

THE COMERS AND GOERS

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST TO YOU AND ME.

What Your Friends and Their Friends Have Been Doing the Past Week.

—Eat Sowles Candy.

Dr. Wilson, Wahl's building.

Dr. Tefft, Dentist, Maddox block, opposite court house.

Miss Maggie Fuller is visiting in St. Joe this week.

Mrs. H. R. Miner was a Lincoln visitor this week.

Three or 4 cases of measles are reported near this city.

Joe Culp of Hooper, Colo., is visiting relatives in this city.

Mrs. D. M. Davies spent a part of last week with relatives at Verdon.

Miss Elizabeth Culp of St. Joe visited her sister Mrs. Grant Windle this week.

Miss Helen Martin went to Auburn Sunday to spend a few days with Miss Eustice.

Steve Miles spent last week in Kansas City, where he was looking after some business.

Ot Timerman came up from St. Joe the latter part of the week and spent a few days with friends.

J. Quimby Hossack came down from Omaha and spent Sunday with his parents John Hossack and wife.

George Slocum and wife of Stella were guests at the home of J. L. Slocum the latter part of the week.

Hiawatha boasts of 9 rural mail carriers and all wearing uniforms. The uniforms arrived just last week.

Mrs. M. E. Yost of Hiawatha claims the honor of hearing Lincoln's memorial address at Gettysburg battlefield.

Ralph Jenne enjoyed an annual ball, given by a fraternity, of which he is a member, at Lincoln last Friday night.

The congregation of St. Mary's Catholic church of Dawson have received an order for the erection of a convent at that place, to be ready for use next fall.

G. A. Hansel and his son-in-law, Will Richards have decided to sell out at Salem and are going to Oregon to make their home. They expect to leave some time in March.

Miss Lois Spencer returned the latter part of the week from Arkansas, where she was helping care for an aunt who was very sick. The climate did not agree with Miss Spencer and physicians advised her to return home.

G. A. Jorn of Verdon was in the city the latter part of the week and made the Tribune a call. He informed us he had one of the best public sales held in this section and was more than pleased with it. He and his family left Tuesday for their new home in Norcatur, Kansas. This county will miss an enterprising and industrious farmer like Mr. Jorn.

At Hiawatha Monday, the city joined in celebrating the birthday of one of its residents who was 100 years old that day. The old lady is very well but quite feeble and tires easily. It was a pleasure to her on this occasion to welcome all her friends. The children all visited her from 3:30 to 4 o'clock, and the older ones at different hours. She is known to all Brown county as "Auntie Rice." This birthday gathering will be long remembered by those who attended.

Good Morning

EYES SELDOM GROW BETTER WITHOUT HELP

My "Made-to-Order Glasses" are a positive help and a permanent PLEASURE.

Geo. W. Reneker, O. D., M. D.

Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat

Falls City, Neb.

Hexamethylenetetramine

The above is the name of a German chemical, which is one of the many valuable ingredients of Foley's Kidney Remedy. Hexamethylenetetramine is recognized by medical text books and authorities as a uric acid solvent and antiseptic for the urine. Take Foley's Kidney Remedy as soon as you notice any irregularities, and avoid a serious malady. Kerr's Pharmacy.

Max Werner left this week for Nebraska City where he accepted a lucrative position with F. W. Cleveland & Son. Max has been in their employ a greater part of the time for several years, although since they sold their business here he has been one of R. A. Dittmar's leading clerks. He will be greatly missed in this city as he was very popular in the social world and was one of our leading musicians. He will make his home with F. W. Cleveland and family at that place.

Mrs. J. M. Jellison has been appointed district deputy for the Highlanders, and has already started her work. On Saturday night accompanied by the local Highlander drill team she went to Howe where a large class was initiated. Mrs. Jellison has been an active worker in that order for a number of years and we are sure as a deputy she will accomplish much good.

The Knights of Pythias will commence work at once on their new castle at Lincoln that will cost $17,000. It is to be completed by September 1st. The building will be of brick and stone and will be the business headquarters for the Lincoln lodge.

The Boston Ideal Opera Co. presented "Olivette" at the Gehl theater Thursday night. The house was well filled and many people from Verdon and Salem were present.

