

The County in General

The "Doings" of our Country Friends and Neighbors.

STELLA.

Earl Bruckett of Omaha is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hays.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edwards last week.

Miss Irene Troxel of Atchison, Kas. is visiting Miss Hazel Hogrefe.

Mrs. E. Withee and little son are afflicted with the whooping cough.

Miss Vera Gould came home from Peru Friday to spend the Fourth with her parents.

I. W. Harris left for Canada, Tuesday, where he will look after some land interests.

Byral Baldwin went to Auburn Sunday to spend the week with her friend Blanch Lippold.

Quite a number of our people celebrated at Dawson Saturday and all report having had a fine time.

J. M. Goodloe drove to Salem last week with his sister and nieces, who had been here from Kansas.

Mrs. Fred Stringfield and son Kenneth of Verdon spent the Fourth with her mother, Mrs. McCullough at this place.

Dr. and Mrs. Milroy and daughter, Katherine of Omaha visited their daughter, Mrs. H. M. Hays over the Fourth.

Miss Verda Timmerman has been quite sick with pleurisy for several days, Mrs. Palmer is filling her place at "Central."

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wood have their daughter and her two little girls from near Ottawa, Kansas, visiting them this week.

Miss Eunice Haskins and her mother, who have been visiting in Oklahoma with the Shrader families for the past two weeks returned home Sunday.

The new steel flag pole arrived Saturday and Tuesday afternoon the soldier boys raised it, and at five o'clock raised the flag with their services and flag salute.

Mrs. J. L. Hays and daughter, Nevada left last Saturday for Seattle. They will go from there to Los Angeles, California, and will perhaps be gone a year.

Rev. Wright of Long Beach, Calif., was visiting old Stella friends several days last week. He was pastor of the Christian church at this place eight years ago.

The body of Frank Furrow was brought here Saturday from Humboldt, for burial. His wife died about three years ago and was buried at Prairie Union.

Mr. Walker and son Troy returned from their trip in the northwest Monday. They visited at Billings, Portland and Seattle and many other points of interest.

Frank Wolf came up from Willis, Kansas Sunday and begun work in Hogrefe's store Monday. He will move his family here as soon as a suitable house can be secured.

Joseph Cullen of Verdon visited Mr. Vandeverter, Wednesday. He is making arrangements to go to Caldwell, Idaho, the 13th of July and wants Mr. Vandeverter and family to accompany him.

J. M. Goodloe and family took dinner with relatives at Verdon Sunday and in the afternoon witnessed the unveiling of the monument of Mrs. Goodloe's father, Mr. Goolsby, at Maple Grove.

Joseph Curtis of Lincoln came down Saturday evening to celebrate with his wife and baby at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Shafer, where she had been visiting for a couple of weeks.

C. H. Thomas, wife and daughter are here from Lincoln visiting relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas will stay but a few days but Miss Fairy will remain all summer and take elocution of Mrs. A. W. Montgomery.

Mrs. Josie Ulmer Tusley of Galveston, Texas visited Stella relatives and friends several days the first of the week. She had been in Omaha for a month with her mother, who has been in very poor health suffering with rheumatism. She returned to her home Wednesday.

The "soldier boys" of Ft. Omaha arrived in town about four o'clock Monday evening, and the ladies of the town and surrounding country had prepared a supper for them in the building belonging to Mrs. Andrews. After supper they gave a drill rehearsal on Main street but on account of so small space, could not use their horses. The drill was exceptionally fine and very much enjoyed by everyone. On account of the heavy rain they were obliged to camp here for several days and were housed in the opera house.

Many people with chronic throat and lung trouble have found comfort and relief in Foley's Honey and Tar as it cures stubborn coughs after other treatment has failed. L. M. Ruggles, Reasnor, Iowa, writes: "The doctors said I had consumption, and I got no better until I took Foley's Honey and Tar. It stopped the hemorrhages and pain in my lungs and they are now as sound as a bullet."

RULO.

Olle Thompson was a Rulo visitor Sunday.

Charles Scott of Kansas was a Rulo visitor last week.

Lesley Inks was a Falls City visitor one day last week.

