PRETTY SOUVENIR OF YOUTH

Sight of Purple Iris Brought Back Happy Days of Childhood to New York Woman.
"If you want to feel like a child again," said the west side woman, "go up to the corner of Amsterdam avenue and One Hundred and Fourth street, where the institution stands that is familiarly known as the Old Ladies' Home, and look at the purple iris growing in the garden of the home. 'Blue flags' we called them when I was a child—the royal fleur de lis of France. There is a thick border of them around the beds of shrubbery, and it looks strange to see them growing vigorously in dry ground, for they belong in the rushes along the banks of sedgy creeks—I can hear the tinkling waters yet and feel my feet cool with splashing barefooted in the brooks. In France and Italy these flowers have the delicious lily fragrance, but in America they give out almost no odor—only a fresh, wet smell, when you bury your face in them. They are inexpensive flowers, yet more beautiful than any orchid. I wonder the florists do not use them more."—New York Press.

HAVE OVERSUPPLY OF WINE.

From Geneva it is reported that wine is so plentiful on the shores of Lake Maggiore from the village of Brione to Orselina that it is given freely to tramps who ask for a drink. The poorest people leave a bowl of wine on the window sill for all comers. It is frequently refilled and even the birds drink from it.
The farmers, in order to make room for the coming vintage, are getting rid of their ordinary wine at nominal prices. Parents give the wine to their children, and teachers complain that many of their pupils arrive at school in an inebriated condition. It is rare to see a child in the district without a little gourd of wine slung across the shoulder.

Long Have Been Right-Handed.

According to authorities from 85 to 95 per cent. of the men in civilized lands are right-handed and have developed the low right shoulder. This, however, is no new phenomenon, for even the ancient Greek sculptors had noticed it and posed their subjects so as to make them appear more symmetrical.
It's a pity when sick ones drug the stomach or stimulate the heart and kidneys. That is all wrong. A weak stomach means weak stomach nerves, always and this is also true of the heart and kidneys. The weak nerves are instead crying out for help. This explains why Dr. Shoop's Restorative is promptly helping stomach, heart and kidney ailments. The Restorative reaches out for the actual cause of these ailments—the falling inside nerves. Anyway test the Restorative 48 hours. It won't cure as soon as that but you will surely know that help is coming. Sold by all dealers.

ON THE DIAMOND

ed to get down to business, and in the eighth inning Foehlinger stepped to bat with a determined air and landed a neat single, stealing second. Then Kelsey walked and Ed. Poteet made first on a passed ball and Foehlinger got to third. With the bases full and not a man out, Tom Poteet struck an attitude at bat that meant something and when he landed on the ball for a home run the crowd went wild. But this was not all, for two more of our boys crossed home plate and the score was now 7 to 6. In the next inning there was some hard playing but to no avail and our boys went down in defeat and the agony was over.
But it was different in Wednesday's game, and was so onesided that very little interest was manifested. Each side scored in the first, the visitors again in the second, while our boys made the circuit nine times. Score 9 to 2.
The visitors played poor ball compared with the game of the previous day, but we suppose too much German day was the cause of it all.

Wm. Henniger, who has been employed as a section hand on the Missouri Pacific, was suddenly attacked with appendicitis on Wednesday, and the railway company immediately removed him to St. Louis where he will be cared for in their hospital.

Wednesday of next week our people will have a chance to see real league ball playing. The Omaha league team will be here for one game on Wednesday afternoon.

J. L. Sloucm, wife and daughter, Miss Carrie, and Miss Sarah Hutchins left yesterday for an extended eastern trip.

Mrs. John Startzel and little son, returned from a visit with relatives at Blue Springs.

Dr. Miner and wife leave today for a short stay at Washington, D. C.

John, Joseph and Chas. Portrey left yesterday for Oklahoma City.

Mrs. McMillan returned home from a stay at the Sun Springs.

Nervous Break-Down

Nerve energy is the force that controls the organs of respiration, circulation, digestion and elimination. When you feel weak, nervous, irritable, sick, it is often because you lack nerve energy, and the process of rebuilding and sustaining life is interfered with. Dr. Miles' Nervine has cured thousands of such cases, and will we believe benefit if not entirely cure you. Try it.

"My nervous system gave away completely, and left me on the verge of the grave. I tried skilled physicians but got no permanent relief. I got so bad I had to give up my business. I began taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. In a few days I was much better, and I continued to improve until entirely cured. I am in business again, and never miss an opportunity to recommend this remedy." MRS. W. L. BURKIB, Myrtle Creek, Oregon.
Your druggist sells Dr. Miles' Nervine, and we authorize him to return price of first bottle (only) if it fails to benefit you.