Prof. A. Watzek and Wm. Norton came down from Humboldt Tuesday and assisted Werner's orchestra in furnishing music for the Highlander dance that evening.

Mrs. Edwin Wilcox returned this week to her home in Burlington, Col., after spending several weeks in this city with her mother, Mrs. M. A. Jenkins.

Mrs. Josephine Stains of Salem attended the teachers meeting held here Saturday. She was a guest at the home of Samuel Prater while in town.

James Sinclair and wife of Preston were in the city enroute on a visit to the former's sister, Mrs. G. W. Livingood at Wyoming.

Frank McCoy, wife and children of Havelock were in the city this week at the home of their aunt, Mrs. J. H. Pecht.

Mrs. Sarah Marburger and Mrs. J. B. Davis of Humboldt are visiting in this city at the home of George Schmelzel.

Cleon Peck and wife are the parents of a baby boy, who arrived at their home the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Rose Schlereth and two sons spent a part of the week in Humboldt visiting the former's daughter.

H. Ferguson and wife of Lincoln spent several days in the city guests at the home of Geo. Prater.

Mrs. Ewalt returned this week from an extended visit to her son George at Galveston, Texas.

The Highlanders gave a social dance to the members and their friends Tuesday evening.

Mrs. R. P. Thomas and baby returned from an extended visit with relatives in Kansas.

J. E. Leyda spent a few days in Weeping Water this week looking after legal business.

The rural route men enjoyed a vacation Monday, it being Washington's birthday.

Flora Albright spent a few days the first of the week with Lincoln friends.

Archie McCoy has accepted a position as deputy for the Royal Highlanders.

J. E. Spangler of Morrill, Ks., is a guest at the home of Francis Stump.

J. S. Heim was down, from Dawson Tuesday.

George Jennings and wife spent Sunday in Salem.

Mrs. J. W. Cullen was down from Verdon Friday.

Howard Maze of Dawson was a business visitor here Tuesday.

Mrs. Minnick is quite sick at the home of her daughter Mrs. Lydia Hinton.

Dr. M. L. Wilson is moving in the house across the street east from the library.

Misses Russell and Newby of Salem were guests of Myrtle Ramel this week.

Miss Louisa Deuchler visited her brother who is in a hospital in St. Joe last week.

John Martin and wife of Lincoln attended the Giannini-Buthman wedding here Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fisher will build a house this spring just north of the W. E. Dorrington home.

Nelle Weaver of Verdon was in the city the latter part of the week visiting her cousin, Mrs. Jake Bloom.

Mrs. Frank McDermand returned to Kansas City this week after a two weeks visit with relatives in this city.

LOST—A gold hunting case watch, name of owner in the back of case. Return to Harry Wamsley, and receive reward.

Josie Murphy who teaches at Humboldt and Lena Murphy of Rulo spent Saturday in this city with their sister Mrs. Dennis McCarty.

Dr. E. A. Wolf and family returned to this city the latter part of the week after spending several weeks in Iowa with the former's parents.

Miss Hazel Prater, Messrs. Floyd Firebaugh and Walter Spaeth will render an instrumental trio at the Sunday morning service of the Christian church.

Mrs. W. E. Davis who has been visiting several weeks with her sister, Mrs. J. M. Jellison left this week for a visit with relatives at Ottawa, Kan., before returning to her home in Washington.

Mrs. E. E. Metz and daughter Lucile will remove to Kansas City in the near future where the latter will attend an art school. Mrs. Metz has rented her house furnished to Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Korner.

Monday being Washington's birthday, the flag floated from the court house, the banks and postoffice were closed. The schools furnished appropriate exercises, churches gave socials and entertainments.

R. E. Bowman who has been in the confectionery business in Verdon for many years has sold his business and buildings to Sam Weddle. Mr. Bowman is well known all over the county. He was one of Verdon's first postmasters.

An inspector in view of locating the Odd Fellows home visited Auburn during the past week. He said that there were about 20 places in the state that were striving for the location of the home but the committee would sift all the candidates for the place down to four, Central City, Lincoln, York and Auburn are to be considered.

Henry Rahlf was surprised this week when he received two additional prizes from the state for corn which he had on exhibition at the National Corn exhibit held in Omaha in December. The first prize was secured on his Reed Yellow dent and the third on Diamond White. The announcements of the premiums he secured were accompanied by a draft. He sells this seed for $1.50 per bushel.

