

THE LOCAL LORE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST TO YOU AND ME.

What Your Friends and Their Friends Have Been Doing the Past Week.

—Eat Sowles Candy.

Dr. Wilson, Wahl's building.

Donald McCoy went to St. Joe Sunday evening.

Dr. Tefft, Dentist, Maddox block, opposite court house.

Al Kroh of Verdon was a business visitor in this city Saturday.

Mrs. Jones of Omaha is visiting her sister, Mrs. John Young.

Roy Swisegood of Verdon was a business visitor here Saturday.

A baby boy arrived at the home of Ray Johnson near Salem Sunday.

Florence Judd of Dawson will start a tailoring school in the Miller building.

Mrs. C. F. Vaught of this city spent a part of the week with Mrs. J. A. Vaught and Miss Carrie.

Mrs. W. E. Davis who was visiting her sister Mrs. J. M. Jellison, left Saturday for a visit at Council Bluffs.

Sauer Kraut Gandy, the best ever only 15¢ per lb. and Peanut Brittle, 10¢ per lb. Saturday, January 23, at the Candy Kitchen.

R. C. James and Prof. T. J. Oliver were in Humboldt Friday night. They acted as judges in the Humboldt-Auburn debate.

L. C. Edwards is now ready for housekeeping, having won a sack of Matthews' Bon Bon flour given away at the Lyric Thursday night.

Miss Lola Thompson of Morrill returned to this city where she is receiving treatment from Dr. Laurence. She has spent several weeks at her home during the holidays.

While pouring some boiling water from a boiler to a wash tub one day last week, Mrs. D. P. Lowe was so unfortunate as to have the water splash in her face and burned her quite bad.

This week we received a communication from Wm. Weick of Nampa, Idaho. He states the weather there is lovely, the coldest it has been this winter is 8 degrees above zero, but it is usually from 16 to 30 above. Last Wednesday they had 8 inches of snow and it was 56 degrees above zero, without sunshine.

You will surely be interested in the timely topics to be discussed at the First Presbyterian church next Sunday by the pastor the Rev. R. Cooper Bailey, Ph. D., and will therefore make your plans in advance so as to be present. Topic for the morning, "The perplexing questions of life," and in the evening, "Health resorts." Hearty, healthy and hopeful are the services at this church.

Wholesale

Climax Chick Feed, Gold Coin Flour, Salt of all kinds, Brooms, Gasoline, Coal Oil delivered to dealers in any part of city or adjoining towns. Give us a trial order. HECK & HARLOW. 3-2t

Magnetic Healing

Miss Lizzie Heitland, a graduate of the Weltmer School of Magnetic Healing, of Nevada, Mo. I am prepared to treat diseases of all kinds. Phone 279. Located at Mrs. Barris' residence south of the convent. 4t

School Children Suffer

from imperfect vision and are called dull in studies. We give careful attention to the fitting of children's study

Glasses

Geo. W. Reneker, O. D., M. D. Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Falls City, Neb.

German Evangelical Church
9:45 a. m. Sunday school.
10:45 a. m. Sermon.
7 p. m. Young People Alliance
7:30 p. m. Sermon.
Prayer meeting Wednesday 7:30 p. m.
Friday choir practice 8 p. m.
PETER SCHUMANN, Pastor.

Henry Sandrock, a farmer living near Salem, who is suffering from typhoid fever, is reported some better. Dr. Greene has charge of the case and this week a trained nurse arrived to take charge of the case, the nurse who had the case was called away. He is the gentleman who sold his farm and bought the Martin Kanally property and will move to town.

Dr. Emma Lawrence reports Mrs. Elva Sears Vincent as being much improved. While she is still in poor health the doctor says she can see each day that she is gaining. This will be welcome news to Mrs. Vincent's many friends in this city.

George Hossack left Sunday for Omaha. From there he will go to Niobrara where is employed by the Nebraska Bridge & Construction Co. of Omaha. They are building a government bridge across the Niobrara.

Miss Grace Miner, formerly a teacher in our city schools but now one of Omaha's most successful teachers, has been made president of the Omaha branch of the National Story Tellers league.

Charles and Gus Heinzelman of Verdon were business visitors here Tuesday. They are two of Richardson county's most successful and energetic real estate men.

Gertrude Lum came down from Verdon Friday and attended the meeting of the Friends of Council held that evening. She returned home Saturday.

On Thursday of last week Prof. and Mrs. Harnack of Hiawatha were made glad by the arrival of a baby at their home. We extend congratulations.

Louie Godfernon left Sunday for Wymore. He is trying to receive judgement from the railroad company for injuries he received in the summer.

Katherine Cashman and Theresa Rawleigh of Barneston are visiting at the home of their uncle, Wm. Higgins and family.

Elza Williamson of Sabetha was a visitor in this city Saturday. He was the guest at the home of Earl Frakes.

