

The County in General

The "Doings" of our Country Friends and Neighbors.

SHUBERT.

Grandma Wheeler, who has been quite ill, is now improving.

Dr. Shook and wife were the guests of country friends on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Shafer spent a few days last week at the Nemaha, fishing.

Mrs. Simpson of South Dakota visited relatives here the latter part of the week.

Misses Lena and Maggie Weick were the guests of the Misses Litz over Sunday.

Dr. Noreross and daughter of Miller, Neb., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Spearth.

Mrs. J. C. Shulenberg visited relatives near Falls City the greater part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fishburn entertained Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Slagle of Barada one day last week.

John Peterson and wife of Barada visited relatives and friends here the first of the week.

Clyde Hill came up from Salem on Saturday evening to spend Sunday with the home folks.

Warren Hutchings of Falls City visited his son and family here the latter part of last week.

John Evans and wife visited in the country with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richardson, on Sunday.

Mrs. F. M. Oathout, who has spent the past two weeks in St. Joe with home folks, returned home on Sunday.

Miss Priscilla Woodring of near Falls City, but who has just finished school at Barada, is visiting friends and relatives near here.

Our band boys gave an open air concert Saturday evening, which was attended by a large number of people. The boys are certainly coming to the front.

Miss Gladys Taylor, who was out horse-back riding during the week, was in some manner thrown from the horse, bruising her up quite badly. She is now doing nicely.

Miss Hattie Lilly, who has just finished a very successful term of school at Barada, left Monday for Colorado, where she will enjoy her vacation and spend the summer.

The greater number of our young people attended the social dance at the home of Otto Liske last Saturday, a few miles from town. A general good time was had by all.

Mr. Ebenezer Lundy, who passed away and was laid to rest at the Prairie Union cemetery on Friday, was the father of Mr. J. W. Lundy of this place. He and the family have the sympathy of the entire community.

Quite a number of people from near town gathered together last Sunday and started for the river near Salem, where the day was spent in fishing and roaming the banks. A general good time was enjoyed by all who went.

A large number of young people formed a party and started to the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Fishburn for the purpose of reminding Lois Downs of her twelfth birthday. A jolly good time was enjoyed by all present and nice refreshments were served.

Foley's Honey and Tar is especially recommended for chronic throat and lung troubles and many sufferers from bronchitis, asthma and consumption have found comfort and relief, by using Foley's Honey and Tar, Kerr's Pharmacy.

VERDON.

Ethel Cook is visiting friends near Straussville.

Born—To Joe Smith and wife on June 9th, a girl.

Sam Weddle was a county seat visitor Thursday.

Glen Gates visited George Morris at Falls City recently.

Walter Veach returned home from Omaha Friday evening.

Pearl Veach went to Auburn Friday to meet her husband.

Charlie Humphrey and wife were county seat visitors Friday.

Ed. Snell of Ohio township visited his parents here Saturday.

Ed. Gebhard and wife were shopping in Falls City last week.

Henry Bauer, wife and baby were county seat visitors recently.

Misses Ethel Sailors and Stella Johnson left Wednesday for Peru.

Will Otto shipped three cars of hogs to Nebraska City Wednesday.

Anna Fastnaw of Nebraska City was the guest of Mrs. Leefers last week.

Dave Griffith attended the postmasters' convention at Lincoln last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelley were transacting business at the county seat last week.

Marion Arnold, wife and daughter, Daisy, were shopping in Falls City last week.

Mrs. Immer has returned to her home in Washington, after visiting her parents here.

Van Sailors was on the market at Kansas City, Tuesday morning, with two cars of hogs.

Mr. and Mrs. Weddle, of Stella were the guests of their son, Sam, and wife Thursday.

James Wells and family were the guests of the former's parents near Straussville Sunday.

During the heavy storm last week the lightning struck the school house, but the damage was small.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hafley from northeast of Falls City, were guests of F. F. Dietrich and wife Monday.

Joe Smith and wife enjoyed a visit from their daughter and grandchildren of Nemaha City Sunday.

Miss Anna Fastnaw left Saturday morning for her home at Nebraska City, after a short stay with friends here.