Grant O'camb was a St. Joseph visitor one day last week.

Mrs. Wells went to Missouri last week to visit relatives.

Granama Anderson spent Friday with friends at Reserve.

John Caverzagie was a St. Joseph visitor one day last week.

Mrs. Will Love and sister drove to Falls City last Thursday.

Mrs. Mary Plumb of Lee Summit is visiting relatives at Rulo.

Ruth Harris returned from a visit with relatives in St. Joe.

Ella Carpenter went to Kansas last Thursday for a few days visit.

Lemmon Butrick went to Preston J. A. Osburn was a business visitor in St. Joe the last of the week.

Howard Maze came down from Dawson Saturday to visit Rulo friends.

Alice Gilbert came home from Peru to spend a few days with home folks.

Leonard Simons of Preston visited with his parents the last of the week.

Lenora Gilbert accompanied Mrs. Plumb home to spend a week or so.

Bertha Robison of Soldier, Kansas is visiting her brother Frank and wife George Deltz and wife of Hastings visited with Rulo relatives last week.

Mac Vastine came the last of the week to spend the Fourth with home folks.

Clarence Simons and wife came over from Missouri and visited relatives.

Cecil Kanaly left Saturday for a visit with friends in Auburn and other points.

F. E. Kulp of Wymore was a business visitor here the first of the week.

Mrs. John Pierson and family of Salem are visiting relatives here this week.

C. J. Majors and James Tangney were Falls City visitors one day last week.

Mrs. J. M. Pope departed Tuesday for Spokane, Washington to visit relatives.

Jim Lord and Miss Pope were quietly married in Falls City one day last week.

Mrs. Arthur Darveau and children visited her mother near Salem last week.

Clayton Reynolds of Dawson came down Sunday evening to visit with friends.

Al Kent and Si Bunker of Missouri were Rulo visitors the last of the week.

Stella Butrick of Fortescue came the last of the week to visit her grandparents.

Anna Mahon left the first of the week to visit her sister at Billings, Montana.

Frank Chaney and two daughters of Missouri were Rulo visitors one day last week.

Mrs. Less Leeds and children of Falls City visited her parents in this city recently.

day night to meet his daughter, Alta who came home to spend the Fourth.

Adam Biekle and wife and Lewis Thomas and wife spent Sunday with the family of Coon Thomas in this city.

Henry Brinegar and wife returned to Kansas City the first of the week where Henry will be in the hospital for another month.

The M. E. church was dedicated Sunday night, enough money being raised Sunday morning and afternoon to pay the indebtedness.

Ella Zeigler arrived from Bloomington Sunday evening. She has been very sick and hopes the home-coming will be a benefit to her health.

Mary, Anna and Raymond Thayer of Leavenworth came last week to spend the rest of the summer with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Winterbottom.

Band concert and carnival Saturday evening was Rulo's celebration this year. However, there was plenty of noise from the fire-works for several days.

Mrs. Whalen took her daughter, Helen to St. Joseph to the hospital Saturday morning. She has been sick for a long time and it is hoped that an operation will bring relief.

A family reunion was held for Grandpa Foutz at the home of Lewis Jones Sunday. Those from a distance were: A. F. Wayne and family of St. Joseph, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Pauley, Papillon, Neb., Tony Tretschlon and family and Herman Kloepfel and family of Rulo.

Dolph Pierce lost one of his fingers at Atchison last week in a very peculiar manner. He started to jump off of a car, and a ring he was wearing caught on a door latch, leaving his finger hanging from the second joint by a small piece of skin. A physician dressed the injured member and he was sent home.

Mrs. Caverzagies' children and the neighbors dropped in on her Tuesday to remind her that it was her 60th birthday. A bounteous dinner was provided. She received several useful and valuable presents. All departed in the evening feeling that such a gathering make all who attend feel years younger and that life is worth much more.

A crowd of jolly young folks chartered a farm wagon Monday night and went out to Will Stone's, where they proceeded to spend a pleasant evening. They were delayed by the storm, having to stop on their way out, and although they arrived late they made up in good times for the lost hours on the roadside. Dancing and cards were the amusements. A dainty lunch was served. At a late hour they departed for home.

