

Henry C. Smith LANDS & LOANS

240 acres well improved, 1 1/2 miles from Depot in Kas. Good spring. Best of terms. Will take 40 acres as part payment, balance long time at low interest.

200 acres 1 1/2 miles from depot, Richardson county, Nebraska. Good buildings and land. Will take 40 or 80 acres as part payment.

160 acres upland, 1 mile from depot, Richardson county, Nebraska. $12,000.

160 acres Johnson county, Nebraska. 80 rods to church and school. Best of terms. Might rent.

107 acres near Brownville, Nebraska.

80 acres 1/4-mile from Falls City high school.

640 acres, $8,000 improvements. Also 640 acres adjoining. Will take 160 acres as part payment. Fine running water. A No. 1 opportunity.

Money to loan.

VERDON.

W D Corn drove to Falls City last Monday.

Jim Ayers was a Falls City visitor Monday.

Jim Ayers was a Falls City visitor Friday.

John Hall was a Falls City visitor last Thursday.

Grace Bennett was a Shubert visitor last Thursday.

L L Corn drove to Falls City on business Thursday.

George Fogle and wife drove down to Barada Monday.

Frank Bricker of Shubert visited relatives here last week.

Clyde Lum has returned from his visit at Dodge City, Mo.

Jim Ayers and family drove to Dawson Friday and spent the day.

Ralph Miller of Geneva, Neb., is visiting relatives here this week.

The Misses Reese entertained a number of friends Tuesday evening.

Ed Dowty came up from Preston Friday for a short visit to relatives.

Ethel and Elmo Cook returned home from Blue Springs, Neb., Friday.

F W Robb and W S Byerly were county seat visitors Thursday last.

Frank Bricker of Shubert was in town a short time last Wednesday.

Erna Wilkinson and Cora Douglas were Shubert visitors last Sunday.

Lee Johnson and family leave Tuesday for an extended trip to Denver.

Mrs Minnie Boyle and son and Lena Shubert were in Falls City Monday.

Rev Dillon of Lincoln preached at the Evangelical church Friday night.

Mrs Minnie Walker and children returned from St. John's Ore., Sunday.

Disrael Bowman went to Lincoln last Wednesday on a visit to relatives.

Mrs. George and Julia Hall were Falls City visitors last Thursday.

Mrs Dave Griffith and daughter returned Thursday from their Falls City visit.

Mrs D G Griffith and son returned last Thursday from their visit at Wynmore.

Mrs Ira Houtz and son went to Strausville, Monday, for a visit to relatives.

Misses Kelley and Armbruster left Saturday for a short visit to friends at Seneca, Kans.

Ethel and Elmo Cook left Monday for Blue Springs, where they were sent as delegates.

Pearl Clements returned to her home at Stella Saturday, after a month's visit to her uncle.

Dr Griffiths, Loren Corn, Warren Douglas and Henry Corn were Falls City visitors last Friday.

O P Veal and daughters went to Falls City Saturday to visit relatives. They returned Sunday afternoon.

H. N. Timmerman and wife spent Sunday at the country home of Clara Coleman and wife, west of town.

Mrs Newt Cox arrived from Elk Creek, Sunday, to visit her mother, Mrs Hooper, who has been sick.

John Leepers, wife and daughter returned home last Friday from Nebraska City. The former visited at Dunbar.

Rev Leahman of Maple Grove held quarterly meeting here Friday night. He also preached Sunday morning and evening.

Mrs Joe Veal and children and Mrs Eliza Goolsby returned Sunday from an extended visit with relatives at Champion, Neb.

Mrs W F Veach and daughter and Mrs Julia Hall left Monday for Canada where they will visit the latter's son, Will Hall and family.

Mrs O W Hart and daughter returned to their home at St. Joe Tuesday, after a three week's visit to her sister-in-law, Miss Hart.

The W C T U gave a contest Saturday night. The following young ladies took part: Jean Chartrow, Francis Miller, Elmo and Ethel Cook, Barbara Ramel, Clara Masingle, Alma Mayfield and Lizzie Fisher. The judges were Mrs O W Hart, Mr Cook and Rev Leahman. The medal was awarded to Jean Chartrow.

BARADA.

Ray Dunn was in Shubert Saturday.

Coney Gerdes was in Falls City last Tuesday.

Fred Statte was a Barada visitor one day last week.

Mr George Fogle of Verdon was in town Saturday.