James Ayers, Walter Veach, Joe Lewis and John and Charlie Weaver, with their families, went to Humboldt Sunday in their autos.

The ladies of the Congregational church served a dinner Monday for those who came from other towns to attend the insurance convention.

Last Sunday evening as Mr. Timmerman lit the gas lights in the Evangelical church they exploded. It took considerable work to get the tank out, in order to save the building. Little damage was done.

Sunday was Children's Day at the Evangelical church. A splendid program was prepared and a large crowd was in attendance. Sunday was also Children's Day at the Congregational church; the program was fine and quite a number were present to hear it.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Smith died Friday morning. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Garriss at the home in this city, and the remains were laid to rest in the Nebraska City cemetery. The family have the sympathy of the entire community.

STELLA.

Lucile Goodloe is recovering from diphtheria.

Lucile Harris is home for the summer, from the state university.

Chas. Allor was married to a lady at Chicago the first of the week.

Esburn Wheeler attended the state undertakers' convention at Omaha last week.

Miss Gladys Opperman of Kansas City is visiting her sister, Mrs. Andrews.

Miss Vera Gould went to Peru last week where she will attend summer school.

Howard Plaster is at home, after attending the state university during the past year.

Mr. Bowman arrived last week from Oklahoma and is living in the O'Brien house.

Miss Florence Nombalias went to Johnson last week to visit relatives for a couple of weeks.

Bert Harris came in from North Yankimo, Wash., last week and will visit with his parents for several weeks.

H. D. Weller was able to go to Omaha last week where he visited several days with his son, Ralph, and family.

Rev. C. N. Swihart and family, who have been visiting at the home of his parents, left for their home in Denver last Saturday.

Mrs. Nancy Stinecypher and son, Ezra, left last week for Anna, Ill., where they will visit about three weeks with her son, Isaac Crabtree.

Mrs. Weller and Jeanette went to Lincoln last week to attend commencement at the state university. Frank Weller was one of the graduates.

Mrs. C. T. Baldwin is visiting in Falls City with her daughter, Mrs. B. Simanton. She will stay until she recovers from her recent spell of rheumatism.

Postmaster Overman returned from Lincoln Thursday. He had been there to attend the state convention of postmasters. He is displaying several pictures of which he is very proud.

D. G. Palmer and wife left Tuesday for a months visit at their old home in Wisconsin. Their daughters, Misses Mayne and Bertha, left the same day to visit their brother, James, in Oklahoma.

Mrs. Richardson from Sabetha is visiting her brother, Jacob Hinkle, and wife. She will be here about a week, when she will go to Falls City to visit her niece's family, Mrs. Jesse Brown.

Children's Day was observed at the Lutheran church Sunday morning, and at the Baptist church in the evening. A large crowd was in attendance at both services and the little folks did fine, as is their usual habit.

Mrs. Ella Wallace, who has cooked at the Overman for several years, left for a visit to her old Kentucky home. She will be absent about a month. Mrs. Haggood will have charge of the cooking during her absence.

The union Sunday school picnic, which was to have been held Thursday of this week, has been postponed until Thursday of next week. It is hoped that every one will come and bring their dinner and have a good time.

Mrs. Marion Marts and children, after visiting a month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Curtis, left for their home at Liberal, Mo., last week. Her health had improved to the extent that she was able to make the trip alone.

Mrs. John Hunt of Parsons, Kas., visited her cousin, A. J. Baldwin, and family last week. It was the first time they had met for 43 years. She was on her way home from Bethany, where she had been attending commencement at Cotner. Her son, Ray, graduating as a Christian minister.

Colds that hang on weaken the constitution and develop into consumption. Foley's Honey and Tar cures persistent coughs that refuse to yield to other treatment. Do not experiment with untried remedies as delay may result in your cold settling on your lungs. Kerr's Pharmacy.

BARADA.

Miss Myrtle Wamsley is again very ill.

A. W. Nixon recently purchased a Stanley car.

J. H. Morehead was up from Falls City on Tuesday.

R. M. Williamson was very ill the fore part of the week.

Miss Ella Kuhlman is in Peru attending summer school.

Spickler Brothers this week purchased a car load of Maxwell autos.