SHUBERT.

Rev. R. R. Teeter of Falls City visited here Wednesday.

Elmer Else and wife visited Falls City the first of last week.

Guy Hutchings visited at his home in Falls City the first of the week.

Miss Maud Berns of Nemaha is in our city visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. Ahern and daughter were shopping in Falls City the first of the week. H. E. Williams and wife entertained friends from Nemaha over Sunday.

Charles Gaston and family visited relatives in the country quite recently.

Supt. T. J. Oliver of Falls City was a pleasant caller at this place Tuesday.

Fred Boatman and wife entertained relatives from Barada one day during the week.

Mrs. E. D. King, who has been in poor health for some time is slowly improving.

Mr. Herman returned home Monday from his visit with home-folks at Carroll, Iowa.

Charles Schulenberg and wife were the guests of relatives at the county seat Wednesday.

Grandma Evans enjoyed the greater part of last week with her son and his family at Auburn.

Lawrence Smith of Omaha is here enjoying a visit with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Graham.

The Misses Effie Spickler, Clara Ruch, and McClain went to Lincoln Tuesday, where they were sent by the Epworth League of this place to act as delegates at the convention.

The Womans' Literary club met at the home of Mrs. Roy King Saturday afternoon. A splendid time was enjoyed by all present and nice refreshments were served.

Several members of the W. O. W. lodge here joined the Verdon camp last Sunday for the purpose of unveiling a monument at Maple Grove, there the first of the week.

Rev. Sapp and wife were the guests of friends here Saturday night, returning home at Nemaha on Sunday. While here Mr. Sapp preached two very interesting sermons at the Christian church.

Mrs. F. M. Kinton was entertained at dinner on Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Daniels.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Colglazier were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Colglazier near Verdon Sunday.

VERDON.

Mrs. Daugherty was on the sick list last week.

John Dillon is working on a farm near Shubert.

Mr. McMannas of Falls City was in town Saturday.

George Fallstead of the county seat was in town Friday.

Will Cook was a Falls City visitor Saturday and Sunday.

Mike Meliza and family were shopping in Falls City Friday.

Lloyd Dietrich returned Tuesday from a short visit in Auburn.

Emmerson Bowers shipped six cars of cattle the first of the week.

A large crowd was in Verdon Saturday night to see the fire-works.

George Hall attended the meeting of the I. O. O. F. at Falls City last week.

Mrs. Eliza Goolsby and little, grand son, Orville McDermet left Friday for Salem.

Mrs. B. F. Veach left Tuesday for Falls City to visit her niece, Mrs. Arthur Harris.

Grandma Patterson who has been very ill is improving very nicely at this writing.

The Misses Swartz of Lewisville, Nebraska are visiting George Stump and family.

Martha King returned home from Falls City Sunday. She had been visiting friends.

Mable Auxier returned home from Straussville Saturday after a few days visit with relatives.

Charles Smith left Saturday morning for Nemaha City to visit his sister for a few days.

Several from here attended the unveiling of Mr. Goolsby's monument at Maple Grove Sunday.

Rev. Garriss returned home last week from Omaha and reports his son Ralph slowly improving.

Mrs. Grace Saylor and son Herald returned from Falls City, where they have been visiting relatives.

Mrs. Garriss and son Russel left Wednesday morning for Omaha to be at the bedside of Ralph Russell.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Daugherty was quite ill last week but is some better at this writing.

C. M. Heintzelman's new house is almost complete. When it is finished it will be one of the finest in Verdon.

Millard Goodloe and wife of Stella attended the unveiling of the monument of Ap Goolsby at Maple Grove Sunday afternoon.

Miss Pearl Cunningham left Wednesday for St. Joseph, where she will take her position as nurse, after a two weeks' visit with relatives at this place.

Walter Veach, John Hall and Jas. Ayers went to Falls City last week and brought home their automobiles they had been obliged to leave there on account of the heavy rain.

Duard Corn, Walter Veach, Jas. Ayers and their wives and John Hall, Mrs. B. F. Veach, and the Misses Susie Hart and Verna Wilkinson attended the celebration at Dawson Saturday.