Mrs John Randall was quite ill the fore part of the week.

T J Oliver was up from Falls City on school business Tuesday.

J C Wileman was in the city with cherries one day last week.

W M Hendricks and family spent Sunday with J A Martin and wife.

Jacob Peters and wife were Falls City visitors on Thursday of last week.

Mrs J C Wileman and Miss Audrey were Falls City visitors on Tuesday.

Mrs. Paul Smith of Falls City visited relatives here several days last week.

Miss Hattie Lilly of Verdon visited Thursday of last week with Mrs J A Martin.

A young mare belonging to C H Martin was badly cut in a barb wire fence Saturday.

Mrs M Schulerburg and daughter Katie took dinner Sunday with Mrs. Henry Parthen.

John Rumbaugh and family spent Sunday at the farm with A J Rumbaugh and family.

L H Morehead had the misfortune to lose three head of steers which were struck by lightning on Saturday.

Miss Mary Suthmer, who is assisting Mrs. Nick Arnold with her housework, spent Sunday at her home near St. De-roin.

Preaching services at Big Bethel church next Sunday evening. A Christian Endeavor society will be organized at that time also.

Leon Vassar is helping Conrad Buchholz harvest his hay crop. During his absence Mrs. Vassar is visiting her mother, Mrs. R. M. Williamson.

A number of our citizens planned to attend the Woodman banquet at Shubert Saturday evening but were deterred from so doing by the rain.

Mrs Emma Siemerling returned last week from an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs A C Steinbrink at Republic, Kansas. She reports the addition to their family of a new son.

Ethel, the little daughter of Herbert Stokes, one day last week fell from a fence, where she had climbed, breaking both bones in her left lower arm. Dr Van Osdel set the broken member and Ethel is doing nicely.

At the annual school meeting held on Monday Wm Slagle was elected as director for a period of three years to take the place of C H Martin whose term had expired. E E Bolejack was elected as treasurer to fill an unexpired term of two years.

Dr Stong was called Monday evening to attend Bessie, the six-year old daughter of John Anderson, living near Fargo, who was badly burned. The child lay asleep on the floor when her brother accidentally overturned a kettle of boiling water on her. The little one was quite seriously burned but it is not thought fatally.

SALEM.

R E Grinstead was in Falls City last Monday.

Mrs J E French went to Stella last Tuesday.

Mrs Fuller of Verdon was in Salem Wednesday.

Joe Windell returned home from St. Joe Monday.

Myrtle Banker went to Forest City, Mo., Monday.

John Fryberger of Table Rock was in town Tuesday.

Mr and Mrs J N Wickham were in Falls City Tuesday.

Mrs Morris Houch and baby went to Falls City Tuesday.

O B Lesley and Will McDougall were in Falls City Wednesday.

Mrs Russell came home from University Place Monday morning.

Eugene Meredith and Ben Horton are now home from school at Lincoln.

Mrs N M Kershaw of Humboldt spent last week with L C Motley and family.

Louise Rule of Falls City visited a few days last week with friends in Salem.

Ora French came home from Peru Friday to visit a few days with her parents.

Mrs George Jennings and daughter Nellie came up from Falls City Tuesday afternoon.

Grace Harlin went to St. Joe Tuesday to visit for a short time with her sister, Mrs Spalding.

Mrs Staver and daughter Lena went to Council Bluffs Tuesday morning to attend the Stavers-Roberts wedding.

Mrs Thompson, who has been visiting in and about Salem for the past few days returned to her home in Dawson Monday.

OHIO.

Henry Albers is at home to spend his vacation.

Lola Sturms is visiting near Hamlin, Kansas, this week.

Mrs Lutz went to Falls City last week for a few days visit.

F M Shaffer and family visited at F S Lichty's Sunday.

Mrs F M Shaffer was a guest of Mrs Wes Nedrow Monday.

Elsie and Ella Huettner visited with Ethel Peck last Friday.

Robert Schindler and family spent last Sunday in Falls City.

Will Coons of near Verdon was a guest of relatives Sunday.

Wanda and Roma Shaffer visited with Ethel Peck Wednesday.

John Lichty and wife visited at Chester Stump's last Wednesday.

Wilma and Blythe Shaffer visited with Jennie Burk Wednesday.

Mrs Chas Zentner enjoyed a visit from a sister one day last week.

