

THE COMERS AND GOERS

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST TO YOU AND ME.

What Your Friends and Their Friends Have Been Doing the Past Week.

—Eat Sowles Candy.
 Dr. Wilson, Wahl's building.
 —Dr. W. E. Lyons, Osteopath, office Wahl building, 'phone 446.
 Mrs. Evan Owens of Verdon was a visitor at this place Saturday.
 O. P. Heck was a business visitor to Howe, Shubert and Stella, Monday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Al Spear spent a few days the first of the week in Omaha.
 Mrs. J. J. Burger and children of Reserve were in the city Monday shopping.
 WANTED—To rent a five or six room house by June 1st. Inquire at this office.
 Walter Veach came down from Verdon Saturday and spent a few hours in this city.
 Mr. and Mrs. James Ayers came down from Verdon in their automobile Saturday.
 Timid retailers cannot understand our aggressive methods. Exposition Sale, Matthews Little Co.
 B. F. Veach of Verdon attended the blue rock shoot at this place Friday and Saturday.
 Miss Jennie Prater left Wednesday evening for St. Joe to spend a few days with her sister, Mrs. C. E. Peabody and husband.
 Mrs. A. Graham left Tuesday for Seattle where she will spend some time at the exposition. On her return home she will visit several points in California.
 Rev. R. Cooper Bailey left Tuesday for Bennett where he will spend a few days with friends. From there he goes to Broken Bow where will visit his parents for a few days.
 T. Walker and son of Stella were in the city Monday a short time. They left over the Burlington that day for Seattle, where they will see the many sights at the exposition.
 Tom Spence and wife are the proud parents of a bouncing boy which came to gladden their hearts on the 23d inst. Owing to the date of his arrival, Uncle Sidney promptly named the youngster Skidoo.
 Mrs. E. L. Sandusky received word the first of the week that her brother, Ed Hughes, died at his home in Independence, Mo. Owing to the fact Mrs. Sandusky was not well she was unable to attend the funeral.
 About the proudest child we have seen for some time is little Charlie Heiser. He stopped in front of this office Wednesday to show us the tiny little Shetland pony of which he is the owner. It is a beauty, little black and white spotted fellow and is about two weeks old, and weighs less than 20 pounds.

Notice to Property Owners
 All parties who need new walks should see Chas. Heine-man, he guarantees them and builds them at reasonable prices. A good concrete walk is a thing of beauty and a joy forever. Telephone 111-119-377 or drop a postal to Heineman and he will do the rest.
 Johnson, the big Winnebago Indian pitcher of the Lincoln team pitched one of the best games of his career against Topeka last Friday. He held the Kansas lads to five hits and won his game handily by a score of 3 to 1. A little more of this kind of work and Johnson will go to the big league next season.
 Miss Stella Knickerbocker is back to her work at the county judges office this week after an absence of two weeks. She has been caring for her mother, Mrs. Lewis Knickerbocker who has been quite sick for the past two weeks.
 Miss Grace Swihart who has spent several weeks in this city with her aunt, Mrs. Arthur Harris, returned to her home in Webster, Kan., Sunday. She was accompanied by her two cousins Gladys and Hildred Harris of this city.
 Mrs. O. Schoenheit and son Louthaire left the first of the week for St. Joe where she will spend some time visiting her friend, Mrs. A. L. Klein.
 Martin Kelly and Miss Fay Kay of Auburn were married in this city Thursday evening. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. Ellsworth Day.
 Leonard Kinsey of University Place and Levi Kinsey of Salem were looking after matters in the district court the latter part of the week.
 Miss Grace Van Winkle attended the county Sunday school convention at Dawson the latter part of the week.
 —For one more week Conkey's Lice Powder is offered by C. A. Heick for free trial. Try it on your setting hens.
 Mrs. Ray DePatron and son of Lincoln are visiting at the home of her parents P. S. Heacock and wife in this city.
 W. D. Easley was in the city a short time the latter part of the week looking after business and visiting relatives.
 Mesdames Lloyd Giannini and H. Neal returned the latter part of the week from a few days spent in Omaha.
 Mrs. S. B. Miles and little son returned Sunday from an extended stay in Jamestown, Pa., with relatives.
 Miss Jessie Paxton left Wednesday for Nebraska City to spend a few days with her sister Mrs. Max Werner.
 Miss Florence Wylie returned the latter part of the week from a visit to her sister Mrs. Allan D. May.
 Mrs. John Holt spent a few days in Salem with old friends the latter part of the week.
 Mrs. Will Hoppe of Stella spent Sunday here the guest at the home of Mrs. Katharine Hoppe.
 The mandamus case of Simons vs. village board of Rulo was appealed to the supreme court.
 Misses Stella Patzman and Zetta Camblin saw "Salvation Nelle" in St. Joe Friday night.
 Prof. Barrett returned this week from a business trip to Kansas City.
 Rhine and C. C. Shelly of Preston were business visitors here Monday.
 Exposition prices reign throughout the entire store. Matthews Little Company.
 —Dr. W. E. Lyons, Osteopath, office Wahl building, 'phone 446.
 Ed Houston spent a few days in this city transacting business.
 J. & P. Coats Best Thread, 6 spools for 25c. Matthews Little Co.
 Tommy Oliver is in Lincoln visiting his grandparents.
 A. R. Keim was a business visitor at Salem Tuesday.

