

LOCAL LORE.

Eat Sowles' candy.

Lawrence Christian spent Monday in Humboldt.

Next Tuesday is election. The agony will soon be over.

Wm. Fenton of Dawson was a pleasant visitor here Saturday.

Father Bex was a business visitor to Lincoln the first of the week.

J. H. Hall of Verdon came down to the Elks' minstrel Thursday night.

Mrs. Jule Ruegge was quite sick during the week but is now much improved.

The head push of the Hiawatha World occupied a front seat at the Elks' minstrel.

The much needed rain put in an appearance on Monday, doing an abundance of good.

Mrs. H. Myers went to Hiawatha the first of the week for a short visit with relatives.

H. E. Sargent of Weeping Water was the guest at the home of John Hossack Friday.

It is hard to find another town of this size with as much musical talent as is in Falls City.

Little Paul Davies went to Salem Friday afternoon for a visit with his grandparents.

Special attention given to the treatment of the eye. Glasses correctly fitted by Dr. Reneker.

Miss Minnie Tichen of Dawson was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Robt. Kanaly, during the past week.

Prof Harnack came over from Hiawatha to assist in the orchestra at the Gehling, Thursday evening.

The Falls City Nursery that has always sold the trees, will have a fine lot of trees for the spring trade. 1tf.

The Elks got out a very neat advertising souvenir program for their entertainment, which netted them a nice sum.

George Hansen of Stella was in the city Thursday, coming down for the purpose of enjoying the Elks' minstrels.

When the band played on the street Thursday afternoon it at once started the query: Are we going to have a band this summer?

Show us a man who is always saying he does not care what people think of him, and we'll show you a mighty poor citizen.

J. R. Cain, Jr. came down from Stella just for the purpose of attending our minstrel show. Rob always did have a weakness for home talent productions.

Mrs. Belle Mulligan and son, Glenwen Neal, left Sunday for a visit at the home of Harry Sargent at Weeping Water. They will also visit in Omaha before they return home.

The many friends of Miss Eva Cooper will be glad to learn that March 15 she set sail from Hong Kong, China for America. She will reach her home in Humboldt some time in May. Miss Cooper has been employed as teacher in the Philippine Islands for the past two years.

Rev. Manshardt shipped his household goods to his new home in Leonardville, Kas., Tuesday, and he and his wife followed on Wednesday. Before leaving Mr. Manshardt called and ordered the Tribune sent to them in their new home. We commend this worthy couple to the good people of Leonardville and wish them abundant success in their new home.

Last Monday a mail coach was put on both trains running through Shubert and that post-office now has mail delivered and sent out twice each day by the railroad. They have a mixed train consisting of two passenger coaches, one mail coach and freight cars, but do not carry mail clerks. The Star route between Stella and Shubert is still in operation.

FOR SALE—Millet hay 30c per bale. H. R. Rahlf.

Capt. Evans came down from Stella on business Saturday.

Mrs. Frank Veach of Verdon visited Mrs. L. D. Lawrence last Friday.

Dan D. Kroh of Stella was a pleasant caller at this office Friday.

Mrs. Chas. Davis went to Lincoln on Tuesday for a short visit with friends.

T. J. Oliver went to Beatrice Wednesday to attend the teachers' association.

Mrs. Al Spear left Wednesday for a few weeks visit with relatives at Orleans, Neb.

George Hossack left Monday for Hartington, Nebr., where he will spend the summer.

James Sinclair returned Friday from Gorden, Nebraska where he has been looking at land.

Clyde Haskins of the Stella Press, was a very pleasant caller while in this city Tuesday.

Messrs. James Wiltse and C. H. Wiltse and families spent Sunday with their parents at this city.

Ed May and wife of Salem were in the city Thursday evening to attend the Elks entertainment.

Mrs. Will Holt and daughter, Nellie Lee, went to Lincoln Wednesday for a visit with relatives.

Frank Eversole, who is now in the general merchandise business in Elk Creek, was in the city Monday.

Misses May and Kate Maddox, students at the Wesleyan university, are at home for a week's vacation.

Miss Florence Wylie went to Peru last Friday for the purpose of attending a social function, and also to visit friends for a few days.

Miss Carhart and Miss Haney, two of our public school teachers, took advantage of their short vacation and visited in South Omaha.

