The Value of a Dollar!

DID you ever lose your position without warning or become disabled and kept from work for several weeks? Did you have money to carry you through? The value of a dollar asserts itself in time of misfortune and too often is thought of only in time of need. If you would know the value of a dollar place a part of each one you earn in the bank. Should you then be overtaken by misfortune you will have funds to tide you over, and will not learn by bitter experience that which can be prevented by a little foresight.

grew to womanhood and married Mr. James Dietrich. These young people hearing of the great opportunities of the west, decided to move to Iowa, which they did only to come to Nebraska a little later, arriving by wagon and ox team in Richardson county, in the fall of 1866.

Mrs. Dietrich's name before she was married was Neifert. Her parents, Isaac and Rebecca, having eleven children, of which four are dead. Mrs. Chas. Lutz, of Casey, Iowa. Mrs. Dave Neifert of Attica, Iowa, Mr. Bangman Neifert of Attica, Iowa, Messrs Jake and John Neifert of Glen Elder, Kas., were present at her funeral. Mrs. John Herbster, Allentown, Pa., and Mrs. Julius Bridges Marysville, Iowa, two sisters of Mrs. Dietrich, not being able to be present.

To Mr. and Mrs. James Dietrich were born 9 children, two of which died in infancy. Charles Dietrich of Glen Elder, Kas., Frank, Daniel and John Dietrich of Richardson county, Neb., Mrs. Julius Smith Chandler, Okla., Mrs. Joe Bauer and Miss Amelia Dietrich of this county, all of whom were present at the burial of their mother. There were also present nieces and nephews as follows: Mrs. Sam Leiby Marysville, Iowa, Miss Vera Neifert Allina, Iowa, Will Dietrich Sweetwater, Neb., Mrs. Irvin Wilhelm Dunbar, Neb., Charles Moyer Nebraska City, Neb., and Miss Lulu Moyer Glen Elder, Kansas.

The services were held on Sunday, Sept. 6, 1908, first at her home which had been the place of her daily cares and joys these many long years, and conducted in the English language. Rev. Engelbrecht, the officiating pastor, very touchingly referred to her many virtues in the presence of friends and neighbors in great multitude that had gathered on her lawn the beautiful Sunday morning, to pay their last tribute of respect, after which she was followed to the German Lutheran church, six miles northwest of Falls City, by a procession nearly a mile long, where the final service was rendered in the German language, by Rev. Engelbrecht, and her remains tenderly and gently laid in the grave by the side of her husband who had preceded her into the great beyond seven years.

Too much homage cannot be paid the old settlers who came to this country young people when all around them was a wilderness. Their struggles with the vicissitudes of the frontiers, beset with every inconvenience and difficulty, has accomplished the luxury of the present time, and we owe them the deep love and affection that was shown the memory of Mother Dietrich when she entered into her eternal rest. Peace to her ashes.

BROWN

News was received in this city last week of the sudden death of Thomas Brown, which occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Dr. Boaz, near Mexico, Mo., at the advanced age of 78 years.

Mr. Brown had been in failing health for some time, but at the time of his death was not considered worse than usual, and had completed arrangements to start for California on the 10th, where he expected to spend the winter. On last Wednesday he told his daughter that he would take a walk over the farm, and when he did not return at dinner time no alarm was felt, but as night approached and he did not return, searching parties were formed but their efforts were not successful until Thursday forenoon when he was found not far from the house and but a few feet away from the spot where the old log cabin stood in which he was born 78 years ago. The cause of his death was heart failure and he had been dead almost twenty-four hours when found.

Deceased was an old and most highly respected citizen of this county, having lived here for fifty years or more. He came to Nebraska in 1855, settling on a claim in Speiser precinct. He then went further west and remained for a short time, but returned to his claim, proving up on the same and lived there until about eight years ago when he sold it and moved into Humboldt. His wife died about two years ago, since which time he has made his home with his children. He was married in December, 1866 to Miss Magdalene Faber. Three children were born to them one dying when quite young. The remaining daughters are Mrs. Mary Starks of Kansas City, and Mrs. Dr. Boaz of Mexico, Mo. He also leaves a grandson, Brown Sloenheit, of Kansas City.

The remains were brought back to the old home in Humboldt, where after a short service they were laid to rest beside his wife.

ELMER TUTTLE.

On Friday morning of this week when the section men from Salem were starting to work they discovered the body of a man lying dead on the track. It seems that he was killed by a train in the fore part of the night and that two or more trains must have passed over his body, as it was badly mangled.

The body was identified by a brother and it proved to be that of Elmer Tuttle, a young man from Salem. They identified him by a letter in his pocket and his clothing. The sheriff was notified and after an inquest the undertaker took the body to Salem and that afternoon it was buried at that place.

Elmer Tuttle was well known by many of our citizens, having visited this place often for the past few years.

He leaves an aged mother, two brothers and a sister to mourn his loss.

The following verdict was rendered by the jury at the coroner's inquest:
State of Nebraska }
Richardson County } ss

At an inquisition holden at Salem, in Richardson county, on the 4th day of September, 1908, before me, W. T. Fenton, deputy coroner of said county, upon the body of Elmer Tuttle, lying dead, by the jurors, whose names are hereto subscribed, the said jurors, upon their oath do say, that the said Elmer Tuttle came to his death by being run over by a train on the C. E. & Q. railroad, three miles west of Salem, Neb., between the hours of 6 p. m., September 3 and 7 a. m. September 4, no responsibility attached to any one.

R. C. James,
J. A. Adams,
O. B. Lesley,
Robert Taylor,
R. E. Grinstead,
C. G. McCool.

In testimony whereof the said jurors have herunto set their hands the day and year aforesaid.
ATTEST: W. T. FENTON,
Sheriff, Acting Coroner.