Pure Ice Cream? You Know!

We have on hand at all times Vanilla, Chocolate and Crushed Fruit Strawberry at 15c per pint and 25c per quart.

Plain Bricks, or in 2 or 3 flavors, 40c per brick.

Heart Centers, 50c per brick.

Delicious Ices at the same price.

For wholesale prices see us or phone 29.

The best of home made candy at city prices.

Fresh Fruit and Strawberries on ice. Try us.

The Candy Kitchen

20 pounds sugar, $1.00, Saturday only. Matthews Little Co.
 FOR SALE—Nine lots just north of the M. E. church.—W. R. Meyers. 21-2t
 All shoes at reduced prices during Exposition Sale. Matthews Little Company.
 Mrs. Gilbert and daughter of Rulo were business visitors at this place Monday.
 Ed Yoessel returned from Lincoln Monday after spending Sunday with his father here.
 Mrs. Bert Wright came up from Kansas City and is visiting her mother, Mrs. Martha Stoughton. Generosity in Bargain Givings bring us generous trade. Exposition Sale, Matthews Little Co., The Price Killers.
 Miss Wherry Lowe left Wednesday for Bethany, to spend some time visiting her sister, Mrs. Lloyd Morris.
 Mrs. E. D. Ford of St. Joe spent a part of the week in the city at the St. Thomas rectory, the guest of Rev. and Mrs. G. L. Neide.
 Lary Ryan returned to his home in St. Louis Wednesday after spending some time at this place looking after his property interests.
 Misses Field and Hand left the first of the week for a short visit at F. Leavenworth before returning to their homes for their summer vacation.
 Mrs. Agnes Dalbey Tipton and two children of Albany, Mo., spent several days in the city visiting at the home of her uncle, Clay Davis and family.
 Harry Simanton and wife, who have spent a few days with their parents, Vet Simanton and wife, returned to their home in San Diego, Cal., the first of the week.
 Mrs. C. B. Elliott spent a few days in Kansas City last week the guest of Mrs. Will Zane. She met Mrs. S. B. Miles and baby at that place and accompanied them to this city.
 Dr. Callison, wife and baby, returned to their home in Stella the latter part of the week after spending a few days at this place at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. I. M. Houston.
 The ladies of the Episcopal church will hold their food exchange at the Electric theater Saturday afternoon. It will be in charge of Misses Nan Hutchings and Winifred Taylor. All are invited to attend.
 A. R. Keim has purchased the Falls City Journal and will be its editor-in-chief. Time was when the Argus editor thought the Journal one of the best county paper propositions in Nebraska, but during the past few years it has been sailing in troublous waters and been buffeted by the winds of adversity until nearly wrecked.—Table Rock Argus.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bateman who have made their home at Stella for the past few years, were in the city this week visiting relatives and friends. They left Tuesday for Texas where they will make their future home. Mr. Bateman has been a harness maker at Stella and Verdon for a number of years and has many friends who wish them success in their new home.

The "America" Alarms

They're particularly good for railroad men, car conductors, and all people who have to get up in time and live on time.

