ANNOUNCEMENT

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of Representative subject to the action of the republican voters at the primaries to be held Tuesday, September 1st, 1908.

E. O. ZOOK,
Humboldt, Nebr.

Representative

J. Rock Williamson of Grant Precinct announces himself as a candidate for member of the legislature from Richardson county, subject to the will of the republican voters. Being a veteran and an old resident of Richardson county, which he has served in the capacity of sheriff, he trusts the citizens of the county know him well enough to pass intelligently upon the question of his candidacy.

The man who bets that William will be elected has a safe thing.

With a Teachers' Institute and a Chautauqua in session at the same time, Falls City should not complain of the week being dull.

With seven presidential candidates before us to select from, the voters should be able to find one candidate who is satisfactory to them.

Each of the two leading candidates for the presidency have a brother Charley. This is a case where "the kettle should not call the pot black."

The Democrats of Missouri have nominated a man named Cowherd as their candidate for governor. How much there may be in the name has not yet been seen.

Mr. Bryan learned on Wednesday, if not before, that he was nominated by the Democrats as their candidate for president. He withstood the surprise with his usual equanimity, however.

One difference between the Republican candidate for the presidency and the Democratic candidate is that one has been unusually successful in filling public offices, while the other has been a persistent seeker of them but never successfully filled any office.

Senator Elkins of West Virginia assures Mr. Taft that he will carry that state by at least 35,000 majority. There is no objection to that majority except that unless West Virginia does better than that it may stand near the bottom of the list of states furnishing large majorities for Taft.

Judging from the number of automobiles which are being sold to the farming community around and about Falls City, we are led to believe that the farmers are not troubled about their bank accounts. When they can haul a load of corn to market and return home with $35 to $38 for the one load, they will not ask for a return of the times when a 50 bushel load of corn brought only $6.50.

So far the weather has been ideal for holding a Chautauqua. Good weather, splendid talent, wise advertising, combined with other fortunate circumstances have gone far to make this year's Chautauqua a success. While it is not known that any plans have been made for a Chautauqua next year, we feel safe in predicting that the Chautauqs will be a permanent thing in our community.

The primary elections have already been held in many states. Nebraska will hold her's on September 1st. Never before has there been so strong a tendency to place all of the power of government in the hands of the people. There is as good reason for nominations to be made by the people as there is for the election to be by them. If a few make the nominations, what good does it do to have the people elect the men which they had no voice in nom-waiting? Why not let the few elect them?

The time is fast drawing near when the attention of the voters will be directed to the selection of candidates for the various state and county offices. George D. Carrington of Nemaha county, is a candidate for the nomination of State Superintendent on the Republican ticket and being a product of southeastern Nebraska should receive the support of Richardson county. This section of the state has not furnished a man for that office for many years and now is the opportunity to have one from near home. George D. Carrington is well qualified for the office and is worthy of support.

In 1892 the "paramount" question, as Mr. Bryan viewed it, was the tariff question; in 1896 it was 16 to 1; in 1900 it was imperialism; in 1904 it was government ownership of railroads, and now in this year of our Lord, 1908, it is "Shall the people rule". Has not the Peerless Leader yet learned of the ruling of the American people in 1896, when they shut him out of the presidency by a plurality of 601,854 votes and of the later ruling in 1900, when they ruled against him with a plurality of 849,455 votes? If not, another ruling will be handed down on November 3, 1908, and if Mr. Bryan will listen to the voice of young America, he will hear it say "You are hereby elected for the third time to remain at home."

NEBRASKAN HONORED.

The selection of William Hayward to be secretary of the republican national committee is not only a recognition of the energetic work he has done as chairman, but also a compliment to Nebraska in bringing one of its native sons to the fore in the arena of national politics.

Mr. Hayward is a typical Nebraskan. He has made his way in politics by straight-forward dealing and without any special pull outside of the friends he has made through his service to the party. He is characteristic of the young man in politics.

The secretaryship of the republican national committee is a position second only in the political firmament to that of the national chairmanship itself. It is a position of confidential relationship with the national campaign movement and carries with it great responsibilities as well as important duties.

That Mr. Hayward will measure up to the demands of his new place and make good there as he has done as head of the state organization may be safely anticipated. It will not hurt Nebraska republicans, either to have one of their own number close to the center of national political activity.—Omaha Bee.

