The Heroic Life.

Know that "Impossible," where truth and mercy and the everlasting voice of nature order, has no place in the brave man's dictionary. That when all men have said "Impossible," and tumbled noisily elsewhere, and thou alone art left, then first thy name and possibility have come. It is for thee now; do thou that, and ask no man's counsel, but thy own and God's.—Thomas Carlyle.

A Watch for the Blind.

The blind now have a watch on which the hours are indicated by movable buttons on relief upon the dial. The wearer finds the time by passing his hand over the dial and finds the button indicating the hour depressed. A strong minute hand shows the minutes.

Severe on Brother Lawyers.

One old member of the New York bar, who has long been in touch with legal methods and proceedings, says wonders why a certificate of good character is required before a man is admitted to practice.
