

Henry C. Smith LANDS & LOANS

SHUBERT

Chas. Smiley was a Peru visitor on Monday.

M. Weick was a business visitor here last Saturday.

Mr. J. Wedde and family was shopping here Saturday.

John Oswald of Falls City was in our town quite recently.

Mr. Cornell of Golden City is now employed by C. A. Lord.

Jake Birdsley and wife spent Saturday evening with home folks.

Miss Bertha Shubert, our Hello Girl, was in Barada quite recently.

Joe Harper of Auburn was visiting old time friends here last week.

O. R. Ross of Nelson spent a part of last week with his family here.

Mr. Greenish of Stella was a business visitor here on Wednesday.

Miss Donna Albin spent Sunday with her cousin Miss Dora Fishburn.

Grandma Hill and Miss Cora are now entertaining out of town company.

Miss Chloe Wilkinson of Verdon was in our city several days last week.

Dr. Shook and wife entertained his brother and wife of Omaha last week.

Miss Nettie Ankrom spent Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Fred Boatman.

W. W. James of Peru came down Tuesday evening to look after his property.

Grandma Hunt of Auburn is now visiting with her children, who live near town.

Lee Tipton of Albany, Mo., is now here enjoying a visit with his grandparents.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hall has been quite sick during the past week.

Miss Myrtle Evans went up to Peru Tuesday morning to attend the graduating exercises.

Mrs. Gibson and little daughter spent Saturday with her sister, Mrs. John Evans of this place.

Miss Nettie Ankrom of near Barada assisted Mrs. F. A. Colglazier with her housework last week.

L. L. Jones and son Dale left Tuesday for Marsland, Neb., where they will visit for some time.

Mrs. Higgins has purchased the C. A. Lord property on Elm street and will take possession soon.

Mr. Miller and family moved to the country the first of last week, where he has employment on a farm.

Miss Floy Stotts left last Wednesday for South Dakota, where she will spend the summer with her sister.

Mrs. J. L. Dalby returned home Wednesday from her visit with her daughter Mrs. Tipton of Albany, Mo.

Clayton Henderson left Wednesday morning for Curley, Neb., where he will enjoy a visit with home folks.

Chas. Wilson and wife, accompanied by the latter's mother, Grandma Hunt, was in our town Saturday evening.

Mrs. George Bricker returned home Saturday from Verdon, where she was sent as a delegate for the Christian Sunday school.

Quite a number of our young folks went to Stella Wednesday evening to attend the band concert. They report the music as fine.

Mrs. F. N. Kinton is now at her home after a three month's stay with her parents during her serious sickness. She has not yet fully recovered.

Word was received from Mrs. Updike, formerly Mrs. Jno. Harmon, of Merna, Neb., that she was well pleased with her new home and that they were doing nicely.

The party given in honor of Miss Floy Stotts at Shubert's opera house last Saturday evening was well attended and a good time was had by every one present.

RULO.

Agnes Schrader was a Preston visitor recently.

Cecil Kanaly was a Preston visitor Wednesday.

Maud Boyd is visiting old friends in this vicinity.

Charlie DeMoss visited friends in Rulo last week.

Mrs. Morehouse returned home from Lincoln Monday.

Charlie Boerner was a St. Joseph visitor last week.

Harry Bradford was a Falls City visitor Wednesday.

Clara Aikman spent a couple of days in Verdon last week.

Bessie Anderson was a Falls City visitor last Saturday.

P. J. Emig made a trip to Atchison one day last week.

Julia Cronin was a Falls City visitor one day last week.

Dan Sutton of Fargo visited in Rulo a few days last week.

Elmer Arnold and son were in Rulo the last of the week.

Dave Anderson spent a few days with friends here recently.

F. E. Kulp of Wymore was in the city transacting business.

Mr. Moore of St. Louis was in this city one day last week.

Adam Blackie was a business visitor in Rulo one day last week.

George Ocom and son Harold were in Falls City Wednesday.

Grace Cronin has gone to Falls City, where she will learn to sew.

Mrs. Clarence Simon returned to her home in St. Joseph Tuesday.