All who heard Bishop Williams at St. Thomas' church Sunday morning say he delivered one of the best sermons ever listened to in this city.

Miss Ida Pribbeno is now employed as clerk in the dry goods department at V. G. Lyford's store, having commenced her duties Monday of this week.

Harry Thomas and wife of Hiawatha were in the city Sunday. They came for the purpose of attending service at St. Thomas church and hearing Bishop Williams preach.

George Dixon and J. L. Musgrove of Sabetha were in the city during the week in the interest of young Glenn, who is now in jail awaiting trial on the charge of burglary. Mr. Musgrove is guardian of Glenn.

Ray Myers, who went to California several months ago expecting to locate there, came back again the first of the week. Ray says California is all right for those who like it, but he prefers good old Nebraska.

Bishop Williams was the guest of C. Hargrave and wife while in the city Sunday. Mrs. Hargrave was at one time a member of Rev. William's parish in Chicago before he had attained the high order he now holds.

H. A. Schneider of Plattsmouth, Neb., was in the city last Thursday, coming for the express purpose of attending the Elks minstrel, and he says he was well repaid for his trip. Mr. Schneider is register of deeds in Cass county.

George A. Smith called on The Tribune while in the city Thursday and after watching our machinery work and looking over our paper decided to add his name to our list and will hereafter be numbered among The Tribune's satisfied readers.

Geo. Schmelzel was a Sterling visitor Monday.

J. L. Gandy of Humboldt was in the city Wednesday.

I guess that cold wave Wednesday was an April fool for all of us.

Continuous performance at the Lyric beginning at 7:30 each evening.

Hear Mr. Frank Reilly, the baritone soloist, at the Lyric each evening.

Mrs. E. E. Scott spent a few days of this week with her parents in Salem.

Geo. Hansell was down from Salem Monday and spent a short time with friends.

Mrs. Ernest Porr of Humboldt was in the city Sunday the guest of Mrs. Dr. Wolfe.

Dayid Neild and wife came down from Pawnee City Monday to look after business.

John Hershberger of Rulo was looking after business interests in this city Wednesday.

If you love a good song hear Mr. Frank Reilly in the illustrated songs at the Lyric.

You can always find bargains at Matthews, as a glance at his ad in this issue will prove.

Entire change of Motion pictures at the Lyric Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each week.

John Hutchings returned Tuesday from a week spent in Oklahoma looking after business affairs.

Lyford has much of interest to tell you in this issue. Study his ad carefully as every item is a bargain.

If the price of beefsteak keeps on going up we will soon be eating quail on toast as an item of economy.

Rev. R. Cooper Bailey, Ph. D. filled the pulpit in the Presbyterian church in Pawnee City last Sunday.

Philip Schlaeter is visiting with his uncle near Barada this week before leaving for his home in Meeker, Okl.

Archie King of Table Rock, a time honored friend of the Tribune management, was a pleasant caller Wednesday.

Mrs. Elva Sears-Vincent and her daughter, Miss Maxine, arrived from Shenandoah, Iowa, Wednesday, for a visit at the old home in this city.

Mrs. Carrie Harvey returned Wednesday to her home in Plymouth, Neb., after a few days spent in this city at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. Unland.

Furnish a tree to help beautify the park. The Mayor will have a man there for one week beginning tomorrow to receive and plant anything you might donate.

Miss Melva Kern, who has been employed at Lyford's store for some time, has severed her connection with that institution and returned to her home in Rulo.

L. W. Snyder was called to Shenandoah, Iowa, the latter part of the week in answer to a telegram announcing the death of his father at the advanced age of 78 years.

Claud Blaine Philippi of this city has accepted a position as clerk in our postoffice. Judging from the way he takes hold he will undoubtedly make a success of his new work.

John Powell returned Wednesday from a three week's stay at Hot Springs, Ark. We are glad to say that John's health is greatly improved and he is again able to attend to his large real estate and loan business.

Geo. Hoffman an M. P. employee, this week moved his family to their new home in Lincoln, much to the regret of their many friends here. The Tribune will keep them posted as to what is going on in Falls City.

Did you get April fooled? The usual April fool pranks were in evidence Wednesday.

Miss Chloe Prater spent a portion of this week in Beatrice.