J. H. Jones of Pawnee was the victim of a peculiar accident at his home last week. He had closed a big real estate deal during the day and that night was nervous and walked in his sleep. He fell through a window glass and 14 feet to the ground. He was badly injured, and it took many stitches to close the wounds. He is a large man and weighs about 235 pounds, and it is surprising the fall did not kill him.

Guy Crook in company with two young men while returning from Humboldt Thursday evening met with what might have proved to be a serious accident. They were driving along just after dark in the automobile and west of Will Holts they missed the bridge and went into the ditch. No one was hurt but it was necessary to get a team to pull the machine out.

Mrs. H. E. Foster and two daughters left Wednesday for Seward, where they will make their future home. Dr. went several days ago and Mrs. Foster has been visiting at the home of her father H. Lapp.

Miss Carrie Greenwald has bought a photograph gallery at Plattsmouth and left this week for that place. She has had considerable experience and is sure of success.

Jack White, who is employed by the Burlington at Superior spent Sunday with numerous friends in this city. He was a former telegraph operator here.

Mrs. W. H. Crook and Mrs. Abner McKee were called to Kansas City the latter part of the week by the serious illness of the latter's brother, Jule Schoenheit.

Charles Hofer and wife were up from Kansas City the first of the week visiting his many old friends. They were guests at the home of Henry Hofer.

Martha Heim of Dawson was in town Saturday. She was accompanied home by Miss Klima, one of the local teachers, who spent Sunday there.

J. Fritsch and wife of Humboldt were in the city the latter part of the week. The former had an operation performed on his eye.

Mr. and Mrs. Frances Martin left Monday for Council Bluffs, Iowa, where they will spend some time with their children.

Herman Minnick came up from Atchison the first of the week and spent a few days with relatives in this city.

Misses Aikman, Pierce and Booney of Rulo were among the teachers who attended the association Saturday.

Mrs. T. J. Oliver went as far as Lincoln Tuesday with her son Errett who left that day for West Point, N. Y.

Mrs. C. H. Marion and Audrey went to Hiawatha Friday to spend a few days with relatives.

A. E. Hofer and wife of Kansas City were in the city the first of the week visiting relatives.

Lesley Leeds, breaks the record as a duck hunter for the season, bagging 31 Tuesday.

Miss Hope Ward of Rulo spent Sunday in this city the guest of Wherry Lowe.

James O'Grady and wife came down from Dawson on business Monday.

W. G. Hummel was down from Dawson Saturday on business.

Mrs. James Powell is visiting relatives at Sabetha, Ks.

The Advance Guard

of Spring Jewelry is now on exhibition at our store. We are always on the look-out for something new and beautiful, with the result that our stock is the most up-to-date in the city.

The New Creations in Jewelry are found mostly in the green finish, with large cut stones--Amethysts, Topazes, Turquoises, etc., which are very attractive and yet at prices that suit all pocket books.

Come in and ask to see the latest in Brooches, Belt-pins, Scarfpins, Fobs, Etc.

A. E. JAQUET

"The Old Reliable"

Royal Baking Powder

Absolutely Pure

Renders the food more wholesome and superior in lightness and flavor.

The only baking powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar.

L. C. Edwards spent Sunday in St. Joe.

Good hay for horses $5 per ton. H. I. HUNT.

George Harral of Humboldt was a visitor here Friday.

Miss Mary Wertz returned from a visit to relatives in Missouri.

Prof. E. K. Hurst is much better and was able to attend school Monday.

Dr. Ed Hays of Dawson spent Sunday with his mother Mrs. A. E. Gantt in this city.

A nurse came from Omaha to help care for Mrs. James Cornell who is still very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Greenwald spent Sunday in Salem with their grandparents S. P. Gist and wife.

Ed Simanton who has spent the winter in this city with his parents, returned Friday to Arizona.

Mrs. Rose O'Rourke came down from Omaha and is visiting her parents Jas. McFarland and wife.

Cale Evans and daughter of Decker, Montana, are visiting his brother L. E. Evans and family.

The anti-horse thief association who met at the Woodman hall Monday adjourned to meet March 8.