Mrs. Dan Ratliff and daughter were Falls City visitors last week.

Walter Graves went to Verdon, where he expects to work on a farm.

A. J. Osburn and son Merril, took a trip to Oregon, Mo., Monday.

Roy Dykes of Preston visited Rulo friends the first of the week.

Hazel Johnson of Fargo visited with Enoch Feigler last week.

Mrs. Williams of Preston paid Rulo friends a short visit last week.

George Boyer of Falls City was a Rulo visitor one day last week.

Tom Poteet of Falls City spent a few days with Rulo friends recently.

Ira Phillips of Wymore was transacting business in Rulo last week.

Tom White and family of Seneca, Kans., are visiting Rulo relatives.

Hope Ward has been visiting her uncle in Verdon the past few days.

Willis Carpenter and family of Falls City visited relatives here recently.

Cecilia Emig departed Tuesday for a visit with friends in Council Bluffs.

Mrs. James Hales and children are visiting relatives in Preston this week.

Gertrude Kanaly and Clara Aikman were Falls City passengers Wednesday.

Chas. Tangney spent several days with his parents in Falls City recently.

Elias Martin and family came in to enjoy the band concert Saturday night.

Mrs. Cramer has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Whalen for several days past.

Tod McKeiver came down from Falls City last week for a visit with relatives here.

Mrs. Little Nichols returned last week from a visit with Kansas City friends.

Wm. Johnston and wife were business visitors to Falls City the fore part of the week.

Gertrude Kanaly returned last Wednesday from a pleasant visit with Falls City friends.

Lizzie Tupan and Josie Vetter of Kansas are visiting with Mrs. D. Van Valkenburg.

Cherry picking is in full blast, and there seems to be a full crop in spite of the insects.

Frank Fortner of Barada, who has been visiting in Rulo, returned to his home recently.

Mrs. Mary Carpenter has been the guest of Mrs. Wm. Carico of Falls City for several days.

The band gave an open air concert Saturday evening, which was enjoyed by a large crowd.

Edith Kern was the guest of her sister Mrs. Wm. Carico of Falls City several days last week.

The Misses Brace who have been visiting Mrs. Graves and relatives have returned to their home.

Mrs. D. Van, Miss Josie Vetter and Lizzie Tupan left Tuesday for an extended visit in Denver.

Uncle Billy Johnson was appointed street commissioner at the council meeting Tuesday night.

Freida Paul returned Saturday from Verdon, where she had been attending a Sunday school convention.

Sam Murph returned to Lincoln last Wednesday, accompanied by his sister-in-law, Mrs. Frank Morehouse.

Mildred Hinkle had the misfortune to fall from a cherry tree last Thursday, and though terribly bruised and shaken up, fortunately no bones were broken.

The Christian church was wired and lighted Thursday. This is the first of the churches to have electric lights.

The ladies oversaw the installing and arranging of the lights and contracted the placing of the same.

A. T. Sherman of Table Rock was here in a business way the first of the week.

Mrs. Knie and children have been visiting relatives in Lincoln and Johnston, Nebr.

Jessica and Mable Poteet of Falls City spent several days this week with relatives in this city.

A large crowd attended the social Saturday night but the profits were small, owing to the great expenses.

Albert Bachman returned to his home in Toledo, Ohio, the last of the week, after an extended visit with friends here.

I. P. S. Weeks and Mr. Darrow of Lincoln, were looking after the interests of the Burlington here one day last week.

The Emig building on First street is almost completed, and when finished, will be quite an improvement to the street.

James Tagney and wife have returned from a visit with relatives in Wyoming and Denver, Colo. They report a pleasant trip and were delighted with the city of Denver.

Mrs. George Dietrich and daughter of Hastings, who have been visiting relatives here, went to Falls City Tuesday, where they will visit a few days before returning to their home.

The Ladies Aid Society will give dinner and supper on Friday and Saturday, June 12 and 13. An entertainment will also be given in the opera house on the last named evening.

Henry Fischer's team ran away one day last week while he was bringing a load of hogs to market. Mr. Fischer was thrown out but not seriously injured. They also ran into a buggy damaging it. This is the second time this team has run away in as many weeks.