Omer Sailors has a fine new White Steamer auto. He is agent for this machine.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gerdes were visiting their son, Conrad, and wife this week.

Frank Zimmerman is down from Lincoln, visiting his uncle, John Shortledge.

M. M. Hendricks and wife were entertained at the home of W. F. Butler on Sunday.

Mrs. J. A. Martin left Wednesday for an extended visit with relatives in western Colorado.

Mesdames Robert Reddick and Susie Williamson visited with Mrs. John Whittle, Monday.

Jessie Parsons has contracted to teach the Parson's school, district No. 80, for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Palmer spent Sunday with their grand-children, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Williamson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Martin and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Dunn were the guests of C. H. Martin and wife Sunday.

George Burgess was called to Lincoln, Iowa, by the death of his father-in-law. Mrs. Burgess was not able to go.

Mrs. T. E. Bloom and children of Odell, Neb., are visiting Mrs. Bloom's father, Jas. Stephenson, and her sister, Mrs. John Randall.

If not satisfied after using it according to directions two-thirds of a bottle of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, you can have your money back. The tablets cleanse and invigorate the stomach, improve the digestion, regulate the bowels. Give them a trial and get well. Sold by all druggists.

SALEM.

Charles Hinton was in Falls City Friday.

Clarence Miller was in Falls city Sunday.

Miss Lucy Gregory spent Sunday at home.

Miss Olive Tilden spent Saturday in Falls City.

Guy Sheeley spent Sunday with Verdon friends.

Mrs. George Shrimpton is among our sick people.

Mrs. Wren Barnes was shopping in Falls City, Tuesday.

Clarence Dingle is still quite ill at his home in this city.

Dean Windle was a Falls City visitor Saturday evening.

L. L. Kinsey of Dawson was a Salem visitor Tuesday.

Mrs. Thomas Mobley of Kansas City is visiting in Salem.

Miss Stella Carlisle returned to her school at Fremont, Friday.

Marion Arnold came over from Verdon Saturday evening.

Several cases of measles are reported in and around Salem.

Mrs. Oliver Jennings visited in Dawson Friday and Saturday.

Miss Nola McCool went to Peru

Tuesday to attend the summer school.

Mrs. Guy Dagget of Dawson visited friends in Salem this week.

Rev. A. O. Williams of Lincoln conducted services at Salem Sunday.

R. E. Grinstead was a business visitor in Humboldt the first of the week.

Merle Evans of Smithville, Kansas is visiting Mrs. Iva Meredith this week.

Miss Irene Spurlock attended the Wheeler wedding at Lincoln Tuesday.

Mrs. W. W. Spurlock was visiting friends and relatives in Falls City this week.

Oscar Rhodes of Falls City has been hired to teach at Catalpa Grove next year.

Henry Stitzer went to Falls City Tuesday and will be there most of the week.

Mrs. Andrew Ogden, who has been very ill for some time is much better this week.

Mrs. Charles Cook entertained a number of ladies at her home near Salem Tuesday.

Charles W. Roberts attended the postmasters' convention held in Lincoln last week.

George and Florence Saville came down from Peru and spent Sunday with home folks.

Mrs. Hamilton and daughter Nema returned home from Kansas after a visit to relatives.

D.C. Simmons and family spent Sunday in the country at the home of L. J. Hitchcock.

Florence Hull returned to her home in Verdon Sunday after several days spent at this place.

Miss Gertrude Norris of Table Rock visited Mrs. Glen Curtis in Salem Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Ralph Moore of Ainsworth, Nebraska is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stewart.

Mrs. M. L. Dowell and Miss Oaks visited the former's sister, Mrs. G. D. Knapp at Verdon Friday.

Miss Vera Mobley returned to Salem Tuesday, after a few weeks' visit with friends in Falls City.

Worth Metz of Falls City returned home Saturday after a visit to his grandparents, Joe Windle and wife.

The Salem Index has again changed hands, as Mr. Wickham has charge and Mr. Hill has gone to Dawson.

Children's day exercises were held at the Gospel Union church Sunday and a splendid program was rendered.

Miss Cecile Sheeley went to Lincoln this week to attend the commencement exercises at the state university.

