Mrs. Charley Wilson and baby were guests of Dr. Wilson and wife in this city the first of the week.

Ernest Vincent came down from Shenandoah, Iowa, Saturday, his wife and baby returning home with him on Sunday.

The many friends of Jim Whitaker will be glad to know that he is still improving under the treatment he is receiving at Hot Springs.

W. A. Greenwald left Tuesday for Albuquerque, N. M., where he expects to remain for a week or more, looking over the prospects for investments.

George Cleveland and Chester Fisher returned from a two weeks' trip through Canada, Sunday. They are well pleased with that country and may invest.

L. A. Ryan and son were up from St. Louis to attend the funeral of M. Riley at Dawson last week. They were shaking hands with Falls City friends Monday.

Cleveland's bargain days are winners! Every Friday and Saturday will find their store crowded. They know the value of advertising and deliver the goods just as they advertise to do.

When Postmaster Crook opened up the mail sacks on Easter morning it was to find an Easter greeting for himself in the shape of his postoffice commission from President Roosevelt. We offered an even exchange for a very pretty Easter card we had received but Mr. Crook could not see in that way.

T. C. O'Gorman, who has been manager of the Matthews store since its opening in our city, will sever his connection with that institution and leave the 1st of May for Grand Island, where he expects to embark in the insurance business. Mr. O'Gorman has proven himself a thorough business man; he and his wife have made many friends during their short stay here, who will be sorry to see them go. We understand that Mr. Little will assume management of the business.

M. J. Byrne was down from Dawson Wednesday.

Miss May Maddox was a visitor in St. Joe, Tuesday.

John Gunzenhauser was down from Humboldt Wednesday.

Byron Dunn of Barada, left Monday for Jamestown, S. D., where he expects to spend the next year.

Falls City has some of the most beautiful lawns imaginable, and also has some that are not so pretty. Clean up.

Most of the Falls City students at the State university returned to their studies Tuesday, after their Easter vacation with home folks.

John Hutchings and sisters are this week busily engaged in moving into the Abbott property recently vacated by Geo. Schmelzel and family.

That Falls City possesses some of the best musical talent, was shown by the beautiful song service rendered by St. Thomas' choir Easter Sunday.

Miss Stella Knickerbocker will resign her position in the office of Judge Gagnon and expects to leave soon for an extended visit with relatives in Kentucky.

Chas. Loree's new home is fast assuming commanding proportions and it will not be long before Charley is owner of one of the coziest homes in our city.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Arnold and baby of Barada were in town the first of the week on their way to Omaha, where they go to give their little one medical treatment.

Opie Ross and family returned from Georgia where they have been making their home the past year Friday last and will again take up their abode in our midst.

Little Johnnie Holt is grieving over the loss of his pony, which has been his faithful companion since Johnnie has been old enough to know what a horse was. The animal died Monday night and Johnnie is beyond consolation.

Ed Nolte and wife have disposed of most of their property in this city and will leave soon for Colorado Springs, where they expect to locate. They will still keep their home place, however, for fear they will not like their new home.

It begins to look as though our people will have to go over to Hiawatha if they want to enjoy band concerts this summer. This seems too bad when you consider the amount of good musical talent in our city. Get together, boys, let's have a band.

The mayor has designated Tuesday, April 28, clean-up day. This is a good move and should meet the hearty co-operation of every citizen. All should have enough pride in their home town to lend their aid in making it one of the cleanest places possible.

The First Regiment band concert given in Hiawatha one night last week was the best ever. The people over there are loud in their praise of Prof. Harnack and the rapid advancement the band is making under his direction. They appreciate Mr. Harnack over there.

A general clean up about your premises at this season of the year is a good start toward making a presentable town to the stranger who chances to come our way. When you do your duty along this line it has a tendency to awaken a pride in the neighbor who perhaps is more indolent in such matters.

Easter was a perfect day
Perhaps it is spring fever.
How many trees did you plant Arbor day?
What is a town without a band? A dead one.
Charles McCool was down from Salem, Monday.

THE OLD RELIABLE JEWELER

Reid's Yellow Dent Seed Corn For Sale

This variety showed the largest yield under all conditions of any corn in the state, the test being made at the Nebraska Experiment Station. I bought this seed from the State University farm three years ago and it is well acclimated. This is one of the so-called early maturing varieties and will be sold on ear at $1.50 per bu.

The demand is strong for this corn and it is going fast. If you want any of it, order now as the supply is limited.

Corn planting is in progress this week. Ross Goolsby has planted some seventy acres this week.

Why not have a band? We see no good reason why Falls City should not have band concerts each week. It is a drawing card for the town.

The Easter services at the various churches were well attended and the effort in decoration produced a very changed effect in each place of worship.

In the Reserve items of the Hiawatha World we notice the following: "A Falls City outfit composed of two negroes and two white girls were here Saturday on their way to Hiawatha. A Reserve citizen who was at Falls City that day says the girls secured the rig from a livery stable and drove to a point south of town, where they met the negroes." There is no accounting for some people's taste.

Ben Miles was down from Dawson, Tuesday.

A trip over our town will convince you that Falls City has more good walks than any other town of its size in this or any other state, and improvements along this line are going on continuously. There is nothing that speaks so well for a town as good walks.

"Hank Wolfe," our scenic artist left Wednesday night for Excelsior Springs, Missouri, with a supply of new scenery which he has just completed for one of the Crawford houses in that city. Hank's services are always in demand and as soon as possibly will refit one of the play house in Kansas City.

A new floor for $1.40. A half-gallon can of Campbell's Floor Finish will make your old floor look as good as new. This finish comes in Transparent also with stain combined producing beautiful imitations of natural woods. Morsman Drug Co. sells it.
