

THE LOCAL LORE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST TO YOU AND ME.

What Your Friends and Their Friends Have Been Doing the Past Week.

—Eat Sowles Candy.
Dr. Tefft, Dentist, Maddox block, opposite court house.

Steve Miles was a Lincoln visitor the first of the week.

—Cream fudge at the Candy Kitchen, Saturday, November 14, at 10 cents per pound.

Mrs. Wm. Cook of Verdon was in the city Saturday the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Dallas Yoder.

Hazel Davison returned to her home in Humboldt, Friday, after a few days spent with friends in this city.

Ethel Hershey, who spent several days during the past week with relatives in this city, returned to Humboldt, Sunday.

Mrs. Jennie B. Levy of Hiawatha spent a portion of the week in this city the guest of Mrs. T. J. Spencer and other friends.

Mrs. Geo. Crocker and children returned to their home in Pawnee City on Tuesday, after a week's visit in this city with her parents N. B. Judd and wife.

The dance given by Ed Smith at Wahl's hall Thursday night, drew a large crowd. Ed is now arranging for a masquerade on Thanksgiving evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lipke of Scottsville, Kans., spent a few days of this week with C. F. Reavis and wife. Mrs. Lipke will be remembered as Miss Cole, formerly of Humboldt.

According to our exchanges, the colored ladies who were in the city recently soliciting funds for a new church in Pueblo, have a different church to build in each town they visit.

Mrs. Tom Gist left Wednesday night for York, Nebr., where she will spend a week, a guest at a house party given by Mrs. W. Mead in honor of the officers of the State Federation of Women's clubs.

Miss Anna Mason was forced to give up her school work a portion of the week on account of a severe cold which rendered it impossible for her to speak above a whisper. She spent a part of the week with her mother in this city.

The "woman in black" put in her appearance in Tecumseh last week, but did not last long, as a young man took a shot at it one evening, and in the race which followed the person was found to be a man masquerading in woman's clothes. It will be remembered that Falls City had a like experience a few years ago.

The Dawson News Boy has again changed hands, being sold last week to J. E. Morehouse of Waterloo, who at once took charge of the business. In his bow to the public Mr. Morehouse announces that he intends to adhere strictly to the rule to pay in advance or no paper.

Mr. and Mrs. French McDonald of Falls City, were here over Sunday for a visit with home folks. French is the Falls City electrician and is said to be the best electrician that can be found in any Nebraska town the size of Falls City.—Hiawatha World.

Mrs. M. D. Lum of DeWitt, who has been visiting for the past two weeks in this city with her mother, Mrs. DeWald, left Wednesday for Auburn, where she will visit for a time with a sister before returning to her home.

Work on the Gehling house in the south part of town is progressing rapidly. With nice weather it will be ready for occupancy by Christmas. When completed this will be one of the finest homes in the city.

A new cement crossing was this week placed on Harlan street leading from Graham's lumber yard to the Episcopal church, to replace the one which had been a nuisance for so long.

L. J. Hitchcock and wife returned from Hanover, Kansas, Monday, where they attended the funeral of the latter's father, Mr. Moline.

"Faust," the attraction at the Gehling this, Friday evening, comes highly recommended, and no doubt will be greeted by a full house.

Mrs. Ernest Oberman of Concordia, Kas., arrived in the city Saturday for a visit with her parents, Steve Prior and wife.

Mrs. Clarence Peabody came up from St. Joe, Saturday to visit with her parents, Sam Prater and wife.

W. C. Sloan and family of Verdon spent Sunday in this city at the home of John Hossack.

H. E. Boyd was down from Humboldt Friday circulating among his many friends.

John Hall and sister, Miss Cammie, of Verdon, were Falls City visitors Friday.

Jack White, now stationed at Superior, spent Sunday in this city with friends.

Roscoe Anderson of Humboldt was looking after business in this city Friday.

V. G. Lyford returned Saturday from a business trip to Chicago.

Thanksgiving turkeys taken at this office on subscription.

—Cold weather is coming. Get your Coal of C. A. Heck.

—Order your coal of C. A. Heck. Mrs. O. Fuller of Verdon was in the city Friday.

The board of supervisors is in session this week.

Mary Sinclair of Preston was the guest of relatives here Friday.

Walter Veach and wife of Verdon were in the city Friday evening.

Wanted—10,000 bushels of Walnuts, will pay cash for them—Heck & Harlow.

George H. Fallstead returned Saturday from a few days spent in Lincoln.

W. S. Korner and wife returned Friday from a weeks' visit with relatives in Lincoln.

Miss Naomi Stumbo was the guest of Humboldt friends several days during the past week.

George and John Hall and Gus and C. M. Heinzelman were down from Verdon Friday evening.

Paul Weaver and wife left the latter part of the week for a short stay in Rochester, Minn.

A number of our people attended the Taft ratification meeting in Humboldt, Monday evening.

Rev. Elza Martin came down from Peru Monday to spend the week with relatives in this city.

Rev. J. L. McLaughlin of the Omaha Methodist hospital was a guest at the Methodist parsonage Tuesday.

Ida Stewart arrived in the city Wednesday from Vermillion, Ks., and will visit for a time with relatives here.

Did you hear of it? Yes, something is likely to happen on Dec. 10, 11 and 12. Ask some of the Presbyterians about it.

T. L. Himmelreich left Thursday night for Albion, Neb., called by a telegram announcing the serious illness of his sister.

