

A LETTER FROM WASHINGTON

J. W. Miller Writes an Interesting Letter From Tacoma
Tacoma, Wash., May 12, '09.
The Falls City Tribune,
Falls City, Nebraska.
My Dear Mr. Editor:—
I am an old Falls City boy, having spent my early years (very early) at Old Archer, two and one half miles northeast of Falls City, and written so ably about by Judge Reavis, whom I remember so well from my earliest recollections. I am a cousin of W. H. Maddox, and of the Maddox girls, May, Grace and Mrs. J. W. Powell, and a schoolmate of Mrs. T. J. Gist and D. D. Reavis in the Eighties at York—this much for a personal introduction.

As you see by my letter head, I am a resident of Tacoma, the Queen City of the Pacific Coast. No city has more of the beautiful than has Tacoma; the largest grain elevators in the world. You should see the electric loaders loading wheat, sacks falling into the hold of the big ships like showers falling from the clouds. The largest ore smelter in the world, where more copper, silver and gold are smelted than any other place in the world, besides the quantities of lead, bismuth and other ores which go through fire. The largest sawmill in the world, the Sta. Paul and Tacoma Mill. I could not tell you the kinds of material made. The daily output is more than half a million feet per day. This would make several train loads on the level Nebraska prairies.

In accord with the testimony of experts, Tacoma has the most beautiful, convenient, and up-to-date High School building in America; a harbor large enough for all the battleships in the world, then add the merchantmen of many nations and our harbor would not be crowded.

Flowers in profusion all the year; a climate that cannot be excelled the year through, summers not hot, winters not cold, fruit everywhere, and in quantity and quality not surpassed. The water is of the sweetest and softest, scenery the grandest, on every side topped off by the highest and most beautiful mountains, Mount Tacoma, at our door.

The Pierce County, Nebraska, Association, has about two hundred members, headed by F. M. Ross of York, as President, E. B. King of Wayne, and ex-governor E. P. Savage as Vice Presidents, Judge W. H. Snell, of Lincoln, as Chairman of the Publicity Committee. We have headquarters at the Park Hotel on the corner of 8th and A streets, close to the Northern Pacific Station, the Interurban Station, and boat docks. We want every Nebraska man, woman and child to come to Tacoma as they come to the A. Y. P. Fair this summer. The fare on boat to Seattle is 25c round trip and $1 on the Interurban, round trip. You can live in Tacoma and attend the Fair more cheaply than any place on the Coast. Hotel Park, our headquarters, is making special rates for Nebraska people, if you will let it be known that you come from Nebraska. We will have a book in which all Nebraskans living in the county are registered. Look this over, and you will find someone you know. The committee will be at headquarters all the time.

Our city, her parks, her homes, and the hearts of the people are open to you.

Yours respectfully,
J. W. MILLER.

MRS. MARY CRAMER DEAD

Former Richardson County Woman Died in Iowa

The following clipping is taken from Reinbeck, Iowa, News, and will be of interest to the older residents of Falls City and vicinity. Mrs. Cramer was one of the early pioneers of this county and was a sister of John W. Freel.

Mary Freel was born in Madison county, Indiana, May 23, 1828. Here she lived until she was married to Wm. E. Cramer, Sept. 13, 1849. After marriage they went to Peoria, Ill. After a few years residence there they came to Iowa and settled in Freel's grove, about 2 miles east of where Reinbeck is now located. She has lived in and near the vicinity of Reinbeck ever since, excepting a few years spent in Nebraska and Kansas. Mrs. Cramer became the mother of two children, a daughter and a son. The former, Mrs. Harris Martindell, who died 26 years ago last February. Eugene, the son, is still a resident of this place.

At the death of Mrs. Martindell, Mrs. Cramer gave a home to her granddaughters, Lillie and Mollie, for whom she cared until they were grown.

About nine years ago she was sorely afflicted with rheumatism and most of the time since she has been confined to her bed, and a great deal of that time she was a great sufferer. The last few hours of her life, she suffered very severely. The death call came to her last Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock, at the Martindell home where she has been lovingly cared for during the last years of her life. Her age was 80 years, 10 months and 1 day.