The big rain Sunday morning did the most damage of any of the season.

Three inches of rain fell in thirty minutes and with what had fallen before put things in bad shape. Streets were badly washed and cellars flooded. The railroads were badly crippled, several trains being laid up by slides of the west town.

Great stretches of the Atchison track is completely under water, and sixteen rails washed into the Missouri river. The track was being washed from under several passenger coaches so that they had to be hauled to a place of safety, to keep them from toppling over.

Consumptives Made Comfortable

Foley's Honey and Tar has cured many cases of incipient consumption and even in the advanced stages affords comfort and relief. Refuse any but the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar, Kerr's Pharmacy.

STELLA.

Adam Follmer of Shubert was in town Monday on business.

W. H. Hogrefe is having a new furnace installed in his house.

Mrs. Caroline Haggard and daughter returned to Stella this week.

Thos. J. McDonald of Kansas City was a visitor here Thursday.

Miss Alice Peabody of Nemaha is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. Higgins.

Jesse Brown and family returned to Falls City the last of the past week.

Mrs. J. F. Elchert spent a few days in Kansas City the past week with her mother.

Miss May Vandusen of Falls City was here Thursday and Friday taking notes at the trial.

Dr. H. T. Hahn of Falls City was a caller in this vicinity Monday to doctor some stock.

M. H. Vandeventer and family attended the Sunday school convention at Verdon Thursday.

This week is a busy one for the farmer's wife, who is putting away the ripening cherry crop.

Andy Hanika of Shubert came over Friday on business and spent the afternoon among our people.

Mrs. Curt Lambert of South Omaha, visited with relatives in this part of the country the past week.

Mrs. Martha Weaver and Miss Myrtle Shafer left this week for a short visit with relatives at Palo Alto, Ill.

The strawberry crop in this vicinity was a failure. The berries molded and mildewed before they got ripe.

The Christian church was wired and lighted Thursday. This is the first of the churches to have electric lights.

The ladies oversaw the installing and arranging of the lights and contracted the placing of the same.

240 acres well improved, 1½ miles from Depot in Kas. Good spring. Best of terms. Will take 40 acres as part payment, balance long time at low interest.
 200 acres 1½ miles from depot, Richardson county, Nebraska. Good buildings and land. Will take 40 or 80 acres as part payment.
 160 acres upland, 1 mile from depot, Richardson county, Nebraska. $12,000.
 160 acres Johnson county, Nebraska. 80 rods to church and school. Best of terms. Might rent.
 107 acres near Brownville, Nebraska.
 80 acres 1½-mile from Falls City high school.
 640 acres, $8,000 improvements. Also 640 acres adjoining. Will take 160 acres as part payment.
 Fine running water. A No. 1 opportunity.
 Money to loan.

Wm Mowery of Stella was in town Wednesday

Mr. Boyd was over from Humboldt last Thursday.

Roy Watson returned home from Lincoln Sunday.

Horace Clements of Stella spent Tuesday with relatives here.

Rev Steidley of Omaha spoke at the convention last Thursday.

Clyde Lum was a Falls City visitor the latter part of the week.

Rev. Teeter and Dunkleberger of Falls City, spent last Friday here.

Miss McKay of Beaver Crossing was in town the latter part of the week.

Misses Riggs and Shore of Shubert attended the convention held here last week.

Mrs Dallas Yoder of Falls City spent Monday with her parents, Wm Cook and wife.

Dr Houston, wife and children spent the first of the week visiting Wm Mowery and wife.

Rev Bennett Halderman and Mr Barthlow of Dawson attended the convention last week.

Misses Buser, Strunk and Klina of Dawson were delegates to the convention here last week.

Mr. Hendricks of Kansas City and N B Judd of Falls City were in town last Thursday on business.

J R Cain, jr, and Dr. Montgomery have been in Omaha this week attending a meeting of the Masonic lodge.

Mrs Ralph Weller and two little children of Omaha are the guests this week at the home of H D Weller.

Mrs Martha Weaver and Miss Myrtle Shafer left last week for Palo Alto, Illinois, where they will spend the summer with relatives.