

THE LOCAL LORE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST TO YOU AND ME.

What Your Friends and Their Friends Have Been Doing the Past Week.

—Eat Sowles Candy.
Dr. Wilson, Wahl's building.
John Gilligan spent Wednesday in St. Joe.

—Buy your Red Seal flour at Heck's feed store. 3-3t

Dr. Tefft, Dentist, Maddox block, opposite court house.

Ike Lyons returned this week from a trip through Colorado.

Mrs. Linn Barnes of Salem was a business visitor here Tuesday.

Henry Funk was down from Humboldt looking after business Saturday.

John Benedict and wife of Verdon spent a few days in the city with relatives.

J. H. Meyers of Denver is visiting at the home of John Hoppe and wife in this city.

Joe O'Grady and Mr. Riley of Dawson were business visitors in this city Wednesday.

Misses Nelle Cain and Nellie Snyder spent a part of the week in Hiawatha with friends.

Mrs. Lary Dore returned to her home in Omaha Saturday after spending three weeks with relatives here.

Mrs. T. Courtright who is employed in this city spent Sunday in Preston with her mother, Mrs. Ed Reiger.

Jas. Sinclair and wife were up from Preston Wednesday. They were guests at the home of Mrs. Margery Grant.

Mel Hershey who spent a few days with his children and other relatives in this city returned to Hastings Friday.

Misses May Maddox and Bessie Arnold spent Sunday in St. Joe. They returned on the night train and report a pleasant time.

Guy Wahl came in with the blizzard from Summerfield, Ks., the latter part of the week, where he has been at work with a bridge gang.

Mrs. Margery Grant returned Sunday from Dayton, New Mexico, where she spent three weeks with her daughter, Mrs. T. O'Haren.

Henry Wolfe came down from Omaha and spent Sunday with his wife in this city. He is employed at the Burwood theater at that place.

V. G. Lyford left the latter part of last week for New York where he will spend a few weeks selecting a new line of spring and summer goods.

Mrs. Noah Peck returned to her home in the county the first of the week after spending some time in the city caring for her mother, Mrs. John Yocam.

Word was received yesterday from the Korner party that they have reached Jacksonville, Florida and that they found all the flowers and gardens badly frozen.

By orders of the mayor a team was kept harnessed all night, while the wind was so bad. In case fire should break out they would be ready to make the run.

Mrs. Jess Whetstine of Washington, Kansas, arrived Monday and will spend a week at the home of Chas. Whetstine helping care for Jessie Margaret who has been suffering from pneumonia.

Miss Daisy Shaffer of Wood River, Neb., who has been visiting at the home of her grandfather, Stephen Prior, left Monday for Shubert, to attend the wedding of her cousin, Irvin Shaffer to Mearl Weddle, on Tuesday evening.

Having severed my connection with the firm of Wirth & Winterbottom, I wish to thank the public for the liberal patronage extended to the old firm and ask the continuance of their patronage for the new firm.

5-1t J. W. WINTERBOTTOM.

It is said that a colored boy of Hiawatha married a white girl from Humboldt, Neb., some time ago, and in partnership with another colored Hiawatha man has been conducting a clothes cleaning establishment in Horton and Robinson. The couple are now in Hiawatha. As the laws of Kansas do not forbid such marriages, the couple cannot be molested if they behave themselves.

Notice is hereby given that the old firm of Wirth & Winterbottom was dissolved on Jan. 27, 1909. All outstanding accounts are payable to J. W. Winterbottom, and all outstanding liabilities are payable by the new firm. For a short time the accounts will be in the hands of the new firm for collection. 5-2t

Mrs. Grant Hollowell returned the first of the week to her home in Hadam, Kas. She spent several days in this city with her brother, Chas. Whetstine, and helped care for Jessie Margaret who has been very ill.

Miss Zetta Camblin received the sack of flour at the Lyric Thursday night. This is the second time in the past month that the Bon Bon sack of flour has been sent to the office of the Register of Deeds.

Mrs. Ben Foster returned the latter part of the week from a several weeks visit with her daughter Mrs. Elise Snyder at Indianapolis, Ind. She reports Mrs. Snyder to be much better at this writing.

The Royal Neighbors had charge of the Electric theater Friday and Saturday night. More than 300 people attended and the lodge people feel well paid for the effort put forth.

Ewing Herbert of the Hiawatha World, has been sick the past week. He was forced to decline the invitation to be present as a speaker at the Kansas Day banquet in Chicago.

Charles Breithaupt and wife left Sunday for Kansas City. From there they will visit Mr. Breithaupt's mother in Kansas. They expect to be gone about a week.

Ed Yoessel made a trip to Beatrice Saturday. He went to place an order for Dempster windmills. Since the recent storm they are in demand.

Mrs. F. W. Saylor and Mrs. C. W. Kimmel of Morrill were visitors here Monday. The former visited her sister, Mrs. John Spragins.