August time, tells on the nerve. But that spiritless, no ambition feeling can be easily and quickly altered by taking what is known by druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Within 48 hours after beginning to use the Restorative, improvement will be noticed. Of course, full health will not immediately return. The gain, however, will surely follow. And best of all, you will realize and feel your strength and ambition as it is returning. Outside influences depress first the "inside nerves" then the stomach, Heart, and Kidneys will usually fail. Strengthen these falling nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative and see now quickly health will be yours again. Sold by all dealers.

FOR STATE SUPT.

SUPT. GEORGE D. CARRINGTON IS AFTER IT

He Is Making a Hard Campaign and Will Try Hard for the Nomination

There are three special qualifications which a candidate for state superintendent should possess—he should have honesty and integrity, ability, competency and initiative, industry and capacity for work. Geo. D. Carrington jr., present county superintendent of Nemaha county has these qualifications and solicits the support of the Republicans at the primaries Sept. 1 for the nomination for state superintendent.

SUPT. GEO. D. CARRINGTON JR.

He is making a hard campaign, single handed and alone, and asks for the nomination strictly upon merit. His work as superintendent of Nemaha county has been remarkable. He believes in the common schools and strives to advance them. He devoted much time and thought to the rural schools and knows their needs. He wants to see all the children receive the best educational advantages at home and the very largest possible returns for the money invested in schools. He is one of the common people and his life has been filled with hard work, and has worked from boyhood earning his own clothes, and way through school to the position he now occupies. He is a writer, speaker, educator, untiring worker and a gentleman.

It is refreshing to find a man running for public office who stands out firmly for the school interests and refuses to make any promises, except to the people, even though so doing might bring him many votes.

Let me quote from a letter written to me privately. I am quoting this so the reader may know what Mr. Carrington is saying to his friends privately as well as in a public way. This was written me with no idea of publication.

"If I am elected I will owe no interest, company, institution, or individual a thing, except I will owe a host of friends an unlimited and unpayable quantity of gratitude and shall always seek opportunity to express it to them and my appreciation of their kindness and help. I am promising Nebraska an efficient service and that is all and should be enough. But there is no interest nor any school man in this state need have any fear of me so long as they are right; do right, are competent and square."

Now doesn't that sound like what we want as the spirit of the head of our public school system?

I'm for Mr. Carrington for state superintendent because he has all the qualifications and above all is a man. I hope, and believe Richardson county will cast the solid republican vote for him at the primaries. You will make no mistake.

Falls City and the game ended 5 to 1 in favor of Atchison.

Score by innings:
Atchison.....0-0-2-0-0-1-0-1-1-5
Falls City....0-0-0-1-0-0-0-0-0-1

NOTES.

It was not an errorless game but was above the average in this respect.

Tommy Glines did the umpiring and proved very satisfactory. Heacock played the ninth inning all alone.

A pretty double play by our boys in the eighth was the feature of the game.

That short stop of Atchison's got about everything he went after.

Schmelzel injured his hand in the eighth inning and Heacock finished for him, and the visitors didn't seem to care about standing up to the plate either.

Atchison has a fine team and anyone would have to play ball to beat them.

The Second Game

The ball game of Friday resulted in another defeat for our boys, and it was an awful one, too, 14 to 4, but our boys are not discouraged and contend that Atchison cannot do it again. The boys explain their defeat by the fact that Heacock hurt his arm in the practice before the game, spraining it at the elbow so badly that the pain was unbearable, and as Schmelzel had a busted finger from the game of the day before, this left us with only Prior and Craig to put in the box, and they proved easy prey for the visitors. The outcome was so disastrous, that the boys became discouraged, hence the result.

A two week's practice is all they ask, then they want another game with the same team.

TWO DROWNED IN MISSOURI

Sad Ending to Day of Picnicking Near Minersville, Mo.

Two brothers were drowned in the Missouri River at Minersville near Nebraska City, Saturday. They were Elmer James aged eighteen and Charles James aged twenty. David James, the father and Byron James, another son barely escaped drowning in the effort to rescue the victims. The tragedy followed a day's picnic of the James family. The father, three sons and the mother had gone to Minersville to fish and to enjoy a picnic dinner. Late in the afternoon the boys had gone in swimming. Elmer had ventured in beyond his depth and called for help. Charles went in after him and he, too, was drawn under. The father and Byron went in to save them and barely escaped with their lives, being nearly caught in the treacherous current.

The bodies have not been recovered.

TUESDAY DOINGS BEST TIME TO CHOOSE HAT

DR. EUGENE MAY AND DENTON C. CROWL THE SPEAKERS

The Imperial Entertainers Gave Two Splendid Entertainments

The afternoon session was opened by a number of pleasing selections by the Imperial Entertainers, given as a sort of a prelude to Dr. Eugene May, who was the speaker for the afternoon.

