

THE LOCAL LORE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST TO YOU AND ME.

What Your Friends and Their Friends Have Been Doing the Past Week.

—Eat Sowles Candy.

Miss Dorothy White is home for the holidays.

Dr. Tefft, Dentist, Maddox block, opposite court house.

Get your potatoes at Heck's feed store, 75c per bushel.

Ralph Lewis spent Sunday with his brother, Thearen, in Omaha.

Hear one side and you will be in the dark. Hear both sides and all will be clear.

Mildred Holland who is attending school in Lincoln, is home for her holiday vacation.

Frank Greenwald and family of Deadwood, S. D., are in the city visiting relatives.

Miss Eva Farkel of Stella, was in the city the first of the week, the guest of Grace Hoppie.

Do not kick every stone in the path. More miles can be made in a day by going steadily on than stopping.

Rev. R. R. Teeter returned from a lecturing tour through Iowa and will occupy his pulpit as usual next Sunday.

The man who wants to be sure of a crowd of buyers at his sale should have his bills printed at the Tribune office and run an ad.

The farmer, the same as the business man, should have printed stationery. The Tribune's work is the best and prices the lowest.

Little Joe Uhlig talked for a week about "Mr. Jesus and his automobile" before his parents learned that he meant Charlie Lord of Shubert.

Mrs. Alice Earley and her daughter, Mrs. Nellie McGregory and a grand-daughter, are up from Atchison visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G.W. Chesley.

A local maiden of advanced age is said to have replied to the question why she had never married, that she always noticed that married men made the poorest husbands.

We made seven men mad last week by saying that if you asked the first fifty men you met who was the meanest man in Falls City forty would name the same fellow. Each one of the seven thought he was "it."

Miss Lois Spencer whose work as a librarian has been so satisfactory has participated prominently in a traveling county library that is not only doing wonders in the way of entertaining and instructing those to whom a library is inaccessible, but is at the same time creating a very kindly feeling for Falls City. We are going to ask Miss Spencer to explain its workings to Tribune readers in the near future.

"In the lives of the saddest of us there are bright days when we feel as if we could take the world into our arms. Then comes the gloomy days, when the fire will neither burn on our hearths nor in our hearts, and all without and within is dismal, cold and dark. Believe me, every heart has its secret sorrows which the world knows not; and oftimes we call a man cold, when he is only sad." —Longfellow.

Frank Pecht broke all records for sawing wood Saturday. He began operations at the court house where he finished 23 cords of wood, moved his machine to another part of town and sawed 2 cords before the day closed.

The Odd Fellows will hold open house New Years day from two to five in the afternoon. In the evening an entertainment will be given to Odd Fellows and their families.

This is the time of the year when the farmer does the right thing with the rural route man in the way of sausage, backbone and kindred delicacies.

Tom Spence and wife, who travel with "The Girl and the Gawk Co.," arrived in the city Monday to visit relatives several days.

"When the millions applaud you, seriously ask yourself what harm you have done; when they censure you, what good." —Colton.

Walter Vogen of Missouri, was in the city the first of the week, visiting at the home of D. Branum and S. Prater.

Etta Sheehan of Atchison, spent Sunday at the home of her father, Morris Sheehan and wife.

Mr. Hohen, of Matthews Department Store, spent Christmas day with his family in St. Joe.

G. W. Wiltse of Dawson was in town Wednesday. While here remembered The Tribune.

If the local butchers would only make pork sausage of pork how happy we would be.

Mrs. Fred Freie spent a few days with her daughter, Mrs. A. Haffele, near Preston.

Mrs. John Leyda returned the latter part of the week to her home in Plattsmouth.

G. Fred Cummings of Omaha, is in the city the guest of Miss Laura Naylor.

Miss Helen Brebeck spent Sunday in Hiawatha, the guest of Mrs. Talley.

Fred Freie of this vicinity, spent Sunday with relatives in Wymore.

Consider the cucumber; it always fights hardest when its down.

W. S. Leyda and wife left Sunday for a few days stay in Kansas City.

John Seiler of Humboldt, was a business visitor here Saturday.

Jas. Sinclair and wife of Preston, were in the city Monday.

Vaughn McVey spent Sunday at his home in Rulo.

J. W. Lundy was down from Shubert Saturday.

—Cold weather is coming. Get your Coal of C. A. Heck.

Jake Marmet spent Sunday with his family in this city.

Chas. Weaver of Verdon, was in this city shopping Saturday.

Ewing Herbert of "The World" was a business visitor here Friday night.

Dr. Morsman and wife are enjoying a visit from their son from St. Louis.

