

THE LOCAL LORE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST TO YOU AND ME.

What Your Friends and Their Friends Have Been Doing the Past Week.

—Eat Sowles Candy.
Any way chicken is just about as good as turkey.

Dr. Tefft, Dentist, Maddox block, opposite court house.

Miss Zetta Isabel of Barada was in town Monday.

—Cold weather is coming. Get your Coal of C. A. Heck.

Mrs. J. Spragins spent Thanksgiving with her brother in Hiawatha.

L. C. Edwards was attending to business matters in Humboldt Monday.

If you will just look around you, you will find a great deal to be thankful for.

Mesdames Southerland and Reed spent Sunday with Mrs. Carrie Schaible.

Miss May Startzel went to Atchison Tuesday to visit with friends for a few days.

Mrs. David Ransom and children are visiting her daughter, Mrs. VanLaningham at Hamlin, Kansas.

—Heck & Harlow will sell you cider made from fine Geniton apples by the gallon, 5 gallon or 15 gallon or barrel lots.

FOR RENT—Good six room house near old water works. Newly papered and painted throughout. Inquire of Dr. Lawrence.

The annual memorial service of the First Methodist Episcopal church for deceased members will be observed next Sunday morning.

There were fifty-nine visitors from the neighboring towns in attendance at I. O. O. F. lodge Friday night to witness degree work by the team under the new ritual.

The many friends in this city of Mr. and Mrs. John Martin will be glad to learn that their baby is now much improved after its recent serious illness at their home in Council Bluffs.

The dramatic interest of the scene in "The County Chairman" George Ade's political play, which will be at the Gehling, Friday, Nov. 27, where Jim Hackler, the county chairman, is about to expose the chicanery of Judge Rigby, is intense. He has his old enemy in a corner, but a woman's pleading saves the day. This is one of the serious moments of the play. Most of the time the audience is in tears of laughter over the doings of Sasfras Livingston, the colored politician, or Whitaker, the windmill agent.

Foley's Honey and Tar clears the air passages, stops the irritation in the throat, soothes the inflamed membranes, and the most obstinate cough disappears. Sore and inflamed lungs are healed and strengthened and the cold is expelled from the system. Refuse any but the genuine in the yellow package. Kerr's Pharmacy.

Through the agency of H. C. Smith, a deal was closed whereby Wm. McCray of Stella becomes the possessor of the Dave Davies property in the north part of town. Mr. McCray having disposed of his property in Stella and decided to locate in a good town. We understand that possession will be given in the early spring. This change does not mean that Mr. Davies will leave us, but he in all probability will build himself another home.

Revival meetings are under way at the Brethren church. Interesting stereopticon views are shown each evening in connection with the regular service. A great deal of interest is being manifested and no doubt much good will be accomplished.

—It is not too hot, not too cold, but just the right climate in Randall County, Texas, next Tuesday, Dec. 1 at 3:40 a. m. is the time to go and take your wife with you. See Whitaker Bros., Falls City, Nebraska.

It is suggested that a part of the Thanksgiving offering be given to the Childrens Home Finding Society of Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Ranger and son Frank, of Salem ate Thanksgiving dinner in this city with E. E. Scott and wife.

Our merchants are busy getting ready for their holiday trade. A glance at the Tribune will tell you where to trade.

Mrs. George Schmelzel is spending Thanksgiving in Humboldt with her sister Mrs. Harbaugh.

John Casey was one of the K. P.'s of this city who attended the lodge festivities in Omaha.

Herman Fisher of Hastings was the guest of friends in this city during the week.

There was general rejoicing when the lights were turned on Saturday evening.

Ruth and Don Lewis went to Humboldt Saturday to see the basket ball games.

Our schools closed Wednesday evening and the pupils given a two days vacation.

Mrs. Korner leaves Friday for St. Louis where she will visit her daughter.

Wanted—10,000 bushels of Walnuts, will pay cash for them—Heck & Harlow.

Fred Cleveland made a business trip to St. Joe during the week.

We can all appreciate the saying that "turkeys roost high."

—Order your coal of C. A. Heck.

—Wanted at Heck & Harlow's pop corn.

Mrs. Ferd Harlow is the guest of Rulo friends this week.

S. A. Little was a business visitor to St. Joe during the week.

Honest, now, how much did your Thanksgiving bird cost you?

Prof. Hurst spent his Thanksgiving vacation with relatives at Dunbar.

Turkey raffles were a little shy on account of the scarcity of the favorite bird.

Misses Josephine and Amelia Gehling returned Wednesday from a few days spent in Kansas City.

W. S. Korner and Ned Towle were looking after telephone business in Stella and Auburn during the week.

C. F. Reavis went to Hiawatha Tuesday, where he addressed the Kansas republicans at a banquet in the evening.

Wm. Oswald went to Hartington, Neb., Sunday, called there by the death of his father who was 91 years of age.