Chas Stump and Wm Hutchison spent Tuesday evening with Ralph Nedrow.

Wes Stump and wife of Verdon were guests of Clem Stump and wife Sunday.

Amelia Reischick and friend were guests at John Reischick's one day last week.

John Yocum of Falls City spent a few days with his daughter, Mrs W Peck this week.

The Misses Richards and Thompson of Falls City were guests of Elsie Huettner, Monday.

Fred Chesley and wife of Falls City visited with the latter's brother, H. A. Burk and family Sunday.

Mrs E D Shaffer and little daughter spent Wednesday of last week at the home of Mrs. Chester Stump.

Guy Lichty and wife entertained at their home last Sunday. Dell Spickler and wife of Barada, H J Pritchard and wife and Chester Stump and family were among the guests.

HUMBOLDT.

Orin Shrauger was over from Pawnee City Saturday and Sunday.

A little son was born to Frank Rist and wife, Sunday, June 28th.

Lloyd Reid was down from Lincoln this week visiting his parents.

Mrs R L Hoff entertained a company of friends at her home Tuesday.

Frances Little visited Friday and Saturday with Lincoln friends.

Ellie Abbott, of Peru, is here visiting with her sister, Mrs Frank Dorland.

Norman Bullis and wife of Kansas City, are here visiting his mother, Mrs J A Murphy.

Elmer Rousek and sister, Clema, attended the Fenton-Hirchey wedding in Dawson Tuesday.

Guy Williamson and wife came down from Omaha Friday to remain a few days with friends.

Will Bobst and family arrived in the city Saturday from Chicago to visit S B Bopst and wife.

Bessie Little left Friday for Kearney where she will remain during the summer with relatives.

Mrs C M Linn gave a six o'clock dinner on Wednesday evening complimentary to Eva Cooper.

Percy Glasser returned Thursday from northwestern Canada, where he has proven up on his claim.

Mrs E Cox returned Friday to her home in Pawnee City, after a pleasant visit at the home of L C Mann.

Medames S M and R R Philpot were hostesses to a party of friends at the home of the former on Tuesday.

John Cowman returned Sunday from St. Louis, where he has been visiting his son, Frank, for several months.

Jessie Harsberger returned Friday from Blue Springs, where she had been in attendance at a Sunday school convention.

Ollie Stalder arrived here Monday from Riverside, Cal. and will remain some time with his mother, Mrs A E Stalder.

The funeral services of A E Stalder were held from the family home Saturday afternoon, the services being conducted by Rev G C Aydelotte, pastor of the Christian church.

At the annual school meeting held Monday evening C L Hummel and Wenzel Skalak were elected to a three years term of office, to serve in the places of J F Walsh and S M Philbot.

STELLA.

M J Clancy and family were visitors from Dawson Tuesday.

F E Morgan is helping his brother Bert on the farm this summer.

C H Thomas arrived from Lincoln Monday for a visit with relatives.

A T Parker, a lumberman of Lincoln was in town Thursday on business.

Warren Hartzel visited with his brother Harry in the country west of town Sunday.

Mr and Mrs S H Bailey went to Union Sunday afternoon to visit the former's relatives.

C F Vaught of Sterling arrived here the latter part of the week. He is in search of a location.

Ephraim Withee took a new binder out home with him Saturday and began work in his wheat field.

Mrs E J Griffith, accompanied by her granddaughter went to Omaha Sunday for a visit with relatives.

Charles Mason, wife and granddaughter, were visiting the farms in the country north of town Thursday.

Jimmie Stout is again doing business in this part of the country. Mr Stout comes down from Auburn every now and then.

Frank Wolfe, who formerly worked for Wheeler & Son of this place, was here on a visit Friday. Mr Wolfe is now a traveling man.

Thurman Sarvis visited a few days with his parents at this place this week. He accompanied his sister, Mrs Ed Thompson to Lincoln Sunday.

The Greek extra gang has gotten along nicely the past week. They are now between Howe and Stella, just at the crossing east of the Withee farm.

J T Curtis of this place delivered 2327 bushels of corn to Lefe Higgins Friday at 70c a bushel. Mr Curtis says that he believes corn is high enough at that price.

Eugene Allemand and his daughter, Mrs I H Martin left the first of the week for Excelsior Springs, where they will remain for a few weeks in hopes of regaining health.

Harvesting became the real thing from Thursday on until the rain came Saturday evening. Many of the farmers were going to break the Sabbath, but none did however, after the rain.