M. J. LaBlanc of Rulo was looking after business interests in this city Tuesday.

R. P. Thomas went to Hot Springs, Ark., Sunday for the benefit of his health.

The schools were closed yesterday at noon in order to allow our teachers to attend the institute in Beatrice.

Mrs. W. C. Goodrich of Chicago arrived in the city this week for an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. C. W. Breithaupt.

Dr. M. L. Wilson, Physician and Surgeon. Office and residence over McMillan's drug store. Phone 329. 2tf.

George McDowell of Salem was among the many who made us a pleasant call since our last issue and renewed faith in the Tribune.

Mrs. J. R. Cain, jr., of Stella came down Wednesday and accompanied the delegation from this city to the club meeting in Humboldt.

Keep strife and contention out of the campaign. Hold yourself so that you can help push Falls City no matter who is elected.

Mr. Dunn of Omaha will nominate Bryan at Denver. This is said to be the only feature of the convention which Mr. Bryan will not personally perform.

Our Glee club composed of sixteen of the High school pupils, furnished music at the South-eastern Nebraska Teachers' association in Beatrice this week.

Mrs. F. H. Cole of Omaha, who was attending the Woman's club meeting in Humboldt, accompanied Mrs. C. F. Reavis to this city and will visit relatives here for a few days.

Mrs. T. J. Gist has issued at home cards for this morning complimentary to the state officers of the Federation of Woman's Clubs, who are her guests at a house party for a few days.

Geo. E. Martin of Nebraska City is among the many to help us comply with the new postal law by sending us enough cash on subscription this week to place him a year ahead on our list.

Mrs. T. J. Gist went to Fairbury Monday to attend a club meeting. From there she went to Humboldt and spent Wednesday and Thursday at the District Federation of Woman's Clubs.

Wm. Winterbottom and John Dickman left Monday for Grand Island to look after the work of putting in a couple of heating plants which contract Wirth & Winterbottom recently landed.

Among those from this city who attended the meeting of the District Federation of Woman's clubs in Humboldt are Mrs. John Martin, Mrs. W. W. Abbey, Mrs. A. G. Wanner and Mrs. C. F. Reavis.

The season of sale bills is at hand and the Tribune wishes to state that we are prepared to print sale bills while you wait, and do as good work and at as low figures as you can get any place. 7-tf

Everybody should plant a tree in the park on Arbor day. When the city of Fairbury bought a park practically the entire community planted trees on last Arbor day. Each school, each church, each lodge, each club should plant a hard wood tree in our new park next Arbor day. It isn't too early to order your trees now.

Let's make the next municipal year a progressive year. Let the next administration be a business administration. We are about to employ men who will be entrusted with the expenditure of $40,000 of our money. Let's be careful in our selection that we may secure competent, experienced employees.

Did you see the Easter novelties at White's Wall Paper Store.

H. S. Morehouse of Reserve remembered the Tribune by a substantial check this week.

M. J. Thomas of Frankfort, Kans., visited relatives in our city the latter part of last week.

Miss Maude Mohler returned Wednesday from Aurora, Ill., where she has been attending college.

Patzman Sisters have received an elegant line of Sailor Hats for school wear. Call and see them.

Mrs. W. S. Moore arrived this week from Greeley, Col., having decided to again take up her abode in this city.

Rey. Neide of St. Thomas church was attending to pastoral work in Auburn and Tecumseh during the week.

Mrs. George Stumbo and daughter, of Lincoln, is in the city the guest of her parents, Sam'l Prater and wife.

We make a specialty of decorating and would be pleased to suggest as to color and schemes in wall paper at White's Wall Paper Store.

Norman Musselman returned Wednesday from Garden City, Kas., where he has been for the past three weeks attending to business matters.

If you knew how cheaply you could paper with the artistic wall paper at our store you would not let those rooms go another season. White's Wall Paper Store.

Misses Viva and Loyette Kinney, two teachers of the Verdon school, spent Saturday and Sunday in this city the guests of their cousin, Mrs. R. P. Thomas.

Listen! Sauer Kraut, the best candy ever made from cocoanuts; shredded by ourselves to insure freshness; only 15c. a lb. Saturday, April 4, at the Candy Kitchen. If you have ever tasted these you will know what this means.

Miss Mary Sullivan returned Monday from quite an extended stay in Mexico. She reports her brother, Dan, who was injured some time ago by being shot, as improving rapidly and expects to be home in two or three weeks.

