Autumn Styles for 1909

ANTICIPATING the splendid condition of our patrons this coming season, we have bought a more complete and extensive assortment than ever before. Many of our stocks are already in, ready for your inspection. We have taken it for granted that you wish even better qualities than during any previous Fall, so shall show higher grades, more novel styles. In all departments we have planned as far as possible to insure to the ladies, exclusive patterns and designs. In all ready-to-wear garments, we have to the largest degree practicable, bought but single pieces of the same or similar design.

New Dress Goods--Line Complete

The colorings in Wool Dress Goods have never been surpassed in beauty. The variety of shades is so much wider in range than is possible when the fashion runs mostly to some one or two colors. The variations of Wisteria, Grey, Catwaba, Green, Copenhagen, is almost infinite, and has made it possible for manufacturers to produce, combined with variation of weave, the acme of fabric beauty. We are pleased to invite you to look over our new cloths.

Silks Are to Be Very Popular

Early buyers will find on our counter the newest in Plaids, Persians, Jacquards, Cords, Cashmere de Soies, Messalines, Taffetas and Satins.

Ladies's Suits, New, High Grade, Finely Tailored

This line will be one of our strong features. Over one hundred styles will be shown, representing every desirable cloth, shade and style to be in vogue. Suit Coats will be from 40 to 48 inches long, fitted and semi-fitted, mostly plain effects but highly tailored. This is not to be a one-color season. Any shade will be good, but the odd colors of the spring season somewhat darker, will be the favorites. A representation of styles is now on our racks. Within the next ten days we shall have a full line on hand. Prices will range from $10 to $50.

Strictly Tailored Shirt Waists

Are to prevail. Your attention is called to some very natty designs just received. A full line of Silks, Nets and Tailored styles will follow in a few days.

Early Buyers Get the First Choice

Do your buying early. Those who buy early get the best choice everywhere. Come right in and get what you need for the season. You know very much about what you will buy for the Fall and will find it much to your advantage to get first selection. Our stocks will be complete within the coming ten days.
