

Henry C. Smith LANDS & LOANS

240 acres well improved, 1 1/2 miles from Depot in Kas. Good spring. Best of terms. Will take 40 acres as part payment, balance long time at low interest.
200 acres 1 1/2 miles from depot, Richardson county, Nebraska. Good buildings and land. Will take 40 or 80 acres as part payment
160 acres upland, 1 mile from depot, Richardson county, Nebraska. $12,000.
160 acres Johnson county, Nebraska. 80 rods to church and school. Best of terms. Might rent.
107 acres near Brownville, Nebraska.
80 acres 1/4-mile from Falls City high school.
640 acres, $8,000 improvements. Also 640 acres adjoining. Will take 160 acres as part payment. Fine running water. A No. 1 opportunity.
Money to loan.

The County in General

The "Doings" of our Country Friends and Neighbors.

BARADA

Glenn Lilly of Shubert is visiting his aunt here.
Wilson Lowe was a county seat visitor Saturday.
Rex Oliver and Verne Roe were visitors here Sunday.
Frank Reavis and wife visited in this vicinity Sunday.
Mart Lattimore of Oklahoma is here looking for a location.
Helene Kuker and wife were shopping in Falls City Saturday.
The Lyceum and Reading Circle are each taking a two weeks lay off.
Sam Spiekler was in Omaha on business last week, returning Saturday.
Roxie Franklin of Centerville, Kas., was visiting relatives here last week.
Y. P. S. C. E. Sunday evening, Dec. 27, subject, China; leader E. E. Butler.
A. E. Butler and wife left Tuesday for Peru where they will enter the normal.
Charles Wileman and wife made a trip to Omaha last week, returning on Saturday.
D. E. Spiekler returned Saturday from Rosalie where he has been looking after business.
The Barada school closed on Wednesday for the holidays. It will reopen on January 4, 1909.
Mrs. Emma Siemering is convalescing in St. Joe after undergoing an operation. She is expected home next week.
The entertainment given on Wednesday evening at Arnold school house was well attended and all had a good time.
Miss Rosa Slagle is spending the holiday vacation at her home in Hubbard, Neb. Her cousin Richard accompanied her.

Mrs. McRaney's Experience

Mrs. M. McRaney, Prentiss, Miss., writes "I was confined to my bed for three months with kidney and bladder trouble, and was treated by two physicians but failed to get relief. No human tongue can tell what I suffered, and I had given up hopes of ever getting well until I began taking Foley's Kidney Remedy. After taking two bottles I felt like a new person, and feel it my duty to tell suffering women what Foley's Kidney Remedy did for me." Kerr's Pharmacy.

OHIO.

H. Coon and wife spent Monday at Barada.
Guy Birk visited with John Huetler on Sunday.
John Reischek was an Omaha visitor last week.
Ed Zorn and family spent Sunday with John Nolte and wife.
Tommy Hargrave visited with Guy and Harry Pritchard Monday.
Lucy Smith spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. H. J. Pritchard.
Edith Keithly spent one night last week with Lizzie and May Coon.
John Reischek and family spent Sunday with Fred Gerit and wife.
Charles Zentner and family spent Sunday near Verdon with relatives.
Mrs. E. D. Shafer and Mabel were guests of Mrs. P. E. Shaffer Monday.
Elsie and Ella Huettner spent Sunday with their aunt Mrs. John Nolte.
Mrs. Guy Prime and little son were guests of Mrs. Charles Zentner Monday.
Wm. Huettner and H. J. Pritchard were visitors at Nemaha City, Monday.
Mrs. Charles Stump and baby are guests of her parents Wm. Bartlett and wife.
Wm. Peck came down Saturday from Lincoln to spend the holidays at home.
Mrs. Christ Zorn came home Saturday after spending a week in Falls City with her mother.
Mrs. Jesse Spangler and Mrs. C. Phillipi spent a portion of last week with Edna and Vera Shaffer.
Wm. and Otto Huettner and H. Schrieber and their families visited Mr. Glass near Preston, Sunday.
Frank Cook and wife entertained Tuck Cook and wife, Zetta Camblin and Mrs. Casey at their home Sunday.

STELLA.