Miss Myrtle Stetler of Pawnee City, who has been the guest of relatives in this city for the past two weeks, returned to her home today.

Winnie Burger of Reserve, headed a crowd of young people who came over to attend service in St. Thomas church Sunday evening.

Guy Greenwald and bride arrived in the city on Saturday, and will soon be nicely located in their cozy cottage on north Harlan street.

Mrs. J. J. Wheeler and daughter, Irene, of University Place, spent Sunday in this city guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Sharts.

Miss Agnes Moran of Shelton, Neb., was the guest of Miss Kate Mulligan in this city Saturday. On her return home she spent Sunday with relatives in Omaha.

Bob Rule is mourning the loss of "Major," his fine stag hound. One day last week the dog was run into by a boy on a bicycle, and the injuries received at that time resulted in his death.

Chester Fisher of Olathe, Colo., arrived in the city Saturday and spent a few days with relatives here. Mr. Fisher had been looking after land interests in Kansas and stopped here on his way home. He reports George Cleveland and family as getting nicely and well pleased with their new home.

Billy Nance, formerly of this city, but now a resident of Columbus, Kansas, arrived in the city Sunday for a visit with relatives and many old friends. This is Billy's first visit to his old stamping ground in 25 years and it is hard for him to recognize the old home in the many changes made in that length of time.

While going down cellar Monday morning, Mary Jenkins was so unfortunate as to have the cellar door fall on her, catching her hand in such a manner as to crush it quite badly, and causing her to remain out of school Monday forenoon. This she regrets very much as it is the first time she has been absent or tardy in six years. A record to be proud of.

Mrs. Prof. Barrett went to Sterling, Thursday to visit for a few days with Mrs. Ernest Bode. She returned home Tuesday. Mrs. Barret reports a very pleasant social affair at the home of Mrs. Bode on Monday evening, when a number of friends came in and assisted Mrs. Harriet Able, Mrs. Bode's mother, in celebrating her birthday.

Dr. J. A. Beattie will speak at the Christian church both morning and evening next Sunday. Theme for the morning "Nebraska as a mission field" and in the evening "Why was it necessary that the Savior should be the son of man and the son of God." All are invited.

A special service will be held at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning. The sermon will be a devotional exposition of the Shepherd Psalm, while Miss Agnew will sing an appropriate solo based upon the same Psalm. The glad hand awaits you there.

Mrs. J. R. Wilhite, who has been in Kansas City for the past two weeks, caring for her son, Jule, who is quite ill with rheumatism, returned home Monday. She reports Jule as very little improved, and he is now taking treatment at Excelsior Springs.

—As a special for Saturday, November 14, the Candy Kitchen invites the public to call on them in their work rooms and watch them turn out that excellent Hot Nut Lovet, which they will offer at 15 cents per pound.

A. J. Weaver this week commenced some improvements on his residence in the east part of town, which when completed will add greatly to the convenience and beauty of his already elegant home.

—For Sale—Family driving horse; perfectly gentle; not afraid of automobiles, cars or anything else; any woman or child can drive him with perfect safety. Ask Harry Custer.

Auburn is in the midst of a 30 days revival. The meetings are held in a large tabernacle and are conducted by Revs. Hart and Magam. Much interest is being manifested.

Martin Gehling leaves today for Chicago, where he will spend two weeks taking a special brewing course in the brewers' academy.

Next Sunday evening at St. Thomas church Miss Jessie Paxton will sing for offertory "My Faith in Thee," by Dudley.

Mrs. A. Powell, who has spent the past two weeks in this city with her sons left Monday for Sabetha, Kas.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gist of Humboldt were in the city Wednesday to attend the Greenwald reception.

The Christian church bazaar will be held in the Robert's building on the 27th and 28th of this month.

Rev. Davis of Pawnee City was in town Monday and Tuesday for a brief visit enroute to Hiawatha.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Jaquet spent a few days the past week with relatives in Horton, Kan.

J. R. Cain, jr., and wife of Stella spent a portion of the week with home folks in this city.

—The Leo Cider & Vinegar Co., will buy apples suitable for vinegar until January 1st. tf

Mrs. Sue Julian left Monday to visit with relatives in St. Joe and Kansas City.

Ray Huston of Salem was looking after business in this city Monday.

R. P. Thomas returned Tuesday from a business trip in Oklahoma.

Billy Boyd was among the Salem visitors in the city Monday. Delos Graham was down from Dawson the first of the week.

Mrs. R. R. Rule spent Sunday in Salem with her parents.

W. C. McCool of Salem was in this city Monday.

Dave Davies was a Stella visitor Monday.

Copyright 1908
The House of Kuppenheimer
Chicago

H. & H. Suits and Overcoats

Have Won a Triumphant Victory This Fall

Better Clothes, greater variety and far greater values here.

At $15, $18, $20 and $25 we offer Suits and Overcoats that are better than any you've ever seen at anywhere near these prices.

At $10.00 and $12.00 we show exact copies of the finer suits, only these are made of American woolsens.

From $18.00 to $25.00 we present finer Suits and Overcoats than can be had at any other store at any price.

Hargrave's
THE HOME OF GOOD CLOTHING
FALLS CITY, NEB.
Opposite the Post Office

ROYAL
BAKING POWDER

Absolutely PURE

The only baking powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar, the officially approved ingredient for a wholesome, high-class powder

There is greater deception in the sale of baking powders than ever before. Closely observe the label and be certain of getting Royal.