Mrs. Lulu Paterson of Lincoln was called to Salem on account of the serious illness of her brother, Clarence Dingle.

Mrs. Alexander of St. Joseph was called to Salem this week by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. Odgen.

Stanley Crook, Virgil Grinstead, Joe Windle and Tom Carlisle spent Sunday in Peru. Enroute home they stopped in Falls City.

Miss Lila Spurlock returned Tuesday from Glenwood, Wisconsin, after spending some time there with her sister, Mrs. Frank Shrimpton.

Miss Cecil Pierson, who went to St. Joe a few weeks ago and underwent an operation, returned home this week much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Wertz of Lincoln are in Salem this week, being called here by the sickness and the death of her mother, Mrs. Charles Smith.

Mrs. W. H. Davis received the sad news, Wednesday of the death of her uncle, Whitney Trousdale. The deceased was well known to many of our readers.

"What Insurance Did for Melvina" will be played at the opera house again Friday night. The proceeds will go toward paying for the medical treatment for Mr. E. Davis, who has been sick for a long time.

FARGO.

Henry Volz spent Thursday with Philip Michel.

George Vaughn was a county seat visitor Saturday.

Maggie Mandeville spent Sunday with home folks.

Chris. Michel was a business caller here Saturday.

Henry Bauman spent Sunday at the home of Fred Scholl, sr.

Julius Zimmerman had some blacksmithing done here last week.

R. D. Waggoner purchased a load of corn from Leo Wintz Thursday.

Philip Michel purchased a load of hay from Coon Bertram last week.

Annie Bauman, Maggie and John Mandeville visited here Saturday.

Dan Waggoner and Morris Mandeville spent Sunday with Henry Gerlt.

William Bauman and son, Willie, were business callers here Thursday.

A dance was given at the Redman hall Friday evening. A good time is reported by all.

June Specials

FOR ECONOMICAL BUYERS

Every Wool Suit at Half Price

Only twelve Ladies' Wool Suits—new this season—left. These are all of staple, medium and dark colorings; styles suitable for year-round wear. First prices from $12.50 to $25.00. Until July these suits will be sold at half price. Alterations to be made by the customer. This cut puts good wool suits upon the basis of low grade cotton suits.

Cotton and Linen Suits and Skirts

The success of our Tub Suits has exceeded our highest expectations. The variety is excellent, including very attractive Natural Linens received during the last week. Prices from from $5.00 to $12.50, and all alterations made by us. Cotton and Linen Skirts at from $1.50 to $4.50. Ladies will find these exceedingly useful and economical. Our designs are in the newest styles and splendidly tailored.

The Largest Variety of Shirt Waists

Ever shown in Falls City is now in our waist section. Prices range from 75c to $6.00. We are especially strong at from $1.50 to $2.50. All sizes from 32 to 46 in stock in most of our styles.

Rug Bargains to Close

We have just a few large Rugs which we wish to close out before our new fall stock comes in. These rugs are offered at less than manufacturer's prices and at a loss to us. The saving is so manifest that you will find it to your interest to buy at this time.

- One 9 x 12 foot Smyrna Rug, former price $20.00, closing price $12.50
- One 9 x 12 foot Smyrna Rug, former price $25.00, closing price $15.00
- Two 9 x 12 foot Velvet Rugs, former price $25.00, closing price $16.00
- Two 9 x 12 foot Axminster Rugs, former price 25.00, closing price $15.00
- Eight 9 x 12 foot Union Art Squares, price $6.00, closing price $5.00.
- Five 9 x 12 foot Smyrna Art Squares, former price $1.35, closing price 95c

Special prices on 20 small size Rugs, especially suitable to place around larger rugs. Among these are all sizes, 18x24 in. to 4x7 ft.

Ten Per Cent Off From All Straw Mattings

Having more Straw Mattings than we wish at this time in the season we give a discount of ten per cent from our regular prices on all Mattings until July 1st.

Trunks and Hand Bags

When you are preparing for your summer trip, remember that we carry a full line of Trunks and Hand Bags.

V. G. LYFORD

R. B. SIMPSON, Jeweler