Ben Doss of Johnson was here Wednesday.
Arthur Allen of Auburn was here Thursday.
F. M. Hinkle went to Auburn Friday on business.
Drs. Hann and Gilliland were here on Thursday.
Joe Wagner went to Kansas City this week with cattle.
Mrs. Hogrefe and son Harry went to Verdon Tuesday.
George Reickers of Falls City was in town this week.
Miss Lydia Barstler has been quite sick the past week.
D. G. Palmer and wife of Shubert spent Saturday here.
J. M. Evans and wife of Shubert were here Thursday.
Abe Moore of Alsworth arrived Saturday to visit friends.
John Kleckner of Auburn was a business caller here Saturday.
Romains Timmerman and I. S. Vaden were Omaha visitors Wednesday.
Chas. Derstine and wife of Oklahoma are here this week visiting relatives.
J. F. Brown went to Falls City to visit relatives Friday, returning Saturday.
S. B. Thomas of north of town will farm the Larimore farm the coming year.
John O'Brien is building a new barn for James Morris this week on his farm north of town.
J. W. Vaught bought the W. E. Higgins property in the north part of town Saturday for $900.
The old creamery took fire but was extinguished. John Clark and family resided in the building.
W. H. Ritchie who has been working near Howe the past summer was here on business Saturday.
Our Peru students came back this week for a two weeks vacation and the state university students also.
A. E. Camblin has his home ready for the plasterers. The carpenters finished the wood work the past week.
Warren Briggs is doing nicely with his injured arm. The doctors think it will be but a short time until he will be well again.
J. D. Curtis moved to his new home the past week. He has a new furnace and everything pointing to a comfortable home.
There has been a great deal of talk here of late about extending the lights to Shubert and light their city from this place.
The ladies of Lutheran church gave a bake sale Saturday afternoon and took in $15 which they will use instead of soliciting for the Christmas time as heretofore.
The Stella Telephone Company are erecting a new store house back of the Pugh restaurant. The more business increases the more repairs they must have on hand.
A novelty shower was given Miss Maggie Hacker at the home of Gertrude Shellenbarger Saturday evening. Miss Hacker is to be married to Harry Harford on Christmas eve.
H. R. Walker, the night operator went to Leavenworth Thursday to visit his parents, returning Saturday. Mike Malter took his place while gone. Mr. Malter left Sunday for Atchison.
Elmer Reimers will move his barber shop across the street into his father's building the first of the year. F. G. Wixon who now occupies the building will move into the building Mr. Reimers is vacating.
M. Shafer tried his auto Wednesday and found it run pretty good about town but when he got out in the country it refused to go and Burt Curtis hitched it on behind his wagon and brought it to town.
W. A. Vandever sold his farm of 90 acres Wednesday to J. T. Curtis for $10,500. Mr. Vandever gives possession the 1st of March at which time he will move to his farm in Antelope county. Burt Curtis will sell his land near McCook and farm the place his father has just bought.
E. M. Wilson had a narrow escape from the cogs of a corn sheller one day this week while helping his brother run the sheller. He was working about the machine when his jacket became entangled in the gearing drawing him into the sheller, but as luck had it he was too quick and tore his jacket off thus saving his arm.

Ernest Warne one of the proprietors of the Florence Hotel, while starting a fire Saturday met with an accident. He had gotten up from breakfast and found the fire very low and though he would start it quickly and threw in some coal oil which caused an explosion burning the right side of his face very badly, but it is thought there will be no bad results.

Guilty of Counterfeiting

Passing counterfeit money no worse than substituting some unknown worthless remedy for Foley's Honey and Tar, the great cough and cold remedy that cures the most obstinate coughs and heals the lungs. Kerr's Pharmacy.

