QUESTIONS BRYAN PREFERS TO IGNORE

Seven Pointed Queries Propounded the Democratic Candidate.

Failed to Answer Any of the Questions.

Prior to his recent speech at Omaha Mr. Bryan had propounded to him the following pertinent questions by the Omaha Bee. Mr. Bryan did not see fit to attempt to answer any of them.

1. You, Mr. Bryan, are making much of Democratic friendship for labor. Why is it that practically no legislation to protect labor has been enacted in the Southern States in which Democrats have absolute control? Why are there no child labor laws in the South? Why are there no laws to protect women wage earners in the South? You and your fusion friends had absolute executive and legislative control of Nebraska for several years. Why was no legislation to protect labor passed then? Why did the wage workers of Nebraska have to wait for succeeding Republican legislatures to remove the $5,000 death damage limit, to get an equitable employer's liability act and to get a child labor law?

2. You, Mr. Bryan, are trying to make your paramount issue, "Shall the people rule?" The most advanced step toward popular rule has been through the direct primary. Why is it, Mr. Bryan, that your fusion friends when in complete control did not give Nebraska a direct primary law? Why is it that the Republicans of Nebraska had to secure the direct primary law over the opposition of the Democrats? Why is it that the progressive Republican States have enacted direct primary laws to bring the filling of offices closer to the people, while in the Democratic States of the South direct primary laws have been enacted avowedly to disfranchise the people?

3. You, Mr. Bryan, are bidding for office on your anti-trust remedies. Why is it that all the effective legislation against illegal combinations has been enacted by Republican congresses and for the most part by Republican State legislatures, while the Democratic States have no effective anti-trust legislation?

4. You, Mr. Bryan, are bidding for labor votes by promising to abolish the writ of injunction in labor disputes. Do you not know that injunction abuses have been chargeable as much to State courts as to federal courts? Can you name a single Democratic State which has passed a law to prevent the abuse of injunction by State courts? Why was no such law passed in Nebraska when your fusion friends were in complete control?

5. You, Mr. Bryan, are bidding for votes on your scheme of bank deposit guaranty. Oklahoma is the only State that has put such a law on its statute books. Why have none of the other Democratic States enacted deposit guaranty laws? You, especially, introduced such a bill into Congress in the early 90's. Why did you not get your fusion friends to enact the bill as a State law when they were in complete control of Nebraska? A deposit guaranty bill, which you endorsed, was offered in Congress last winter as a substitute for the Vreeland bill, but only a handful of the Democratic Congressmen voted for it, the remaining others voting against it or refusing to vote. The only Democratic Congressman from Nebraska was one of those who refused to vote. If your endorsement of that bill was unable to make these Democratic Congressmen vote for it last winter, how will you be able to make them vote for it next winter?

6. You, Mr. Bryan, are trying to make much of the popular election of United States Senators. We have the statement of Mr. Tibbles, made three years ago, that a large sum of money, said to be $15,000 or $20,000, was contributed by "Ryan, Belmont & Co." in 1904, through your brother-in-law toward your campaign for United States Senator in Nebraska. Is Mr. Tibbles mistaken in his assertions? If so, why did you not correct them long ago? If not, why did you not put your name on the ballot as a candidate for Senator and ask a vote of popular preference under the Nebraska law which gives you that right? Why did the Democrats refuse to submit candidates for United States Senator to popular vote in Nebraska in 1898, in 1900 and 1904?

7. You, Mr. Bryan, are making much of publicity of campaign contributions. Nebraska has a campaign publicity law, but it was enacted, as you know, by a Republican Legislature after your fusion State administration had failed to pass such a law. Why is it, Mr. Bryan, that your brother-in-law and Democratic campaign managers have persistently and willfully violated the Nebraska campaign publicity law? Why, if you are so devoted to campaign fund publicity, were you so insistent that the $50,000 contribution to your campaign made by the Bennett will should be kept secret?

The Hon. John W. Kern, Democratic candidate for vice-president, who visited this city yesterday, was "starred" in large headlines in "The Evening Post" as "an optimist." Anybody who can travel these days on a railroad pass has good reason for being "an optimist."—New York Tribune.

BAD ACCIDENT

Two Men Injured in a Runaway on Their Way to Morrill

Emerson Flickinger, B. F. Elliott, Cyrus McKinzie and Lon Wagner were returning home from Falls City last Thursday evening, after they had turned south at the John Heisey farm the team became frightened and started to run, although all four tried to hold them it was impossible to do so. As they turned the corner at the Chas. McGuire place the carriage was overturned and the occupants thrown out breaking Cy McKinzie's collar bone and dislocating his shoulder. Lon Wagner had his thumb broken and was badly bruised. B. F. Elliott and Emerson Flickinger escaped without an injury. The injured boys were taken to the McGuire home and cared for until C. W. Flickinger could arrive and bring them to town in his auto. The team was caught near Jake Lichty's place. The top was completely torn from the carriage. It is not known what the team became frightened at.—Morrill News.

Big Bill Taft

Don't you hear the boys a coming, why the very air is humming, as the republicans are marching in their country's behalf. Bryan please stand from under or you will be crushed, by thunder, by the Republican nominee, big Bill Taft. The farmer is thinking, his eyes they are a winking, as he listens while they argue free trade in his behalf. As he wakes up in the morn, views his 70 cent corn, he says by bec, I'll vote for big Bill Taft. I remember the hour when the democrats were in power under the Cleveland administration they certainly had the pull. 'Twas the farmer that was surprised, and ashamed to look his sheep in the eyes, for the Democrats took the tariff off of wool. The country is prosperous now, what's the use of raising a row, you never hear the farmer make a squeal. He gets up in the morn, takes his 70 cent corn and buys a $3,000 automobile. — Stephen Quaipe.

Our First Snow

The first real winter weather came last Thursday night in the shape of quite a heavy snow fall, which continued at intervals throughout Friday and Saturday. The mercury, however did not take much of a drop and the snow melted about as fast as it fell, and what remained soon disappeared with the rain which followed. The storm was general and heavy snows have been reported all around us. Now, according to traditions, we will have twenty-two snows this winter, as the first one happened on the 22d day of the month, but this remains to be seen.
