OLDEST DATED DECORATION.

Probably the oldest dated decoration in the world has recently been brought to light by the discovery of the funerary temple of King Sahnura, who lived 2,500 B. C.

It lies between the Pyramids of Giseh and Saggarah, and has been unearthed by Dr. Borcharts, director of the German institute of archaeology at Cairo. Sculptured bas reliefs illustrate Pharaoh conversing with the gods, conquering the Lybians, and receiving an embassy. Besides this there are hunting and fishing scenes, and most interesting of all, a fleet of ships of the period.

ANCIENT WAR CLUBS.

Clubs were the weapons of primitive and savage men. Ancient specimens from Mexico are heavy sticks grooved along the side for the insertion of blades of obsidian—that is, volcanic glass. The Sioux club is a flat piece of wood, curving and widening away from the grip, and terminating in a spherical head, which in modern times carried a long spike, while the blades of several butcher knives are commonly inserted along the margin.

HAD A WIDE CHOICE.

On the occasion of the late jubilee of the town of Wilhelmsburg in Germany the burgermeister received a telegram, signed by all the unmarried girls of the place, advising him to get married and saying that none of the undersigned had any objection to becoming a frau burgermeisterin.