RULO

F. E. Culp of Wymore was here last week.
Alva Spicer was a Salem visitor Saturday.
H. B. Hinton of Omaha was here Sunday.
Grace Cronin went to Falls City last Sunday.
E. C. Walbridge of Falls City was here Sunday.
J. G. Hinkle of Fortescue was a visitor here Friday.
Nellie Coupe spent Sunday with Falls City friends.
Ed Gilbert and wife are the proud parents of little son.
Will Smith spent Sunday with his mother at Craig, Mo.
George Oldfield of Auburn visited friends here last week.
Maggie Mooney returned last week from Effingham, Kansas.
Uncle Billy Johnson has been quite poorly the past two weeks.
Will Craig went to North Burrow, Iowa, this week on business.
Mrs. John Pope and daughter were Falls City visitors Saturday.
Will Cunningham made a business trip to Kansas City last week.
Frank Thorn of Kirksville, Mo., is visiting friends here this week.
Mrs. Charles Hall and children visited friends at Salem this week.
Mesdames Huber and Caverzagie were Falls City visitors Monday.
Mrs. Myres and children of South Dakota are here visiting relatives.
At Sherman of Table Rock was a business visitor here last Saturday.
Guy Hart came up from St. Joe Saturday to spend a week with friends.
Edith Hinkle arrived from Fayette Saturday to spend vacation at home.
Mr. Elliott has moved from Kansas to Mrs. Bowkers house south of town.
Anna Davis returned Saturday from a visit with her sister in Kansas City.
Miss Hallett left for her home at Peru Wednesday to spend her vacation.
School closed Thursday after a short program in which only the lower room took part.
Dr. Minton of Fortescue was here in the interest of a telephone company last week.
Daisy Boerner returned Sunday from an extended visit with relatives at Humboldt.
Hattie Hart came up from St. Joe Thursday to spend Christmas with home folks.
Verna Vastine came down from Ashland Saturday to spend a short time with her parents.
Mrs. Elmer Lambert and daughter of Red Cloud, Neb., visited with relatives in this vicinity last week.
Charlie Miller was quite badly hurt last week by falling off a high bridge. A broken collar bone and several bruises are the results.
A painter from Lincoln came Monday to help with the work on the new church, as they wish to give a Christmas entertainment on Christmas eve. The furnace has been put in place and a fine light plant also. The seats were shipped from Wisconsin the 16th and are expected to be placed before the 24th.

A Personal Appeal

If we could talk to you personally about the great merit of Foley's Honey and Tar, for coughs, colds and lung trouble, you never would be induced to experiment with unknown preparations that may contain some harmful drugs. Foley's Honey and Tar costs you no more and has a record of forty years of cures. Kerr's Pharmacy.

SHUBERT

E. C. Riggs is visiting in Omaha.
Henry Leslie was a county seat visitor Saturday.
Grandma Lewis who has been quite sick, is better.
John Patnoe was a Falls City visitor during the week.
Mr. Hill of Lincoln visited relatives here Wednesday.
W. Evans of Auburn spent Saturday with relatives here.
Mr. Graham and wife are visiting relatives in Missouri.
M. Shalenberg of Mathewsville was here during the week.
Mrs. H. Kuker of Barada visited friends here this week.
Andra Hendricks of near Stella was a visitor here Wednesday.
Mrs. John Evans visited her parents at Cottage Grove last week.
Charlie Bacon moved his household goods to Beatrice this week.
Dan McDaniels and family visited relatives at Barada Tuesday.
Mrs. James Shively of Nemaha spent a few days recently here with friends.
Miss Hattie Lilly teacher of Barada school spent Sunday with home folks.
Wm. Snelling and wife are enjoying a visit from a relative from Missouri.
Mr. Shafer spent one day in Falls City where he went to consult a doctor.
Mrs. Lydia Bucholtz returned Friday from her visit with relatives in Indiana.
Mr. Imler and wife enjoyed a visit from their son John of Stella Sunday.
The little son of Fred Boatman and wife has been quite ill, but is slowly recovering.
Mrs. Ross Kinton is still confined to her bed, but it is thought that she will soon be out again.
Mrs. Higgins has several men grading and fixing her yard which adds greatly to its appearance.
Several from here attended the Butler sale at Barada Friday and report everything brought a fair price.
Mrs. Hall of E'k Creek who has been visiting here parents here for some time returned to her home Saturday.
Earl Butler and wife who sold their farm belongings at public auction took the train here Friday for Peru where they will make their home.
Ed Graham and Mrs. Lena Gerdes of Hildreth, Neb., were married Saturday, Rev. Ruch officiating. Mr. Graham has a host of friends who wish for him and his wife a happy life.
Bill Molsinger and family formerly of this place, but who have made their home in Indian Territory during the past year arrived here Tuesday. Bill thinks there is no place like Shubert.
A large number of the members of the Degree of Honor met Wednesday and initiated ten new candidates and elected new officers. Several visitors were present from Verdon. Light refreshments were served and a good time had by all present.