Wm. Hinton came down from Omaha and spent Sunday with his brother.

D. M. Davies and wife spent Sunday in Verdon at the home of J. D. Griffith.

Guy Greenwald and wife are in Kansas City where they will spend Christmas.

Clyde Chessman of this place left yesterday for Mound City to spend Christmas.

Miss Cornford is in Iowa during the holidays, the guest at the home of her brother.

May Startzel who has been visiting relatives in Atchison, returned home Sunday.

James Coupe came down from Lincoln and will remain at home until after Christmas.

Misses May and Kate Maddox came down from Lincoln to spend their holiday vacation at home.

Tom Davies returned to Auburn Monday after a short visit at the home of George Riechers.

Mrs. Fred Cain returned from an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Adelbert Van Oven, at Bozeman, Mont.

Harry J. Pittock came up from St. Joe to spend Christmas at home. He is a student at Ensworth Central Medical college.

FOR RENT—Good six room house near old water works. Newly papered and painted throughout. Inquire of Dr. Lawrence.

Louie Godferron, who has been receiving medical treatment at a Kansas City hospital, returned home the latter part of the week.

Misses Lucy and Edith Lemon came home from Crete, where they are attending school, and will remain until after Christmas.

S. L. Davies left this week for Dakota to look after his claim interest there, he being among the lucky ones in the Tripp county drawing.

Miss Edna Crook returned Sunday from Texas, where she is attending school, to spend her Christmas vacation with her parents here.

Ernest Vincent and wife start today from Denver for this place. Mrs. Vincent is improving and they will spend some time at the home of her parents in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Abner McKee returned from Council Bluffs Sunday. They will spend some time visiting relatives in this city before going to their new home in Colorado.

Wm. Sinclair, wife and two little sons, left Monday for their home in Kidderville, Kas., after several days spent with the former's sister, Mrs. John Hossack, and other relatives.

The News announces a "blue rock" shoot next week which will be participated in by "Petie" Frederick and the sporting editor of that paper. There is nothing like news as is news.

The usual Christmas dinner attended by all the children and grandchildren will be enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Isham Reavis today. Twenty-four comprise the total number.

That the merchants of Falls City recognize the Tribune as the best advertising medium is shown by a comparison of advertising done during the holidays shown elsewhere in this paper.

August Deckinger held a public sale on his farm near this city during the week, which was the largest held in this county for some time. The sales amounted to $5,000. Col. Marion was the auctioneer.

The reporter saw an Indian buy a hundred dollars in Christmas presents in one store Monday. Our merchants in their advertising, have not paid enough attention to this trade. The next catalogue you get out, try the nearby reservation and see what the result is.

Mr. and Mrs. Frances Martin are today giving a family Christmas dinner at their home. John Martin and family and Frank and George Martin are here from Council Bluffs, and also Tom Martin and family will be present.

Ingram Cain who has spent the last two years in New Mexico and Montana is home for Christmas. Ingram is at present located in Montana where he is engaged in business.

Many newspaper readers are for one reason or another contemplating a change of papers. If you want all the news of the county all the time try taking the Tribune.

Will Julian of Long Beach, Calif., accompanied by his mother, has joined his wife and will visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cain, over the holidays.

The hitch racks, the feed lots and the livery barns were scarcely adequate to accommodate the many teams that were in town last Saturday.

Mrs. Clarence Peabody came up from St. Joe Monday and will remain until after Christmas at the home of her father, Samuel Prater.

Seventeen attacked turkey at the home of Bob Cain on Christmas. This number included all the children and grandchildren.

It was interesting to see Dave Reavis and Wilber Leyda try not to look proud during the basketball games last Friday night.

Mrs. Della Stumbo and daughter, Jennie Pearl, of Lincoln, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Prater.

Mrs. Tom Palmer came down from Shickley, to spend the holidays with her parents, Rube Horrocks and wife.

Col. C. H. Marion wishes to announce that he has plenty of open dates between now and February 1.

J. R. Shelly and wife and Wm. Mohler and wife were among the Preston people shopping in town Saturday.

Miss Hand left Saturday for Ft. Leavenworth to spend the holiday vacation with her soldier brother.

Clifford Wahl, who is attending St. Mary's college, at St. Marys, Kas., is in the city for a short vacation.

A reporter counted eight touring cars in town Saturday and each one was owned by a farmer.

Mrs. Bob Johnson and daughter, Katherine, of Superior, are visiting relatives in this city.

Miss Gladys Hoffman of Lincoln was the guest of Marion Simanton this week.

