A. J. Baldwin decorated the electric lights on Main street Saturday evening in honor of our home candidates. He hung sacks over the lights with transparent letters on the sides reading, "Vote for J. R. Cain jr., and R. A. Clark." Then pumpkins of paper were hung over the big ear lights in honor of Hallowe'en. The boys did not injure anything during the evening. A few wagons were run in the street and that was about the extent of their fun.
It isn't so difficult to strengthen a weak stomach if one goes at it correctly and this is true of the Heart and Kidneys. The old fashioned way of dosing the stomach or stimulating the heart or kidneys is surely wrong. Dr. Shoop first pointed out this error. "Go to the weak or ailing nerves of these organs," he, Each inside organ has its controlling or inside nerve." When these nerves fall then those organs must surely falter. This vital truth is leading druggists everywhere to dispense and recommended Dr. Shoops Restorative. A few days test will surely tell. Sold by all dealers.

Foley's Orino Laxative does not gripe, is pleasant to take and you do not have to take laxatives continually after taking Orino. Why continue to be the slave of pills and tablets. Kerr's Pharmacy.
"Chance"—and St. Anthony.
Who knows what is chance? A golfer told me lately that he was playing in Spain with a young Catholic student of divinity, who hit his ball into a forest of thistles. He sought for it sorrowfully, for golf balls are expensive in Spain. At last the player thought him of St. Anthony of Padua, that great finder of things lost. On his watch chain the young man wore a bronze cross dedicated to St. Anthony, or mixed up with him somehow. Detaching the cross he threw it high into the jungle of thistles; while my friend marked where it fell, went up to it, and found the lost ball lying within a few inches of the bronze cross.
Lacking the "Ear for Music."
He bears a great loss and sorrow who has "no ear for music." Into one great garden of delights he may not go. There needs no flaming sword to bar the way, since for him there is no gate called Beautiful which he should seek to enter. Blunted and stolid, he stumbles through life for whom its harp-strings vainly quiver. Yet, on the other hand, what does he not gain? He loses the concord of sweet sounds, but he is spared the discord of harsh noises. For the surges of bewildering harmony and the depths of dissonant disgust, he stands on the levels of perpetual peace.—Gail Hamilton.

To Music Lovers

The Women's Chorus in preparation for the Baptist benefit recital Nov. 20th, held a very enthusiastic meeting Tuesday evening.
In the Spinning Chorus from Wagner's Flying Dutchman, the singers showed brilliancy and good volume of tone, and in Cowen's, In Our Boat, delicacy and feeling.
These with the other numbers in preparation, insure a pleasing variety in the chorus part of the program.
The chorus has been in organization about two years, not working continuously, but taking up the work usually in November and continuing until spring.
The management desires to announce that after the coming recital, the chorus will be open to applicants for membership, when the spring work will begin. Written application from persons desiring to do serious work, and appreciating the opportunity, will be accepted, and the applicant welcomed. Make application to the executive board whose names are Mrs. Wanner, Mrs. Charles Wilson and Miss Nellie Gilman.
Faust Is Coming
It will be welcome news to many theatre goers in the city, the announcement that the famous play of Goethe's immortal Faust will be presented here on Friday, Nov. 13, at the Gehling. No play written in many years has retained such a hold on the hearts of the public. It has proved to be far better than the book, for while the play has steadily held its popularity, the book is now almost forgotten. It was revived in New York City last spring and actually drew larger audiences than it did at presentation of the original production years ago. This great play will continue to entertain as long as we have laughter to reward wit, tears for the sorrowful, and sympathy for the fallen. It is still as fresh as the newly minted coin and has the fizz of the sparkling champagne.
A Quiet Hallowe'en
Hallowe'en in Falls City was quiet, few of the usual pranks being played, and no trouble whatever was given to the police other than a few lively chases which the mischievous boys gave them.
A number of Hallowe'en parties were given among the young people which offered much pleasure for the guests.
Will Enter Soldiers Home
On last Wednesday afternoon Messrs. Fisher, Lewis, McClain and Whitaker, four of our old G. A. R. boys, left for Milford, Neb. where they will enter the Soldiers home, where they will have ease and comfort for the remainder of their days, if they so desire, as a slight recompense for their faithful service to their country.
A fine up-to-date fire escape is being placed on the Union house and now the sleepers on the fourth floor are just as safe as those on the first.
Mrs. Agnes Tipton and children of Albany, Mo. are in the city visiting at the home of H. C. Davis and wife.
Winter blasts, causing pneumonia, pluryisy and consumption will soon be here. Cure your cough now and strengthen your lungs with Foley's Honey and Tar. Do not risk starting the winter with weak lungs when Foley's Honey and Tar will cure the most obstinate coughs and colds and prevent serious results. Kerr's Pharmacy.