Wes Stump sold his buggy shop to Will Otto and his interest in the hardware store to Nelson Timmerman. For many years the hardware firm has been under the name of Stump & Timmerman, and the business people of Verdon are sorry to lose him from their circle.

Everyone would be benefitted by taking Foley's Orino Laxative for stomach and liver trouble and habitual constipation. It sweetens the stomach and breath, gently stimulates the liver and regulates the bowels. It is much superior to pills and ordinary laxatives. Why not try Foley's Orino Laxatives today? Kerr's Pharmacy.

HUMBOLDT.

Mason Shertleff is again able to be about the streets.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Bash visited in Pawnee City this week.

Frank Dorian accompanied his wife and son to their home in Peru.

W. J. Bean of Lincoln was on our streets several days this week.

Mrs. John Powers and mother, Mrs. Reid were Beatrice visitors this week.

Mrs. Roscoe Anderson and baby are visiting in Tecumseh this week.

M. W. Truxan of Riverside, Iowa was in the city several days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Honor Beaver and children of Stella were in Humboldt Friday.

Minnie Vanover is a pleasant guest at the home of her friend, Miss Nora Stalder.

Several of our girls who are going to school in Peru were home for the Fourth.

Quit a number of Humboldt people attended the celebration in Pawnee Saturday.

The Humboldt band furnished the music for the Johnson celebration Saturday.

Dr. Mary Bowers of Pawnee City made a professional trip to Humboldt this week.

badly burned Friday by a sky-rocket exploding in his hand.

Mrs. S. M. Philpot left Saturday to visit her husband, who is employed in a hospital in St. Joseph.

A reunion of the Boss and Chaffin families was held at the home of Frank Boss and family Sunday.

R. B. Colhapp from Tecumseh was the guest of his son, E. C. Colhapp and family a few days this week.

Mary Gandy and H. Seely visited at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. Noble in Lincoln this week.

Miss Daisy Morris returned Saturday from Dawson, where she had been visiting her sister, Mrs. Alexander.

The ball game between the Topoka giants and Humboldt resulted with a score of 1 to 12 in favor of the "giants."

A fourteen pound son was born to Jim McDougal and wife, who are now living in Canada, but formerly living in Humboldt.

The families of Charles Goddard and John Youngman accompanied by Gladys Boyd and Hazel Snethen drove to Dawson Friday.

Horace Chapman, one of the prosperous farmers near Humboldt, recently bought a 240-acre piece of land in Oklahoma and expects to move there next spring.

The annual overflow of the Nemaha has again taken place, causing great destruction to growing crops, and other property, and much discomfort to those residing on the low lands.

Rob Traverse came down to Humboldt Thursday from Lincoln and after remaining a few days accompanied his wife and son, who have been visiting for some time at the home of Mrs. Cooper, to Lincoln.

The world's most successful medicine for bowel complaints is Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It has relieved more pain and suffering, and saved more lives than any other medicine in use. Invaluable for children and adults. Sold by all druggists.

BARADA.

Wash Sailors was a Shubert visitor Saturday.

Fred Stotts of Shubert was in Barada Saturday.

W. S. McGowen of Stella was visited by Jesse B. Cox attended the celebration at Peru Monday.

Rev. Zike Jr., will preach Sunday morning at the Bethel church.

George Fögle of Verdon was in this section one day last week.

Miss Rose Slagle of Hubbell, Neb., is visiting relatives in this vicinity.

Grandma Orr had the misfortune to lose her fine $200.00 driving horse.

Leon Vasser and wife were guests of R. N. Williamson and wife Sunday.

Harry Merideth of Colum, Ill., is visiting his uncles, George and D. E. Burgess.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Spickler and Miss Vera Shafer celebrated at Sun Springs Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Martin and son, Melvin were guests of E. E. Butler and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Spickler, Gus and Myrtle Elam and J. A. Martin spent Sunday at W. E. Slagles.

A crowd of Barada young people went down to Barber lake Saturday and spent the day boating. They report a fine time.

Byron Dunn, who has been working in a bank at Bethany, came down to spend several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Dunn.