Gust H. Roth and family who have been residents here for a long time, left for their new home at Swift's P. O., Ala. Mr. Roth, who has made several trips to the south has great confidence in the future of that country, and we sincerely hope all his expectations will be realized. Before leaving he made this office a pleasant call and ordered the Tribune to be a weekly visitor to his new home. Our best wishes go with him.

The public is again reminded of the Union Evangelistic meetings that are now in progress in the First M. E. church, conducted by Rev. Dr. John A. Earl and his assistants from Chicago, and the pastors of the city. Considerable interest is being manifested, and the chorus work is an inspiration. The preaching is pungent, searching and withal kindly and sincere. Better make up your mind to attend all the meetings, and get all the good you can, and do all the good you can through this concerted effort.

Spring Jewelry!

Call and see the new patterns in—

Bracelets
Necklaces
Beauty Pins
Cuff Links
Guard Chains
Rings, Etc.

We solicit your patronage.

A. E. Jacquet

"The Old Reliable Jeweler"

HUMBOLDT.

L. J. Segrist has commenced the erection of a new residence.

Sam Sawtell transacted business in St. Joe the middle of the week.

John Tighe was numbered among the county seat visitors, Tuesday.

Mrs. Will Waggener visited a part of the week with friends in Dawson.

Louise Power is spending the week with friends and relatives in Lincoln.

Lena Lutz was down from Lincoln over Sunday visiting with home folks.

Jesse Goodale, of Lewiston, Neb. was in the city Sunday the guest of a friend.

Chris Shawhan, of Table Rock, was transacting business in Humboldt Tuesday.

Dr. E. Elliott, a veterinary surgeon formerly of Kansas City, has located in Humboldt.

O. I. Hall attended the Bryan banquet at the Lindell hotel in Lincoln Tuesday evening.

Archie Webster, who has been employed in Kansas City for some time, has returned home.

A number of young people were pleasantly entertained on Friday evening at the home of Zora Marble.

Lillith Waggener, a teacher in the schools at Douglas, Neb., was here over Sunday visiting with her parents.

The city schools were dismissed Thursday and Friday in order that the teachers might attend the meeting in Beatrice.

A. J. Buerstetta has sold his cottage to O. W. Cass. Mr. Buerstetta has commenced plans for the erection of a new residence.

Twelve young ladies attended the shower given Mrs. A. O. Unland at the home of Mrs. R. J. Hnzlda in Table Rock Saturday afternoon.

Virgil Patterson arrived Tuesday from California to assist his parents, J. T. Patterson and wife in their preparations for moving to the above state.

Nina Snow, Ina Neber, Morgan Walsh and Wana Zimmerman, represented the Humboldt High school at the interstate debate held in Beatrice Wednesday night.

The anti-license forces have named the following municipal ticket: N. C. Campbell, mayor; Rev. H. A. Hohenwald and F. A. Hummel, councilmen; Frank Dorland, clerk; and H. E. Boyd, treasurer. At the license caucus the following ticket was named: H. A. Mann, mayor; Rudolph Vertiska and Len Green, councilmen; J. G. Simmons, clerk; and Ben Strammer, treasurer.

POULTRY WANTED!

Will pay you the following prices for poultry until I can get another car load:

Hens 10 1/2c

Also want your Eggs for Cash. Butter Fat at the highest market price.

E. E. JAMES

Phone 290. Falls City, Nebr.

Private Money.

Private money to loan on Real Estate. Mortgages bought and sold. Call at First National Bank. 3-tf A. J. WEAVER.

Money.

Money to loan on Real Estate. Mortgages bought and sold.

HENRY C. SMITH,
Falls City, Neb.

A Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend our thanks to the many friends for their kind acts during the illness and at the death of our beloved wife and mother.

FRED ALMENDINGER
WILL ALMENDINGER
MRS. A. H. HILDENFELD.

For Sale.

Reed's Yellow Dent seed corn, and Diamond Joe white seed corn price $1 per bushel. This is pure bred corn.

Early Ohio seed potatoes $1.50 per bu. Send in your orders before they are all gone.

Silver Laced Wyandotte eggs 5c each. Every egg guaranteed. Building sand $1 per load.—H. L. Rahlf, Pleasant Hill farm, Falls City, Neb. 9-2t