R. B. Simpson, The Jeweler,
 North Window of Kerr's Pharmacy

Injured in Runaway
 On Sunday afternoon two young men, one from St. Joe and the other from Kansas City, hired a horse and buggy from Heiser's barn and went for a drive. The horse became frightened while going up Stone street and when they reached Maust Bros.' office both men were thrown from the buggy, and B. A. Shepman, the St. Joe man, was rendered unconscious, but after physicians arrived and examined him they learned he was not seriously injured. M. H. Ross the other occupant was bruised and well shaken up.
 The remainder of all the public schools in the county close this week. Prof. T. J. Oliver attended the commencement exercises at Salem Tuesday evening and presented the diplomas. On Friday evening he will attend the closing exercises of the Barada schools.
 J. J. Turner who has been in the city at the home of his daughter, Mrs. George Albright, for the past few weeks, where he had been receiving treatment from Dr. Boose for his hand, returned to Humboldt Friday afternoon.
 D. A. Whittaker of Falls City, arrived in town the fore part of the week and leased the First National bank, for the Olney company. The firm will put in a stock of pianos.—Auburn Republican.
 Mrs. G. F. Reichel returned from Kansas City Friday after a very pleasant visit of two weeks with her people. Her mother, Mrs. Chas. Ely came with her and will visit for a few weeks.
 The sacred concert by the young people of the Presbyterian choir Sunday evening was one of the best ever given in the city. A large crowd was present.
 Carl Compton, Arthur Stewart, Adam Schilling and Glenn Keeler of Kansas City spent Sunday with their good friends in Falls City.—Hiawatha Daily World.
 Mrs. Emma H. Fuller of Tecumseh, who organized an Eastern Star order at this place, was entertained by Mrs. E. G. Whitford while in the city.
 Miss Nellie Hossack went to Auburn Tuesday and spent a few days with Miss Helen McIntyre. She will also attend the commencement exercises.
 The infant baby of Mr. and Mrs. Ridley and the little son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wahl were baptized at the Catholic church Sunday afternoon.
 Miss Mary Sinclair came up from Preston and will spend the week with her grandmother, Mrs. Margery Grant at this place.
 Miss Ruth Bohrer went to the country Tuesday to spend a few days with her uncle, Fred Marmet and family.
 Forty-four teachers took the county examination at the county superintendents office Friday and Saturday.
 Mrs. Jessie Sears of Reserve is in the city for a few days. She is staying at the home of Fred Schmidt.
 Each Value rises triumphant over competition. Exposition Sale, Matthews Little Co., The Price Killers.
 Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Keller of Falls City visited relatives here Sunday.—Morrill News.
 Oliver Emmert and C. Williamson of near Sabetha, Kan., were visitors here Saturday.
 Miss Floy Grinstead spent Sunday in Verdon the guest of Mrs. Walter Veach.
 Ladies' Suits cut to the quick. Exposition Sale, Matthews Little Company.
 Mart Stewart and family of Verdon were in the city Wednesday.
 M. J. Clancy of Dawson was a business visitor here Wednesday.
 R. C. James was a business visitor at Humboldt Tuesday.
 W. S. Korner was a business visitor to St. Joe Tuesday.
 Silk Petticoats, Black and Colors, $3.98. Matthews Little Co.
 Mrs. Will Holt spent a part of this week in Omaha.
 George Gilligan was a Hiawatha visitor Sunday.

Made from cream of tartar, derived solely from grapes. All the ingredients of Dr. Price's Baking Powder are printed on the label. They are pure, healthful and proper.

When baking powders are peddled or demonstrated, examine their labels. You will find they are not made from cream of tartar. You don't want them

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder

Ladies' Separate Skirts all go. Exposition Sale, Matthews Little Co.
 R. A. Dittmar has a new delivery wagon, which is nicely painted and is a very attractive affair.
 Miss Elizabeth Miller of Lincoln is in the city visiting her mother and enjoying a much needed rest.
 Hazel Davison left the latter part of the week for Omaha to spend some time with her sister, Mrs. Will Hershey.
 FOR SALE—Sixty tons of good ice and a butcher's outfit. This is a bargain. Inquire of Charles Pribbain, Preston, Neb. 21-tf
 Ed Poteet returned Monday evening from a short stay at Pawnee. He was accompanied home by his little brother, Fred Doerner.
 Mrs. D. McCoy and little son Robert spent a few days in this city with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Cain. Jean Cain took them to their home in Hiawatha Sunday in his automobile.
 Mrs. Laura Casey and two children, Roy and Alice, left the first of the week for their home in Oaks, N. D. They spent several weeks at this place, being brought here by the death of the former's husband, Patrick Casey.
 The senior class of the High school, which was suspended by Superintendent Gallaher for abstaining from attendance from school on "sneak" day, was reinstated by the school board, Monday. It was thought that the four days suspension was punishment enough.—Auburn Republican.
 Mrs. Henry Sandrock and son Homer left the latter part of the week for Abeline, Kansas, to spend some time with her daughter, Mrs. Clint Meyers and son, George Meyers. On their way they will visit for some time with her sister Mrs. Mose Royer on Pennsylvania Ave and a daughter, Mrs. John Keim at Sabetha. Mr. Sandrock has been at Abeline for the past five weeks, assisting his children in getting their spring work started.

NOTICE—My wife forced a divorce on me, without any cause only that she is tired of me; all points which she claims are false and without foundation. I warn the public and my friends at Falls City not to buy my 40 acres 12 miles north of that place, as I bought and paid for it, and the deed is not good without my signature.—C. Dockhorn.
 Mrs. David C. Barnes, who made this place her home for many years, died at her home in Morrill several days ago. She had reached the age of 72 years and has a number of old friends who sympathize deeply with the husband and children who are left behind.

The National Game

can't be rightly played it seems unless you have a

SPALDING

Ball Glove, Bat or Ball

They don't cost any more than inferior makes, and

There's a Difference

Get 'em only at

McMillan's Pharmacy

Opposite Postoffice Falls City, Neb.

Exposition Sale continues until Saturday, June 5th., at Matthews & Little Co. By buying now you act with wisdom.
 In the district court Friday Mrs. Lucinda Smith was granted a divorce from John R. Smith.
 Rev. Davis of Pawnee City will fill the pulpit at the Presbyterian church next Sabbath.

ROYAL Baking Powder

Absolutely Pure

The only baking powder made from Royal Grape Tartar—made from grapes—

Royal Baking Powder conveys to food the most healthful of fruit properties and renders it superior in flavor and wholesomeness.