Jack Joy of Houston, Texas, arrived in this city Tuesday on a visit to his sister Mrs. Ben Poteet. This is his first visit here in 23 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Frakes came down from Nebraska City and spent Sunday at the home of the latter's mother, Mrs. Wm. Cade.

Mrs. A. J. Edwards returned to her home in Humboldt the latter part of the week after visiting her son L. C. Edwards in this city.

School opened again at the Business College Monday after being closed a few days on account of the death of J. C. Leister.

Mrs. Ernest Bode of Sterling spent a short time the first of the week in this city visiting her many old friends.

Mrs. John Hossack returned Tuesday from a short visit to her daughter, Mrs. W. C. Sloan and family at Verdon.

Mrs. Allen D. May and little son Edgar Wylie, came down from Auburn Monday to remain several days.

Harry McConnell of Humboldt was in the city Monday, a guest at the home of Dr. M. L. Wilson.

Mrs. Harry Jenne and Miss Carrie Slocum are in Kansas City this week visiting friends.

Chas. Hoppe of Preston was a business visitor here Saturday.

Chris Shelly and Henry Reiger were up from Preston Monday.

A baby boy arrived at the home of T. J. McDonald Sunday.

Mary Jenkins spent Sunday in Rulo.

Steve Miles was a Rulo visitor Wednesday.

Ambrose Parsons of Verdon spent Tuesday in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Simmons were here from Salem Tuesday.

Supt. E. L. Tobie was a business visitor to Kansas City Saturday.

Mrs. Dallas Yoder was the guest of her parents in Verdon this week.

Doll Whitaker took a number of land seekers to Texas with him Tuesday.

Mrs. E. E. Marr is in Elm Wood this week visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. George Laurence of Salem was the guest of her cousin, Dr. Laurence, Tuesday.

The Degree of Honor Kensington will meet with Mrs. Gus Neitzel this afternoon.

Misses Lizzie and Nora Kelly came down from Verdon Tuesday and did some shopping.

Gus Schlosser will spend some time in Dawson, where he has a contract for a large building.

J. C. Quinn returned to Omaha the first of the week after visiting at the home of Jerry Kanaly.

H. F. Hillebrandt who has been a guest at the Cade home, returned to his home in Osborne, Ks., the first of the week.

The Missouri Pacific depot at Glen Rock, a little town near Auburn, burned Saturday and four box cars were also consumed.

Milton Bohrer spent a portion of the week in Davenport, Neb., where he was awarded a contract for a brick school house.

The Humboldt basket ball team passed through this city Monday enroute to Peru where they played the Normal team that night.

Mr. and Mrs. August Mitchell of Wymore spent a part of the week in the city at the home of the latter's parents, Pete Lore and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. George Albright left Sunday for Tecumseh where they were called by the death of the latter's brother-in-law, Clum Emmons.

F. G. Sutter and wife of Geneva are stopping at the Lindell hotel in this city. The former is taking treatment from Dr. Miner for siatic rheumatism.

Mr. and Mrs. George Piper, who have been visiting at the home of the latter's mother, Mrs. Carrie Schaible, left Monday for their home in Topeka, Kas.

Pecht & Schuler returned Wednesday night from Rulo with their wood saw. They have made several trips there lately. On this trip they sawed more than 100 cords of wood.

Mrs. Verne Sears was in Shubert last week called there by the sickness and death of her father, John Chester. She returned home the first of the week and is very ill at her home.

While out on his route, Saturday a St. Joe mail carrier met with a serious accident. The coupling of the wagon broke and the wagon was over turned and the coal oil heater in the wagon set the contents on fire. Most of the mail was destroyed.

Falls City has a daily paper no better than The World—possibly not so good. The townspeople and the country people are standing by it and boosting it. The Daily World is sent out on rural routes and delivered in town. 1,200 copies are printed each day. More people get the daily than get any other paper in Hiawatha except the Weekly World.—Hiawatha World.

Dickinson County Farms For Sale
Come direct to us and get half of the commission. We have quit paying grafters and real estate peddlers and give the buyer the benefit. Write for our booklet and plan. We have been here thirty years and will give you a square deal.

R. G. TONKIN,
Abilene, Kan.

3-4t

There were two splendid audiences at the Christian church Sunday and eight new members were added, four by letter and four by confession. The sermon next Sunday morning will be "Growing; Building and Increasing." In the evening the sermon will be illustrated on the subject "The Fall and Restoration of Man." There will be baptismal services at the close of the services at night. A cordial welcome. Come and bring your friends.

At a meeting of the Building & Loan Association the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: George Fallstead, president; P. B. Weaver, vice president; W. H. Schmelzel, secretary; W. A. Greenwald, treasurer.

