

LOCAL LORE.

Hon. C. F. Reavis was looking after professional business in Humboldt Saturday.

John Crook and wife and little daughter left Monday night for a two week's visit in Denver.

The Lincoln fans are so cruel as to say that Friday ladies' day is a hoodoo, as the team never wins on that day.

Mrs. D. L. McCoy of Hiawatha came over Monday and will spend a week or more in the city at the home of J. R. Cain.

Mrs. Tom Sare of Mound City, Mo., arrived in the city the first of the week to accompany her daughter to Colorado.

Ben Dilley of Hiawatha was in the city Monday, stopping for a short time on his way home from an extended western trip.

Misses Mary and Jessie Paxton left the first of the week for Rigby, Idaho, where they will spend the summer with their father.

Mesdames Q. and Walter Staver came down from Salem on Tuesday, leaving here over the Missouri Pacific for Council Bluffs.

Mrs. Wm. Griffin and children of Hebron came to the city last Thursday evening for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McCormick.

Tom Frenchy was hit in the eye with a ball Sunday, and for a time it was thought the injury would prove serious, but he is getting along nicely.

Judge Reavis left Monday for Rushville, Neb., where he goes to try an important case. He will also attend supreme court in Lincoln before his return.

Otho Wachtel returned Saturday from Peoria, Ill., where he had been in attendance as a delegate to the M. W. A. convention. He also visited relatives in Lawark, Ill., while absent.

W. A. Campbell, of Hardy, Neb., spent a few days of this week in the city with many old friends and relatives. Mr. Campbell was a resident of this city many years ago, and is well known by many of our old timers.

Charlie Gibson of Litchfield, Neb., was in the city a short time Monday. Mr. Gibson is postmaster in his home town, and was enroute to the convention, stopping here for a few hours visit with his old friend, Frank Werner.

This week Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Loree moved back into their home which has been undergoing such extensive improvements. They are now so cozily situated that it is hard for Charlie to pull himself away from home long enough to attend to office duties.

Tecumseh will pull off a great race meet July 2-4. The entries are well filled in all the events and some fast work may be looked for. July 4th will be a big day with our neighbors and if you are looking for a day's sport with royal treatment, visit Tecumseh and make the acquaintance of Col. C. W. Pool, the genial secretary of the association.

The Auburn papers last week carried page ads, announcing the Fourth of July celebration to be held in that city. You can always count on something doing in Auburn and they are not stingy with the printers ink when they want the people to know it. That accounts for the big crowds always found in Auburn at their public gatherings.

Geo. W. Segrist of Humboldt, was down Tuesday looking after business. Mr. Segrist is proprietor of the dairy at Humboldt, and was here for the purpose of placing his butter on the market, arranging with V. G. Lyford to handle the same. Mr. Segrist is endeavoring to establish a milk depot in this city, and if successful, will use the bottle system. The output of this dairy is the very best, being pure Jersey product, and we sincerely hope Mr. Segrist will be successful in his efforts.

How does Taft and Sherman sound to you?

Mrs. John W. Ramel of Verdon was in the city Saturday.

P. S. Heacock and wife returned Friday from their Chicago trip.

Jack White of Napier spent a portion of this week with friends here.

J. R. Cain, jr., will deliver the address at Humboldt on the Fourth.

The Oklahoma Indians won out in the ball game at Auburn last week.

The young folks enjoyed a pleasant dance at Wahl's hall Friday night.

The circus bills will soon cover the bill boards and the small boy will be happy.

A. A. Tanner of Humboldt visited with his mother in this city Thursday night.

Miss Anna Krats went to Reserve Monday to visit a short time with relatives.

Bert Whitaker went to Kansas City Saturday to spend a few days with his brother, Jim.

Mrs. Martin Kanaly left Saturday for a visit with friends in Atchison and Leavenworth.

Ray Gist, wife and child of Humboldt, spent Sunday with W. A. Greenwald and wife in this city.

The Holiness people held services on the street Saturday and succeeded in gathering a good crowd.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas Hargrave and son, Tom returned Friday from a visit with relatives in Wymore.

Dr. Miner left Monday for Chicago to attend a meeting of the American Medical Homeopathic society.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Spear went to Lincoln Saturday evening for a visit at the home of John Martin and wife.

E. A. Maust and wife were called to Sabetha, Kansas Friday on account of the illness of the latter's brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Jule Ruegge are the proud parents of a baby girl which arrived at their home Saturday morning.

Mrs. Will Lytle of Atchison spent Friday and Saturday in this city with her sister, Mrs. George Albright.