Foley's Orino Laxative cures chronic constipation and stimulates the liver. Orino regulates the bowels so they will act naturally and you do not have to take purgatives constantly. Kerr's Pharmacy.
Raebael Ray was quite sick this week.
School closed Wednesday for a ten days vacation.
J. H. Haizja had business in Table Rock Tuesday.
W. C. Norton spent Sunday with his family in Lincoln.
Fred-Butterfield is having his residence remodeled.
Ed Hodapp, teacher in the Verdon schools is visiting friends here.
Elton Nims has left for Texas where he will spend the winter months.
R. E. Finch and wife of Arapahoe are here visiting their daughter.
A. McMurray and family of Ames, Iowa, are visiting relatives here.
Charlie Watzek was a down from Douglas Sunday visiting his parents.
Mrs. Johnson and son have returned from a visit with relatives in Omaha.
Mrs. Seabury of Kansas attended the Cooper-Stanley wedding here Saturday.
The ladies of the Methodist church cleared $300 at their bazaar last week.
Pearl Colony and wife arrived Saturday from Beatrice on a visit to relatives.
Mrs. John Wozob and daughter of Blue Springs are visiting relatives here.
The general merchandise stock of M. C. Lee was recently sold to Will Carsb.
Chester Power returned this week from an extended business trip in New Mexico.
J. C. Herwig and wife are now located in the cottage recently vacated by Jos. Zulek's.
George Bollus who has been spending the summer and fall with L. Poir and wife left the past week for his home in Chicago.
Mrs. Ella Williamson has returned from an extended visit with friends in Berea, Kentucky.
Minnie Petrashek teacher in the schools at Riverview, Iowa, is visiting her parents south of town.
Marie Varner, instructor of the first primary, is spending her vacation with her parents in Sterling.
Jessie Draper and Herbert Ford, students at the Grand Island college are home for a two weeks visit.
Wm. Brawdon and wife left Monday for Gayville, So. Dak., where they will spend several weeks with friends.
James Liggett went to Pawnee Wednesday where he will be employed in one of the banks for several weeks.
Anton Kozel and wife left Saturday for their future home near Ravenna, where they have purchased a farm.
Lulu Hummel who is attending the university conservatory of music in Lincoln is visiting home folks. Her mother has been in very poor health of late.
Ed Rist, Will Gutzmer, Hubert Veits and Arthur Stalder arrived here Saturday from Davidson, Canada, where they have been spending the past nine months on their claims. After spending a few days with friends here Mr. Gutzmer will go to Newton, Kansas, where his parents reside.

HUMBOLDT

Raebael Ray was quite sick this week.
School closed Wednesday for a ten days vacation.
J. H. Haizja had business in Table Rock Tuesday.
W. C. Norton spent Sunday with his family in Lincoln.
Fred-Butterfield is having his residence remodeled.
Ed Hodapp, teacher in the Verdon schools is visiting friends here.
Elton Nims has left for Texas where he will spend the winter months.
R. E. Finch and wife of Arapahoe are here visiting their daughter.
A. McMurray and family of Ames, Iowa, are visiting relatives here.
Charlie Watzek was a down from Douglas Sunday visiting his parents.
Mrs. Johnson and son have returned from a visit with relatives in Omaha.
Mrs. Seabury of Kansas attended the Cooper-Stanley wedding here Saturday.
The ladies of the Methodist church cleared $300 at their bazaar last week.
Pearl Colony and wife arrived Saturday from Beatrice on a visit to relatives.
Mrs. John Wozob and daughter of Blue Springs are visiting relatives here.
The general merchandise stock of M. C. Lee was recently sold to Will Carsb.
Chester Power returned this week from an extended business trip in New Mexico.
J. C. Herwig and wife are now located in the cottage recently vacated by Jos. Zulek's.
George Bollus who has been spending the summer and fall with L. Poir and wife left the past week for his home in Chicago.
Mrs. Ella Williamson has returned from an extended visit with friends in Berea, Kentucky.
Minnie Petrashek teacher in the schools at Riverview, Iowa, is visiting her parents south of town.
Marie Varner, instructor of the first primary, is spending her vacation with her parents in Sterling.
Jessie Draper and Herbert Ford, students at the Grand Island college are home for a two weeks visit.
Wm. Brawdon and wife left Monday for Gayville, So. Dak., where they will spend several weeks with friends.
James Liggett went to Pawnee Wednesday where he will be employed in one of the banks for several weeks.
Anton Kozel and wife left Saturday for their future home near Ravenna, where they have purchased a farm.
Lulu Hummel who is attending the university conservatory of music in Lincoln is visiting home folks. Her mother has been in very poor health of late.
Ed Rist, Will Gutzmer, Hubert Veits and Arthur Stalder arrived here Saturday from Davidson, Canada, where they have been spending the past nine months on their claims. After spending a few days with friends here Mr. Gutzmer will go to Newton, Kansas, where his parents reside.

