

MARKET LETTER

From Our Regular Kansas City Stock Yard Correspondent
 Kansas City Stock Yards, May 17, 1909. The cattle run last week was up to recent weeks, and sellers were well pleased, the market closing with a net gain of 10 to 20 cents on all kinds. Supply today is 15,000 head here, but this includes 4000 head of stock cattle enroute from the South to the Northwest, leaving 11,000 on the market. The strong market recently has encouraged feeders to hold on, and receipts last week contained a smaller percentage of steers selling below $6 than usual. Buyers tried to discriminate against heavy steers last week, but the demand was too great, and they were not able to change prices for the worse at any time. Conditions are much better than a month ago, and the consumptive demand for meats continued to expand last week. Top steers here today sold at $6.80, as compared with top of $6.90 on different days last week, and the steer market is called steady to 10 lower today, bulk of steers, $5.85 to $6.65, cows and heifers steady today, best cows worth $5.75, and top heifers $6.50, calves a quarter higher than a week ago, top veals $7.25, bulls $3.75 to $5.25. Stockers and feeders have been quiet without much change in prices, market steady to day. A few half fat steers are going to the country at $5.60 to $5.80, bulk of feeders $5 to $5.60, stockers $4 to $5.40.

The hog run last week was 70,000 head here, a decrease of 30,000 head as compared with same week a year ago. The market advanced 10 cents during the week, put prices are 5 to 10 lower today, supply 13,000 head. The bear feature today is a run at Chicago ten thousand head greater than estimates for today. General conditions are favorable to the trade, demand for all kinds of meats heavy, stimulated by the fact that pork is cheaper relatively than either beef or mutton. Heavier receipts later this month and in June may cause some losses in the hog market, but no serious damage can be done to prices until grass cattle and sheep come freely, the only thing that can cheapen these classes of live stock. Top hogs here today $7.40, bulk of sales $6.90 to $7.30.

Sheep and lambs touched the high point last Monday, since when they have been slipping a little, spring lambs off 50 cents, goats 50 to 75 cents lower. Run is 13,000 today. Top fed lambs $9 today, yearlings worth up to $6.75, wethers $6.75, ewes $6.20, spring lambs $7.50 to $9.00. Large numbers of goats from the South west have been received here lately, fat ones worth $4 to $4.60, brushers $3.25 to $3.75, range muttons from Texas and Arizona $5 to $6.25.

Announcement Party
 Miss Nellie Hart entertained Saturday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Hart, near Reserve. The decorations were in lavender and white, the same color scheme being used in the refreshments. Lavender heart ice cream was served and at each guests place was a bouquet of Sweet Williams tied with lavender ribbon. In each bouquet was a tiny heart with the names Nelle Hart and Dr. Harry Burchard, of Falls City, June 7, 1909. This was Miss Hart's plan of announcing her marriage to Mr. Burchard, which will take place June 7. A little white satin bag containing rice was given each guest with these words, "Preserve this rice with care to throw upon a happy pair." About twenty guests were present.—Hiawatha Daily World.

Referee's Sale
 The Leslie land that was advertised to be sold at sheriff's sale Monday afternoon was sold and A. R. Scott acted as referee. Sixty acres were sold to Fred Meyer at $101 per acre and Schultz purchased the remaining seventy-nine acres, paying $95 per acre for it.

HER METHOD OF REASONING

Little One Used Sound Logic in Ascertaining Just How Old Mamma Was.
 Little Frieda is a bright miss who comes to her conclusions on lines of what to her small mind seem strict and logical reasoning. So one shopping day, with more speculation in her eye than her mother noticed, she inquired, "What kind of a waist did you ask that lady for, mamma?"
 "I asked her for a 38 waist," answered the mother.
 When they got home, Frieda, with the air of a discoverer, pranced gaily up to her grandmother. "I've found out how old mamma is," she announced; "she's 38."
 "How did you find it out?" queried the grandmother.
 "Because she bought a 38 waist. She buys me ten-year-old dresses, so if she buys 38 waists for herself, she must be 38 years old," concluded Miss Frieda triumphantly.

"EQUINOCTIAL STORM."
 A search of the weather records will reveal the fact that the day which marks the separation of the seasons and on which the sun "souths" exactly at noon is more likely than not to be clear and beautiful, but with the latitude that the amateur weather prophets of the past always allowed themselves for safety's sake, any storm occurring within several days before or after the time of equal day and night has been held to be either an early or a belated coming of the inevitable "line" storm. A very little thought on the area of the habited portions of the earth and the known causes of storms should convince those who are willing to be convinced that the "equinoctial" is a superstition and a myth.

TURKEY DOOMED.
 A regenerated Turkey is going to take back all her old possessions including Herzegovina and Bosnia, so the Austrians would better come in out of the wet and give them up in time.
 It is a splendid dream, worthy of a Turk of the days when the banner of the prophet swept to victory on a thousand fields of battle. But dead empires are not revived. Disintegration, not conquest, is the doom of the land of the sultan.—N. Y. Press.