Vet Simanton returned from South Bend, Indiana, Wednesday where he was called by the death of a sister.

Mrs. J. W. Mower arrived from Minneapolis on a visit to her brother-in-law Samuel Mower and family.

Miss Florence Judd spent Sunday at her home in Dawson. She has charge of the tailoring school in this city.

Misses Ada and Maud Callahan and Norman Wilson of Atchison spent Sunday the guests of Miss Florence Beaucamp.

Rue Gates returned this week from Gothenberg, Neb., and will visit her parents. G. W. Morris and wife a few days.

Mrs. George Crocker returned to her home in Pawnee after spending some time with her parents, N. B. Judd and wife.

Mrs. Frank Gossett and little son returned to her home in Horton, Kansas, Sunday. She has spent the past two weeks in this city with her parents L. Snyder and wife.

Father Feeney of Auburn and Father Laughran were guests of Father Bex Friday and attended the entertainment given by the Knights of Columbus and Daughters of Isabella.

Mrs. Mattie Dockhorn underwent a very painful operation at the home of her sister, Mrs. Grant Windle in this city Friday. The operation was entirely successful and the patient is resting nicely.

Reavis Gist left Friday for Weeping Water where he attended a house party at the Hungate home. He also attended a social function at Plattsmouth in company with members of the Hungate family.

Mrs. Bessie Hoppe who is visiting relatives here from Chicago spent part of the week in Stella being called there by the serious illness of her nephew, Farning Hoppe. At this writing he is reported some better.

R. E. Grinstead who was injured in a runaway at Salem last week has sufficiently recovered as to be able to come to this city Monday. He says that work is progressing nicely on the small dredge and it has begun to look like something was doing.

A big souvenir edition of the Atchison Globe has reached this office. The head line reads "The 'Little Globe' first appeared in 1878, with two pages, but today you are entitled to forty-four." This edition is like everything else Howe sends out; the best that print shops afford.

This week the Bohrer Bros. have moved their work shop back where their barn stood and have added to it and made many repairs. They are now ready for a big spring business. They sold their barn to J. H. Pecht last week. The shop was moved by Sperry & Son.

Elmer Hoselton will hold a stock sale at Preston March 1. He offers 28 head of horses, 142 head of fine cattle. This is an excellent opportunity to get just what you want in horse flesh at your own price. Remember the date Monday, March 1 at 10 o'clock.

Carl Stoltz, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stoltz, living near Dawson, had a grain of corn removed from his ear by Dr. Waggener last week. It had been in there for several days. The little fellow is the grandson of George Story of this city.

Another coal mine will be opened up on the Page farm near Peru in the near future. A company from Arizona will take charge of the work and pay a royalty of 10 cents per ton for all coal mined.

Dr. and Mrs. Fast have made final arrangements to move to St. Joe, Mo., on March 1st. Dr. M. L. Wilson as Dr. Fast's successor will continue to occupy the office rooms in the Wahl building.

Lowell Watkins of Auburn, a former Verdon boy, suffered a loss by fire last week. His barn and hen house, beside several dozen hens and a lot of fuel were destroyed.

Frank Schaible and wife returned this week from California. They have spent the past few weeks there enjoying the beautiful winter that section affords.

Ira Swihart of near Superior enroute from Kansas City stopped here and visited at the homes of his brother-in-laws, Will Veach and Arthur Harris.

Mrs. Hazel Sherdaman of Hastings arrived Monday and will spend some time with her mother Mrs. J. M. Jellison.

Auburn has had two fires recently and now they are talking long and loud for water works and fire protection.

Joe Mead, wife and baby of St. Joe arrived Monday for a visit to the former's cousin Cass Mead and family.

Miss Enid Levy returned to her home in Hiawatha last week after an extended visit with friends at Quincy, Ill.

J. W. Dodds and sisters of Franklin precinct spent a few days with friends in this city the past week.

Dr. Wilson made a trip to Howe last week to examine the prospective members of the Highlander lodge.

Miss Louise Plege is at Lebanon, Kansas, visiting her brother, Louis Plege and family.

Ed Jones returned the first of the week from a few days spent in Omaha.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pence is very ill at their home.

Bert Baker was a Peru visitor during the week.