

DR. PRICE'S Cream Baking Powder

No alum, no lime phosphates

As every housekeeper can understand, burnt alum and sulphuric acid—the ingredients of all alum and alum-phosphate powders—must carry to the food acids injurious to health.

Read the label. Avoid the alum powders

THE COMERS AND GOERS

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST TO YOU AND ME.

What Your Friends and Their Friends Have Been Doing the Past Week.

—Eat Sowles Candy.
Dr. Wilson, Wahl's building.
—Green Russian seed oats at Heck's feed store.

Scott Saylor made a business trip to Verdon Tuesday.

Elmer Hoselton came up from Margrave's ranch Monday.

L. A. Kinsey of Lincoln was here last week on business.

L. L. Kinsey came down from Dawson on business Saturday.

—Dr. W. E. Lyons, Osteopath, office Wahl building, phone 446.

Emerson Bowers and wife of Verdon were visitors here Saturday.

Mrs. J. R. Stains of Salem was a visitor at the home of Samuel Prater over Sunday.

Ed May left Friday for Omaha where he will spend some time looking after business.

Miss Rozelle Ahern of Shubert spent Saturday at this place the guest of Miss Helen Resterer.

James Bascom of the Tribune force visited relatives and friends in Pawnee City last Sabbath.

Now that the doctors have succeeded in amputating the appendix from a majority of the people, they have discovered a new disease, Pellagra. It threatens to become as fashionable as its predecessor.—Omaha Bee.

A. M. Brickell, instructor in brass and string instruments, who has resided in Fairbury for the past several years has decided to change his location and left for his new home in Falls City Wednesday where he expects soon to organize a large class in music. His family will remain in Fairbury until he gets settled. The professor has been very successful with his music in Fairbury and we can heartily recommend him to the people of Falls City.—Fairbury News.

Misses Belle Bolejack, Martha and Adah Heim of Dawson attended the teachers association and visited friends at this place.

J. J. Turner of Humboldt spent several days in this city this week the guest of his daughter Mrs. George Albright and family.

Fred Sebold returned the latter part of the week from a business trip to Chicago and other eastern points.

Rhine Shelly of Preston has charge of O. Schoenheits saloon during the series illness of the latter.

Mesdames Rhine Shelly, C. E. Simons and Grace Pyle of Preston were visitors here Saturday.

Hope Ward of Rulo visited friends at this place and took the teachers examination Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Freie spent Saturday and Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Haefele at Preston.

F. A. Bascom was down from Omaha the first of the week visiting his brother in this city.

Miss Klima spent Sunday with her parents at Dawson and returned to this city Monday.

Mrs. John Hossack returned Saturday from several days stay with relatives at Preston.

Clyde Stumbo left Saturday for Lincoln where he will accept a position as stenographer.

Ephraim Withee of Stella spent Sunday in this city a guest at the home of John Hossack.

S. R. Ayers was here Friday and called at the office and renewed his subscription.

—Get your Early Ohio seed potatoes and seed corn at Heck's feed store.

Jay Parsons, wife and daughter Edna were here from Verdon Saturday.

—Dr. W. E. Lyons, Osteopath, office Wahl building, phone 446.

Claud Saylor of Verdon was a business visitor here this week.

Pete Resterer was quite sick the first of the week.

Chas. McCool was down from Salem Friday.

—Seed oats at Heck's feed store.

Dr. Harry Burchard was a Salem visitor Sunday.

B. F. Veach of Verdon spent Friday at this place.

John Lampe of So. Auburn was in this city Sunday.

Prof. Wood of Iowa was a business visitor here Monday.

Harry Smith of Rulo was in the city Friday and attended the debate.

Neal Thornton made a business trip to Dawson the first of the week.

Gwyre Hall Yates of Omaha was a guest at the home of I. Mead.

B. Kernen of Rulo and I. Kernen of Verdon were visitors here Friday.

Clair Foster of Plattsmouth spent Sunday with his parents at this city.