For many years she has been a Christian and a member of the M. E. church. Through her years of pain she was supported by a strong faith and trust in the Savior.

The funeral services were held from the Methodist Episcopal church at 1 o'clock, Friday, March 26, conducted by Rev. T. A. Trimble of the Marble Rock, Iowa, a former pastor of the deceased, assisted by Rev. C. A. Anderson, pastor of the Reinbeck M. E. church.

MARKET LETTER

From Our Regular Kansas City Stock Yard Correspondent

Kansas City Stock Yards, May 24, 1909—Total supply of cattle last week cattle was liberal here 41,800 head but about 6,000 stock cattle enroute from the Panhandle in Texas to South Dakota were included. Deducing these thin cattle, which were not on the market, the total was normal as compared with recent weeks. Buyers succeeded in reducing the prices on killing grades 10 to 25 cents last week, on the claim that retail price of meat prevents expansion of consumption. Dull beef markets in England have also curtailed export demand, which put another weapon in the hands of buyers, and not at all discouraging to salesmen, who believe that the price breaks between now and the advent of large numbers of grass cattle at the markets will be of short duration, as the whole cattle situation is braced by an undercurrent of strength in the country.

An Evidence of Progress.
The farmer today rightly demands as much as the city man and is insisting more and more that the goods he buys, as well as his mail, be delivered right to his door, just as the city man does. Therefore, we now have in the country the meat wagon, the grocery wagon, the tea and coffee wagon and the medicine wagon. These institutions for the convenience of the farmer have come to stay.

sumptive demand. The run today is 7,000 head here, several thousand less than on recent Mondays, which confirms predictions of dealers that runs will be light for a few weeks. Anxiety of owners to finish planting corn is keeping some cattle off the market this week. Prices are strong to 10 higher today, top steers at $6.80 almost as high as the best here last week, at $6.85, except a small lot of fancy yearlings here last Thursday at $7.00. Bulk of steers sell at $5.80 to $6.65, cows $3.25 to $5.75, heifers 4. to 6.50, and bulls $3.50 to $5.25, calves $4.00 to $6.75, stockers $4.00 to $5.40, feeders $5.00 to 5.85.

Hogs prices declined 10 to 15 cents last week, under the influence of liberal marketing at all points, and here 80,000 head for the week The run today is 10,000 head, market closing strong to 5 higher, top is $7.35. Light hogs have been more freely offered during the past few weeks and the percentage of well finished hogs is decreasing.

Sheep and lambs had a bad week but it was mainly because of lack of quality in the offerings. Supplying today is 12,000 head, market 10 to 15 higher, some woolled lambs at $8.95 and $9.00, equal to prices a week ago. Spring lambs at $8.25 today and best clipped lambs are worth around $8.00, wethers $6.25 to $5.85. Several strings of Texas muttons sold today at $5.35, and Arizona wethers at $6.00 Fat goats bring 3.50 to $3.90, brushers $3.25 to $3.75.

J. A. RICKART,
Live Stock Correspondent.

The sale of domestic medicines stock medicines, flavoring extracts, spices, toilet articles, etc. through the medium of salesmen travelling with wagon and team has grown to enormous proportions in the last ten years. Keen competition for the farmers' trade has caused a continuous improvement in the goods handled by these wagons and farmers generally recognize that no better goods can be secured by them from any source.

Some of the medicine salesmen practically leave the goods with the customers on trial for which no more is asked unless the buyer is satisfied. This plan naturally appeals and it is probably true that every farmer buys at least a part of his supplies from the medicine wagons.

The Pure Food Laws, both National and State, seem to have driven the old peddler of fake nostrums almost entirely out of the field and it is extremely doubtful if the old time long haired fakir could do enough business to keep body and soul together in any farming community today. The farmer demands the best goods because he has the money to pay for them and the medicine wagon salesmen are shrewd enough to realize the fact.
