THIS WEEK'S DEATH RECORD

WELL KNOWN PEOPLE CALLED TO THEIR REWARD

Deaths Reported From Kansas City, Kansas, White Cloud, Kansas and This City

Jule Schoenheit died at St. Margaret's hospital in Kansas City, Kansas, March 28, 1909.

It is a sad duty for a newspaper to report the death of any citizen, but when a man who was born and raised in the community, combines so many qualities of gentleness and usefulness as did Jule Schoenheit, it becomes the announcement of a public calamity to write, he is gone.

The deceased was born in this city April 23, 1867, where he grew to manhood and graduated from our public schools. He then went to Commercial College in St. Joe, where he graduated in 1888. He was admitted to the Richardson county bar in 1890. Two years was spent in Lincoln, where he acted as assistant clerk and stenographer under Gov. Holcomb. He was two years county attorney and while serving the city as their attorney, he removed to Lawton, Oklahoma, where he spent five years practicing law. The past four years of his life was spent in Kansas City, Kansas and at the time of his death was the attorney for Dansinger Bros., of that place.

In 1884 Mr. Schoenheit was married to Miss Bessie Whitaker. To this union was born one daughter, Erma now twelve years old.

His last illness covered a period of six months, and all that time was never able to sit up a single hour. He was taken to Hot Springs and on returning home he was taken to St. Margaret hospital, where he had been five weeks when he died.

All that human hands could do was done to comfort him and relieve him of his suffering, but he only found relief when death claimed him.

The remains were brought to this city Monday evening and on Wednesday morning funeral services were held from the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wilhite, conducted by Rev. G. L. Neide and the remains were taken to Steele cemetery for burial.

Besides the bereaved widow there survives the deceased one daughter, his mother, Mrs. J. R. Wilhite and two sisters, Mrs. Abner McKee and Mrs. J. A. Whitmore of Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Mrs. Lila DeRoin died at her home in White Cloud Monday. She leaves a husband and five children, the youngest being twin girls only a few days old. She also leaves a father, W. A. Whitaker and two sisters Mrs. Spencer Foster and Miss Mable Whitaker.

The deceased grew to womanhood in this city and she has numerous friends here who will be grieved to learn of her death. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon.

Willie Martin, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Werner died at his home in the east part of town Wednesday morning. His illness covered a period of only one day and night and his death came as a great shock to the family. Willie was ten years and six months old. The funeral will be held from the home this afternoon at one o'clock and the remains taken to Zion cemetery for burial.

INJURED NEAR VERDON

One Two Sons of Josh Bloom Met With Accidents

Myron the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Josh Bloom was badly burned at his home north of Verdon, Saturday morning. He, in company with his little brother, Bernard, were burning brush in the orchard, when in some manner, his clothes caught fire and he was badly burned about the neck and chest. A doctor was immediately summoned and while the burns are very painful, he does not consider them serious.

Bernard, the older son of Mr. Bloom, went to school Monday morning and while playing ball, fell and dislocated his arm. A bone in the elbow is believed to be fractured. The accident has proven to be a very painful one.

District Court

Judge Raper held an adjourned session of the district court this week.

The case of Marie Taylor vs. Harry Taylor, divorce was granted.

David Ransom was bound over until the next term of court.

Charles Winsten, who was charged with selling liquor without license was fined $100.

Several drainage cases are up for trial but we go to press too early to report them.

From the Business Side

Even from the business side of the question we are satisfied that some are laboring to their own disadvantage, for there is probably $100,000.00 a year spent in the saloons of Falls City, and it seems self-evident to us that with the saloons out of existence, a large part of that money would be diverted into other channels, to the advantage of the grocer, the butcher, the shoe dealer, the clothier and the furniture man.

Now Isn't This True?

The saloon keepers and their landlord have set themselves up as the real controllers of the city government.

No candidate for mayor can expect their support who has not previously pledged himself to the whiskey element, and that means to take an oath of office to enforce the statutes and ordinances against all violators of law, the saloon men to be excluded from any application.

Died Near Humboldt

Mrs. J. E. Stalder, wife of a well known farmer living near Humboldt died at her home Saturday night. She leaves a husband and several children. Deceased has been ill for some time, but recently submitted to an operation which was performed at a St. Joseph hospital, and failed to receive the desired help from the process.

Injured in Accident

Mrs. John Siler of Humboldt was thrown from a buggy Saturday and sustained a severe fracture of the left arm. The accident resulted from the team taking fright at a passing automobile. She is middle-aged, the wife of one of the well known farmers of this section.

Sold His Farm

F. P. Page the energetic real estate land man of Dawson closed a deal this week in which he sold the Henry Sandrock farm near Salem to Walter Kirk of Dawson for $11,000. Possession will be given March 1.

Rulo Man Insane

An old gentleman from Rulo by the name of Mackey was brought to this city and taken before the board of health, charged with insanity. At this writing he is still at the cell in the court house.

The Ladies' Dorcas Society of the First Presbyterian church will give a splendid chicken pie supper at the home of Dr. Bailey on Thursday evening, April 8th, at the usual charge of 25c. The reputation of the ladies for serving dainty provisions will ensure a large crowd and great success at this supper. Then all the ladies young and old are to tell in rhyme how they made a dollar for the new building fund of the church. A most enjoyable evening is promised.

Tuesday evening Helen Resterer entertained Prof. E. K. Hurst and the Senior class at a juvenile party. The girls wore short dresses, hair curled and braided and tied with bright bows, while the boys wore short pants and "Buster Brown" cuffs and collars and big ties. The girls spent some time playing nouse as they all took their dolls with them, and the boys enjoyed a game of marbles. The evening was one of real pleasure. Mrs. A. Resterer and Mrs. Frank Greenwald served a delightful two course lunch.

