On Tuesday Wm. Mohler and family left this city for their new home at Walton, Kas. These estimable people have been residents of this city for a long time and we are sorry they feel that a change is for the best. Mr. Mohler will give up his nursery business, having decided to accept the call to take charge of a church in his new home. Of course The Tribune will keep them posted on the doings in their old home. Our best wishes go with them.

Wm. Boose made this office a pleasant call Friday and ordered The Tribune sent to his son, Frank, at San Marcial, New Mexico, where he has been employed as superintendent of their schools, a position which he is well qualified to fill, and is indeed a compliment to one so young in years.

On Tuesday evening of next week the Rebekahs of this city will hold an open meeting for all Odd Fellows. The affair will be in commemoration of the 51st anniversary of the Rebekah degree. The ladies are arranging for a good time with a nice program and refreshments.

The improvements at the Sunnyside green house are about completed, the large new boiler being put in place this week. Three large new houses have been added during the summer and now this popular firm are better prepared than ever to look after their vast trade.

Falls City, Neb.

Drive rheumatism out of the blood with Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic remedy and see how quickly pain will depart. Rub-on's never did reach the real disease. Rheumatism isn't in the skin. It's deep down. Its constitutional. Getting rid of the pain is after all what counts. That is why Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic remedy goes, by word of mouth, from one to another. And here lies the popularity of the remedy. It is winning defenders everywhere. Tablets or liquid. Sold by all dealers.

Steve Miles, son of Millionaire Miles, of Falls City, brought down part of the First National bank of that place, and offered even money on Falls City. He had such a big wad of bills that he bluffed the whole crowd. He then offered to bet as high odds as 5 to 1 but no one wanted to put up their little old money against such a big wad.—Hiawatha World.