Mrs. Gibbell and children of Verdon visited relatives here the past week.

Mrs. Charles McCool of Salem spent Saturday at the home of R. R. Rule.

Prof. Wm. Harnack of Hiawatha spent Sunday the guest of Peter Kaiser and wife.

John McCool of Salem was the guest of his aunt, Mrs. R. R. Rule the latter part of the week.

This week the Electric theater have purchased a fine new pianola which adds much to that place of amusement.

Dr. Frank Wiser of Denver spent a part of the week in this city looking after business and visiting relatives.

George Keeling, who has been visiting his brother, W. H. Keeling and family left Monday for his home in Illinois.

Mrs. Harry Custer returned Monday from a few days spent with her sister, Mrs. James McDowell at Tecumseh.

Prof. and Mrs. Crabtree and two daughters of Peru were guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. M. L. Wilson Sunday.

Miss Josie Drochdrup of David City, who has spent a few days at the home of Rev. H. Bex in this city, returned home Tuesday.

Mike Reardon of Duluth, Minn., spent a few days in this city the first of the week a guest at the home of Wm. Higgins and family.

Richard Bachstein, a graduate of the Falls City Business College, left Monday to accept a position as bookkeeper with the State Bank at Stella.

J. G. Whitaker who recently moved here from Kansas City is nicely located in the John R. Smith property. He is now a member of the firm of Whitaker Bros.

For information regarding the famous North Platte Valley land see George Reichers of this city. He is the local agent and can tell you all about the best irrigated land in the west. Go with him Tuesday and see for yourself.

Mrs. Laura Paxton and daughter Jessie have packed their household goods and shipped them to Nebraska City, where they will reside in the future. They have rented their house to Cass Mead, who will take possession at once.

Auburn experienced another fire fight last week. One of the business blocks in South Auburn had a very narrow escape. The fire broke out in the basement of the Miller butcher shop and it was only by hard work with the bucket brigade that the block was saved.

George Johnson, the big Winnebago Indian pitcher of the Lincoln baseball team, pitched his first full game of the season on April 18, defeating Omaha handily in an exhibition game by a score of 6 to 2. Johnson promises to be more effective this season than he was last year, when he pitched 50 points ahead of his team. Johnson was for two years a member of President Green's Nebraska Indian baseball team, and has pitched all over the United States.

During the high wind which preceded the rain of Sunday night, an empty box car which was standing on the siding at Straussville, between Stella and Falls City was blown on the main line. Soon afterward it was reduced to kindling. No damage was done to the engine of the freight, although the crew had a narrow escape.—Auburn Republican.

A. M. Brickell of Fairbury is in the city. He is a director and teacher in harmony, string and brass instruments. His specialty however is violin, mandolin and guitar. You can call him at telephone 395.

Frank Jones and son of Trenton, Neb., attended the funeral of the former's mother at Verdon, and on their return home visited at the home of the former's brother-in-law, Wm. Gossett.

The Christian people who attended the district Missionary convention at Pawnee City returned home Friday and reported a pleasant and very profitable session.

The Nebraska State treasurer has accepted the Auburn city bonds at an interest bearing rate of 4 1/2 per cent annually. The amount of bonds sold was $75,000.

Mrs. Vi Metz and children arrived from Oklahoma and will spend some time with relatives at this place. She is now visiting her sister Miss Beulah Fry.

Mrs. James Ryan of Red Cloud and Mrs. James Barry of Odell, returned to their homes Sunday, after attending their fathers funeral at Rulo Saturday.

John Maddox and wife of Auburn attended the card party at John Powell's Thursday evening. They also attended the Highlander entertainment.

Misses Chloe and Hazel Prater went to Verdon Monday to take part in the program at the I. O. O. F. entertainment at that place that evening.

M. J. and Thomas Moran returned to Barneston, Sunday, being called here to attend the funeral of their father, Saturday.

John Shrauger, Lincoln Williamson and John Hollichek of Humboldt, were Falls City visitors the past week.