A great call for hired help has been going out around this neighborhood the past week. Nearly every man you met wanted to get some one to help him with his wheat.

F M Weller is helping Guy Harris put up hay for a few weeks. Miss Olive Harris is also out on the farm this past week to take care of the cooking department for her brother.

Henry D Williams of Cotner University has been spending the past week in this part canvassing for a Bible company. He is studying for the ministry and is spending his vacation working for this company.

Nevada Hays accompanied the Misses South to their home at Austinville, Iowa, Monday. She will spend a few weeks at that place. Mr and Mrs D S Hinds will remain with Mrs Viola Hays during Miss Nevada's absence.

D A Watson has again gotten his bottom land in corn and it is coming up nicely. It seems quite a contrast to have corn which is ready to plow the last time and having some just coming up. Mr Watson's fields are thus.

The farmers about five miles west of town report that they suffered a heavy loss from the hail Sunday night. Near Rears Brothers farm it is reported to have cut the corn to the ground. Mr Trimmer reports that the wheat in his vicinity was also badly damaged.

J M Goodloe got his new auto from off the car Friday and came up Main street like a whirlwind. He has a new Ford, a four cylinder and fifteen horse power engine machine and it is a dandy. Saturday he spent a good bit of the day with it and when evening came he could go down home without hitting a telephone pole.

J H Overman reports the convention of postmasters to be one of the best ever held. He says there were 528 postmasters in attendance. 3 of these were first class, 14 second class, 235 third class and the balance fourth class postmasters and mistresses. The convention was held in the Fraternity hall. Postmaster Overman says the only thing he missed was getting his picture taken and while that was being done he was going home with C H Thomas carrying a large watermelon and just as they passed the Library the picture was completed.

Mrs Mary Elliott died at the home of their daughter, Mrs. G. F. Aller of this place Tuesday evening June 23. Her death was due to old age. Mary Hull was born in Delaware county, Ohio, January 28, 1823 and resided with her parents near that place until 1840 when she was married to David Elliott. This union was blessed with eight children, three of whom are yet living, Mrs. G. F. Aller of this place, Mrs. J. E. French of Salem and Charles E. Elliott of Denver. The family made their first move from Ohio in the early fifties to Iowa, remaining a few years in that state and in 1869 they moved to Salem. In 1898 Mr. Elliott left this earth for the realms beyond at a ripe old age of eighty years and his body was laid away in the city of Denver. After his death Mrs. Elliott spent her time with her daughter at this place, though quite frequently visiting her son in Denver. She has fifteen grandchildren, twenty-one great grandchildren and three great great ones. Mrs. Elliott was a member of the Seven Day Adventists church. The funeral sermon was preached in the Baptist church by Rev. Hughes of the Christian church of Auburn on Thursday afternoon. The remains were laid to rest in Stella cemetery.

H R Young had an exciting time for a few minutes Monday while cutting wheat. He had five horses and mules hitched to his machine and began work, but hadn't gone far when the mules became frightened and tried to run away. The teams did not get away but they did considerable damage to the machine before they could be stopped. Mr Young came to town in the afternoon and got repairs.

The commercial club met in Judge Baldwin's office Thursday evening and elected new officers for the coming year. Dr. G. M. Andrews, president; A. J. Baldwin, secretary; A. H. Barstler and Max Keefer, vice president; E. Wheeler, treasurer; and Dr. Montgomery and J. W. Vaught on the executive committee. Old business was completed and new business was discussed. It was decided that we hold our fall festival.

H. W. Lowe of Peru came down to this place on business Friday and also visited with relatives and friends while here. Mr. Lowe says that he has the biggest prospect of tomato and other fruit this season that he has ever had. He is figuring on a greater output by a good many crates. He further says that his entire output for this year is already contracted for by a large company.

The yearly meeting of the Public schools was held in the high school building at this place Monday evening and the regular routine of business was carried on and the following men were elected for the coming year: I A McDowell and J J Warfield to the long term of office and J F Tolly was elected to the short term to fill vacancy.

The Stella Light and Power Co., have gotten a new fireman at the power house this week. Z. Pixley of Brock arrived the first of the week and will continue his work with them. He will move his family to this place as soon as he can find a house.

S. F. Mutz who has lead the band since last December at this place came his last time Wednesday evening and the boys are indeed very sorry to have him leave them, but they are trying to secure another leader.

