As usual, Richardson county will produce a "bumper" crop. The tiller of the soil these days more than smiles—he chortles.

At Stella there is an epidemic prevailing that is reducing the number of felines in that town at a gratifying ratio. Stella always was a lucky burg.

Lincoln merchants are offering to pay railroad fare to persons who go from Tecumseh to that city to trade. There is a way for Tecumseh merchants to beat that game—just one way. Double your advertising space in the local papers.

The ballots to be used at the approaching primaries are certainly entitled to the name they bear—"blanket ballot." They are 2 feet 4 1/2 inches wide and 9 inches long, and will contain the names of all the candidates of the different parties.

Albert Fritz, a farmer living near Wilbur, was found guilty of offering for sale rotten eggs to a Wilbur merchant and fined $25 and costs by a justice. Any man who ever broke open an aged or decayed egg can appreciate and applaud this bit of news. Swat the vender of rotten eggs.

Twenty years ago rural free mail delivery was regarded as visionary and impractical, an iridescent dream, but the American people now annually pay $35,000,000 for the service on 40,000 routes. In less than a double decade in the future, no doubt, there will be 100,000 routes, costing $100,000,000.

It will be well for hotel men to remember that the law calling for nine-foot sheets is in effect. It's a law now, remember, and not a joke; or speaking more correctly, it is a joke, but at the same time it is a law. You can crack your joke about it, but see that your sheets are nine feet long.

A year ago Alfonso of Spain appeared to be one of the most popular of European sovereigns. Now a revolt has arisen that will tilt the monarchy severely to put down. Rumors are that the Carlist party is about to awaken, and that Alejandro Leroux, powerful in Spanish labor circles, is on his way to Spain from Brazil to place himself at the head of the revolution.

Up in Cass county it is the proper thing for candidates when announcing themselves, to accompany the announcement with a cut of some kind, showing how they look. Portraits are deceiving. A man with side whiskers might be all right after all, and the clean-shaved, good-looking aspirant might be all wrong. But it is said that all candidates are good men in Cass county.

Twenty-four murders and forty-five suicides was Chicago's harvest for the month of June, and for the month of July thirty-seven suicides and twelve murders, due in a measure, so declares the city coroner, to the excessive heat. It is too late now and possibly irrelevant to inquire what condition these poor victims were in to combat and withstand the heat? What did they eat, and what did they drink?

It takes the American woman to do the sensible thing in an emergency. Recently King Edward choked upon a piece of fried tripe while dining aboard the royal yacht. He grew purple in the face, so the special cables tell us, causing much alarm among the guests. An American lady present proceeded to thump his majesty upon the back, releasing the tripe. "Hands Across the Sea"—sing, ye terriers, sing.

Mrs. Annie Besant, head of the Theosophists, arrived in this country last week from India and will proceed to "clean up" a few shekels from adherents to that cult and that class who are eternally experimenting with a new belief. Miss Besant says that Christ is soon to come again, the time depending upon occult forces. It is needless to say that Annie charges a modest admission fee to her lectures, and is drawing crowded houses.

WHO'S WHO.

There are so many candidates for Supreme judge, and so little general information concerning their qualifications that the Tribune takes the liberty of saying a word about some of the candidates to be voted for at the primary election next Tuesday.

All of the eight candidates are excellent men, but you can vote for but three. Out of the eight it is universally conceded that the following four are by experience, education and temperament preeminently qualified, namely, Samuel H. Sedgwick, John B. Barnes, Edward R. Duffie and Jacob Fawcett. A vote for any three of these four will be a vote for the best interest of the republican party; for the best interest of any party is served by the election of honest and capable men.

WAR, AND RUMORS OF WAR!

Things are not working as smoothly as they might with the democratic machine.

It is oiled all right, all right, and the half dozen Falls City engineers who met at the National hotel one night and chose the ticket for the rest of the county to support are at the steering gear. But the engine is about to go dead with the gasoline tank full.

The first term fellows, (and the first term fellows don't count with the machine, are kicking up a row about chine,) are kicking up a row about that Gagnon, for instance, who has been county judge for eight years and now wants to make it ten, is liable to hurt the whole ticket, and they are quietly knitting him for James. The machine has just heard the jar and the first term fellows have been disciplined within the past few days. In the meantime the oligarchy of office holders goes merrily on its way. They won't jar loose, and the "big bugs" of Falls City will see to it that the lesser fry throughout the county do as they are told.

In the meantime what a picnic for the republicans.

