

FORREST HILL FRUIT FARM

It's Condition Proves That Scientific Methods Pay

On Saturday last we accepted an invitation from H. C. Smith to visit Forrest Hill Fruit Farm near Barada. The drive was made by John Mosiman in his auto and in an hour we had glided through the valley and climbed the Barada hills to the farm. Forrest Hill is in charge of J. C. Wileman, who some seventeen years ago moved into the timber there and began to clear and cultivate the fertile soil. As fast as the land could be cleared and prepared an orchard was planted and carefully cultivated and pruned.

Before the trees were old enough for fruiting considerable attention was paid to small fruit, an abundance of which was marketed at a good profit. While there is still an abundance of berries on the place, but little attention is given to their cultivation.

Horticulture is not our fort, consequently it is impossible for us to give a pen picture of this splendid seventy acre orchard so burdened with perfect fruit that many trees are breaking under their load. The orchard has for several years been scientifically cared for and this year's crop certainly proves beyond a doubt that spraying and careful pruning pays. It is estimated that at least 5000 barrels of choice fruit will be taken from this orchard, aside from the culls which will find a ready market at a fair price while the perfect fruit will top the market.

It is certainly worth the trip to see this orchard and you will be royally entertained by Mr. Wileman and his estimable family.

The state fair management has arranged a track meet for the athletes of Nebraska this year.

The meet will be held independently of horse racing and the men will be well taken care of. Participants will be given admission to the fair grounds on the day of the meet (Tuesday) Gold, silver and bronze medals will be given the winners of first, second and third places. Out of town contestants will receive hotel accommodations for the day meet. The events are 100, 220 and 440 yard dashes, half and mile runs, high and broad jump, pole vault, shot put and county relay races. In the county relay race four men run 220 yards each. All amateur athletes are eligible to compete and register, either in the A.L.N.A. or A. A. U. The cost of registration is 25 cents for one year's membership. Registration entry blanks and information may be had by writing George M. Pinneo, Y. M. C. A. Bldg, Lincoln, Neb.

BARADA
Birds-eye View as Seen by The Writer Saturday

Through the kindness of H. C. Smith, we were piloted through Barada Saturday forenoon and were somewhat surprised at the thrift of that village. We found three stocks of goods, one of the neatest and most up-to-date bank buildings with furnishings that would do credit to any town, two blacksmith shops, barber shop, restaurant and postoffice. Barada also has a canning factory of no mean dimensions, which we understand will look after an immense crop of tomatoes which is being cultivated nearby and at this time are very promising. We also met a genial physician who is looking after the human ills of that vicinity, and is very comfortably located. In fact we conclude that Barada is not the worst place on the map to locate and the rich country surrounding the thrifty village is sure to bring prosperity to her inhabitants.

Secretary W. R. Mellor of the state board of Agriculture and Secretary W. H. Whitten of the Lincoln Commercial club appeared before the meeting of the Western Passenger Association at Chicago last week together with representatives from five other states and secured a rate of one and one half cent per mile for all state fairs in this western territory. This will be the first reduced rate granted to farmers since the enactment of the two cent fare law, and should result in an increased attendance for the Nebraska state fair, August 31st to Sept. 4th.

NOT A PARADE OF SOCIETY

New York's "Smart Set" Seen on Foot Only When Returning from Church.

When strangers visit New York they naturally think that by taking a walk on Fifth avenue on Sunday afternoon they will see all the fashionable people out on parade, says the New York Press. Now, the city has always been peculiar in that regard. The only time on Sunday that you will find the smart New Yorkers on Fifth avenue is between 12 and one o'clock, when the churches turn out their congregations. Then you witness a procession of elegant persons that probably cannot be eclipsed in brilliancy or beauty in any other city in the world. At one o'clock the throng begins to thin out and by two o'clock it is practically deserted. At three o'clock another crowd comes up, but these are all sightseers.

OUCH!

"Hello, Langhorne! I finished reading that new novel of yours this afternoon."

"Indeed? Would you believe, I had that idea nearly four years before I wrote it?"

"Great heavens, man; you don't mean you wrote that book deliberately?"

SAVING CALIFORNIA TREES.

The Stockton (Cal.) Arbor club has commenced an active campaign to raise funds for the purpose of saving the 14 miles of trees planted along four roads leading out of Stockton.

The scarcity of moisture this season makes it necessary that the trees be watered several times and additional funds are necessary to carry the many fine trees that have been growing through the summer.

It is also the intention of the Arbor club to later extend the tree planting on the four roads already lined with trees. Officers of the organization hope before many years to have the main thoroughfares leading to Stockton nice shady lanes.

THE CAMELLIA'S CENTENARY.

It is not inappropriate that the Camellia should be celebrating its centenary by becoming once more a popular greenhouse flower. Of course in the south as a hardy shrub (or small tree) it has never failed to be appreciated, but on account of the stiff formality of its flowers, it had fallen into disfavor among florists and gardeners in the north. Yet at this time it is not infrequently met with in the florists' stores. The first plant of camellia, Mr. Berckmans tells us, was introduced in Charleston in 1808.—Garden Magazine.

SQUARING HIMSELF.

"You took retainers from both husband and wife in this divorce case," said the court, severely.

"Your honor," said the accused attorney, "let me explain. I was first retained by the man."

"No impropriety in that."

"Then, conscious that the husband had secured legal talent of such high order, I deemed it fair that the wife should have an equal show."

TOUCHED.

Mrs. Homespun—The comic papers say you fellows never work.

Weary Waffles—Y-yes'm. De comic papers also say dat mother-in-laws is a nuisance, when everybody knows dat dey are de most sweetest an' angelic uv mortals, an'—

Mrs. Homespun—You poor, dear man! Come right in this minute. I will broil a chicken for you. Judge.