We go to press too early to give the result of the basket ball games. At last accounts they were having a warm time.

Mrs. Frank McDermans and children came up from Kansas City, Wednesday and are guests at the home of J. W. Powell.

Mrs. Kachelries returned to her home in Alma, Saturday, after a few days spent in this city with her daughter, Mrs. Will Crook jr.

Ed and Kate Schulerberg went to Lockridge, Okla., Sunday to visit their grandparents. They expect to be absent about four weeks.

Mrs. I. E. Baxter and son, William, of Lawrence, Kansas arrived in the city Wednesday and will visit at the home of W. H. Keeling and numerous other friends.

Appropriate Thanksgiving programs were rendered in the different grades in our public schools on Wednesday afternoon. A great many visitors were present and enjoyed the exercises.

The big overcoat and suit sale at the M. Seff clothing store Friday and Saturday will interest you. A glance at their ad in this issue will convince you of the many bargains to be found there.

Next Sunday, being the first Sunday in Advent of the Christian year, the rector of St. Thomas church will preach a sermon at the morning service on the subject, "What Was the Hell of the Rich Man."

Martin Gehling returned Saturday from a trip to Chicago, where he spent two weeks at a brewing academy, and he is now better prepared than ever to give his patrons the best beer ever put on the market.

Mrs. Schreck, who has been visiting in this city for the past two weeks, was called to her home in Oklahoma, Monday by the serious illness of a relative. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Pete Resterer.

John Hutchings returned Tuesday from Council Bluffs, where he had been on a short visit to his uncle, who is quite ill, but was somewhat improved at this writing. This will be welcome news to his many old Falls City friends.

M. Morrissey and wife of Tecumseh are in the city. They are here in the interest of the Highlander lodge and will make this place their headquarters during their work in this vicinity. Both are thorough workers and we may now expect a busy time among the Highlanders in this city.

Winter blasts, causing pneumonia, plury and consumption will soon be here. Cure your cough now and strengthen your lungs with Foley's Honey and Tar. Do not risk starting the winter with weak lungs when Foley's Honey and Tar will cure the most obstinate coughs and colds and prevent serious results. Kerr's Pharmacy.

The corn crop in this county will not average early expectations. Where the field could be well tended the yield and quality is very good, but the continued wet weather last spring made such conditions almost impossible and corn will be at the top notch until another crop is in sight.

—The only complete stock of Edison records in town is to be found at Reavis & Abbey's large furniture store. They have the new 4-minute records and the necessary attachments to make your machine play them.

Mrs. H. C. Davis, Mrs. Clyde Davis, Mrs. Chas. Whetstone and Mrs. Lloyd Giannini were among the Falls City basket ball enthusiasts who saw the games in Humboldt Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Rife returned Monday from the Texas Panhandle country. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bach, Mrs. W. M. Gatz and Ben Gatz, who purchased land in that country.

Henry Meyers arrived the latter part of the week from Los Angeles, Calif., and will spend a short time here visiting old friends and attending to business matters.

The show window of Cleveland & Son, with its display of table linens is very attractive. As a window dresser Max Werner is fast approaching perfection.

—Now is your chance to get a nice hat cheap as every hat must be sold regardless of price at the Bon Ton Millinery Store, as they are going out of business.

Mrs. Maude Wigton and son, Dorrington, went to Council Bluffs, Wednesday night to eat Thanksgiving dinner with her sister, Mrs. John Martin.

Isham Reavis returned Sunday from the western part of the state where he had spent several days looking after legal business.

Edward Bronson of Verdon was in the city Monday. He made this office a pleasant call and added his name to our list.

Misses Grace and Gertrude Lyford are among the Lincoln students who ate turkey with home folks in this city.

Mrs. Carrie Shaw of Hiawatha spent Thanksgiving in this city the guest of Miss Mamie Gillespie at the National.

Turkeys are so scarce this season that the masses are compelled to be thankful that they can get chicken.

J. M. Jellison and Clem Bohrer were looking after business interests in Humboldt the first of the week.

C. A. Lord chaperoned a crowd from Shubert to this city Monday, making the trip in his fine auto.

Jule Ruegge, Milt Bohrer and Ernest Gagnon attended the K. of P. festivities in Omaha Monday.

Frank Neitzel came down from Columbus, Wednesday for a short visit with his parents.

Harry Cain and Lloyd Shaffer are at home for their Thanksgiving vacation.

Pete Hoffman and family are visiting with relatives in Fairbury.

"Into the Primitive" is the new story about to start in the Tribune.

The corn husker is about the busiest man just now.

—Heck & Harlow want eggs, butter and chickens.

Blaine Yoder was a Hiawatha visitor yesterday.

The "County Chairman" at the Gehling tonight.

Lela Powell spent Thanksgiving with friends in Hiawatha.

Mildred Holland and Ruth Heacock are at home for Thanksgiving.

John Mason came down from Lincoln yesterday to visit with his mother a few days.

