Escapes Injury

Miss Rill Houston who is visiting relatives at Nebraska City had a narrow escape from being killed Tuesday. She was out riding in an automobile with Mr. Kantz and on the road the machine jumped a high bank into a pond of water and Miss Houston was caught under the machine but Mr. Kantz escaped injury and soon raised the machine and rescued the young lady, whose nice spring suit was badly spoiled, but aside from that, and the wrecking of the machine no one was injured.

It's All On the Quiet

One of the best attractions that will visit Falls City this season will be Ralph Riggs, the eccentric comedian, in his new farcical comedy, with music, "It's all on the Quiet." Mr. Riggs has almost an entirely new company this season, composed of clever farceurs, singers and dancers. All the specialties are new and interesting. The entire scenic environment is carried complete by the company. At the Gehling theatre Wednesday, April 7.

Shot in the Foot

Herbert Helmick aged 10 years, shot himself in the foot with a 22-rifle Sunday, making a painful but not dangerous wound. He was wearing rubber boots at the time, and it is thought in carrying the rifle he caught it against the top of the boot causing its accidental discharge. He was brought to the office of Dr. Andrews to have the wound dressed, and the bullet was removed about 3 inches from where it entered.—Stella Press

Aldrich, the whiskey candidate for councilman in the second ward, is telling voters in the east part of the city, that to vote for him means an extension of the water system to their part of town.
