CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

THE FOLLOWING SERVICES WILL BE HELD SUNDAY

These Notices are Prepared and Handed in By the Local Ministers

As Independence day comes on Sunday this year the churches will unite in a grand patriotic service in the city auditorium Sunday evening, beginning at 8 o'clock sharp. Good music has been arranged; solos will be rendered by Miss Una Sadow and Miss Edna Crook. The splendid chorus, and also the orchestra so helpful during the Lockhart-Lamb meetings will assist. A stirring patriotic sermon will be preached by Rev. R. C. Bailey. The members of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. will attend in a body. Let everyone who loves his country and those who do not love it enough come out and show by your presence and interest that you are devoted to "The Land of the Free and the Home of the Brave."

The Sunday night service at St. Thomas church will be discontinued until September. The Holy Communion will be celebrated every Sunday morning at 7:30, morning prayer and sermon at 9:45 and Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Next Sunday there will be a full choral celebration of the Eucharist at 10:45.

The Right Rev. Arthur L. Williams, D. D., L. L. D., Bishop of Nebraska, at the request of the rector of St. Thomas church made a special visit last Thursday and confirmed a class of adults who had for some time been under instruction for the reception of sacred rites. In spite of the hot night the church was filled with a reverent, interested congregation. The Bishop's sermon was from the text, "Ye cannot serve God and Mammon." Those who received the laying on of hands, were Dr. D. G. Griffith, Mrs. Nora Griffith, Stephen Little, Mrs. Lilly Little, Mrs. Jennie Ewald, Mrs. Phoebe Gault, Reuben Horrocks, August Ruzogge and William Redwood.

Counting in Golf.

A French caddy said that the English way of counting from one to ten was "one, two, three, four, five, six, d—n, eight,—d—n, ten."

SENSIBLE MR. COBURN.

F. D. Coburn, of whom the state of Kansas is justly proud, and who, by the way, has gained a national reputation for "turning down" a seat in the United States senate, recently took his degree at Baker University, but when it came to donning the gown and cap, F. D. said, "nay, no gown and cap for me," and he took his degree bareheaded and dressed in the simple garb of an American gentleman, "Bully" for Coburn. Men of his stamp are reformers without trying to be reformers—they simply do the sensible thing, which invariably helps to sound the death knell to any foolish custom, no matter if handed down from Oxford. Hold others or any other hoary old seat of learning. Where cap and gown abide, there also should be cap and bells. Both are of the long ago; both are un-American. By all means Coburnize the custom, then embark it.

Mrs. Russell Sage has planned to give away $65,000,000 during the next five years—not throw it into the air for promiscuous distribution, of course, but apply it to humanity through a scheme for insuring the lives of working men without profit. This, coupled with the fact that she gave away nearly fourteen millions last year, calls forth a faint blessing upon the memory of the man who squeezed and hoarded for a lifetime at the expense of and without mercy upon his fellow man, in order to amass this fortune. True, Russell made and accumulated these millions, but it is difficult, very difficult, to imagine Russell fingering the strings of a harp.
