

ENGLAND SAYS NO ALUM IN FOOD and strictly prohibits the sale of alum baking powder—

So does France
So does Germany

The sale of alum foods has been made illegal in Washington and the District of Columbia, and alum baking powders are everywhere recognized as injurious.

To protect yourself against alum, when ordering baking powder,

Say plainly—

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

and be very sure you get Royal.

Royal is the only Baking Powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar. It adds to the digestibility and wholesomeness of the food.

"If my friends have alabaster boxes laid away, full of fragrant perfumes of sympathy and affection, which they intend to break over my dead body, I would rather they would bring them out in my weary and troubled hours and open them, that I might be refreshed and cheered by them while I need them.

"I would rather have a plain coffin without a flower, a funeral without a eulogy, than a life without the sweetness of love and sympathy. Let us learn to annoint our friends beforehand for their burial. Post-mortem kindness does not cheer the burdened spirit. Flowers on the coffin cast no fragrance backward over the weary way.

If the bill for an extension to the Beatrice postoffice building passes, Postmaster Hollingworth is planning to ask congress for still another appropriation providing for a separate entrance to the postoffice to be used exclusively by ladies who insist upon wearing "Merry Widow" hats.—Beatrice Express.

A Freak Pig.

Ed. Thomas, living on Gilfred Lilly's place, three miles south of Nemaha, reports the birth of a freak pig from one of his Duroc sows last week. There were fourteen other lively well formed pigs in the litter, but the freak was born with two individual bodies united to one head. The bodies were well formed, with four legs each, joining the single head at the neck. The monster possessed four ears, two on the side of its head and two on top. The curiosity was brought to Nemaha and given to Dr. Frazier, who preserved it in alcohol.—Auburn Herald.

There is a Pink Pain tablet made by Dr. Shoop that will positively stop any pain anywhere in 20 minutes, druggists everywhere sell them as Dr. Shoop's headache tablets but they stop other pains as easily as headache. Dr. Shoop's Pink Pain Tablets simply coax blood pressure away from pain centers—that is all; pain comes from blood pressure—congestion; stop that pressure with Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets and pain is instantly gone. 20 tablet 25c. Sold by all dealers.

Test High School Law.

Thomas Wilkenson of Grant precinct, through his attorneys Amos Gantt and Reavis & Reavis filed a case against County Treasurer Lord, Tuesday, seeking to enjoin the collection of taxes levied on land under the new free high school law. This is a test action to determine the constitutionality of the law and will doubtless be taken to the supreme court after it is determined in the district court next month.

Commence taking it today and you will feel better at once. Foley's Orino Laxative does not nauseate or gripe and is pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. Kerr's Pharmacy.

LINCOLN is your town, it is the seat of your state government, the officers who spend your money live here, you send your children here to be educated, you send your friendless and crippled here, you send your insane here, you send your criminals here, when you want anybody hanged you send them here, when you wanted a big state fair you located it here, when you hold a convention it's here, whenever you do any shopping it's here—the most railroads center here.

Lincoln was created for the accommodation and benefit of the state of Nebraska and her citizens have grown to realize that all we are here for is for your service, and that is the reason state people like to come here.

The State Journal is being conducted along these lines. It is peculiarly a state paper, realizing its obligations to Nebraskans. It is a staunch advocate of all things for the upbuilding and uplifting of her people, and always stands for that much used and sometimes abused "square deal." It is the one state paper that can print all the news all the time about everybody and everything. No office-holders or office seekers in any of its departments from top to bottom.

We are obeying the new rules of Uncle Sam's postoffice and require all subscribers to pay in advance. In this way you pay only for your own paper; you are not helping to pay for the paper of some one who doesn't pay his bills.

Therefore, to introduce the State Journal into thousands of new homes, we will send it every day, except Sunday, from now until after the National Election for only $1.50. Make it $2.00 and we will add the Big Sunday paper. This will carry you through the exciting nominating campaign and then through the presidential race. This is just an introduction offer and the paper will be stopped at the end of that time. We stop all papers when time paid for is up. The sooner you send in your money the more papers you will get under this cut-price offer.

The Journal prints more reading matter than any other state daily and we will let you judge of the quality. SEE YOUR POSTMASTER.

There is a natural disposition among most young men to "act smart." Although very well behaved when among themselves they "act smart" when with the girls. They talk loud, and slap each other, put the girls' hats on their heads, and spread ants on their bread at a picnic, and do a great many other absurd things to attract attention. Girls do not "act smart" as much as boys, indeed, it is quite rare to find a girl guilty of the foolishness. A girl goes into company as naturally as a duck takes to water, but the savage in every boy must be tamed before he is fit to go into a parlor. In case this should attract the attention of a young man who is anxious to learn, we desire to say that this "acting smart" is in very bad taste, and all young men recover from it, providing they amount to anything." Acting smart in company is like traveling towards Omaha when you really want to go to Kansas City.—E. W. Howe.

Life's Weary Way.

The following treatise on life, with suggestions, was contributed to the Chicago Record-Herald by William H. Moore:

"A man's life is full of crosses and temptations. He comes into this world without his consent and goes out against his will and the rule of contraries is one of the important features of the trip. When he is little the big girls kiss him, but when he is grown the little girls kiss him. If he raises a large family he is a chump, but if he raises a check he is a thief. If he is poor he is a bad manager, if he is rich he is dishonest. If he is in politics it's for pie, if he's out of politics you can't place him and he is no good to his country. If he doesn't give to charity he is a stingy lobster, if he does it is for show. If he dies young there was a great future ahead of him, if he lives to an old age he has missed his calling. He is introduced into this world and to the next by the same process. The road is rocky, but man has to travel it.

"But his life would be much more pleasant and easier if he would adopt the following suggestions:

"Do not keep the alabaster boxes of your love and tenderness sealed up until your friends are dead. Fill their lives with sweetness. Speak approving, cheering words while their ears can hear them and while their hearts can be thrilled and made happier by them. The kind things you mean to say when they are gone say before they go. The flowers you mean to send for their coffins send to brighten and sweeten their homes before they leave them.