LYRIC THEATRE

Programme for Week of December 28 to January 2
Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights we offer Tanner and Gilbert, in a one-act comedy entitled, "How to Make Love." An excellent act—neat and clean—with first-class singing. This act comes highly recommended by Mr. Fred Cosman, of the Crystal Theatre, St. Joseph. New pictures and songs.
Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, New Year's matinee, Children's Matinee, Saturday, we offer Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lucier, in a rural comedy entitled, "A Rustic Romeo." Fred Lucier is one of those chaps whose "rube" character is not overdrawn, and whose mannerisms are true to life. New pictures and songs. Admission, 10 and 20 cents.

FARGO

Frank Frederlek was a Falls City caller.
Mary Haunks visited homefolks Sunday.
Chester White was seen viewing main street.
Ben Zimmerman was a county seat visitor Saturday.
Wren Whitehead and wife were Falls City shoppers.
Mary Mandeville visited with Anna and Rose Bauman Sunday.
Arthur and Jean Anderson hauled cord wood to Falls City Saturday.
John Bauman and wife and little son Lawrence were Falls City shoppers.
Miss Florence Manger spent a few days visiting with Ruby Waggoner.
E. E. Durfee and family spent Sunday with R. D. Waggoner and family.
Ruby Waggoner who is attending the Falls City high school came home to enjoy a two weeks vacation.
While Tom Collaris was in our city he accidentally caught his foot in a crack in the cement sidewalk and fell and broke his arm. The little fellow is getting along nicely and we hope for his speedy recovery.
Irene Callier and Tom Rates were married Dec. 12. The bride is a well known young lady living near Rulo. Both are well known and respected by all who know them. We wish them joy and happiness.
Horse coughs and stuffy colds that may develop into pneumonia over night are quickly cured by Foley's Honey and Tar as it soothes inflamed membranes, heals the lungs, and expels the cold from the system. Kerr's Pharmacy.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT FOR RICHARDSON COUNTY, NEBRASKA.
J. H. Brinegar, real name John H. Brinegar, Plaintiff.

Pora Boerner, Amelia Ronlan, Emmann Bedard, Defendants.
The above named defendants non-residents will take notice that on December 22, 1908, plaintiff filed his petition against said defendants in the district court of Richardson County, Nebraska, the object of which is to quiet the title to lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, in block 38, in Ronlan's and Bedard's addition to the city of Rulo, and to exclude each of you from any interest therein. You must plead to said petition on or before February 22, 1909, or the allegations of the petition be taken as true and decrees rendered accordingly.

JOHN H. BRINEGAR, Plaintiff.
REAVIS & REAVIS, attorneys for plaintiff. 49-4

Palace Meat Market

JOHN F. HIGGINS, Proprietor

Having purchased the C. M. Nicholas Meat Market, I desire to inform my friends, and the public in general, that I propose to conduct an up-to-date market, and expect to keep on hand at all times the choicest of Meats, Game, Fish, Oysters and whatever else the market affords. Your patronage solicited. Yours for business,

"JACK" HIGGINS

Telephone No. 3

Falls City, Neb.