Miss Helen Murphy of Rulo, visited her sister, Mrs. Dennis McCarthy, Saturday.

Miss Cecil Kanaly and Miss Gilbert of Rulo, were Saturday visitors in this city.

Chas. Banks of Dakator, Okla., is visiting at the home of his parents in this city.

Miss Myra Bush, the postmistress of Preston, spent Saturday in this city.

Miss Lookabill is spending her Christmas vacation with relatives in Iowa.

—For sale—Lakeside organ, as good as new. Inquire at Tribune.

Mrs. Kate Rieger has been quite sick during the week.

Joe Lord and wife of Salem, were in the city Saturday.

Miss Field is enjoying a visit at her home in Lincoln.

Turner Tefft spent Sunday with friends in Lincoln.

Mrs. Joe Neitzel came up from Preston Saturday.

—Order your coal of C.A. Heck.

Dr. Clifford R. Tefft DENTIST

All Work Guaranteed and promptly attended to. Modern Equipment

OPERATIONS

Gold Bridges	Gold Inlays
Gold and Porcelain Bridges	Porcelain Inlays
Gold Crowns	Gold and Rubber Plates
Porcelain Crowns	Alcolite Inlays
	Gold and Silver Fillings

All Work Strictly Up-to-Date and Guaranteed

MADDOX BLOCK

Opposite Court House
Falls City, Nebraska
Telephone 259

Dan Riley jr., of Dawson, was in the city Friday.

Wm. Deckinger of Preston, was in the city Saturday.

George Uri of Steiuener, was a visitor in this city Friday.

F. W. Samuelson came down from Lincoln Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian left Sunday for Kansas City, for a short visit.

Mrs. C. Hermes of St. Joseph has our thanks for cash on subscription.

Will Ruegge was in Omaha attending the Implement Dealers' convention last week.

Miss Agnew left Friday for Rockford, Ill., to spend her Christmas vacation with relatives.

Uncle Jesse Crook's many friends are sorry to know that he is very ill at his home in this city.

Ed Hammond of Lincoln, orders the Tribune sent to him for another year. He is one of our satisfied readers.

J. W. Macomber and wife of Coweta, I. T., are in the city visiting the former's sister, Mrs. G. J. Crook and other relatives.

Mrs. C. M. Wilson left Friday for Valparaiso, Ind., where she will spend the holidays with her daughter who is attending the conservatory of music at that place.

J. W. Dodds of Humboldt, remembered the Tribune on subscription this week. Mr. Dodds always remembers us January 1, he being the first cash subscriber to the Tribune when it started.

H. D. Tinker, a former resident of this county, but now of Douglas, Arizona, writes that he is prospering in the home of their late choice, where he is interested in paying mining properties. He also renews his faith in the Tribune.

Earl Camblin of Ross, Wyoming, arrived in the city the latter part of the week to visit at the home of his father, Frank Camblin. He will remain until after the holidays.

J. W. Mumford an old Richardson county man, writes us from Victor, Col., and encloses a check to be applied on subscription.

A. H. Voegelin came up from Rulo Saturday, to look after business matters and to call on his many friends.

Fred Bahr is spending the week at Reynolds, Neb., being called there by the illness of a brother.

Dr. J. L. Gandy of Humboldt was in the city yesterday and renewed his faith in The Tribune.

Miss Myrtle Bowers entertained relatives from Washington state and Verdon on Wednesday.

R. M. Gillan of Auburn, spent a few days in this city last week, returning home Saturday.

C. S. McCool and W. W. McDermott of Salem, were business visitors here Saturday.

Mrs. H. D. Weller of Stella, spent a few days this week with Mrs. A. Graham.

Mrs. John Stockton and daughter Clara are visiting relatives at Stanbury, Mo.

JEWELRY

Is always suitable for wife, mother, father, sister, brother, aunt, uncle or friend. Here are a few suggestions:

FOR MEN

Watch
Ring
Fob
Charm
Stick Pin
Cuff Buttons
Razor Strop
Shaving Set
Fountain Pen

FOR WOMEN

Watch
Bracelets
Fancy Hat Pin
Belt Pin
Locket and Chain
Ring
Jewel Cases
Cut Glass
Silverware

These are only a few of the many useful and beautiful things we carry that would make an excellent present at a moderate price.

R. B. SIMPSON
JEWELER
North Window Kerr's Pharmacy

ALTHOUGH many of the lines in our stock have been considerably depleted, there still remain many articles, which would make admirable gifts. If you are looking for a New Year's remembrance or have a gift want to fill, your needs can still be met at Jaquet's, with success.

A. E. JAQUET
"The Old Reliable"