According to the Hiawatha World, the farmers over there caught fine fish in their pastures after the high water.

Oscar Leech was among the delegates from Humboldt who attended the Epworth League convention last week.

Fred Graham returned the latter part of the week from Madison, Wis., where he spent the past year attending college.

Miss Emma Frank and the little Tanner children of Humboldt are spending the week in this city with relatives.

Most of our farmers will be more than pleased if the weather permits them to celebrate the 4th of July in their corn fields.

Mrs. Grant Sperry and son, Charley left the first of the week for Colorado, where they expect to remain during the summer.

E. Dowty of Preston was an early visitor Monday morning, calling for the purpose of renewing his faith in the great and only.

Rev. Jas. Davis and wife of Rockford, Ill., spent a few days during the past week in this city with their cousin, Mrs. Andrew Cameron.

Mrs. Grant Windle and daughter, Thelma left Monday for Hooper, Colorado for an extended visit with Mrs. Windle's parents, J. M. Culp and wife and to be present at a reunion of the Culp family which will take place some time during July.

Henry Elise of Shubert was in our city Friday and made The Tribune a very pleasant call. He was the guest of C. H. Heineman while here.

George Cleveland returned Friday from Colorado where he has been for the past two or three weeks looking after his land interests.

Basil Boyle, now a very successful traveling salesman, was in the city a few days during the past week visiting his mother, Mrs. J. C. Yutzy.

There will be an eclipse of the sun next Sunday. This will be no treat as the sun has been obscured most of the time during the past two months.

Ferd Harlow took pity on the over worked printer Saturday and showed his neighborly feeling by cleaning the weeds away from our front door. Thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Gist write that they are enjoying their trip hugely. Up to date they have visited Washington, Philadelphia Atlantic City and New York.

Saturday was a dull day for our merchants, there being few farmers in town. The city has no charm for the farmer when the crops need his attention as they do now.

Despite the weather, the improvements recently made on the residence of C. F. Reavis are going on, and when completed this will be one of the prettiest homes in the city.

Jimmy Mendenhall, who looks after the B. & M. in this vicinity was in town the latter part of the week trying to find a few democrats to go to Denver to attend the convention.

C. H. Heineman has a collection of pictures which are fine reproductions of the scenes as they appeared during the high water. They are interesting and are forcible reminders of what the high water has done in this locality.

D. Ray of St. Louis, who is holding a very lucrative position as civil engineer and purchasing agent for the Missouri Pacific, returned to his home Monday, after several days spent in this city a guest at the home of Rev. Neide.

Al Adams was down from Salem Saturday and made The Tribune a pleasant call. Mr. Adams is one of the flood victims having sustained severe losses, but he is not discouraged and will begin again with renewed faith in good old Richardson.

The committee has been busy during the week disposing of the tickets necessary to make the chautauqua a success, and we are more than pleased to note that they have been successful, and the best chautauqua ever given the people will be on August 7 to 16 in this city.

The Merchants band of Falls City has been engaged to give concerts during the chautauqua. For a time it looked as though there would be no band for the chautauqua, but the management soon found the patrons would not stand for that, so the band question has been settled.

Street Commissioner Starzel had a large force of men with drags at work on our streets Saturday and did a great deal of work. It is the first chance he has had at the streets for some time, but when he was through with Stone street all evidence of the rains had vanished.

W. F. Garver and Jake Snethen were down from Humboldt last Thursday, scattering advertising matter announcing the big celebration to be held in that city on the Fourth. They are making big preparations for a big time and extend an invitation to everybody to come and help them celebrate. As there is nothing doing in Falls City on that day we presume this town will be pretty well represented.

Notice.
Owing to the rapid increase of subscribers on our Falls City exchange, we will be compelled to ask our subscribers to kindly call by number instead of name as was formerly done. Owing to this increase we have been compelled to employ a number of new operators. These new operators, not being familiar with the names and numbers of the subscribers will delay your service if you call by name. The old operators are taxed very heavily by this custom. Our new directories, which have just been issued are correct to date. Any information not appearing in these books will be cheerfully furnished by the chief operators.

Good Opening.
One of the finest openings in the State for a general or department store at Bertrand, Neb. Address
P. C. SCHROEDER, Bertrand, Neb.

There will be Children's day services at the Evangelical church next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. A very pleasing program is being prepared.

Card of Thanks.
We desire to tender sincere thanks to neighbors and friends, who so kindly assisted during the last illness of our husband and father. Their kind assistance by day and night and their cheering words at all times will long be remembered.
