Hurt in Runaway

Sunday morning while George Messler and wife were driving north of town, near the Meyers farm, they met the Art Harris automobile. The horse became unmanageable and ran away throwing both occupants out of the buggy. Mrs. Messler escaped with but slight injury while George did not fare so well, but received a bad cut on the head, a severely sprained arm and was badly bruised.

How to Avoid Appendicitis

Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated. Foley's Orino Laxative cures chronic constipation by stimulating the liver and bowels and restores the natural action of the bowels. Foley's Orino Laxative does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. Kerr's pharmacy.

Team Ran Away

When Jacob Wessinger and one of his sons reached the Muddy bottoms, northeast of town, while on their way to Falls City last Friday, the team became unmanageable and ran away. When Jacob collected his belongings, which were scattered all along the road, he found that the tongue of the vehicle was broken and mashed out of shape and one of his horses was hurt very badly.

If The Tribune has helped the Chautauqua as so many have told us, it is only fair to say that the merchants by liberal advertising have made it possible for us to do so. Those of our people who are interested in the success of the Chautauqua owe their patronage to these merchants and should pay the debt.

Some of the guests at the Cain wedding anniversary tried to turn it into a notification meeting to apprise Rob that he was running for Senator, but Rob had the hay fever and wouldn't make a speech.

Police Methods in India. A jewel was lost by a rich Komati. It was found in the possession of a Mohammedan. Two policemen of the station seized it from him and pledged it and obtained a loan from a local merchant. Then another policeman was asked to search the house of the merchant, and before the search was effected the merchant gave it to him with a present as a bribe not to haul him up before the court. Between the three policemen a sum of about 60 rupees was looted from one or the other of the dishonest and avaricious merchants. Then arose a split among these policemen and their comrades about the division of the spoils, and they are now blinking as to what course to adopt and whom to charge and what offense to charge with. The people are losing all confidence in these men.—Mysore Standard.

Value Added to Eloquence. Common council eloquence comes high so long as it has to be officially reported in full. Otherwise it is pretty cheap eruption.—Boston Herald.
