—For Sale—Family driving horse; perfectly gentle; not afraid of automobiles, cars or anything else; any woman or child can drive him with perfect safety. Ask Harry Custer.

As we go to press we learn that Dr. Wilson has decided to leave this city. During their residence here the doctor and his wife have made many warm friends who regret exceedingly to have them leave us. We have not learned where they expect to locate, but wherever it may be the best wishes of their Falls City friends go with them.

Winter blasts, causing pneumonia, plury and consumption will soon be here. Cure your cough now and strengthen your lungs with Foley's Honey and Tar. Do not risk starting the winter with weak lungs when Foley's Honey and Tar will cure the most obstinate coughs and colds and prevent serious results. Kerr's Pharmacy.

My attention has been called to the unwisdom of judging the merits of brown and white bread in the same class. It has therefore been decided to divide the premiums offered giving half of first and second class premiums to the best and second best three white loaves and one half of each premium for the best and second best three brown loaves.—Rev. R. Cooper Bailey.

PUBLIC NOTICE
Notice is hereby given that all hydrants erected for the purpose of extinguishing fire are by ordinance No. 183, declared to be public hydrants, and no persons, other than members of the Fire Department in the discharge of their duty, or the Water Commissioner, shall open any of the hydrants or attempt to draw water from them or in any manner interfere with them. This ordinance will be strictly enforced.
W. W. ABBEY, Mayor.

Col. Harding, the popular auctioneer from the west end, was in the city Monday on his way to King City, Mo., where he assisted in a big sale of 138 head of Aberdeen Angus cattle from the famous herd of Wheatley & Ward.