The Falls City teachers spent a most pleasant evening at the home of Supt. E. L. Tobie and wife Monday. They planned the surprise and it was a complete success. The faculty regrets very much to lose Mr. Tobie and as an appreciation of his kindness to them, he was presented with a beautiful leather rocking chair. A mock field meet furnished a part of the evening's program. At a late hour the guests returned to their homes, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Tobie the best that can be found in life, and hoping when they leave this place for their new field, success shall follow them.

FOUND DEAD AT LINCOLN

FREDERICK WILSON MILLER DIED ALONE

Physicians Declare That his Death Was due to Gradual Sinking of the Heart

Frederick Wilson Miller was born in Buffalo, New York, in 1850. In 1862 he moved from his native state to Arago, where he lived until 1872 when he was married to Miss Caroline Lange and came to this city. Besides the wife he leaves nine children, Mrs. Emma Smith of Dallas, Texas, Mrs. Ella Ward of Tecumseh, Miss Elizabeth Miller of Lincoln, Fritz of Missoula, Mont., and Carl, Dorothy, Raymond, Herald, and Margaret who are at home. Saturday's State Journal has the following to say:

Fred W. Miller was found dead in his room at the Royal hotel at 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He was last seen alive about 6 o'clock Wednesday and he had complained during the afternoon of that day that he was not feeling well. L. D. Munily, one of whom, a daughter, Elizabeth, resides in Lincoln. Coroner Matthews called the daughter by telephone and informed her of her father's death and she later identified some of the articles found on the body. Mr. Miller had long been a sufferer from rheumatism and had previously suffered a stroke of paralysis. His daughter, who last saw him alive on Wednesday afternoon, had remarked at that time that he looked ill, and Mr. Miller himself, had spoken to Lew Frazier of Fairmont, a friend of his who had been stopping a few days at the hotel, saying that he felt badly and did not know whether he was going to have another attack of rheumatism or was coming down with the grip. He complained of fever at that time, though he expressed his intention of returning to his home in Falls City Thursday. He had been engaged as a booker for a firm in Falls City and frequently made trips in the state for them, and it was on one of these trips that brought him to Lincoln.

Mr. Miller served 6 years as deputy secretary of state, 4 years under the administration of Secretary Marsh and 2 years under Secretary Galusha. For many years he was county treasurer of Richardson county. During his younger days he was engaged in surveying and in this employment traveled throughout Nebraska and many of the western and southwestern states.

After the autopsy held over the body, the physicians who made the examination declared that his death was due to endocarditis, or a general shrinking of the heart, which might be brought about by several causes. The other vital organs were also found to be in a poor condition.

The funeral was held from the home on Monday afternoon and the remains taken to Steele cemetery.

Mr. Miller was a member of the M. W. A.

A Candidate's Prayer

Let me win, if I may, when the game's afoot,
Let me master my Fate when I choose her;
But my soul's deep cry in the fight, O Lord,
If I fail—let me be a good loser!

TWO YOUNG COUPLE MARRY

A WEDDING AT SALEM AND ONE AT STELLA

John Jenkins and Edna Reimers and Prof. French and Orrie French Married

Miss Orrie French of Salem and Prof. Wm. L. French of Greenwood, Mo., were united in marriage at high noon Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James French in Salem. A number of invited guests witnessed the impressive wedding ceremony which made these two lives one. The bride for many years has been a very successful teacher in the county and has just finished her duties as teacher of the 6th and 7th grades of the Stella school. For many years the groom was also one of our teachers but is now engaged in running a dairy farm near Greenwood, where the bride and groom will soon be at home to their friends.

John F. Jenkins and Miss Edna Reimers both of Stella were united in marriage at the Lutheran church Monday evening at 8 o'clock by Rev. F. R. Shirck. About 100 guests were present. The groom has been connected with the State Bank at that place for some time and is highly respected young man. Miss Reimers was of one Stella's most popular young ladies, loved and admired by all. A reception was tendered this worthy couple at the Reimers home immediately following the ceremony. They will make their home at Gregory, S. D., where the groom will be connected with a bank at that place.

Falls City Chorus Meets

The Falls City chorus met at the usual hour Monday evening and had a most enjoyable and profitable rehearsal. The conductor of the chorus has received word that a box will be reserved for the great musical fete to be given in Kansas City, Kas., May 18, for Falls City people who wish to attend. It will be in a choice locality and will seat 8 people at a cost of $25 for two performances, one in the afternoon and one in the evening. The chorus will meet again Monday evening of next week.

Forged Check For $500

Thursday a farmer by the name of Holland, living near Stella, forged a check for $500, cashed it and got out of town. The name of Thomas Wilkinson was forged. For several days the officers were on the lookout for him and he was arrested near Dawson, brought to this city and placed in jail. For many years he has been a prosperous farmer in this county and it is thought the man's mind is effected and he is not responsible for this act.

A Good Show

East Lynne, a play old, yet always new, played to a fair sized crowd Saturday night. The theater goers appreciate good shows and Manager Gehling has given them many good ones this season. Werner's orchestra was at their best on this occasion which added to the pleasure of the evening.

Water Is Pure

Again the city water has been tested. Martin Gehling sent a sample of the city water to the Wahl-Henius Institute of Chicago and Monday received word the water was good and free from any organic poison such as might cause sickness in the way of typhoid or malarial fever, which is so often caused from the use of bad water.
