War has been declared at Auburn between the mayor and the game warden. Controversy arises over determination of the city authorities of that place to exterminate the squirrels. ### Sold the Old Home.

Some thirty-six years ago our time honored friend, Joseph Glasser, and his estimable young wife arrived at Humboldt and located close to what was then known as the Sopher mill. This was the first home, where the children of this union came to them and were reared to maturity. Here is where the faithful helpmate continued to reign as queen until called a couple of years ago to that higher mansion.

Is it a wonder then that Uncle Joe's voice trembled and signs of emotion were visible, when he remarked to us Wednesday: "I have sold the home." What sacred memories cluster about the place, where thirty-six years ago he led his bride to the open door and together they called it home.

His companion gone, his own sun drawing close to the western horizon, did it not take a heroic effort to place the signature to an instrument conveying his "holy of holies" to the hands of strangers? We venture the assertion that the perfect penmanship our friend is known to possess, at this instance assumed a scrawl.

WILLIAM EDMOND ALLEN.

Died at His Home in Salem, Neb. June 15, 1909.

William Redmond Allen was born March 27, 1836, in Andrew county, Missouri. He died at his home in Salem, Nebraska, at 3:00 p. m., June 15, 1909, being a little past 73 years of age.

He was married in Fillmore, Missouri, to Miss Carrie Kennison, June 20, 1861, leaving soon afterward for the army, where he served on the Southern side for four years.

He has lived in Salem ever since the war, with the exception of one year spent in Texas.

Of eight children, three died in infancy and one son, Will, died eight years ago in Salem. Mrs. Allen died three years ago.

There are left to mourn the loss of a kind and devoted father, four daughters: Miss Ada Allen; Mrs. Minnie Rogers, Topeka, Kas.; Mrs. Nannie Timmerman, Wymore, Neb.; and Mrs. Alvira Hunt, Davenport, Iowa.

Two years ago "Uncle Red," as he was called by nearly all of Salem, had a wrist severely cut and sustained a shock from which he never fully recovered. He gradually lost strength and became very feeble, but did not give up until last Christmas, since which time he has been confined entirely to his bed.

Through long weary months of his sickness he has suffered intensely at times, but his patience and cheerfulness never varied. He had a cheery greeting and a smile for everyone and was never in too great pain to express appreciation of even the most trivial service in his behalf.

He was never identified with any church, but in conversation with his daughters since his illness began, he gave complete evidence that it was well with his soul, and he spoke of leaving them only to join their mother in heaven.

Surely, no one who was with him can doubt the source of the strength that helped him to bear cheerfully, as a child of God, the long, trying illness, and the attacks of severe pain.

His bearing of the last week of suffering, absolutely without complaint, thinking always of the comfort of others, was one unquestioned loving service to the Master, whom he had accepted as his own.

His life of unselfish devotion to his family will always be remembered by his daughters, who cared for him in his last illness with an untiring love that was beautiful to witness.

Only those who were frequently in the home have any idea of the unusual tenderness and devoted love of the daughters, whose hearts are now so sorely bereft.

The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the faithful and sorrowing family.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. F. E. Day of Falls City, from the Christian church, Thursday, June 17, at 2:30. Interment at Maple cemetery. ***

Men Past Fifty in Danger

Men past middle life have found comfort and relief in Foley's Kidney Remedy, especially for enlarged prostate gland, which is very common among elderly men. L. E. Morris, Dexter, Ky., writes: "Up to a year ago my father suffered from kidney and bladder trouble and several physicians pronounced it enlargement of the prostate gland and advised an operation. On account of his age we were afraid he could not stand it and I recommended Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the first bottle relieved him, and after taking the second bottle he was no longer troubled with this complaint." ### A BOOSTER'S PLEDGE.

A Pledge That Will Work Wonders if Strictly Adhered to

The following article was handed in to The Tribune by one of Falls City's enterprising citizens and the spirit of it is so appropriate that it is commended to the careful consideration of every man that holds at heart the prosperity of his town:

On my word and honor, I hereby now declare that as long as I am a resident of this community, it will be my constant aim to boost all of the time and every time.

I will do what I can for any public work that has the good of the community as its object.

I will submit and abide by majority rule and will not knock and howl my head off if things are not done my way.

I will take no radical or extreme position on any question before the people, and will have due respect for the opinions of my friends and neighbors when their opinions are opposed to mine.

I will always try to say something good about my town and my people, or I'll keep my "bazoo" shut, and "cut-it-out" like a man.

I realize that if this community is good enough to live in and make my money in, it is the proper place to spend my money in, especially when I am patronizing legitimate industries.

I will do all within my power to foster, promote, build up and support every legitimate industry or enterprise in my home town.
