A Missouri congressman was waited on by a delegation of young ladies to enter a protest against the increased tariff on hose.

"Why, we can't wear good stockings under such a tariff," protested one of the ladies.

"I'm from Missouri," replied the congressman and the conference adjourned.

THE REPLY COURTEOUS

The youngsters of the Y. M. C. A. of Omaha, Lincoln and Fremont held a relay race between the three cities last week in which they carried a message from Mayor Dahlman of Omaha to the Mayor of Lincoln, a like message from Lincoln's mayor to the mayor of Fremont, and from him back to Dahlman.

Dahlman's message was as follows:

"The Hon. Mayor, Lincoln. The boys will be dry so they can't stop in your city long. See they leave at once.

James C. Dahlman, Mayor." Funny, isn't it?

Well, just read the message the boys carried back to Dahlman from Fremont's mayor; it's even funnier.

James C. Dahlman.

Matt. 10-42, 'And whosoever shall give to drink unto these little ones a cup of cold water, he shall in no wise lose his reward."

F. L. Burrell, Mayor."

We have heard of the retort courteous, but a finer reply was never sent by a gentleman to a sport than the reply noted above.

PROSPECTIVE CANDIDATES

Present indications point strongly to the fact that our political opponents will be supplied with third term candidates. Judge Gagnon will doubtless be a candidate for a third term. Will Fenton will probably be on the ticket for a third term. Prof. Oliver is reputed to be ready to try it for the third time, Lou Edwards will also be a candidate. Lord will not be a candidate, as the law forbids a third term, but John Hutchings, the present county clerk will try for his place according to rumor. This will make a ticket composed entirely of third termers.

But few candidates are mentioned on the republican ticket. Paul Weaver, Judge Scott and J. E. Leyda are spoken of for County Judge. Hugh Boyd of Humboldt has many friends for Register of Deeds. Prof. Sargent, formerly of Salem, has announced his candidacy for Superintendent. John Hossack is mentioned for sheriff and Dan Riley of Dawson is being urged by his friends to stand for Treasurer. From such material as this it should be easy to name the winners, especially against men who have already held county office for many years.

Evangelist Lochart and Prof. Lintt have had great meetings in the past, I feel sure that the church has engaged most excellent talent and that you will be greatly helped by attending these meetings.

The church desires to extend a cordial invitation to members of our sister churches to help in making this a great meeting. All converts will be given their church preference. We want the ministers and workers of the different churches to feel free to come and take part in this campaign for Christ in Falls City.

Following is the program for next week. Sunday morning,

The announcements for Sunday, June 6, will be made later. Invite your friends.

Concerning Prof. Lintt the Pendleton, Ind., News, says: "Mr. Lintt's voice is of great power and mellowness; has that indefinable something which is called soul. He makes the simplest songs, vibrate with sympathy and meaning, as a chorus director he is par excellence. He will lead our large chorus. We extend an invitation to you to join the great chorus and help in the winning of souls. All come."

THE VALUE OF A BOY

Will Build a Modern Church in the Near Future

What is a boy worth? What is your boy worth? How much would you give if he were drifting to ruin and death, to have some one throw him a life line when sinking in the maelstrom of dissipation, carried down by the terrible whirl of drink, cards and scarlet women? What would you give to see that son saved? To see him cleansed, pure, manly, possessing self-control, reliant and strong? That boy whom you once bounced and heard him coo and laugh, that little curly headed lad that sat on your knee years ago, so innocent and sweet and on whom you built so many hopes, who now smells of strong tobacco, liquors and the perfumes of the redlight den—what would you give to have him saved? You would give a fortune and your life. We know the temptation, weakness and folly of youth. We know the value of a young man to himself, his family, his business, society and the nation. We know the effort for his uplift when he is down is worth while. The future of the church, our society and the nation rests upon the young men of today. They will be leaders tomorrow. We cannot measure the value of a single one of these youths by money, especially if he is your son. Each one of us encourage ourselves in the belief that our boy is safe and that nothing impure can touch him. God grant that this may be true. Every boy's life we touch will be some mother's and father's son—maybe your boy.

The Christian church here has decided to build a modern church a mission church. The basement and parlors open every night and equipped largely like a Y. M. C. A. with reading, rest and game rooms and a splendid gymnasium fully equipped to develop the mind, muscle and heart, where your boy will be welcome. A place of rest for the public. Following are the names of the building committee, who will soon announce to the public plans and style of building:

G. R. Grinstead, J. L. Slocum, J. R. Caine, Wm. Redwood, Judge J. R. Wilhite, Samuel Boocker, Chas. Kreckler, T. J. Oliver, J. E. Leyda, Burt Whitaker, Wm. McCray, E. L. Sandusky, F. E. Day, Mrs. C. H. Marion, Mrs. O. P. Heck.

This enterprise will appeal to every business man of the town and community.

Must Make an Appeal

T. J. Whitaker has always been very kind to the public and has permitted them to fish and hunt around the old mill site. This has been a source of pleasure to him but the people have taken the advantage of him every time opportunity presented itself. They have been hunting and shooting in the pasture with his stock, have left gates open and let his cattle out and have paid no attention to the signs he put up. Unless they make an effort to give Tom a "square deal" he will stop all fishing and hunting on this place. This is a warning to you.