Mrs. H. F. Smith and two children spent a few days in this city with the former's sister, Mrs. V. Sears. They were on their way from Shubert, where they had been called by the death of Mr. Chester, to their home in Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Neilson wish to express their thanks to the many kind friends and neighbors who did all in their power to lessen their grief and to assist in every way during the sickness and death of their mother.

Mrs. Elizabeth Pearson of Akron, Ohio, is visiting at the home of her brother, John Jones. She has many old acquaintances here as this was her home a number of years ago.

Rev. W. B. Alexander of Lincoln spent a short time in the city Wednesday with friends. A few years ago he was pastor of the Methodist church of this city.

Dirk Sutorius of Humboldt spent a portion of the week in the city. He was interested in matters before the district court.

Richard Haggard and Harry Redman went to Table Rock Wednesday, where they will put up a steel tank for the C. B. & O.

Abe Liberty of Rulo was in the city Monday enroute to Hiawatha, where he was called by the serious illness of his father.

Judge W. H. Kelligar came down from Auburn Wednesday. He was interested in the work of the District court.

Roy Metz, who has been visiting his uncles, John and Jim Powell, returned Sunday to his home in Sabetha.

George Fallstead left for the Panhandle, Texas, country Tuesday, accompanied by a number of land seekers.

John Terbush left Wednesday for Enid, Oklahoma, where he will superintend the erection of a steel bridge.

John Rothenberg of Dawson has purchased a residence in this city and will move here in the near future.

I. E. Smith of Humboldt was in the city the first of the week where he was interested in court matters.

Mrs. Sophia Gunn and Miss Amelia Gehling were business visitors in Kansas City during the week.

The repairs on the new water tower are now completed and the same is now as tight as a drum.

L. H. Rohmeyer, editor of the German paper was down from Auburn Wednesday.

Miss Gertrude Lyford came down from Lincoln and spent Sunday at home.

R. R. Rule was a lucky hunter Monday. He returned from his trip with a wolf.

Harry Craig and Ralph Simpson were visitors in Salem Tuesday evening.

Conrad Gerdes and wife of Barada are the proud parents of a baby girl.

Otto Erdman's daughter is suffering from an attack of pneumonia.

Calvert Edwards was down from Humboldt the first of the week.

Blaine Yoder spent a part of the week in Kansas City.

—Buy your Red Seal flour at Heck's feed store. 3-3t

Absolutely Pure
Grapes give the chief ingredient, the active principle, and healthfulness, to
ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure
Insures wholesome and delicious food for every day in every home
No Phosphates
No Alum

PUBLIC SALE

AT THE HEATED SALE PAVILION
HUMBOLDT, NEBRASKA
Tuesday, Feb. 16th
AT 1:00 O'CLOCK
Forty Head Registered Aberdeen Angus Cattle
Five Bulls, 8 to 13 months old; Ten Heifers, yearlings; Five Heifers, Twenty Cows
OUR HERD CONTAINS
125 head of Cattle, representing the following families, from which we select forty

Blackbird	Drumlin Lucy	Coquette
Easter Tulloch Duch.	Rothmay Georgina	Jaquenetta Drumlinor Duchess
Heroine	Kinochry Favorite	Queen Mother
Nellie of Craighead	Balwylo	Pride of Aberdeen
Bloomer of Gardeston	Nosegay	Mabel of Drumlin
Kinochry Bluebelle	Lady Haddo	Rose of Westside
Nosegay	Grace of Westside
	Easter Tulloch Prim.

Car fare 100 miles and return to purchaser of one or more head of cattle
THERE WILL ALSO BE SOLD
7 Head Angus Steers
AND OUR HERD BULL WILL BE OFFERED
Free conveyance to farm from 10 o'clock to 11 o'clock on morning of sale to inspect the herd I am keeping. The State Agricultural Farm selected their prospective show steer from our herd this year. At my first Angus sale our average was $137.50. We have a better herd to-day. At that sale one cow with offspring, 17 in number, brought $1,630 in 8 years, after selling all males of servicable age.

TERMS OF SALE
Cash or bankable note. Please bring reference

M. W. Harding
J. C. Marshall & Son
Auctioneer
COL. F. M. WOODS, Lincoln, Neb.
Assisted by Cois, Walter Albright
Frank Wilson and Jake Sneath
Clerk
H. E. BOYD

Tea Special

A Japanese Cup and Saucer Free with a pound of tea. See them in our north window. A big line of New Glassware just in. Big Glass Bowls from ten cents up. Four-piece Table Sets, Berry Sets, etc., on sale at

Chas. M. Wilson's

WE WISH TO SERVE YOU
in the matter of care for your teeth. But we can't do you any good unless you call upon us, have your teeth examined (that costs nothing) and take our advice. The short of it is that you should visit us and do yourself and teeth a favor.

DR. YUTZY
BERT WINDLE, D. D. S., Assistant
Falls City, Nebraska