The footprints of Dyspepsia have been directly traced to the Stomach nerves. When these "inside nerves" fail, indigestion and stomach distress must surely result. For this, druggists everywhere are supplying a prescription known as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. First, these tiny inside Stomach, Heart and Kidney nerves fail. Then gas belching, Heart palpitation, or failing Kidneys follow. Don't drug the Stomach, or stimulate the Heart or Kidneys. That is wrong. Strengthen these failing nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative. It is the nerves, not the organs that are calling for help. Within 48 hours after starting the Restorative treatment, you will realize the gain. A test will tell. Sold by all dealers.

PAIN

Pain in the head—pain anywhere, has its cause. Pain is congestion, pain is blood pressure—nothing else usually. At least, so says Dr. Shoop, and to prove it he has created a little pink tablet. This tablet—called Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablet—coaxes blood-pressure away from pain centers. Its effect is charming, pleasantly delightful, gentle though safely, it surely equalizes the blood circulation.

If you have a headache, it's blood pressure. If it's painful periods with women, same cause. If you are sleepless, restless, nervous, it's blood congestion—blood pressure. That surely is a certainty, for Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets stop it in 20 minutes, and the tablets simply distribute the unnatural blood pressure.

Brush your finger, and doesn't it get red, and swell, and pain you? Of course it does. It's congestion, blood pressure. You'll find it where pain is—always. It's simply Common Sense.

We sell at 25 cents, and cheerfully recommend

TWO GOOD TALKS

H. W. SEARS, THE "TAFFY" MAN AND "BOB" TAYLOR

Both Were Well Received and Gave Splendid And Interesting Addresses

Monday afternoon at 2:30 the Hite-Monroe Co., which proved so entertaining the previous day gave another of their splendid programs, after which H. W. Sears entertained the large audience for more than an hour by his splendid talk on "more taffy and less epitaphy." Mr. Sears is so intensely interesting that he captivated his audience at the outset and carried them through to the end without one wishing to get away, and all present felt that they were better for having heard the "taffy man," present his true recipe for the true philosophy of life.

It is impossible to give all the good things he said, but here are a few that may help you through life:

No man is to be praised for wrong doing.

Too much handshaking is like shaking a snake's tail, get through with it as soon as possible.

Happiness is not confined to the house with the brown stone front.

The churches were never so close to each other and never had so much religion in them as they have today.

The world is dying by inches for just a word of sympathy.

Give a helping hand and a word of sympathy to the man who is down.

Too many men have their wishbones where their back bones ought to be.

Learn to say the right thing and do the right thing at the right time.

Speak well of the other man and it will make you a better man.

Look for the good in men and you will be sure to find it, and when you find it you will surely appreciate it yourself.

GOV. BOB TAYLOR

Gov. Bob Taylor was the crowning event of the day. He is both a humorist and a musician and is able to sing himself into the hearts of the people. He is an artist in every sense of the word, in the painting of pictures which seem to be real. He spoke of "Castles in the air" which would be well worth the memory of the people. He held his crowd and all were eager to hear what he should say next.

Mr. Taylor is a Southerner by birth and in speaking of his old home he told many stories to show that it was also a happy place. He is able to illustrate every point with a song, singing many times during the evening. In his speech he began with the creation of the world, wondering if woman had been made first and man created later if she would have been satisfied with man or if she would not have wished different changes in him. In the beginning when everything was created each animal, bird and living creature took unto himself a mate and then in time built castles.

It is not so in this day, look at the miser what he is doing, in his earlier life he is working hard, gloating over each round dollar as it is earned and plans what some day he shall do with it. What is gold anyway? Does not every politician and all other men look forward to it. Gold is gold in all life.

In the days of Babylon was it not one of the wealthiest and greatest country of its day, but wealth could not keep Babylon from falling. Rome was great but she too came to destruction. United States is great, we have wealth, commerce and people, and our main point of safety so we argue, lies in so many people.

A very prominent man one day decided it was time for him to die so he gathered together a piece of rope, some coal oil, matches, revolver and a boat. Taking these articles he rowed himself down stream, coming to where a limb hung over the water. He tied one end of the rope around the limb and the other around his throat, covered himself with coal oil and putting the arsenic in his mouth set fire to himself, placed the revolver to his head pulling the trigger shoving the boat at the same time. Consequently he cut the rope in shooting, by falling into the water the fire was put out and he coughed up the arsenic. He then decided his time had not yet come and the next day he declared himself a candidate for congress. Again along the stream of life we find young men and women traveling, all is not smooth sailing, there are the ups and downs, but always the bright hope to help and encourage them on.

I am invited to visit a friend who has a little man of two or three, he is the pride of their home. Company is coming and you want him to do his best before them, you soon miss him. On finding him he is covered with jam and dirt—again he is cleaned up, he is able to slip away and get the jam again. Then a crash is heard in the library and you find the young man covered with ink to hide the stains of jam. Then is Paradise lost.

Several years later the young man is in pants. My, you are proud of him. He is allowed to do as he wishes and no one corrects him. He is the democrat of the play ground, the republican of the school house (full dinner pail) and the autocrat of the breakfast, dinner and supper table. One evening the minister was invited to supper. He was a dyspeptic and so was not able to partake of the meat, vegetables and other things. The young man could contain himself no longer so he said, "Say, Ma give him a raw egg maybe he could suck that."

Mothers this is the time to look after your boys. Fathers you too should have an interest in them. When they are young their young lives are open to your moulding. If you do not look after them the world will claim them and if they do not the angels will.

Youth is the best part of life, you then have hope, courage and ambition and are able to make large plans for the future. In my youth we had large quilting parties and all young ladies were busy during the day quilting, by evening the work was done, then the evening was spent in dancing. The old fat uncle of the district coming with his fiddle and calling off the rounds keeping time with his foot.

In closing he remarked to the young people that this was the time to enjoy all innocent pleasures. But while seeking happiness for themselves not to forget the pleasures of others.