Joseph Zulek, wife and little daughter were pleasant callers at the Tribune office Monday morning.

Sterling Falloon laid aside his business duties long enough to eat turkey with his parents in this city.

E. G. Whitford and family went to DuBois the latter part of the week to attend the funeral of Mrs. Whitford's father.

Mrs. Ed Fisher went to Council Bluffs the first of the week to spend Thanksgiving with her sister, Mrs. John Martin.

Henry Sanford went to Omaha Saturday night to spend a few days with relatives and witness the workings of the K. P. grand lodge.

Francis Shaffer and daughter of Falls City were here Friday viewing the debris of their buildings which burned last week.—Morrill News.

Roy Nicholson who has spent the past few months in different points in Colorado and Kansas, returned the latter part of the week to this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Musselman were over from Falls City Friday visiting friends and viewing the burned district of our beautiful little city.—Morrill News.

Bill Albright and Mike Miller of Dawson came down Saturday evening and joined the K. of P. delegation here, who went to Omaha to attend a grand lodge meeting.

—The best sewing machine is the easiest running and the easiest running machine is the "Standard." Sold exclusively by Reavis & Abbey. Terms easy to suit purchaser.

Heck & Harlow are sending out a fine little book entitled "Little Talks to Stockmen." This is a concise lecture and should be read by every stock raiser in the county. If you do not get a copy through the mail drop them a postal and you will get one.

—2040 acre ranch for sale, one mile from Ewing, Neb. Well watered, timber for shade and fuel; 150 acres in crop this year, corn, wheat, oats, alfalfa and potatoes; 200 acres hay land; balance pasture, mostly blue grass and pasture will carry 800 head of stock; well fenced; set good buildings. Price low. Terms. Write owner, J. H. Talbot, Sioux City, Iowa.

—Wanted—A plat book of Richardson County. Inquire at this office.

Milo Shields came down from Humboldt and spent Sunday in this city.

George Funke of Humboldt was a pleasant caller at this office Friday.

Mrs. Judith Greenwald is in Kansas City visiting with her son.

A clergoman writes, "Preventives, those little Candy Cough Cure Tablets are working wonders in my parish." Preventives surely will check a cold or the Grippe, in a very few hours, and preventives are so safe and harmless. No quinine, nothing harsh nor sickening. Fine for feverish restless children. Box of 48 an 25c. Sold by all dealers.

As we are going out of business we will sell for the next 14 days every trimmed hat at actual cost, for cash. Come and see us and be convinced. Respectfully, MISS H. BREBECK.

Dr. M. L. Wilson and wife left the first of the week for Wahoo, Neb., where they have decided to locate. The best wishes of their many friends in this community go with them.

Eph Peck came in Saturday and renewed his subscription to this family necessity. Mr. Peck always knows when his subscription is due.

Last Saturday was another beautiful day and all the people for miles around were in town. It was a big day for our merchants.

Ed Simanton arrived in the city the latter part of the week from Phoenix, Ariz., and expects to remain here during the winter.

F. W. Samuelson came down from Lincoln the latter part of the week for a short visit with his family.

Miss Helen Martin returned Friday from a few weeks visit with her brothers in Council Bluffs.

Mrs. Ada Wells is among the many who renewed their faith in the Tribune since our last issue.

Mrs. Eva Dayton of Humboldt came down Friday to attend the musicale at the Baptist church.

Mrs. Mason went to Hiawatha Saturday, where she has organized quite a large painting class.

Rev. Maize of Dawson was in the city Saturday. The Tribune acknowledges a pleasant call.

Miss Winifred Raper of Chicago is visiting in the city with her sister Mrs. Chas. Hargrave.

Mrs. John Stitzer of Salem visited with friends in this city the latter part of the week.

A. J. Weaver and wife returned Saturday from Omaha where they had spent several days.

Mrs. W. S. Leyda chaperoned the girl's basket ball team to Humboldt, Saturday.

Prof. Carl Leister returned Saturday from a week spent in Minneapolis, Minn.

J. F. Walsh and wife of Humboldt spent Sunday with Falls City friends.

—Wanted—A plat book of Richardson County. Inquire at this office.

Milo Shields came down from Humboldt and spent Sunday in this city.

George Funke of Humboldt was a pleasant caller at this office Friday.

Mrs. Judith Greenwald is in Kansas City visiting with her son.

Silverware

Few gifts meet with such appreciation from the housewife as does a piece of nice Silverware. It combines beauty, utility and permanency—all of which call forth her appreciation. If you want something for the home and at the same time please "her," let it be Silverware. You will find many pieces of silver in our selection that will please her beyond a doubt. The designs are new and attractive, and the quality is beyond question.

A. E. JAQUET
"THE OLD RELIABLE"

NOW

While you are thinking of it, make up your mind to come here for

GLASSES

We are careful
You should be

Geo. W. Reneker, O. D., M. D.

Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat
Falls City, Neb.