A. W. Nixon and family and Omer Sailors, Otis Spickler and Neil Pier-sol attended the auto races at Dawson Saturday.

The Misses Timmons, who have been visiting relatives in this vicinity for some time returned to their home at Versailles, Ill., the latter part of last week. Mrs. Ollie Kuker and children accompanied them as far as Hannibal, Mo., where they will visit friends for a few days.

When the stomach fails to perform its functions, the bowels become deranged, the liver and the kidneys congested causing numerous diseases. The stomach and liver must be restored to a healthy condition and Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets can be depended upon to do it. Easy to take and most effective. Sold by all druggists.

CHICHESTER'S PILLS

DIAMOND BRAND
Beware of Counterfeits. Refuse all Substitutes.
LADIES!
Ask your Druggist for CHICHESTER'S DIAMOND BRAND PILLS in RED and GOLD metallic boxes, sealed with Blue Ribbon. TAKE NO OTHER. Buy of your Druggist and ask for CHICHESTER'S DIAMOND BRAND PILLS, for twenty-five years regarded as Best, Safest, Always Reliable.
SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS
TIME TRIED EVERYWHERE WORTH TESTED

SALEM.

John Stitzer was in Salem Monday. Mr. Boyd was a Humboldt visitor Monday.

Stanley Crook went to Lincoln Wednesday morning.

J. F. Richardson of Lincoln was in Salem Wednesday.

Miss Cecil Sheeley was in Falls City between trains Tuesday.

Jesse Arlington went to Oneida, Kansas to spend the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Web Tyree and Jessie were down from Dawson Thursday.

Deck Wade of Sedam, Kansas was visiting friends in Salem last week.

Mrs. Clarence Miller and son John are spending several days in St. Joe.

Mrs. L. Barnes and Mrs. L. Q. Staver were in Falls City Friday.

Harry Wills purchased a fine new carriage of W. C. McCool & Son last week.

Mrs. Mary Kershaw is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lon Nobley this week.

W. A. Kelly of Lincoln spent Sunday and Monday at the home of G. W. Sheely.

Lee McDermet of Hot Springs Ark., is at home for a visit with his father and family.

Virgil Grinstead was in Lincoln Wednesday taking a cream testers examination.

John Lichty of Falls City was in Salem Thursday looking after chautauqu interests.

J. O. Horton and sons are unloading a new engine and separator preparatory to threshing.

Mrs. John Pearson and children went to Rulo Saturday to spend a week with relatives.

Mrs. J. M. Pollard returned home Friday from an extended visit with relatives at Nehawka.

One of Joe Windle's driving horses was badly cut Thursday by falling over a cycle in the hay field.

Mrs. D. C. Simmons and son went to Peru on Monday to spend the day and to attend the big celebration.

George Russell, formerly of Salem was in town Monday. He reports crops fine in his section of the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Shildneck left Monday night for Seattle. They expect to spend some time in and about Seattle.

The big traction gasoline engine has arrived. It will be used to haul coal in four big wagons to the big dredge boats.

The big dredge boat is expected to begin work some time this week. They are just now putting the dipper crane in working order.

Will Gentry purchased a gasoline engine to have it connected with his binder. This will shorten the time in which it takes to cut his wheat and oats.

W. T. Fenton and L. C. Edwards were up from Falls City Thursday, shaking hands with old friends and making new ones, looking toward the fall election.

Mrs. H. Q. Staver and daughter, Miss Lena left Sunday for Seattle. They will spend some time at the exposition and visiting Mrs. Staver's daughter, Mrs. Vincent.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Emmert, Hazel Grinstead and Ruby Stouffer drove to Humboldt in the former's auto on Thursday evening. Clyde Lynn returned home with them.

If people with symptoms of kidney and bladder trouble could realize their danger they would without loss of time commence taking Foley's Remedy. This great remedy stops the pain and irregularities, strengthens and builds up these organs and there is no danger of Bright's disease or other serious disorder. Do not disregard the early symptoms. Kerr's Pharmacy.

Don't forget the little folks 4th of July

They have two days to celebrate this year. We've got things they WANT at our store. Call and look them over and make your selections early.

McMillan's Pharmacy

Opposite Postoffice Falls City, Neb.