Coburn of Kansas

The man who refused to become a U. S. senator will open the Falls City Chautauqua, Saturday afternoon, July 24th., with a lecture on Alfalfa.

Some extracts:

Alfalfa's affinity is "out there in Kansas."

An alfalfa field is said to be a hog's idea of heaven.

It is noteworthy, if not significant, that Kansas' present era of unprecedented prosperity dates from about the time that alfalfa was first shown proper appreciation by her farmers.

Want to be strong?

Eat more Quaker Oats. Eat it for breakfast every day. This advice is coming from all sides as a result of recent experiments on foods to determine which are the best for strength and endurance. It has been proved that eaters of Quaker Oats and such cereals are far superior in strength and endurance to those who rely upon the usual diet of heavy, greasy foods.

When all is said and done on the cereal food question, the fact remains that for economy and for results in health and strength, Quaker Oats stands first of all. It is the most popular food in the world among the foods sold in packages.

Put up in two sizes, the regular package and the large family size which is more convenient for those who do not live in town.