This week E. J. Satterwhite asks us to send his paper to this city instead of Salem as he is moving back here.

Goodloe and LaForge will go to Rulo next week where they have a big job of house moving awaiting them.

Mrs. James Stephenson of Barada spent several days in this city visiting at the home of her daughter.

Mrs. J. R. McCleary spent Saturday in Verdon, on a combination business and pleasure trip.

Wm. Zentner and wife are the proud parents of a baby boy born to them during the past week.

A true newspaper is a teacher of good morals, and a dispenser of true and useful information.

It takes about all the thought and work which one man can give to run one man right.

W. F. Veach and wife came down from Verdon in their auto Saturday afternoon.

T. C. Kelsey called Saturday and renewed his faith in this family necessity.

Florence Judd of Dawson was in the city visiting at the home of N. B. Judd.

Hot air can take a balloon up a long ways, but it can't keep it there.

L. C. Edwards was a business visitor in Humboldt Monday.

Frank Blakeney was down from Nims City Friday.

—Buy your Red Seal flour at Heck's feed store. 3-3t

Dr. Ed Hays of Dawson was in the city Friday.

Fred Sebald spent Monday in Humboldt.

Mrs. James Moss spent Monday in Salem.

—Buy your Red Seal flour at Heck's feed store. 3-3t

Terry Kemist was down from Dawson Tuesday.

Dr. Greene purchased a Maxwell automobile Wednesday at Spickler Bros.

Earl Shaffer and wife are the proud parents of a baby boy born Friday.

S. P. Gist of Salem was the guest of his son, T. J. Gist, the first of the week.

The Presbyterian ladies held an exchange at D. W. Sowles' Saturday afternoon.

Mel Hershey of Hastings arrived Wednesday to spend several days with relatives in this city.

Frank Pecht of the Schulenberg & Pecht restaurant started Thursday night for New York.

Ernest Vincent who was visiting his parents and baby at Shenandoah, Iowa, returned to this city Monday.

Dr. Greene reports M. L. Leonard living south of Salem improving. He is suffering from an attack of appendicitis.

L. E. Evans, wife and son were called to Centralia, Iowa, the first of the week by the illness of the former's mother.

Sheriff Fenton was in Dawson the first of the week. His visit was of an official nature connected with the drainage matter.

John W. Rieschick, one of our most prosperous farmers, won prizes at the corn show held in Omaha on his fine Boone county white corn.

Mrs. E. E. Scott returned Tuesday from Beatrice, where she has been visiting her uncle, John Ashenfelter and family for several days.

Francis Martin, wife and daughter, Miss Helen, left Saturday for Council Bluffs, where they will spend some time with their sons at that place.

Frank Zorn of Salem was a business visitor in this city Monday. He called at this office and favored us with cash to be applied on his subscription.

At the Interstate telephone convention held in Lincoln last week Ned Towle, our popular telephone manager, was elected a member of the executive committee.

Joe Speck, an engineer on the Missouri Pacific plug, is enjoying his first vacation in thirty years. J. L. LaCount of Kansas City is working in his place while he is away.

J. Hurst Freel who has been visiting at the home of John Hosack in this city, and with relatives at Preston returned to his home in Omega, Kansas, this week.

Rev. Day and family moved from Nelson the latter part of the week and are nicely settled in the Henry Brecht property in the east part of town. Rev. Day is the new pastor at the Christian church.

Will Stanfield and wife left Monday for Sabetha, Kansas, where they will both be employed at the home of Elza Williamson. They did not move their furniture but just closed their house up.

On Sunday Alfred Greenwald, the 4 year old son of Frank Greenwald and wife, suffered a painful accident. He stepped on a needle and run it into his foot, and it was necessary to take him to a physician to get it out.

Goodloe and LaForge have just completed two big jobs of moving buildings. They moved several buildings at the home of Andrew Lippold living 11 miles northwest of this city for $180. At the home of Joe Schwang they moved four buildings for $315.

You would not delay taking Foley's Kidney Remedy at the first sign of kidney or bladder trouble if you realized that neglect might result in Bright's disease or diabetes. Foley's Kidney Remedy corrects irregularities and cures all kidney and bladder disorders. Kerr's Pharmacy.

Dickinson County Farms For Sale

Come direct to us and get half of the commission. We have quit paying grafters and real estate peddlers and give the buyer the benefit. Write for our booklet and plan. We have been here thirty years and will give you a square deal.

R. G. TONKIN, Abilene, Kan.

Frank Sullivan, clerk at the Lindell Hotel, left the latter part of the week for Tecumseh, where he has accepted a like position. James Doyle, of this city, has taken his place at the Lindell.

A. N. Harris came to this city Sunday and took his son Jesse home with him. Jesse has been at the home of P. S. Heacock since he was hurt in a runaway here several weeks ago.