George Spaulding is building a two story, seven room house on the Michael Shafar farm west of town. E. J. Gilbert is farming the land this year and has hired men who will occupy the house.

J F Dammann and family of Pueblo arrived Saturday for a visit with M Barstler and family. His mother also, of Nebraska City, visited with the Barstler family while her son was here.

Mrs Lucy Robinson and babies, who have been at Excelsior Springs for some time, returned for a few days visit with her parents. While here Mrs Robinson had quite a sick spell.

H. H. Harms who lives northeast of Humboldt came to town Thursday for the first time in four months. He has had the rheumatism ever since the wet season set in.

Mrs W C Parriott and daughter of Auburn arrived Tuesday for a visit with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Tynan.

The Stella telephone company is installing a new switch board and expect to have it ready for work in ten days.

R. A. Clark is installing some fixtures where the new store goes into the first of July.

J. M. Evans of Shubert spent Thursday evening in this city.

Max Keefer and wife made a trip to Lincoln the past week on business.

Goldie Jenkins is visiting with her uncle, John Jenkins north of town this week.

Mrs. A. E. Camblin of Falls City are visiting Mrs. Catherine Noa south of town this week.

Miss M. C. Colglazier and Luella spent a few days in Verdon the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Caroline Young just returned from an extended visit in the western part of the state.

Misses Christy and Netta South visited the past week with Nevada Hays south of town.

Clyde Baldwin who has been in New Mexico for nearly two years is planning to make a visit home this fall.

Miss Maggie O'Brien accompanied her Uncle Patrick to his home at Edmonds, Okla., the first of the week.

Mrs. Wm. Culp of Nemaha is visiting her mother, Mrs. I. E. Lyanna of this place the latter part of the week.

J. R. Cain and L. W. Harris attended the semi-annual meeting of the Farmers State Bank at Shubert Thursday.

Mrs. Barstler and daughter returned from an extended visit in Nebraska City and Burr the latter part of last week.

Earl Meyers of Peru who is working with his brother in Auburn made this town a pleasant call Wednesday evening with Mr. Mitz.

SHUBERT.

Joseph Harper of Auburn was in our city on Wednesday.

Miss Hattie Lilly was calling on her friends here Wednesday.

Ed Krug spent Sunday at the home of Fred Meyers in the country.

Newton Jarvis of Nemaha spent Friday as a business visitor here.

Clyde Hill is now at Falls City assisting the Journal with their work.

Mr H J Belden was a business visitor at Stella one day quite recently.

Misses Lena and Maggie Weick were in town shopping last Saturday.

Mr. Crook, our county surveyor, was a business visitor here Tuesday.

Quite a number here have had their sidewalks repaired during the week.

Jake Birdsley, wife and little son were the guests of home folks Sunday.

Grandma Lewis and daughter spent a few days last week shopping in Falls City.

George Bricker has been laying some new sidewalks for J C Shulenberg this week.

Mrs Shook returned home Saturday from a few days visit with relatives at Auburn.

Miss Hattie Lilly will leave the first of this week for a visit with home folks in Illinois.

Chas Felt had his residence on Railroad street repainted, which adds greatly to its appearance.

Willie Oathout, who has been visiting home folks here, returned to Portland, Oregon, last Thursday.

Word was received from Grandma Evans that she reached Ohio safely and is now having a pleasant time.

Fred Colglazier and family left last Wednesday for Salem, Indiana, for a few weeks stay with relatives.

Mr Martin the photographer, of Barada, made this his place of business Saturday and did quite a bit of work.

The many friends here of Mrs Smiley sympathize with her over the loss of her father, who died at Rockport, Mo., June 20.

Mrs Jno Lambert, who was hurt in a runaway last week is now at the home of Mrs. Higgins and is in a very critical condition.

Judge Parsons and wife of near Verdon came in Sunday, when Mrs Parsons, who has been in poor health for some time, came to consult the doctor.

F M Oathout and wife spent Sunday as the guests of relatives at St. Joe. They were accompanied home by their son Willie, who visited here a few days.

The W O W supper, which was had Saturday evening was quite a success, there being a large number in from the country in spite of the bad weather.

Willard Shubert and wife, Arthur Shubert and wife, Frank Shubert and wife, accompanied by Mrs John Speece and Mrs Burson left Sunday morning early for the river and had a pleasant day's outing.