Farmer Finds Jewelry

Theo. Shultz of Stella was called to Nebraska City to identify some jewelry, which had been found by a farmer near that place, while harrowing. He brought back about 30 rings, 15 watches, some earrings and several chains. This is part of the jewelry taken from his store on the night of October 30, and has in all probability been buried since the following Sunday.

LENDS HELPING HAND

Brotherly Love and Harmony in the Churches

A few days ago a member of the soliciting committee for the new Presbyterian church, called upon some of the Brethren workers and was immediately informed that the church had taken action on the matter without any solicitation and had made up a purse among their membership and in a few days the money would be handed to the building committee.

We are pleased to know the various churches in Falls City are drawing nearer to each other, for we all realize that in unity there is strength. In this instance the contribution was greatly appreciated but the beautiful fellowship speaks louder than words.

Lucky Bill in Town

Lucky Bill with his wagon show was greeted by a large crowd Tuesday evening. The show was all they claimed it to be and the trained animals, acrobats and wire walkers pleased all who attended. The show has been here several times but always draws a good crowd.

Boy's Brigade

The Baptist Boy's Brigade practiced with their new guns for the first time last Friday night. They are certainly proud and enjoy the work immensely. Harrah for the soldier boys. If you want to be one of them better give in your name at once.

Buys an Auburn Theater

Mr. Ed. M. May and wife have bought the Elite theater from T. A. Bailey and will proceed at once to overhaul and put in new apparatus and fixtures and will undoubtedly make a success. Mr. May is a brother of Allen May of the Republican office, and while he is a man of get-up and hustle, his wife is a musician and will manage that part of the entertainment.—Auburn Granger.

Fire at Rulo

Monday night Rulo was visited by a fire and only by hard work were many store buildings saved. The fire caught at the central office and it was impossible to save that building or any of its contents. We did not learn the estimate of the loss or who the building belonged to.

Loses Valuable Dog

While out hunting Monday R. R. Rule was unfortunate enough to have a fine stage bound run over by the train and killed. The dog was valued at $50 and was given to Mr. Rule something less than a year ago by a friend of his who was a traveling man.

Buncoed in Chicago

Theodore Langstone, 76 years old, a resident of Tecumseh, was the victim of a confidence woman while on a trip to Chicago last Monday. He was fleeced out of $1,135. He has returned home a poorer but wiser man.

Ministers Meet

The Falls City Ministerial Association met at the Union House Monday afternoon at two o'clock. Besides the routine business, the election of officers came up and resulted as follows: Rev. C. A. Mastin, President; Rev. J. R. Nanninga, Vice President; Rev. R. Cooper Bailey, Secretary and Treasurer.

On account of the commencement exercises falling on Wednesday evening, May 19, and Mr. Bryan expected in the city, the ministers agreed to suspend prayer meetings on that evening in favor of the High School.

Will be a Nun

Miss Margaret Sullivan, formerly of this place, but who has spent the past few years at York in the Catholic school, this week took the black veil and will hereafter be known as Sister Cecelia. Mr. and Mrs. Murt Sullivan came in from Pffingham, Kansas, and joined their daughter, Mrs. John Voegle, who attended the services at York.

Close School

Miss Mona Wilcox closed a very successful term of school at the Center school last Friday. The pupils gave an excellent program and with their many friends enjoyed a picnic dinner. Miss Wilson will teach in the Falls City schools next year.