Wm. Norton, editor of the Standard and Louie Watzek came down from Humboldt to assist Mr. Werner with the orchestra music for the Highlander dance Wednesday night.

Rev. Reichel who has been holding a series of meetings at Lorton, Neb., will be back to this city and fill the pulpit at the Baptist church next Sunday.

While putting up ice Saturday James Brackhahn fell on a pair of ice tongs. The accident was very painful although he is getting along nicely now.

Mrs. D. O. Schrader of Talmage is in the city visiting at the home of C. H. Marion. She came to attend the installation of the Royal Neighbors.

Miss Jessie Grabe of Greeley, Colo., arrived in the city to spend some time visiting at the home of her uncle, L. C. Mauger and wife.

Henry Bean was over from Morrill Monday where he is living with his son. While here he subscribed for The Tribune.

C. R. Berger of Reserve called at this office Thursday and made the printer glad by favoring us with cash on subscription.

The Royal Neighbors will hold their installation tonight. The Reserve drill team will come to this city and do the work.

Mrs. Elton Sherdeman arrived from Hastings, Wednesday to spend a week with her mother Mrs. J. M. Jellison.

Wm. Berger of Reserve was in the city Monday. While here he was the guest at the home of Frank Werner.

W. A. Albright of Dawson was in the city the first of the week, the guest of his brother, George Albright.

R. C. James left Tuesday for Washington, D. C., where he is interested in the U. S. Supreme Court.

O. R. Ross returned to his home in Shubert Sunday after spending several days in this city and Auburn.

Mrs. Hayden Prater left Tuesday for Dawson, where she will spend a few days with relatives.

Wm. Carico and wife were guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. Emma Kern in Rulo Sunday.

J. W. Spickler of Shubert was in the city Tuesday. He was a pleasant caller at this office.

Paul P. Howell of St. Joe renewed his faith in this weekly necessity during the week.

Engene Hawley of Tynon, Neb., has our thanks for cash on subscription during the week.

Mr. Zentner of Shubert called and renewed his subscription since our last issue.

J. W. Nausler of this city renewed his faith in this family necessity Monday.

E. E. Ewing and Sam Hancock were here from Verdon Tuesday on business.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Strecker during the week.

S. Weddle, wife and daughter of Shubert were in the city Saturday.

You can trust some womens taste on everything, except men.

E. F. Thompson of Morrill is a new subscriber to the Tribune

Billie Boyd was down from Salem Friday.

Facts are stubborn things.

G. W. Sheeley was down from Salem Saturday.

Rex Oliver spent Sunday in Verdon visiting friends.

S. A. Little was a St. Joe visitor the first of the week.

R. A. Dittmar was a Kansas City visitor the first of the week.

Mrs. George Russel was a business visitor from Salem Saturday.

Nellie Weaver came down from Verdon to do some shopping Saturday.

Will Kentner of Beatrice spent Sunday in the city with his many friends.

Miss Augusta Wittrock spent Wednesday with friends in Hiawatha.

H. H. Clayton of Hamburg is visiting relatives and friends in this city.

Roy Leach and wife of Pawnee City were registered at the Lindell hotel Sunday.

Mrs. Lawrence Priest is visiting her mother Mrs. Adolph Messler in this city.

Arthur Harris and family are this week moving to their new home on Chase street.

The Episcopal ladies will hold an exchange Saturday afternoon at the Electric theater.

J. H. Brackhahn left Monday for Atchison where he went to look after business matters.

Anna Pribbeno was in the city Tuesday on her way to her home in Preston from Waunetta, Neb.

Mrs. Ayers of Hiawatha arrived in the city Monday for a visit to her niece, Mrs. George Sperry.

Mrs. Peter Kaiser is in Hiawatha this week visiting her new grandson at the home of Prof. Harnack.

The Boys Brigade will meet next Wednesday afternoon at the usual time. All the boys must be present.

Mrs. Tom Davies came down from Auburn and spent a few days with her parents, George Reichers and wife.

Jessie Margaret Whetstine the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whetstine is quite ill at their home in the east part of town.

Mrs. E. K. Kentner and Helen arrived in the city and will spend the remainder of the winter here. They have secured a suit of rooms at the National.

James Perry, a stone mason who was working on the Catholic church, while returning to his home in Auburn, fell from the rear of the train and was quite badly bruised.

CLEARANCE SALE OF WINTER GOODS

In order to make room for new goods we will sell all Winter Goods, Blankets, Comforts, Ladies' and Children's Coats at greatly reduced prices. Come and look them over. You will find the old force of clerks, with the addition of Mr. Himmelreich, who has charge of the Dry Goods Department.

R. A. DITTMAR FALLS CITY, NEBRASKA

WE wish to announce to the ladies of Falls City and vicinity that we are prepared to do Manicuring, Shampooing and Massaging. We solicit your patronage.

PATZMAN SISTERS Falls City Nebraska