TRIP NOT ALL WASTED.
 "I've walked many miles to see you, sir," began the tramp, "because people told me you was very kind to poor chaps like me."
 "Indeed?" said the genial, white-haired old man. "Are you going back the same way?"
 "Yes, sir."
 "Ah, well, just contradict that rumor as you go, will you? Good morning.—Stray Stories.

A FAVORED FOWL.
 "I has been told," said Miss Miami Brown, "dat de parrot is one of de longes lived birds dat is."
 "De statement," replied Mr. Erasmus Pinkley, "is strictly ornithological."
 "I wonder why?"
 "I specks dat one reason why de parrot lives so long is dat he ain't good to eat."

TIMELY ENTERPRISE.
 "The political situation is developing a considerable amount of acrimony," remarked the observer.
 "Yes," answered the candidate.
 "It's a good thing we had all those photographs taken early in the campaign when we were still able to look pleasant."

DRIVEN TO IT.
 "Let principle take the place of inspiration," thundered one worker for the uplift.
 "Wouldn't do for me at all," declared the press humorist. "When I haven't an idea for a joke, I have to steal."—Exchange.

HEADING HIM OFF.
 "That was a pretty tall story the last speaker at the meeting was telling."
 "Perhaps that was why the chairman cut him short."

ADHERING TO FACTS.
 "I met Jim Jones the other day, and he told me that just now he was living high."
 "So he is. Jim's a motorman on the elevated road."

JUST THE REGULATION MEAL

Cowboys in the Early Days Evidently Arose with Healthy Appetites.
 T. B. Sweet, a Topeka capitalist, stopped at Abilene in the early days at the best hotel in the city. He asked for his breakfast. The waiters took no special notice of his appearance, or at least did not guess that his appetite was different from the average patron's.
 "Give me some eggs," said Sweet, and waited.
 In a little while the waitress came back. In a bowl she had a full dozen eggs, all hard boiled.
 Sweet gasped and ate what he could, protesting that she had brought him too many and that he didn't just know how hard boiled eggs would strike him for his first meal of the day.
 "Why, that's a regular cowboy's breakfast," responded the waitress.—Kansas City Journal.

NO NEED TO SWIM.
 Amateur Yachtsman—How is it that you have been on the water all your life and yet you cannot swim?
 Boy—Don't ever 'ave to swim. I know how to sail a boat without getting capsized.

HER BLUSHES HIDDEN.
 Alfred G. Vanderbilt, at the Long Branch horse show, said of the sheath skirt:
 "You know those thick double veils, similar to a Turkish woman's, that they have been wearing in Newport this summer? Well, they say in Newport that the other day an extremely pretty girl appeared in a very daring sheath skirt.
 "Her father took her to task about it.
 "'Don't you think,' he said, 'that the skirt you wore this afternoon is most immodest?'
 "'But, papa,' said she, 'I wear one of those thick double veils with it.'"

HOT-WEATHER CLOTHING.
 According to a Spanish physician, white clothing is unsuitable for use under a blazing tropical sun. He declares that people should wear red-colored clothing to keep cool. The disturbance of the nerves of the spinal column by excessive actinic rays reacts upon the stomach, he says, upsetting digestion as well as causing sunstroke. The remedy is a non-actinic covering for the skin, and a red lining for wearing apparel and helmet gives instant relief to the troubles from a torrid sun and enables a workman to stand exposure with comfort.

WILLING TO OBLIGE.
 "When you feels any temptations comin' along," said the friend and adviser, "you mus' say, 'Get thee behind me, Satan.'"
 "Da's what I done said," answered Mr. Erasmus Pinkley, "an' den I 'magine I hyuhs Santan answer me back, 'Da's all right. We's both gwine de same way nohow an' it don' make no diff'ence to me which leads de p'uhcession.'"

SOMEWHAT ANNOYED.
 "What sort of a time did you have while you were abroad?"
 "Not very satisfactory," answered Mr. Cumrox. "I saw a great many historical curiosities, but I kind of resented having the waiters and cab drivers put on airs over me because they could speak French, the same as mother and the girls."

NOT SO FOOLISH.
 "Yes," said Phamliman, "my daughter is to be married next month to Count Brokaw."
 "Ah!" remarked the friend, "everything's settled, eh?"
 "No, sir-ree! You don't catch me paying in advance."

Weak Heart Action

There are certain nerves that control the action of the heart. When they become weak, the heart action is impaired. Short breath, pain around heart, choking sensation, palpitation, fluttering, feeble or rapid pulse, and other distressing symptoms follow. Dr. Miles Heart Cure is a medicine especially adapted to the needs of these nerves and the muscular structure of the heart itself. It is a strengthening tonic that brings speedy relief. Try it.

"For years I suffered with what I thought was stomach trouble, when the doctors told me I had heart trouble. I had tried many remedies, when the Dr. Miles' almanac came into my hands, and I concluded to try Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. I have taken three bottles, and now I am not suffering at all. I am cured and this medicine did it. I write this in the hope that it will attract the attention of others who suffer as I did."