If the republicans don't win this fall with all the third, fourth and fifth terms against them, the party should give it up. Of course it is a little early to predict who will be nominated on the several tickets, but the Falls City machine has dictated the offices for a long time and it is reasonable to suppose that their efforts will again be rewarded this year.

THE NEW PRIMARY LAW.

Under the provisions of the new primary law there will be but one ballot, upon which the names of all candidates will appear under the party heading with which they affiliate and from whom they seek nomination.

You cannot vote a part of two tickets. Don't forget this, as an attempt to do so will invalidate your ballot. For example, you cannot vote for a candidate for county treasurer on the republican ticket and a candidate for recorder on the democratic ticket.

You may, however, write in the name of a candidate for any office of the party you vote for and vote for the same by making a cross in the square, the same as at general election.

- "Of all glad words of pen or tongue, the gladdest are these — I saved when young."
- "The greatest pay streak is the saving streak."
- "A dollar in the bank does you more good than a hundred spent."

L. C. EDWARDS.

An Announcement.

I desire to announce to the voters of Richardson county that I am a candidate for the Democratic nomination for County Treasurer at the primary election. It has been my pleasure to serve the public in a county office for a few years and this experience and acquaintance with the county affairs will enable me to administer the affairs of the office more efficiently.

If I am given the nomination I earnestly ask the support of all voters, at the November election, irrespective of party and I pledge myself to serve the tax payers of this county in a faithful and accommodating manner. Yours respectfully,

JOHN H. HUTCHINGS.

County Clerk.

My friends having persuaded me to allow my name to be placed on the primary ballot as a candidate for the office of County Clerk on the republican ticket, I take this method of introducing myself to those in the county who are not already acquainted with me.

In case I am elected to the office, I promise to do my very best to please the public and to do the office justice.

ROY W. DAGGETT.

For Supreme Judge.

As qualifications for a position on the supreme bench I urge the following:

I have been a practicing lawyer 22 years. During that period have given my whole time to a systematic study of the law.

I am the author of the "Law of Replevin" and the "Law of Chattel Mortgages." Two text books accepted as authority wherever the English language is used in the courts. A number of smaller works and articles in Law magazines and journals.

I have made the "Annotated Statutes of Nebraska" a model which other statute makers are following.

Last year I prepared a complete new statute for New Mexico to be adopted when it shall become a state.

I have always been a republican.

With the exception of one term as a trial judge have not been an officeholder.

If nominated and elected I shall take the office untrammelled and will to the best of my power apply the correct principle of law to the facts of each case without prejudice, fear or favor.

J. E. COBBEY.

Announcement.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of sheriff, subject to the choice of Republican voters of Richardson county.

Be sure and take a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with you when starting on your trip this summer. It cannot be obtained on board the trains or steamers. Changes of water and climate often cause sudden attacks of diarrhoea, and it is best to be prepared. Sold by all druggists.

Dysentery is a dangerous disease but can be cured. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has been successfully used in nine epidemics of dysentery. It has never been known to fail. It is equally valuable for children and adults, and when reduced with water and sweetened, it is pleasing to take. Sold by all druggists.

Not the Case Here.

The census of the school population of Auburn has been taken and it shows a falling off as compared with last year, there being less than 900 children of school age. It is notable that there are fluctuations in the child population of the city for when the city was much smaller than it is now there were more than a thousand children of school age.—Auburn Republican.

A REAL BOY

There's a joy that is a joy
In a boy that is a boy—
Just a romping, reckless tyke
That the whole round world must Like.

Freckled, awkward, lank and brim,
With trailing dog, or pup,
That betimes will trip him up.

In the morning out and gone
At the bugles of the dawn,
Finding wondrous games to play
In each nook along the way,
Wading brooks and climbing trees,
Pestering the honey bees
Till they sting him in despair—
But what does a real boy care?

In at noon to bolt his lunch,
Then a run to join the "bunch;"
Shouts and yells and battle-call
Over strife with bat and ball,
Or a make-believe affray
With the plates in his play;
Blister, stone-bruise on his heel,
Scratches that his baths reveal.

Crooning in a sing-song twang,
Horrorifying by his slang,
Giving everyone the shakes
By his chumminess with snakes,
Naming with a careless shrug
Every beetle, bird and bug,
Ruminant upon the grass
Watching all the clouds that pass.

Coming home at fall of night,
Grimed and marred from play and
light,
Braggadocio, weary—Yes,
With a wondrous weariness,
Dreaming on with smiles and sighs
After sleep has closed his eyes—
There's a joy that is a joy
In a boy that is a boy!