Miss Mabel Kellogg proved herself a master of the violin in the rendition of a number of choice selections, and Miss Stella Rich pleased all with her rich mezzo-soprano voice.

Dr. Eugene May of Washington was next introduced and for an hour our people journeyed with him through Ireland, greatly enjoying the word pictures of the land of the Shillalah and Shamrock, his Irish wit and drollery bringing forth bursts of applause and laughter. He also gave his experience upon his first trip across the ocean twenty-seven years ago, of its ups and downs and the lasting impression upon his mind of the text "Cast thy bread upon the Waters." He then gave a very instructive account of the conditions of the water, its depth, weight, light and darkness, animal and plant matter, wireless telegraphy and the storms, all proving his mastery of the subject. Space will not permit us to give all the good things Dr. May presented to the people, but as a brief summary will say it was one of the most instructive and entertaining lectures one could imagine. Dr. May closed his talk with a splendid rendition of the recitation, "Mistress Malone."

The afternoon session closed with a few comic selections by C. L. Abbott and several musical numbers by H. J. Morris [the novelty musician].

The lecturer for the evening was Denton C. Crowl in his famous Sam Jones lecture, "Philosophy, Facts and fun." As an imitator Mr. Crowl has no superior, and many of the people on this occasion, who had listened to both gentlemen, were heard to remark that the similarity was marvelous. In fact, "Sam Jones will never be dead as long as Crowl lives." A most interesting and pleasing program closed with another splendid entertainment by the Imperial Entertainers.

Sheriff's Sale

When Woman Was Looking Her Worst Chosen as the Proper Period for Selection.

Two women had been shopping nearly all day and were as warm and weary as the circumstances warranted. As they were handed their change at the last counter one exclaimed: "Now for an ice cream soda and home!"

"Not for me," returned the other, with a martyr-like expression on her face. "I'm going to buy a hat."

"A hat? Why, you're all tired out and your hair is coming down."

"I know it, and that is the very reason. When you start out well brushed and fresh almost any hat will look good on you, but one that looks decent on me as I am now is the hat I want. That will be a true test. I always buy my hats when I am looking a little worse than usual. So you go for your ice cream soda, while I choose between a Merry Widow and a 'Soul Kiss.'"

"No, no," protested the first, "I'll try on a few, too, just to cheer myself up."

VICIOUS BLACKBIRDS.

Thousands of savage blackbirds infest the city, and in some of the suburbs they are so bold and vicious that dogs are kept on the jump avoiding them, men on bicycles are sometimes chased for blocks and pedestrians pecked on the heads if they happen under trees where there are nests. The birds usually fight in pairs.

If a man with a very white hat comes along they swoop down, beat it with their wings and clam at it with the rage of wounded eagles. Frequently they aim their sharp beaks at the victim's eyes and he has difficulty in defending himself. The painful yelping of cornered canines attracts flocks of the birds and then the fur flies.—Los Angeles correspondence San Francisco Chronicle.

KISSED THE PUP GOOD-BYE.

Persons who went down to see the American liner Philadelphia sail for Southampton witnessed this scene on the pier:

A man wearing a long raincoat, accompanied by a handsome woman, arrived carrying a shaggy-haired yellow dog. As the pair neared the gangplank the man turned, and, kissing the dog on the muzzle, handed it to the woman, the while addressing it:

"Now, baby, take good care of mamma, and be good to her until I get back."

Then he turned and, kissing the woman good-bye, boarded the ship. There was no cheering.—N. Y. Times.

SHRINKING VALUES.

"Hello, Teddy, got a new suit?"
"No, sir; it's papa's old one."
"Ah, did mamma cut it down?"
"Oh, no, sir; papa had it washed!"

MAKING BOAT FROM A TREE.

Charles Holman is constructing a new boat. He discovered a catalpa tree that has a perfect shape for the purpose.

It will be constructed on the steamboat style, and the catalpa tree makes one solid piece from the top of the bow to the stern, it having just the curve necessary to make a good shape. The boat will be designed primarily for passenger service, will be about 26 feet long and be equipped with a six horsepower gasoline engine.—Morehouse Hustler.

WAS ON.

Latewed—Your brother is such a considerate boy, my dear.

Mrs. Latewed (suspiciously)—Why, pet?

Latewed—Why, I asked him up to dinner this morning and he wanted to know if we had a cook, and when I told him you did the cooking with your own sweet hands he absolutely refused to come for fear it would make you extra work.—Toledo Blade.
