplish its destiny, and will turn on the civilization that so robs it, and will become its nemesis.

Opened To Settlement.

The Shoshone irrigation enterprise in the Big Horn Basin of Wyoming on which the United States government is spending $4,000,000 is being rapidly completed.

What is known as the Corbett Tunnel, 17,000 feet long, has just been completed and through it, what is known as the Garland Government canal will supply water this spring to 14,000 acres of public land. This land is open to homestead entry under the usual rules modified by the provisions of the Reclamation Act. Continuous residence is required and practically nothing is charged for the land, the government merely charging the settler his pro rata share of the cost to the government of the irrigation works.

In this particular project this amounts to $45 an acre, and the settler is expected to pay $4.50 an acre per year and has ten years in which to pay the full amount. These terms are very favorable especially when it is remembered that no interest is charged by the government on the deferred payments.

The government has prepared plats showing the location and size of each of the farm units, any one of which the settler may select.

This land is located along the Shoshone river in the heart of the Big Horn Basin, which lies between the Big Horn mountains on the east and the main range of the Rockies on the west, with connecting mountain ranges north and south. The situation is well sheltered, the climate is fine and the soil as rich as any in America, and produces abundant crops of oats, barley, wheat, potatoes, sugar beets, alfalfa and garden truck. Water is plentiful and pure and there is plenty of timber and coal.

Anyone who is thinking of settling in a new region will do well to investigate this splendid opportunity.

High Priced Fiddle.

Five hundred cold plunks for a fiddle!

This was the price paid Monday for a violin owned by D. L. Brush, an Auburn man.

The purchaser was John T. Cox, the cashier of the Bank of Howe. There are people who will be of the opinion that there never was a violin made worth the amount and yet, the wise ones who know the facts realize that Mr. Cox had got a bargain.

The instrument that he purchased is a rare one there being but few of the make in the United States, or in the world for that matter. It was a Jacob Greiner, made 273 years ago, or in 1710 by one of the master violin makers of that time.

What the real value of this instrument may be is a hard matter to determine, but any virtuoso in the land who learns of the fact will realize that Mr. Cox got the violin at bargain counter values even if he did give $500 for it.

$100 paid by Dr. Shoop for any recent case of grippe or cold that a 25c box of Preventives will not break. How is this for an offer? The Doctor's supreme confidence in these little Candy Cold Cure Tablets—Preventives—is certainly complete. It's a $100 against 25c—pretty big odds. And Preventives, remember, contain no quinine, no laxative, nothing harsh nor sickening. Pneumonia would never appear if colds were always broken. Safe and sure for feverish children. 48 Preventives 25c. Sold by all dealers.