Misses Baine and Agnes Schroeder of the Preston schools attended the teachers association here Saturday.

Miss Sarah Edie of Peru attended the wedding of Miss Vergie Mead Wednesday.

Fred Sebold will leave tomorrow for a business trip to Omaha.

In the Next Few Months

—most any day is apt to be on in which you will have to purchase

A WEDDING GIFT

We'll be ready for you when the day comes.

A. E. JAQUET

"The Old Reliable"

Miss Laura Klima of Dawson, was in the city the latter part of the week, the guest of her sister.

Rev. F. Ellsworth Day went to Bennett Tuesday to address the Christian Missionary convention at that place.

F. W. Wittrock and wife and Miss Lena Wittrock, attended the wedding of a relative at Craig, Mo., Sunday.

Misses Helen and Nola McCool of Salem, attended the debate Friday night and visited until Sunday with Miss Louise Rule.

Dr. M. L. Wilson of this city, was recently elected president of the Richardson county Medical Society, which met in this city the latter part of last week.

The case of the State vs. C. E. Simons of Preston, for selling liquor without a license, was heard before Judge Spraggins Saturday and continued until April 28.

Henry Smith has placed a power sprayer in his orchard in Nebraska county and will spare no time or expense in spraying that his apples may be among the best on the market.

Sam Crozer, Miss Josephine Yates, Mrs. Ethelbert Brown and Mrs. Farrow Yates of Omaha arrived in the city Tuesday evening to be present at the Yates-Mead wedding Wednesday morning.

Rev. R. M. Hall of Lincoln, had charge of the morning service at the Christian church. He is the State Bible School superintendent and his lecture was an able one and was a great help to the local Bible School workers.

Vaughn McVey, who has been working the past fall and winter at Falls City, came down Thursday evening and spent several days with his family and friends. Sunday he left for Havelock where he will be employed at carpenter work the coming summer.—Rulo Register.

It is reported that Ross Wills, three miles west of Falls City, has a mild case of small pox. Among his neighbors it was thought he had a bad case of grippe and many of them were in to sit up with him. It is feared there will be a good many cases in that locality.—Salem Index.

Mrs. Mayme Dixon Codington and children of Auburn, returned home Sunday, after a few days visit with the former's sister Mrs. Emery Fry near this city.

Miss Louise Peterson who has been sick for some time, is much better and able to go back to her work at the Brececk millinery store.

Dr. Martin and Miss Martin, returned to Chicago Sunday after spending a few days with their brother, Francis Martin and family.

FOR SALE—Bronze Turkey eggs, 11 for $1. Inquire of Mrs. Howard Long, telephone No. 41 O.

Charles Carr was out Tuesday after several weeks confinement with small pox.

SCHMELZER
BASEBALL GOODS
"QUICK GRIP" GLOVES
THE SHAPED FACE, NO REBOUND
CATCHERS' MITTS
THE NEW SHIRT-TAIL GLOVE-MITTS FOR CLEAN WORK
Schmelzer's OFFICIAL LEAGUE BALL
Guaranteed in every way.
BASE BALL SUITS
12 Grades, All Colors, Cut to Measure.
A comparison is convincing. Buy for yourself.
FOR SALE BY
A. G. WANNER

The Time to Purchase Your New Spring Suit

things to please the young chaps who will "go the limit" of fashion, and there are styles for the quiet dresser who sticks to conventional ideas.

TEN TO TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS

Hargrave & Hargrave

The Home of Good Clothing

Opposite the P. O.

Falls City, Neb.

Absolutely PURE ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Thousands of millions of cans of Royal Baking Powder have been used in making bread, biscuit and cake in this country, and every housekeeper using it has rested in perfect confidence that her food would be light, sweet, and perfectly wholesome. Royal is a safeguard against the cheap alum powders which are the greatest menacers to health of the present day.

ROYAL IS THE ONLY BAKING POWDER MADE FROM ROYAL GRAPE CREAM OF TARTAR